US Postal Service
demonstration in DC -
Nov. 21, 2011

Gather at Occupy DC (McPherson Square - 15th and K St. NW)
11:45 a.m.: March to National Press Club for a demonstration

(529 14th St. NW - Metro Center)

Join in the call against Donahoe's anti-union agenda and call on Congress to reverse its onerous law that is bleeding postal workers and the public dry in a crusade to stamp out unions and the public postal service.

On November 21, Postmaster General Patrick Donahoe will be speaking at the National Press Club. He won't be talking about how the Postal Service made a net profit of more than $600 million sorting and delivering the mail the past four years. He won't be talking about the fact that the Postal Service isn't even funded by taxpayers and that its revenue is earned from the sale of its products and services. And he won't be talking about the fact that financial problems facing the Postal Service stem from a 2006 congressional mandate that the Postal Service pre-fund future retiree health benefits for the next 75 years and do so within a decade - a burden no other public agency or private firm faces. The Postal Service is actually paying, out of its operating budget, for the future retiree benefits of people who haven't even been born yet.

No, instead Donahoe will be talking about why the Postal Service needs to cut over 100,000 jobs and close down hundreds of post offices nationwide in order to save money. He'll be justifying the union-busting attacks on labor contracts and service cuts that will affect postal workers and literally everyone in the country! While we face a jobs crisis, Donahoe and members of Congress are advancing the agenda of the one percent. They are hell-bent on cutting good jobs at a time of record unemployment in a bid to privatize the Postal Service and put tens of thousands of workers - many of whom are African American - out of work. This cannot happen in the age of Occupy. Donahoe cannot be allowed to attack workers without being confronted and challenged by the 99 percent.
