Mr. Secretary - What an honor to hear directly from you with such strong words of support and praise for our officers. We all have a right to be proud of the effective and tactful manner in which they carried out Sunday's interaction with folks at McPherson Square. It will be a pleasure to pass on your words of admiration and thanks to the team.

Thank you, sir, for taking the time to personally reach out.

OP-ED: Police maintain professionalism in Occupy D.C. confrontation

Washington Post

Petula Dvorak

12/05/11

http://www.washingtonpost.com/local/police-maintain-professionalism-in-occupy-dc-confrontation/2011/12/05/gIQAXWsXWO\_print.html

All day and into the night, the police were being taunted. Insults and sometimes water bottles were hurled their way. Cameras were pointed at them from every direction.

Yet, as they have done throughout the downtown drama known as Occupy D.C., the U.S. Park Police and D.C. officers displayed remarkable discipline and restraint Sunday during their confrontation with protesters in McPherson Square. Even as they arrested 31 Occupiers, the officers didn't become a laughing stock Internet meme. They didn't succumb to the brutality we witnessed in Oakland, or the appallingly brazen pepper-spraying that was filmed at the University of California at Davis.

And that's saying something, given the reality show-style stunt the police were asked to pull off Sunday night, after park protesters living in tents erected the bones of a small barn.

For any structure in the square to be legal, it has to be temporary. But there was nothing temporary about the sturdy two-by-fours that made up the new building's bones.

Its construction was pure provocation of a police force that has already been stunningly accommodating and patient with the Occupy protesters.

Police asked them to take the barn down. They said no. Instead, some of them climbed up to the top, where they prostrated themselves, crucifixion style, on the rafters or straddled them like jungle gym bars and occasionally fist-pumped to the crowd below.

So authorities called in a building inspector to check it for safety.

Within minutes of arriving, the inspector slapped orange "Danger" stickers on the building and police closed in to take it down. The protesters got a few more warnings to leave.

Like a game of wills between parent and toddler, the police counted — one, two, three. And they began arresting the ones who remained inside the barn.

Then there was the challenge of safely arresting the ones who remained clinging to the rafters while dozens of cameras recorded their every move. The police pulled up a tactical vehicle and stood on the roof, hoping to get them off that way. No dice. The Occupiers scrambled to the other side.

They had a giant inflatable mattress that two guys eventually jumped into (that would've been my choice, it looked fun). Finally, there was a huge cherry picker, which maneuvered around the structure cornering each protester. The two cops inside it harnessed, roped and very precariously hauled each remaining Occupier into the bucket.

It was sort of like rodeo meets Cirque du Soleil.

The cost of this little passion play had to be staggering, though no one has put a dollar figure on it yet. I counted dozens of officers, a tiny herd of horses, at least two tactical vehicles, a forklift, a cherry picker, plus that moonbounce thing.

Mark Francis Nickens, 51, stood outside the police barricade, watching the confrontation get more and more tense. Nickens has been hanging with the protesters for weeks. In fact, he's got one of the most visible structures; the tepee that's closest to the White House is his doing. But on Sunday, he was fuming, certain the the hubris of lumber and nails would spell the end of their stay.

"Damn thing. This was not what was supposed to happen," said the musician and dog walker from Takoma Park. "You don't just go and antagonize the cops for nothing."

But that's exactly what they were doing. Young protesters hopped up on empowerment and anything else that could be found in those tents randomly spit insults at officers who were standing nearby, simply doing their jobs. Park Police officers, who make starting salaries of $52,000 a year, are firmly part of that 99 percent the movement keeps talking about.

U.S. Park Police spokesman Sgt. David Schlosser said the officers are trained to stay professional, to see the insults as "meaningless." They got called pigs and po-po, but the officers were as poker-faced as beefeaters.

The protesters are blatantly violating the law on a daily basis in the park, cooking, showering, sleeping, occupying. Yet they also have a righteous message about the nation's widening wealth gap that a good chunk of the 99 percent agree with. The protests are making people think and talk about the nation's housing and unemployment crises. Many people are just as angry as the protesters. They are ready for change and hungry for solutions.

The protesters have a powerful platform and a silent blessing from a police force that has looked the other way on loads of petty stuff. Taunting those officers undermines the very message the Occupiers are trying to deliver. It's cowardly and ridiculous, especially when there are so many real villains to holler at.

Subject McPherson order

FYI you already may be aware

Occupy DC obtains federal judge's order against surprise eviction of McPherson Square occupation

Occupy DC's legal team today obtained an order from a federal judge prohibiting the Park Police from conducting a surprise eviction of McPherson Square.

The order came in the wake of Sunday's police actions at the occupation of McPherson Square that led to thirty-one arrests, the barricading of a third of the park and the demolition of a structure erected for public meetings and other activities. Immediately after the demolition, Park Police stated they might remove tents within the barricaded area and refused to allow protesters to reenter. After Occupy DC's legal team moved towards filing for an injunction, police removed the barricades, left tents intact and reopened the entirety of McPherson Square.

During today's half-hour hearing, the government stated that it had made no decision as to whether or not it intended to use anti-camping laws against the occupation. The National Park Service has previously stated that participants in the occupation "...are allowed to have a 24-hour vigil and they are allowed to have structures to go along with it."

US District Court judge James Boasberg issued the following order:

- 1) The Government will provide 24-hour notice to the Court and Plaintiff's counsel if it intends to enforce its regulations prohibiting camping or sleeping in McPherson Square; 2) Absent such notice or exigent circumstances, the Government will not restrict Plaintiff's access to the Square or his camping or sleeping in the Square.

The judge set a schedule for submission of motions with a hearing on Jan. 31, 2012 at 10AM.

According to the legal team, this means that there should be no surprise eviction between now and Jan. 31-there will be a court hearing before any attempt at an eviction.

Occupy DC Allowed to Keep On Occupying D.C. Park

By Ryan Tracy and Jared A. Favole

The Occupy DC encampment two blocks from the White House will remain occupied, at least for now.

Federal authorities said Tuesday they have no plans to remove protesters aligned with the Occupy Wall Street movement. Officials from the National Park Service, the agency in charge of McPherson Square Park where the protesters are camping, met with activists to discuss discussing expectations for health and safety and decided against eviction.

"I believe there's been pretty good compliance," Sgt. David Schlosser of the U.S. Park Police said afterwards.

That stands in stark contrast to New York City, where hundreds of riot-clad city police officers early Tuesday moved to clear Zuccotti Park of protesters and their tents. Similar crackdowns were under way in Oakland, Calif., and Portland, Ore.

Since the federal government administers parks in the nation's capital, the Obama administration has authority over the protests here. White House spokesman Jay Carney didn't address the Washington protests directly Tuesday, but he said that President Barack Obama was aware of raids elsewhere and that the president believes each city should make its own decision about how to handle the protests.

"We would hope and want as these decisions are made that a balance is sought between a long tradition of freedom of assembly and freedom of speech in this country...and also the very important need to maintain law and order and health and safety standards," Mr. Carney said.

Joe Gray, a 23-year-old protester who has been living at the McPherson Square encampment since October, said efforts to shut down the protests wouldn't work. "The more they poke the bear, the angrier it gets," he said.

Mr. Gray quit a job restoring fire-damaged homes earlier this year and is looking for work. For now, he plans to camp out at the square through the winter. "I'm actually kind of excited for the cold weather," he joked. "It's going to send the fair-weather occupiers home."

A small group of demonstrators, under ten, stayed on the north side of McPherson Square until just before midnight with hand held signs. Sgt. Griffith reported that when the demonstrators showed up earlier in the day, they originally brought sleeping bags with them, but were dissuaded by daywork personnel. Facebook and the left wing news sites are trying to build up the idea of Occupy K St. with a camp in McPherson Square like the Occupy Wall Street protests in New York.

Good Afternoon. Lieutenant Marshall,

I have received several e-mails from across the country I. e. Denver and Portland about police taking action against the protest encampments located in the City parks.

I was wondering if the Park Police had any plans in place regarding McPherson Square?

Any information you can provide would be very helpful.

Have a nice day.

The number of protesters has dwindled significantly.

USPP plans to reopen the southern portion of the park in the near future.

NPS will coordinate the removal of the light towers tomorrow morning.

A transition of command has occurred. Previous operational period personnel have been relieved.

Unified Command demob'd.

USPP Command as follows:

IC - Major Pat Smith
OPS - Capt Phil Beck

Mobile Command remains.

Just wanted to thank all involved. By all accounts, the professionalism and dedication of the NPS, USPP, and all external partners, was evident.

Within the past 24 hours the following incidents were noted

- Officers responded to McPherson Sqare overnight for a report of an assault. Officers were directed to a female who had superficial injuries to arm, hand and face. The victim did not want to talk to police. Officers convinced her to come to the D-1 station to be interviewed. Investigation revealed that she was in a verbal argument with her boyfriend which led to a physical altercation resulting in her injuries. The victim was intoxicated at the time of the report and did not want to press charges. USPP Detectives went to the area in an attempt to locate the suspect, but were unsuccessful in doing so. Follow-up to be conducted.

Within the past 24 hours the following incidents were noted

- Officers responded to McPherson Square overnight for a report of an assault. Officers were directed to a female who had superficial injuries to arm, hand and face. The victim did not want to talk to police. Officers convinced her to come to the D-1 station to be interviewed. Investigation revealed that she was in a verbal argument with her boyfriend which led to a physical altercation resulting in her injuries. The victim was intoxicated at the time of the report and did not want to press charges. USPP Detectives went to the area in an attempt to locate the suspect, but were unsuccessful in doing so. Follow-up to be conducted.

Schedule of events

- There are no scheduled events other than on site meetings and lectures at both locations. Freedom Plaza will be collecting material for a recycleable Christmas Tree which is scheduled to be lit on Tuesday. Information will be passed to Park Programs for follow up.

Subject: #12 McPherson/Freedom Daily

Within the past 24 hours the following incidents were noted

- Officers responded to McPherson Sqare overnight for a report of an assault. Officers were directed to a female who had superficial injuries to arm, hand and face. The victim did not want to talk to police. Officers convinced her to come to the D-1 station to be interviewed. Investigation revealed that she was in a verbal argument with her boyfriend which led to a physical altercation resulting in her injuries. The victim was intoxicated at the time of the report and did not want to press charges. USPP Detectives went to the area in an attempt to locate the suspect, but were unsuccessful in doing so. Follow-up to be conducted.

Schedule of events

- There are no scheduled events other than on site meetings and lectures at both locations. Freedom Plaza will be collecting material for a recycleable Christmas Tree which is scheduled to be lit on Tuesday. Information will be passed to Park Programs for follow up.

Articles of interest

- Washington Post Article which compares Occupy DC to the 1968 Resurrection City. Resurrection City occurred around the Reflecting Pool and was the encampment for approximately 3000 demonstrators. Subject Re: SitRep #9

Structure has been totally removed.

The number of protesters has dwindled significantly.

USPP plans to reopen the southern portion of the park in the near future.

NPS will coordinate the removal of the light towers tomorrow morning.

A transition of command has occurred. Previous operational period personnel have been relieved.

Unified Command demob'd.

USPP Command as follows:

IC - Major Pat Smith

OPS - Capt Phil Beck

Mobile Command remains.

Just wanted to thank all involved. By all accounts, the professionalism and dedication of the NPS, USPP, and all external partners, was evident.

Structure has been totally removed.

The number of protesters has dwindled significantly.

USPP plans to reopen the southern portion of the park in the near future.

NPS will coordinate the removal of the light towers tomorrow morning.

A transition of command has occurred. Previous operational period personnel have been relieved.

Unified Command demob'd.

USPP Command as follows:
IC - Major Pat Smith
OPS - Capt Phil Beck

Mobile Command remains.

Just wanted to thank all involved. By all accounts, the professionalism and dedication of the NPS, USPP, and all external partners, was evident.

Subject McPherson order

FYI you already may be aware

Occupy DC obtains federal judge's order against surprise eviction of McPherson Square occupation

Occupy DC's legal team today obtained an order from a federal judge prohibiting the Park Police from conducting a surprise eviction of McPherson Square.

The order came in the wake of Sunday's police actions at the occupation of McPherson Square that led to thirty-one arrests, the barricading of a third of the park and the demolition of a structure erected for public meetings and other activities. Immediately after the demolition, Park Police stated they might remove tents within the barricaded area and refused to allow protesters to reenter. After Occupy DC's legal team moved towards filing for an injunction, police removed the barricades, left tents intact and reopened the entirety of McPherson Square.

During today's half-hour hearing, the government stated that it had made no decision as to whether or not it intended to use anti-camping laws against the occupation. The National Park Service has previously stated that participants in the occupation "...are allowed to have a 24-hour vigil and they are allowed to have structures to go along with it."

US District Court judge James Boasberg issued the following order:

- 1) The Government will provide 24-hour notice to the Court and Plaintiff's counsel if it intends to enforce its regulations prohibiting camping or sleeping in McPherson Square; 2) Absent such notice or exigent circumstances, the Government will not restrict Plaintiff's access to the Square or his camping or sleeping in the Square.

The judge set a schedule for submission of motions with a hearing on Jan. 31, 2012 at 10AM.

According to the legal team, this means that there should be no surprise eviction between now and Jan. 31--there will be a court hearing before any attempt at an eviction.

Mr. Secretary - What an honor to hear directly from you with such strong words of support and praise for our officers. We all have a right to be proud of the effective and tactful manner in which they carried out Sunday's interaction with folks at McPherson Square. It will be a pleasure to pass on your words of admiration and thanks to the team.

Thank you, sir, for taking the time to personally reach out.

OP-ED: Police maintain professionalism in Occupy D.C. confrontation

Washington Post

Petula Dvorak

12/05/11

http://www.washingtonpost.com/local/police-maintain-professionalism-in-occupy-dc-confrontation/2011/12/05/gIQAXWsXWO\_print.html

All day and into the night, the police were being taunted. Insults and sometimes water bottles were hurled their way. Cameras were pointed at them from every direction.

Yet, as they have done throughout the downtown drama known as Occupy D.C., the U.S. Park Police and D.C. officers displayed remarkable discipline and restraint Sunday during their confrontation with protesters in McPherson Square. Even as they arrested 31 Occupiers , the officers didn't become a laughing stock Internet meme . They didn't succumb to the brutality we witnessed in Oakland, or the appallingly brazen pepper-spraying that was filmed at the University of California at Davis .

And that's saying something, given the reality show-style stunt the police were asked to pull off Sunday night, after park protesters living in tents erected the bones of a small barn.

For any structure in the square to be legal, it has to be temporary. But there was nothing temporary about the sturdy two-by-fours that made up the new building's bones.

Its construction was pure provocation of a police force that has already been stunningly accommodating and patient with the Occupy protesters.

Police asked them to take the barn down. They said no. Instead, some of them climbed up to the top, where they prostrated themselves, crucifixion style, on the rafters or straddled them like jungle gym bars and occasionally fist-pumped to the crowd below.

So authorities called in a building inspector to check it for safety.

Within minutes of arriving, the inspector slapped orange "Danger" stickers on the building and police closed in to take it down. The protesters got a few more warnings to leave.

Like a game of wills between parent and toddler, the police counted — one, two, three. And they began arresting the ones who remained inside the barn.

Then there was the challenge of safely arresting the ones who remained clinging to the rafters while dozens of cameras recorded their every move. The police pulled up a tactical vehicle and stood on the roof, hoping to get them off that way. No dice. The Occupiers scrambled to the other side.

They had a giant inflatable mattress that two guys eventually jumped into (that would've been my choice, it looked fun). Finally, there was a huge cherry picker, which maneuvered around the structure cornering each protester. The two cops inside it harnessed, roped and very precariously hauled each remaining Occupier into the bucket.

It was sort of like rodeo meets Cirque du Soleil.

The cost of this little passion play had to be staggering, though no one has put a dollar figure on it yet. I counted dozens of officers, a tiny herd of horses, at least two tactical vehicles, a forklift, a cherry picker, plus that moonbounce thing.

Mark Francis Nickens, 51, stood outside the police barricade, watching the confrontation get more and more tense. Nickens has been hanging with the protesters for weeks. In fact, he's got one of the most visible structures; the tepee that's closest to the White House is his doing. But on Sunday, he was fuming, certain the the hubris of lumber and nails would spell the end of their stay.

"Damn thing. This was not what was supposed to happen," said the musician and dog walker from Takoma Park. "You don't just go and antagonize the cops for nothing."

But that's exactly what they were doing. Young protesters hopped up on empowerment and anything else that could be found in those tents randomly spit insults at officers who were standing nearby, simply doing their jobs. Park Police officers, who make starting salaries of $52,000 a year, are firmly part of that 99 percent the movement keeps talking about.

U.S. Park Police spokesman Sgt. David Schlosser said the officers are trained to stay professional, to see the insults as "meaningless." They got called pigs and po-po, but the officers were as poker-faced as beefeaters.

The protesters are blatantly violating the law on a daily basis in the park, cooking, showering, sleeping, occupying. Yet they also have a righteous message about the nation's widening wealth gap that a good chunk of the 99 percent agree with. The protests are making people think and talk about the nation's housing and unemployment crises. Many people are just as angry as the protesters. They are ready for change and hungry for solutions.

The protesters have a powerful platform and a silent blessing from a police force that has looked the other way on loads of petty stuff. Taunting those officers undermines the very message the Occupiers are trying to deliver. It's cowardly and ridiculous, especially when there are so many real villains to holler at.

Superintendent Vogel!

Please see attached the photos taken today of conditions at McPherson. Again troubling is the flammable material being stored on site (notice close proximity of one of the generators to the sidewalk) and the cooking. Also disturbing is the recent stacking of lumber and wood for either use for a bonfire or weapons against law enforcement. The trash continues to pile up within the park and then are removed by the occupants and dumped on the public sidewalks. Recent new rat infestation borrowing has been observed in nearby tree box spaces. As the email below indicates the unhealthy and unsanitary conditions continue as food is dumped as compost, dogs run free throughout the park and children (observed in one of the photos) also play where they go to the bathroom.

We look forward to a more proactive response – to include increased trash pick ups and enforcement of these severe public safety issues.

Dave,

As we had discussed earlier, Kenny and I visited the Occupy DC site today. We noted that the site had expanded since Monday, roughly totaling 125-150 people with nearly 40 tents. The park grounds themselves look to be in poor to dire condition due to all of the activity. Also, the demonstration has two working generators which they seem to be rotating out. They also have a storage tent which looks like a quasi-pantry for demonstrators to receive rations. Additionally, the smell was quite putrid when we walked through the encampment which most likely stems from the lack of sanitary conditions and the presence of dogs. Lastly, we noted around 15 or so trash bags stacked on the corner of K and 15th St. I have also attached photos for your viewing.

Let me know if you have any questions or comments. Thanks!

Laura – I wanted to bring to your attention the growing concerns of members of the DC business community about the protesters camping out in downtown DC. Certainly we all support the protesters' rights to exercise their First Amendment Rights but I'm hearing increasingly loud feedback from our businesses and residents that the National Park Service is not providing the necessary resources to ensure the safety and sanitation of the protesters as well as DC residents and visitors.

I am attaching and pasting below an example of the feedback I am hearing – and that you may be hearing directly too. I have heard stories about propane tanks and uncollected garbage. And there is a sense that Park Police is not monitoring the situation as closely as they should. Also, below you will find a link to photos that vividly illustrate some of the concerns.

We would be so appreciative if you can alert NPS to these concerns and ask them to step up the resources they are devoting to this situation – and if they need additional resources we ask that you support those requests.

Please let me know if you have any questions. And thanks again.

Good evening. I am the onsite Property Manager at 1500 K Street and have a front row seat to McPherson Park. My team and many of our tenants have a safety concern and we are hopeful that you can assist.

Beyond the trash issue, odor issue and sanitary conditions being generated by the Occupy DC participants at the McPherson park illegal camp site, we request that your agency please check on the safety and wellbeing of the 2 small children living at the park with their "parents", alongside many rats. It would be a horrific story to have to read about a child falling ill to a dangerous rat bite which is highly probably in this type of situation and at this specific location. While today (10/13/11) was the first day this week that no rats were seen in daylight hours, nightfall brings is a very different story and dangerous situation.

Any assistance you can provide would be helpful and we look forward to hearing from you soon.

Thank you,

Chris,

If the Park Service develops a clear set of guidelines as well as dramatically increases their ability to enforce them we might be able to "live" with them especially if the groups could be consolidated into a single place at Freedom Plaza. They are destroying McPherson.

But day by day the encampments seem to slowly grow, in large part with the addition of homeless individuals. Today someone driving a Mercedes station wagon with a Maryland license was dropping off mats, rugs, and other contributions to McPherson which now seems to have a full fledged kitchen in the making.

In the short run we are hoping that NPS can effectuate a containment strategy.

Thanks.

Rich

Chris-

Today we meet with Robert Vogel, Superintendent of National Mall and Memorial Parks and a few of his staff to discuss the issues at Freedom Plaza and McPherson Square. We discussed four main topics:

1. Laws and policies – apparent current laws and policies have been violated in these parks regarding camping, structures, cooking (flammable materials to include propane) and generators. Further that prohibiting overnight camping by NPS did not violate freedom of speech or assembly -Supreme Court case Clark v Community for Creative Nonviolence, 468 U.S. 288 (1984).
2. Requirements of park users-requirements of posting of bonds, maintaining public order and cleanliness of park, prohibition of harming of park land (36 CFR Ch. I § 7.96).
3. Enforcement and protection- obligation of NPS to not only protect the park resources but also people who use the park; concern with public health and safety issues
  - a. USPP services and uniformed presence to ensure all who use the park are safe and to ensure open communication and intelligence with MPD
  - b. Child protective services to deal with small children living in these encampments in these unsanitary conditions;
  - c. Maintenance services to deal with the trash and debris;
  - d. Capital Repairs to be set aside when parks are vacated to restore to pre-encampment conditions;
4. Coordination and communication-better coordination to stakeholders (DBID etc)

It was apparent that the Superintendent shared our concerns with the current conditions of the two parks and their current usage and deterioration. He committed to increase maintenance and cleanliness in those parks and coordinate with USPP safety concerns (to include uniform presence). Superintendent Vogel indicated he had a meeting this afternoon with the Director, NPS solicitors and USPP to discuss these encampments and express our concerns and that he would follow up with us. He agreed that NPS could not establish or permit a precedent with these types of encampments (although we all agreed and realized that the parks maybe a protected platform for those to use for First Amendment activities) and that NPS had to come up with enforcement strategies to deal with the illegal activities-but of course did not mention specific enforcement activities. We, of course, encouraged them to coordinate with MPD if (and when) this time comes.

We also discussed several examples of good usage requests that were denied by NPS (summer concerts in the park, limited food vending, beautification applications and green space use) that would enhance the urban park experience and usage here in DC that would emulate several other best practices and usages not only here in the US but internationally. We also discussed what appeared to be the ease of such activity which, over extended time, has caused harm and damage to our natural resources without any enforcement activity or proactive park management. We pointed out that recent enforcement in several cities and states regarding these illegal encampments have not brought with them the waves of protesters objecting to this action as was feared.

Finally, we requested that if NPS was not going to enforce the laws prohibiting camping, etc that they relocate the encampments to the National Mall (of course they did not agree with that recommendation) or at least remove the non-permitted activity at McPherson and relocate them to Freedom Plaza, so that capital repairs can be made to green space before winter at McPherson.

The following are the points of contact from today's meeting-

Superintendent Robert Vogel (bob\_vogel@nps.gov) 202-245-4661

Deputy Superintendent of Operations Karen Cucurullo (karen\_cucurullo@nps.gov) 202-245-4670

Please let me know what the DBID can do to further assist you and the city with this. Also, if you could let us know how your meeting with Dept of Interior goes and any enforcement plans that they may have to deal with this.

Thanks- Dave

I have been a resident of DC for three years. In that time I have paid my fair share of taxes, donated to charities and supported several volunteer efforts. I live across from McPherson Square Park and almost every Saturday took my book into the park and read. Almost every night I would feed the ducks with bread I purchased at CVS. I fed the squirrels with the nuts Peapod delivered to my door. I am a single mom – my husband passed away six years ago - and I work very hard to pay for two children in college and keep a roof over my head. Do you have any idea how hard that is to do? I am not some spoiled trust fund baby.

Now the ducks are gone, the squirrels are gone and my park bench no longer available thanks to by Occupy DC. The grass is ruined, the trash is horrendous and the rat population has at least tripled. At night I get to listen to their parties, I see under age minors camping there without adult supervision. I get to hear sex, see public urination and be subjected to early morning drums when I have my one day off – Saturday. Even worse is the knowledge that my tax dollars support this irresponsible behavior by the city and that you provide police protection to them as they march and as they disturb my peace, my travel to and from work.

Sounds to me like you don't recognize who votes for you – and who butters your bread with their labor. It isn't Occupy DC – it isn't the new generation of class warfare you are propping up - it is me. I am disgusted. I am angry and want this to end. Yesterday I read that the Occupy Dc residents at McPherson Square expect to stay into next year. I sincerely hope this is not the case. They need to go home and have someone else support them if they are not willing to work. I have no desire to pay for this via my tax dollars you take from me in so many ways.

There are thousands of us unhappy and complaining about them – why are you not hearing us?

Subject RE: Occupy DC versus other park users - I count too ☐

Dear Ms. DeWitt:

This responds to your e-mail to Deputy Superintendent Karen Cucurullo dated November 28, 2011, that asks about the National Park Service (NPS) regulation that authorizes temporary structures as well as a copy of the Court ruling referred to in her e-mail to you dated November 25, 2011.

We are pleased to provide you with the information you requested. As for the NPS regulation on temporary structures, the introductory sentence of 36 CFR 7.96(g)(5)(iv) specifically provides that temporary structures are allowed as part of a permitted demonstration "for the purpose of symbolizing a message or meeting logistical needs such as first aid facilities, lost children areas or the provision of shelter for electrical and other sensitive equipment or displays."

As for the Court ruling, attached is a copy of Clark v. Community for Creative Non-Violence, 468 U.S. 288 (1984), where the Supreme Court upheld the NPS camping regulation, and noted that allowing the two symbolic tent cities "left the demonstration intact, with its symbolic city, signs, and the presence of those who were willing to take their turns in a day-and-night vigil." Please also note that the duration of a demonstration is not limited by the National Park Service's National Capital Region. This stems from the Court of Appeals decision in Quaker Action v Morton, 516 F2d 717, 734 (D.C. Cir. 1975), that struck down as invalid the NPS regulatory restriction on the duration of demonstrations. Since then, 24/7 demonstration/vigils are a rare but regular feature in some of the Federal parks in Washington DC, which generally are never closed.

Finally, the National Park Service and United States Park Police fully agree that people have the right to protest. We also share your concern that people using parkland should also comply with applicable laws and regulations. In that regard, we have taken proactive steps as well as distributed the Notice dated November 23, 2011 and found on our website at www.nps.gov/nama/parkmgmt/upload/FreedomPlazaMcPhersonNotification\_Nov23\_2011.pdf, that reminds people of the NPS camping regulation and that temporary structures may not be used for camping. In the event that voluntary compliance does not occur, consistent with First Amendment jurisprudence, the National Park Service and United States Park Police plan to take a reasoned and measured approach to achieve compliance, while hoping to avoid the civil disorder that has occurred in other jurisdictions.

Subject RE: Occupy DC versus other park users - I count too!

Good afternoon Karen,

Thank you for your response last Friday. Please send me the court ruling which you refer to below by the statement - "the courts have ruled that temporary structures that support First Amendment activities are allowed." I would like that case number as soon as possible. I can find no record of that, nor can the attorney in my building.

Thank you for your help in this matter.

Thank you for your response. I found it inaccurate in claiming to follow the letter of the law - -

I certainly appreciate the right to protest under constitutional law - however, this right does not supersede current laws requiring permits or acts already prohibited by federal regulation etc. Federal law prohibits camping overnight in the McPherson Square Park - period. This OCCUPY camp by federal regulations definition is not a protest - but a newly formed shanty town.

Please send me the court ruling which you refer to below by the statement - "the courts have ruled that temporary structures that support First Amendment activities are allowed." I would like that as soon as possible as we are taking further action.

According to The Code of Federal regulations, Title 36, Parks, Forests, and Public property - temporary structures may not be used outside designated camping areas (McPherson Square does not have a federally designated camping area) for living accommodation activities such as sleeping, or making preparations to sleep including the laying down of beddings for the purpose of sleep, or storing personal belongings or making fire, or ... the above listed activities constitute camping when it reasonably appears in light of all the circumstance, that the participants in conducting these activities are in fact using this as a living accommodation regardless of the intent of the participants or the nature of any other activities in which they may also be engaging.

They can certainly protest, they can get a permit and march or picket - but they cannot camp in a federal park that is not specially designated for camping.

Ms Dewitt:

On behalf of the National Mall and Memorial Parks Superintendent Robert Vogel, United States Park Police Chief Teresa Chambers, Regional Director, National Capital Region, Steve Whitesell, and Deputy Regional Director, National Capital Region, Lisa Mendelson-Ielmini, I offer this response to your letter.

Thank you for your inquiry, it is our hope that the following information will provide helpful information on the role and responsibilities of the National Park Service (NPS) and its United States Park Police (USPP) and the actions we are taking to address your concerns.

The National Park Service has a long and proud tradition of providing opportunities for the exercise of First Amendment rights. The national parks of Washington, DC, are used almost daily as places for reflection, commemoration, recreational activities, demonstrations, and public events and by citizens such as you who use the parks for personal enjoyment. The National Park Service protects and interprets our important cultural and natural resources, and the United States Park Police ensure the safety and security of park resources as well as persons who use the common space.

While the sudden appearance of the "encampment" is disturbing to many, the courts have ruled that temporary structures that support First Amendment activities are allowed. As a result, enforcement action in this area is limited and challenging. The USPP will continue to focus their enforcement efforts on illegal behaviors and activities that are observed and reported.

Since the beginning of the activities in McPherson Square and Freedom Plaza, the National Park Service has provided additional trash receptacles and has emptied them at least three times each day. Rodent traps have been placed in the parks, and those who are maintaining a vigil within the park have been requested to clear their trash and debris at the conclusion of each day's events. Portable toilet facilities have been placed within the park at the NPS's request and at the organizer's expense. Please contact the National Mall and Memorial Parks if there are additional concerns that have not been addressed at 202-245-4661.

The USPP has been working with the Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) on monitoring the groups' activities within the city, and the USPP regularly patrols our parks to enforce laws and regulations and those that specifically affect the quality of life. We encourage the public to contact the USPP to report criminal activity or quality of life violations at 202-610-7500 so that individuals responsible for these violations can be identified and appropriate action taken.

We appreciate your taking the time to share your concerns. If there is any way we may be of further assistance in providing information and insight, please let us know. The NPS and the USPP remain committed to the citizens who live near, work near, or use the parks for their enjoyment. We routinely meet with the business community and would be willing to attend citizen group meetings if you think this would be valuable in maintaining our relationships.

Subject: Occupy DC versus other park users - I count too!

Just spent 50 minutes being transferred from one national park department to the other - no one taking responsibility for this mess you all have created.

I have been a resident of DC for three years. In that time I have paid my fair share of federal and DC taxes, donated to charities and supported several volunteer efforts. I live across from McPherson Square Park and almost every Saturday took my book into the park and read. Almost every night I would feed the ducks with bread I purchased at CVS. I fed the squirrels with the nuts Peapod delivered to my door. I am a single mom - my husband passed away six years ago - and I work very hard to pay for two children in college and keep a roof over my head. Do you have any idea how hard that is to do? I am not some spoiled trust fund baby.

Now the ducks are gone, the squirrels are gone and my park bench no longer available thanks to by Occupy DC. The grass is ruined, the trash is horrendous and the rat population has at least tripled. At night I get to listen to their parties, I see under age minors camping there without adult supervision. I get to hear sex, see public urination and be subjected to early morning drums when I have my one day off - Saturday. Even worse is the knowledge that my tax dollars support this irresponsible behavior by the city and federal park service and that you provide police protection to them as they march and as they disturb my peace, my travel to and from work.

Sounds to me like you don't recognize who votes for you - and who butters your bread with their labor. It isn't Occupy DC - it isn't the new generation of class warfare you are propping up - it is me. I am disgusted. I am angry and want this to end. Yesterday I read that the Occupy DC residents at McPherson Square expect to stay into next year. I sincerely hope this is not the case. They need to go home and have someone else support them if they are not willing to work. I have no desire to pay for this via my tax dollars you take from me in so many ways. They do not have a permit and it is unlawful for them to be there. If I tried to camp in one of these parks you would make me leave -

There are thousands of us unhappy and complaining about them - why are you not hearing us?

Don't know if you have heard the following, but if it does materialize, what are USPP's plans to deal with the influx?

Occupy Richmond (ORV)

- approximately 15 people departing with final destination of ODC McPherson this week
- will make several stops to increase numbers, one stop is Fredricksburg, Va for rally then another stop in Alexandria, Va
- total estimated numbers will be 100-150 based upon projections
- estimated arrival at ODC McPherson Tuesday Nov 22

Occupy NY

- approximately 150-200 are currently enroute to ODC McPherson
- stop may be made in OMD Baltimore
- estimated arrival at ODC McPherson Tuesday Nov 22

Based on projected numbers, this will increase size of McPherson to a total of 400-500 on Tuesday Nov 22, actions unknown at this time. Initial assessment maybe a convergence of some sort.

I've been playing TWITTER, and I just found out that there is a flash mob scheduled at 1730 at McPherson Square to protest Walmart. I'm not sure if we already have units prepped for it or not. I also see that the Occupy K Street faction did a bank run earlier today...TWITTER is all abuzz about it.

The first group of approximately 50 people is moving north around the reflecting pool.

The bulk of the mobilized group is staging on the SW corner of the Reflecting Pool. They are waiting for others from the Mall to catch up. Currently, one individual is on a megaphone leading members of the group in chanting "We are the 99%".

National Mall Update:

There are approximately 3,000 people gathered between the Smithsonian Castle and the National Museum of Art.

They are organizing their groups to come to the Hill. The groups will be broken down alphabetically (A-C, D-F, etc.) and given a particular Member's office to visit.

Currently they are finalizing the groups. Once accomplished each group will be meeting between 1100-1130 hrs, just prior to moving to the Hill.

SA Anderson and SA Pickett will continue to monitor and update.

Thanks everyone for coming together for the call this morning.

Karen Cucurullo, Kathy Harasek, and I just wrapped up this DRAFT for everyone's review. As we discussed on the call, this is intended to be broad so that it may be repurposed for other inquiries.

(See attached file: 2011 11 23 Community Response DRAFT.docx)

If you do have comments, please use TRACK CHANGES so we'll be able to pick them out. In order to respond today, I'd ask that everyone read and review as soon as possible, no later than 2 pm.

I'm in the office and you can reach me at the numbers below if you'd like to talk about this.

Thanks everyone for your participation and thoughts,

~Lisa

Subject

other park users -

Occupy Dc versus

I count too!

Just spent 50 minutes being transferred from one national park department to the other - no one taking responsibility for this mess you all have created.

I have been a resident of DC for three years. In that time I have paid my fair share of federal and DC taxes, donated to charities and supported several volunteer efforts. I live across from McPherson Square Park and almost every Saturday took my book into the park and read. Almost every night I would feed the ducks with bread I purchased at CVS. I fed the squirrels with the nuts Peapod delivered to my door. I am a single mom - my husband passed away six years ago - and I work very hard to pay for two children in college and keep a roof over my head. Do you have any idea how hard that is to do? I am not some spoiled trust fund baby.

Now the ducks are gone, the squirrels are gone and my park bench no longer available thanks to by Occupy DC. The grass is ruined, the trash is
horrendous and the rat population has at least tripled.
At night I get to listen to their parties, I see under age minors camping there without adult supervision. I get to hear sex, see public urination and be subjected to early morning drums when I have my one day off - Saturday. Even worse is the knowledge that my tax dollars support this irresponsible behavior by the city and federal park service and that you provide police protection to them as they march and as they disturb my peace, my travel to and from work.

Sounds to me like you don't recognize who votes for you - and who butters
your bread with their labor. It isn't Occupy DC - it isn't the new generation of class warfare you are propping up - it is me. I am disgusted. I am angry and want this to end. Yesterday I read that the
Occupy DC residents at McPherson Square expect to stay into next year. I sincerely hope this is not the case. They need to go home and have someone else support them if they are not willing to work. I have no desire to pay for this via my tax dollars you take from me in so many ways. They do not have a permit and it is unlawful for them to be there. If I tried to camp
in one of these parks you would make me leave -

There are thousands of us unhappy and complaining about them - why are you not hearing us?

I live across from McPherson Square Park and almost every Saturday took my book into the park and read. Almost every night I would feed the ducks with bread I purchased at CVS. I fed the squirrels with the nuts Peapod delivered to my door. I am a single mom – my husband passed away six years ago - and I work very hard to pay for two children in college and keep a roof over my head. Do you have any idea how hard that is to do? I am not some spoiled trust fund baby.

Now the ducks are gone, the squirrels are gone and my park bench no longer available thanks to by Occupy DC. The grass is ruined, the trash is horrendous and the rat population has at least tripled. At night I get to listen to their parties, I see under age minors camping there without adult supervision. I get to hear sex, see public urination and be subjected to early morning drums when I have my one day off – Saturday. Even worse is the knowledge that my tax dollars support this irresponsible behavior by the city and federal park service and that you provide police protection to them as they march and as they disturb my peace, my travel to and from work.

Sounds to me like you don't recognize who votes for you – and who butters your bread with their labor. It isn't Occupy DC – it isn't the new generation of class warfare you are propping up - it is me. I am disgusted. I am angry and want this to end. Yesterday I read that the Occupy DC residents at McPherson Square expect to stay into next year. I sincerely hope this is not the case. They need to go home and have someone else support them if they are not willing to work. I have no desire to pay for this via my tax dollars you take from me in so many ways. They do not have a permit and it is unlawful for them to be there. David – FYI -- Director Jarvis has a weekly meeting (this is the second week) on Monday afternoons at 4:30 p.m. to review Occupy DC updates. Perhaps we can discuss it during that meeting. While I believe that Sergeant Schlosser can provide back-up information regarding our role, I don't believe this is a USPP story. We are approaching this from a pretty interesting community policing perspective (especially McPherson), so there actually is some positive information to share in addition to the growing number of arrests that are made (again, primarily at McPherson), almost on a daily basis.

Thanks.

Dave:

Thanks for taking my call. Please see the email below from WPost reporter Annie Gowen. Gowen called me and asked to speak to "whoever is making all the decisions about Occupy DC and we want to talk to as high up the ladder or as low down the ladder as to who or which persons are making the decisions about Occupy DC." Gowen directly mentioned Jon Jarvis' name, directly mentioned Secretary Salazar's name, and directly mentioned U.S. Park Police Chief Teresa Chambers' name. As you can see, Gowen wants to talk this week, as she is writing for next Sunday.

Also please note that Gowen is working closely with WPost reporter Tim Craig, who filed a Freedom of Information (FOIA) Request today, asking for copies of emails and other correspondence between Steve Whitesell, Bob Vogel (NAMA), Ann Bowman Smith (Presidents Park) and me on the issue of Occupy DC. Craig asked for both Expedited Processing of the Request AND for a Request for a Fee Waiver in regard to his FOIA.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks!

Mr. Line:

Thanks for all your help today. As we discussed, I am working on a story for Sunday's paper about the future of the Occupy encampments in D.C. We're hoping to speak to someone within your agency who is overseeing the matter to discuss how long they will be allowed to stay, if there have been any significant problems with either encampment and other issues. As I said, I'm available this week for any interviews you may be able to arrange.

Thanks.

Subject RE: Occupy DC versus other park users - I count too!

Mr. Vogel,

Thank you for your response. This isn't an us against them issue - this is about respecting one another and all of us being able to use the park. I cannot understand why you allow them to take over the whole park. If I want to sit on my normal bench as I did every Saturday and read before this debacle - may I be afforded the same right to space? Will you remove them for me for a few hours on Saturday?

You must be aware that 95% of the temporary structures are for camping (sleeping purposes) - and the Washington Post reported today that no permit for protesting purposes has been issued. So the 30 year old court cases you refer to are not the same. Those cases had permits. From the Post:

"On Monday, a U.S. District judge ruled that the National Park Service must give protesters some notice if it moves to evict them, except for in emergency situations. A protester had sought the ruling clarifying his rights if the National Park Service decides to evict protesters, who have been camping at McPherson Square without a permit since Oct. 1."

By your delay, another layer of trouble to return our park to its former beauty ahas been added to the mix. I hope that you will take the steps necessary to evict them. It is one thing to claim a peaceable vigil - but they cannot claim peace as they have caused physical damage to the park.

What is the expected cost of repair to McPherson Park when they leave?

In the past court cases you mentioned, the vigil area did not negate those parks from being used by others. Occupy DC is a shanty town born upon the backs of hard working tax paying citizens. Those who support the park with tax dollars cannot use the park. Where is the justice for us in this?

Please understand, although many of the inhabitants are non violent- just disrespectful of others, some are. I have been spit on twice - once when I wore my evening dress as I headed to an event and once in my coat which had fur and offended them. I have seen them stealing at area stores.

My understanding is that to show it is a vigil and symbolic camping - and not sleeping quarters - they are required to move the tents on a regular basis. This has not happened once. Make them move all tents and take back a portion of the park so residents can use it as well.

Dear Ms. DeWitt:

This responds to your e-mail to Deputy Superintendent Karen Cucurullo dated November 28, 2011, that asks about the National Park Service (NPS) regulation that authorizes temporary structures as well as a copy of the Court ruling referred to in her e-mail to you dated November 25, 2011.

We are pleased to provide you with the information you requested. As for the NPS regulation on temporary structures, the introductory sentence of 36 CFR 7.96(g)(5)(iv) specifically provides that temporary structures are allowed as part of a permitted demonstration "for the purpose of symbolizing a message or meeting logistical needs such as first aid facilities, lost children areas or the provision of shelter for electrical and other sensitive equipment or displays."

As for the Court ruling, attached is a copy of Clark v. Community for Creative Non-Violence, 468 U.S. 288 (1984), where the Supreme Court upheld the NPS camping regulation, and noted that allowing the two symbolic tent cities "left the demonstration intact, with its symbolic city, signs, and the presence of those who were willing to take their turns in a day-and-night vigil." Please also note that the duration of a demonstration is not limited by the National Park Service's National Capital Region. This stems from the Court of Appeals decision in Quaker Action v Morton, 516 F.2d 717, 734 (D.C. Cir. 1975), that struck down as invalid the NPS regulatory restriction on the duration of demonstrations.

Since then, 24/7 demonstration/vigils are a rare but regular feature in some of the Federal parks in Washington DC, which generally are never closed.

Finally, the National Park Service and United States Park Police fully agree that people have the right to protest. We also share your concern that people using parkland should also comply with applicable laws and regulations. In that regard, we have taken proactive steps as well as distributed the Notice dated November 23, 2011 and found on our website at www.nps.gov/nama/parkmgmt/upload/FreedomPlazaMcPhersonNotification\_Nov23\_2011.pdf

, that reminds people of the NPS camping regulation and that temporary structures may not be used for camping. In the event that voluntary compliance does not occur, consistent with First Amendment jurisprudence, the National Park Service and United States Park Police plan to take a reasoned and measured approach to achieve compliance, while hoping to avoid the civil disorder that has occurred in other jurisdictions.

Good afternoon Karen,

Thank you for your response last Friday. Please send me the court ruling which you refer to below by the statement - "the courts have ruled that temporary structures that support First Amendment activities are allowed."

I would like that case number as soon as possible. I can find no record of that, nor can the attorney in my building.

Thank you for your help in this matter.

Thank you for your response. I found it inaccurate in claiming to follow the letter of the law - -

I certainly appreciate the right to protest under constitutional law - however, this right does not supersede current laws requiring permits or acts already prohibited by federal regulation etc. Federal law prohibits camping overnight in the McPherson Square Park - period. This OCCUPY camp by federal regulations definition is not a protest - but a newly formed shanty town.

Please send me the court ruling which you refer to below by the statement -
"the courts have ruled that temporary structures that support First Amendment activities are allowed." I would like that as soon as possible as we are taking further action.

According to The Code of Federal regulations, Title 36, Parks, Forests, and Public property - temporary structures may not be used outside designated camping areas (McPherson Square does not have a federally designated camping area) for living accommodation activities such as sleeping, or making preparations to sleep including the laying down of beddings for the purpose of sleep, or storing personal belongings or making fire, or ... the above listed activities constitute camping when it reasonably appears in light of all the circumstance, that the participants in conducting these activities are in fact using this as a living accommodation regardless of the intent of the participants or the nature of any other activities in which they may also be engaging.

They can certainly protest, they can get a permit and march or picket - but they cannot camp in a federal park that is not specially designated for camping.

Ms Dewitt:

On behalf of the National Mall and Memorial Parks Superintendent Robert Vogel, United States Park Police Chief Teresa Chambers, Regional Director, National Capital Region, Steve Whitesell, and Deputy Regional Director, National Capital Region, Lisa Mendelson-Ielmini, I offer this response to your letter.

Thank you for your inquiry, it is our hope that the following information will provide helpful information on the role and responsibilities of the National Park Service (NPS) and its United States Park Police (USPP) and the actions we are taking to address your concerns.

The National Park Service has a long and proud tradition of providing opportunities for the exercise of First Amendment rights. The national parks of Washington, DC, are used almost daily as places for reflection, commemoration, recreational activities, demonstrations, and public events and by citizens such as you who use the parks for personal enjoyment. The National Park Service protects and interprets our important cultural and natural resources, and the United States Park Police ensure the safety and security of park resources as well as persons who use the common space.

While the sudden appearance of the "encampment" is disturbing to many, the courts have ruled that temporary structures that support First Amendment activities are allowed. As a result, enforcement action in this area is limited and challenging. The USPP will continue to focus their enforcement efforts on illegal behaviors and activities that are observed and reported.

Since the beginning of the activities in McPherson Square and Freedom Plaza, the National Park Service has provided additional trash receptacles and has emptied them at least three times each day. Rodent traps have been placed in the parks, and those who are maintaining a vigil within the park have been requested to clear their trash and debris at the conclusion of each day's events. Portable toilet facilities have been placed within the park at the NPS's request and at the organizer's expense. Please contact the National Mall and Memorial Parks if there are additional concerns that have not been addressed at 202-245-4661.

The USPP has been working with the Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) on monitoring the groups' activities within the city, and the USPP regularly patrols our parks to enforce laws and regulations and those that specifically affect the quality of life. We encourage the public to contact the USPP to report criminal activity or quality of life violations at 202-610-7500 so that individuals responsible for these violations can be identified and appropriate action taken.

We appreciate your taking the time to share your concerns. If there is any way we may be of further assistance in providing information and insight, please let us know. The NPS and the USPP remain committed to the citizens who live near, work near, or use the parks for their enjoyment. We routinely meet with the business community and would be willing to attend citizen group meetings if you think this would be valuable in maintaining our relationships.

- Sexual Assault (under investigation) Leadership at Freedom Plaza reported that a demonstrator heard a female being assaulted. The "victim" left the encampment the next day. The accused "suspect" remains at the site. Investigation will attempt to locate the victim.
- Protestors from the McPherson group held an impromptu demonstration at the Washington Monument. USPP resources from outer districts were brought in to maintain integrity of inner circle. 1 individual was arrested for urinating in public and possession of marijuana

Events scheduled today

- The McPherson Group will be marching to an undisclosed location to stage a protest. USPP/MPD and US Capitol PD will monitor group's movements
- McPherson and Freedom Plaza group will join with the "Our DC" (permitted group on Mall) to hold

- a block party on K St.
- The McPherson Group intends to march to the White House @ 1700 hours. This non-permitted event will be monitored by USPP/USSS and MPD

NAMA and USPP Outreach

- Capt. Harasek and Lt. Marshall met with Freedom Plaza organizers Kevin Zeese and Margaret Flowers.
- McPherson Square- 9:30 Marisa Richardson (NAMA)

Spoke with the gentleman selling his artwork in the Park and informed him again that the selling of artwork in the park is prohibited

Spoke with the guy who runs the kitchen and informed him that they should not store extra containers of propane in the park

Counted 3 generators in the park

Noticed that tents are now numbered - and there seems to be less tents

Observed a bucket of urine and the smelled human feces

Don John's brought in a hand washing unit near the kitchen area

Number of portable restrooms has increased from 2 to 3

An arts tent has been erected in the general assembly area (where a couple was sleeping)

- Freedom Plaza

Approved the erection of 3 -16x32 winter tents after receiving drawings and calculations from demonstrators. NPS engineer reviewed calculations and drawings and found them adequate an amended permit will be issued.

Tents will be erected maybe on Thursday in the west end of the plaza maybe on Thursday (weather dependent)

The (3) 16 x 32 tents will be used as food tent, gathering area, first aid and media areas (the current media, food and first aid tents will be dismantled)

They will keep the biodome tent as a smoking area (it has four ventilation vents)

Superintendent Vogel

This is clearly disappointing and it appears that NPS' only response to this illegal activity is to enable them and make their unlawful camping more comfortable. It also appears that NPS has accepted this and will continue to promote this illegal activity instead of enforcing current laws. Ironically the warning signs posted are still being ignored- generators are running, gas containers with flammable liquids are being stored near propane stoves-a potential grave risk to the public safety of the residents, workers and visitors near the area- not to mention the obvious presence of illegal narcotics (marijuana can readily be smelled throughout the encampment).

Finally, I am sure that if these protestors attempted their encampment on the National Mall with flammable liquids, potential projectiles and illegal drugs openly being used the response by NPS would be substantially different. Sadly when activities are adversely impacting businesses and the rights of workers and residents to enjoy the park occurs out of site of the White House, Dept of Interior and NPS the response appears to be to make them more comfortable. When severe cold weather arrives I imagine the staked pile of wood will be used for a bonfire to warm the campers up.

I hope NPS has a "line in the mud" at McPherson that when crossed by this group they take action, and I hope this action is not reactive because of a grave or injurious incident to an innocent victim.

Thank you-

Good afternoon,

We have received several comments from our tenants regarding the installation of the sani jons at McPherson park for the squatters that call themselves "Occupy DC". If we had to sum the comments up in one single word, that word would be... REALLY??!?

What is the NPS reasoning and strategy behind allowing the squatters to continue this blatant disregard for established laws that seemingly every other person has to abide by?

The business people in the immediate area of McPherson park are not impressed with how NPS is handling this situation.

Please advise.

Yes, I am available November 3 at 1pm, and I may be bringing some of my SOL colleagues. Where will the meeting occur?

Who have you invited to attend from the US Park Police? If you have not reached out to them, I recommend you directly contact Park Police Captain Kathy Harasek cell: 202-438-1593, [Kathleen\_Harasek@nps.gov], who can then alert her Park Police supervisors.

Fyi, over the past few weeks I have been regularly talking with AUSA Angela George (criminal) and AUSA Marina Braswell (civil). Besides recently participating in a site visit with them, I've also provided them with background information and case law on the NPS camping regulation.

Subject RE: Occupy movement

Greg: I'll be glad to brief Polly on the various legal aspects to the issue. I'll be available today after 11:30; tomorrow from 8-9:20, 3-4:20; Wednesday 8-9:20, 11:30-4:30.

I'm currently waiting to review a NPS draft briefing paper on the issue requested by Peggy O'Dell, that NCR and the USPP is putting together, where I expect to add the legal aspects to the equation. I am cc'ing them, to ensure that we all stay on the same page as this difficult issue is assessed....

Subject McPherson order

FYI you already may be aware

Occupy DC obtains federal judge's order against surprise eviction of McPherson Square occupation

Occupy DC's legal team today obtained an order from a federal judge prohibiting the Park Police from conducting a surprise eviction of McPherson Square.

The order came in the wake of Sunday's police actions at the occupation of McPherson Square that led to thirty-one arrests, the barricading of a third of the park and the demolition of a structure erected for public meetings and other activities. Immediately after the demolition, Park Police stated they might remove tents within the barricaded area and refused to allow protesters to reenter. After Occupy DC's legal team moved towards filing for an injunction, police removed the barricades, left tents intact and reopened the entirety of McPherson Square.

During today's half-hour hearing, the government stated that it had made no decision as to whether or not it intended to use anti-camping laws against the occupation. The National Park Service has previously stated that participants in the occupation "...are allowed to have a 24-hour vigil and they are allowed to have structures to go along with it."

US District Court judge James Boasberg issued the following order:

- 1) The Government will provide 24-hour notice to the Court and Plaintiff's counsel if it intends to enforce its regulations prohibiting camping or sleeping in McPherson Square; 2) Absent such notice or exigent circumstances, the Government will not restrict Plaintiff's access to the Square or his camping or sleeping in the Square.

The judge set a schedule for submission of motions with a hearing on Jan. 31, 2012 at 10AM.

According to the legal team, this means that there should be no surprise eviction between now and Jan. 31-there will be a court hearing before any attempt at an eviction.

FYI - After two phone conversations with Laura, we will NOT be removing the unoccupied tents tonight. We will continue to hold the area until it's safe to allow people back in, and we in the USPP will pick up the conversation and explore options tomorrow. I believe we're still scheduled to brief the Director and others about Occupy DC tomorrow at 4:30, aren't we? (It didn't show up on yours or the Director's calendar for tomorrow.)

Thanks for your time today / tonight. I'll be heading home within the hour (ideally).

Peggy,

Could you keep us up to speed on what Park Police will be telling the media this afternoon? From Laura's report, it sounds like this is an enforcement action in response to the construction of a structure that is in clear violation of Park Service policies.

Is that accurate? Also, is it accurate that NPS and PP enforcement actions are not currently aimed at clearing the entire park, but simply responding to the structure?

We're getting some interest from WH comms.

Thanks,

Matt
