ACTION ALERT

November 15, 2011

MichaelMoore.com supports dropping the charges

Support the Brooklyn Bridge arrestees in court today, request charges be dropped

Dear Constituent,

Defenders of Free Speech rights are rallying all across the country in the face of unrelenting police assaults, mass arrests and evictions aimed to stifle the new protest movement.

By acting together and acting now each of us can make a difference.

People rallied throughout the night to support the rights of the Occupy Wall Street encampment as the NYPD moved to destroy the protest.

Today and throughout the week, the first large groups of Brooklyn Bridge arrestees are having to return to court.

Michael Moore's website MichaelMoore.com has joined the demand that free speech be protected by asking Manhattan District Attorney, Cyrus Vance, Jr. to drop the charges against the more than 700 people who were illegally arrested on the Brooklyn Bridge on October 1.

MichaelMoore.com is featuring a front page call to drop the charges and an article written by Mara Verheyden-Hilliard, Executive Director of the Partnership for Civil Justice Fund (PCJF) that exposes the illegality of the notorious police tactic known as "Trap and Arrest".

Over the last three days there has been a massive outpouring from thousands who have called on the Manhattan D.A. to dismiss all charges.

Free Speech is a cherished right but it must be defended in the courts and the streets.

In solidarity,
