Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 18

14 October 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

Events Scheduled to Occur Weekend of 14-16 October 2011

- Friday, 14 October 2011: 5:00 PM, Sukkot Shabbat (OB)
- Friday, 14 October 2011: 6:00 – 7:00 PM, Musical concert at Dewey Square – Hallelujah the Hills (OB)
- Friday, 14 October 2011: 7:00 PM, General Assembly, Dewey Sq (OB)
- Saturday, 15 October 2011: 10:00 AM, Civil Disobedience Training, Meet at Ghandi statue (OB)
- There are a variety of events occurring in the city on Saturday 15 October 2011 that will likely affect, be impacted by or combine with Occupy Boston:
 - Saturday, 15 October – International Day of Action against Austerity and War. Boston Anti-war rally: Protesting 10 years of war/occupation. On the Facebook event page there are approximately 126 people attending with 57 maybes. The event will take place at the Boston Common at Park & Tremont at 1:00 PM.ⁱ Analyst Note: It has been reported on the official page of Colleges Occupy Boston (COB) that a Student Solidarity March will immediately follow the conclusion of the anti-war march starting at 3:00 PM at Dewey Sq.ⁱⁱ The websites do not specify whether COB or OB will participate in the anti-war march, however it is likely that they will due recent collaboration between groups that usually participate in this annual anti-war march and the OB group.
 - On 15 October 2011, United for Global Change is scheduled to occur worldwide with 826 cities and 76 countries reportedly participating according to the event’s website.ⁱⁱⁱ The event’s website states it will consist of public demonstrations. While this event has garnered sporadic comment and mention by Occupy Boston participants^{iv}, it is unknown whether any Occupy Boston events have been planned to coincide with it at this time. However it should be noted that there is a potential for events related to United for Global Change to occur in Boston supported by Occupy Boston.

- Animal rights protest outside of The Ringling Bros. and Barnum and Bailey Circus Saturday, 15 October from 1:00pm to 3:00pm at the intersection of Legends Way and Causeway St. Expected Attendance: 24
- Saturday, 15 October 2011: 4:00 – 6:00 PM, Musical concert at Dewey Square – The Whitehaus Family Record.^v (OB)
- (District E13) Saturday, 15 October 2011 9:00 PM: Occupy Boston Benefit Show at the Midway Café in Jamaica Plain, $5.00 – 10.00 donations. This event was on Twitter, but has not yet been added to Occupy Boston's calendar or Midway Café's website calendar.^{vi} (OB)
- Sunday, 16 October 2011: 3:00 PM, Interfaith Worship Service, Dewey Sq. (OB)

General Notes Regarding Ongoing Occupy Boston

- A female Coast Guard member has reported that she was spat on and harassed on two separate occasions as she walked by the protesters on Atlantic Ave.
Analyst Notes: This incident has been reported by the news media^{vii} and has generated significant conversation to include numerous comments on Twitter critical of Occupy Boston.
- The cleanup of Zuccotti Park in Manhattan where the Occupy Wall Street participants are camped out has been postponed.^{viii}
Analyst Note: This is being viewed as a victory for the entire Occupy movement, not just Occupy Wall Street. Participants in Occupy Boston have been re-Tweeting articles related to this postponement and claiming this as a victory for the movement. It should also be noted in the event of a re-scheduling of this cleanup of Zuccotti park that the property is owned by Brookfield Properties has an office at 53 and 75 State Street in Boston. A few people direct messaged Occupy Boston Twitter accounts with this information last night and one Twitter user event commented, "Brookfield office properties is trying to kick out the protestors in NY so we just marched o their Boston office. #occupyboston".
- A short online documentary video regarding Occupy Boston was posted online: <http://vimeo.com/30514982>
- 13 October 2011, comments on Twitter by Occupy Boston participants mention traveling to NYC to support Occupy Wall Street. Additional Twitter comments suggested concern by Occupy Boston participants about possible police action.

The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

Events Scheduled to Occur Weekend of 14-16 October 2011

- Friday, 14 October 2011: 5:00 PM, Sukkot Shabbat (OB)
- Friday, 14 October 2011: 6:00 – 7:00 PM, Musical concert at Dewey Square – Hallelujah the Hills (OB)
- Friday, 14 October 2011: 7:00 PM, General Assembly, Dewey Sq (OB)
- Saturday, 15 October 2011: 10:00 AM, Civil Disobedience Training, Meet at Ghandi statue (OB)
- There are a variety of events occurring in the city on Saturday 15 October 2011 that will likely affect, be impacted by or combine with Occupy Boston:
 - Saturday, 15 October – International Day of Action against Austerity and War. Boston Anti-war rally: Protesting 10 years of war/occupation. On the Facebook event page there are approximately 126 people attending with 57 maybes. The event will take place at the Boston Common at Park & Tremont at 1:00 PM.ⁱ
 - Analyst Note: Occupy Boston has put this event on their calendar which indicates their possible plan to participate.ⁱⁱ Colleges Occupy Boston are also planning a Student Solidarity march to take place immediately following the anti-war march at 3:00 PM; it is unknown at this time if the students will also join the anti-war march.
 - On 15 October 2011, United for Global Change is scheduled to occur worldwide with 951 countries reportedly participating according to the event’s website.ⁱⁱⁱ The event’s website states it will consist of public demonstrations. While this event has garnered sporadic comment and mention by Occupy Boston participants^{iv}, it is unknown whether any Occupy Boston events have been planned to coincide with it at this time; however it should be noted that information about this day and links to the website (<http://15october.net/>) are on Occupy Boston’s website. There is a potential for events related to United for Global Change to occur in Boston supported by Occupy Boston.

Analyst Note: On the official Students Occupy Boston Facebook page, " an event titled Student Solidarity March for Global Call to Action Day has been created for Saturday, 15 October 2011 from 3:00 – 6:00 PM at Dewey Square (immediately following the anti-war march). 165 are listed as attending, 69 maybe's. " This event is also noted on the Colleges Occupy Boston website. "

- Animal rights protest outside of The Ringling Bros. and Barnum and Bailey Circus Saturday, 15 October from 1:00pm to 3:00pm at the intersection of Legends Way and Causeway St. Expected Attendance: 24
- Saturday, 15 October 2011: 4:00 – 6:00 PM, Musical concert at Dewey Square – The Whitehaus Family Record.^{viii} (OB)
- (District E13) Saturday, 15 October 2011 9:00 PM: Occupy Boston Benefit Show at the Midway Café in Jamaica Plain, $5.00 – 10.00 donations. This event was on Twitter, but has not yet been added to Occupy Boston's calendar or Midway Café's website calendar.^{ix} (OB)
- Sunday, 16 October 2011: 3:00 PM, Interfaith Worship Service, Dewey Sq. (OB)
- Sunday, 16 October 2011 12:00 – 4:00 PM: Musical concert, "Folk In" Irish and Scottish Music (OB)^x
- Sunday, 16 October 2011 6:00 PM: Musical concert, Tubby Love (OB)^{xi}

General Notes Regarding Ongoing Occupy Boston

- Occupy Boston tweeted they will be holding a food drive this weekend; people are asked to bring non-perishable items to Dewey Square. Also tweeted was that the food drive planned at the first GA for Halloween night is still on.^{xii}
- There have been many tweets regarding Occupy Boston graffiti around the city (see photos below). Locations tweeted about have been the BU campus, Fenway, and multiple buildings on Hemenway between Westland and Boylston St. Today, one individual tweeted, "so this Occupy Boston graffiti popping up all over the city is not welcome! Do something @mayormenino @Boston_police."^{xiii}

<http://twitpic.com/6zzlzh>

- A female Coast Guard member has reported that she was spat on and harassed on two separate occasions as she walked by the protesters on Atlantic Ave.

Analyst Notes: This incident has been reported by the news media^{xiv} and has generated significant conversation to include numerous comments on Twitter critical of Occupy Boston.

- The cleanup of Zuccotti Park in Manhattan where the Occupy Wall Street participants are camped out has been postponed.^{xv}
Analyst Note: This is being viewed as a victory for the entire Occupy movement, not just Occupy Wall Street. Participants in Occupy Boston have been re-Tweeting articles related to this postponement and claiming this as a victory for the movement. It should also be noted in the event of a re-scheduling of this cleanup of Zuccotti park that the property is owned by Brookfield Properties has an office at 53 and 75 State Street in Boston. A few people direct messaged Occupy Boston Twitter accounts with this information last night and one Twitter user event commented, "Brookfield office properties is trying to kick out the protestors in NY so we just marched o their Boston office. #occupyboston".
- A short online documentary video regarding Occupy Boston was posted online: <http://vimeo.com/30514982>
- 13 October 2011, comments on Twitter by Occupy Boston participants mention traveling to NYC to support Occupy Wall Street. Additional Twitter comments suggested concern by Occupy Boston participants about possible police action.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 25

19 October 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Events Scheduled to Occur Today 19 October 2011ⁱ

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Events Scheduled to Occur Today, Thursday 20 October 2011ⁱ

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- 4:00 PM, 20 October 2011: Free School University – Discussion with author Brian Wilson at Dewey Square. (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Note: Wilson is a founding member of the Smedley Butler Brigade of Veterans for Peace.
- 5:30 PM, 20 October 2011: Bill McKibben, climate activist and organizer of 350.org arrives at the Occupy Boston encampment. (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Note: McKibben organized a sit-in near the White House in August of this year to protest construction of a pipeline. He was ultimately one of over 500 people to be arrested during a two week period. He was not charged.ⁱⁱ

- 9:00 PM, 20 October 2011: Students Occupy Boston, Meeting #7, occurring in Dewey Sq. (Students Occupy Boston) Hosted / facilitated by Boston College. As of 3:30 PM on 20 October 2011, 73 are attending, and 54 are maybe.ⁱⁱⁱ

Events Scheduled for Friday 21 October 2011^{iv}

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- 1:00 PM – 3:00 PM, 21 October 2011: Forum with BPD Superintendant Evans – An open forum sponsored by Boston Council of Undergraduate Student Body Presidents at the School of Management Building Room 105 at Boston University.^v

- 1:00 PM – 2:00 PM, 21 October 2011: Free School University – The Wall Street Complex, a discussion with David Rothauser. (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Note: Rothauser is a writer/director/producer and has several film credits. He wrote and acted in a 2004 docudrama entitled 'The Diary of Sacco and Vanzetti.'^{vi} It is unknown at this time if Rothauser is a known/respected figure within the anarchist movement.
- 6:00 PM, 21 October 2011, Occupy the Hood's first action will be a community speak out / rally held at Dudley Square on the Dudley Plaza (directly across from the new B2 Police Department).^{vii} The Occupy Boston Globe website states that a solidarity march is being planned for this event but there is no corroborating information at this time.
Analyst Notes: Tufts students are organizing a group to go to Dudley Square to show support for the Occupy the Hood occurring at 6:00 PM in Dudley Square. The students are planning to depart Tufts at 4:30 PM to head to Dudley Sq. As of 3:00 PM on 20 October 2011, 35 people are listed as attending, 9 maybes on the Facebook event page.^{viii}

Events Scheduled to Saturday 22 October 2011

- 12:00 PM, 22 October 2011: Occupy the Hood Boston Demonstration for the "16th National Day of Protest to Stop Police Brutality".
Analyst Note: This is being organized, at least in part, by the same individuals that are organizing the Occupy the Hood event on Friday 21 October 2011 in Dudley Square. There is also a Facebook event page for "Occupy Boston & Occupy the Hood present: A Day of Strength and Solidarity" that appears to be for this event and indicates that OB will be participating as well. It will take place 12:00 PM – 3:00 PM outside BPD Headquarters and on the event page it states "a march will be in the works". As of 3:30 PM on 20 October 2011 67 people are listed as attending and 39 maybes.^{ix}
- 10:45 AM – 11:15 AM, 22 October 2011: The Massachusetts Affordable Housing Alliance is organizing a flash mob to take place in Harvard Square to protest Citi Bank's "irresponsible lending practices".^x
Analyst Notes: As of now the BRIC has no information to indicate that OB is involved in this flash mob.
- 2:00 PM, 22 October 2011, (Uncorroborated): Protest against Occupy Boston at Dewey Square.
- 6:00 PM, 22 October 2011: Open Question & Answer Discussion with Noam Chomsky (Occupy Boston).
Analyst Notes: This event is likely to draw a significant amount of people.
- 7:00 PM, 22 October 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled to Occur Sunday, 23 October 2011

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- There are multiple FSU classes / forums, yoga, faith & spirituality classes etc. planned for Sunday, 23 October 2011 with Occupy Boston. As of 3:30 PM on Thursday, 20 October 2011 there are no scheduled marches / rallies.

Events Scheduled to Occur Monday, 24 October 2011

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- 6:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 24 October 2011, A Working Class Occupation is scheduled to take place at the “Save our Somerville” banner outside South Station. People from Somerville have arranged to assemble in solidarity with Occupy Boston and will have speakers. As of 3:30 PM on 20 October 2011 61 people are listed as attending and 24 are maybes.^{xi}
Analyst Notes: This event is listed on OB’s calendar as “Occupy Somerville Speakers” occurring at 7:00 PM.

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- On Saturday, 22 October 2011, the hacking / activism group Anonymous, in conjunction with numerous “Occupy movements” from “Santa Cruz to Boston”, will supposedly launch “Operation USA” according to a statement posted 17 October 2011 claiming to be from Anonymous. According to the statement released, this event will consist of marches and demonstrations organized throughout the country in protest of supposed police brutality against protestors of the Occupy movements and the U.S. Government’s failure to protect protesters. According to the statement Operation USA will coincide with “Day of Justice” marches which will supposedly be occurring nationwide.^{xii} While the statement regarding Operation USA references that it will be a “Cyber Op” there are no specific references to illegal hacking activities planned to coincide with this event. However, it should be noted that the group Anonymous has had significant past involvement in incidents of criminal hacking and cyber intrusion against public figures as well as corporate and government websites and data. At this time the extent of Operation USA is unknown as well as whether Occupy Boston participants will have any involvement in this potential event.

Analyst Notes: According to DHS reports, Anonymous has no formalized central leadership which has complicated law enforcement efforts to target illegal cyber activities engaged in by the group. DHS assesses with high confidence that Anonymous and associated groups will continue to exploit vulnerable publicly available web servers, web sites, computer networks, and other digital information mediums for the foreseeable future.^{xiii} The BRIC does not currently have any information indicating any active threats posed by Anonymous to critical infrastructure assets, systems or networks in the Metro Boston Homeland Security Region. However, DHS reporting highlights the growing technical capability of the group as well as its past demonstrated hacking capabilities opening the potential for evolving incidences of cyber attack.^{xiv} In addition, a recently released DHS bulletin highlights concerns regarding a potential interest of Anonymous in targeting industrial control systems.^{xv}

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- On Saturday, 22 October 2011, the hacking / activism group Anonymous, in conjunction with numerous “Occupy movements” from “Santa Cruz to Boston”, will supposedly launch “Operation USA” according to a statement posted 17 October 2011 claiming to be from Anonymous. According to the statement released, this event will consist of marches and demonstrations organized throughout the country in protest of supposed police brutality against protestors of the Occupy movements and the U.S. Government’s failure to protect protesters. According to the statement Operation USA will coincide with “Day of Justice” marches which will supposedly be occurring nationwide.^{xii} While the statement regarding Operation USA references that it will be a “Cyber Op” there are no specific references to illegal hacking activities planned to coincide with this event. However, it should be noted that the group Anonymous has had significant past involvement in incidents of criminal hacking and cyber intrusion against public figures as well as corporate and government websites and data. At this time the extent of Operation USA is unknown as well as whether Occupy Boston participants will have any involvement in this potential event.

Analyst Notes: According to DHS reports, Anonymous has no formalized central leadership which has complicated law enforcement efforts to target illegal cyber activities engaged in by the group. DHS assesses with high confidence that Anonymous and associated groups will continue to exploit vulnerable publicly available web servers, web sites, computer networks, and other digital information mediums for the foreseeable future.^{xiii} The BRIC does not currently have any information indicating any active threats posed by Anonymous to critical infrastructure assets, systems or networks in the Metro Boston Homeland Security Region. However, DHS reporting highlights the growing technical capability of the group as well as its past demonstrated hacking capabilities opening the potential for evolving incidences of cyber attack.^{xiv} In addition, a recently released DHS bulletin highlights concerns regarding a potential interest of Anonymous in targeting industrial control systems.^{xv}

Situational Awareness “Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 27 20 October 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Events Scheduled to Occur Today, Thursday 20 October 2011ⁱ

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- 4:00 PM, 20 October 2011: Free School University – Discussion with author Brian Wilson at Dewey Square. (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Note: Wilson is a founding member of the Smedley Butler Brigade of Veterans for Peace.
- 5:30 PM, 20 October 2011: Bill McKibben, climate activist and organizer of 350.org arrives at the Occupy Boston encampment. (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Note: McKibben organized a sit-in near the White House in August of this year to protest construction of a pipeline. He was ultimately one of over 500 people to be arrested during a two week period. He was not charged.ⁱⁱ
- 6:00 PM, 20 October 2011: Lecture: Elite Control Over U.S., Lesson from Vietnam to Today. Hosted by Professor Gary Leupp of Tufts University, frequent contributor to Counterpunch.org. (Occupy Boston)
- 7:00 PM, 20 October 2011: General Assembly, Dewey Sq. (Occupy Boston)
- 9:00 PM, 20 October 2011: Students Occupy Boston, Meeting #7, occurring in Dewey Sq. (Students Occupy Boston) Hosted / facilitated by Boston College. As of 3:30 PM on 20 October 2011, 73 are attending, and 54 are maybe.ⁱⁱⁱ

- 1:00 PM – 2:00 PM, 21 October 2011: Free School University – The Wall Street Complex, a discussion with David Rothauser. (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Note: Rothauser is a writer/director/producer and has several film credits. He wrote and acted in a 2004 docudrama entitled 'The Diary of Sacco and Vanzetti.'^{vi} It is unknown at this time if Rothauser is a known/respected figure within the anarchist movement.
- 6:00 PM, 21 October 2011, Occupy the Hood's first action will be a community speak out / rally held at Dudley Square on the Dudley Plaza (directly across from the new B2 Police Department).^{vii} The Occupy Boston Globe website states that a solidarity march is being planned for this event but there is no corroborating information at this time.
Analyst Notes: Tufts students are organizing a group to go to Dudley Square to show support for the Occupy the Hood occurring at 6:00 PM in Dudley Square. The students are planning to depart Tufts at 4:30 PM to head to Dudley Sq. As of 3:00 PM on 20 October 2011, 35 people are listed as attending, 9 maybes on the Facebook event page.^{viii}

Events Scheduled to Saturday 22 October 2011

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- 12:00 PM, 22 October 2011: Occupy the Hood Boston Demonstration for the "16th National Day of Protest to Stop Police Brutality".
Analyst Note: This is being organized, at least in part, by the same individuals that are organizing the Occupy the Hood event on Friday 21 October 2011 in Dudley Square. There is also a Facebook event page for "Occupy Boston & Occupy the Hood present: A Day of Strength and Solidarity" that appears to be for this event and indicates that OB will be participating as well. It will take place 12:00 PM – 3:00 PM outside BPD Headquarters and on the event page it states "a march will be in the works". As of 3:30 PM on 20 October 2011 67 people are listed as attending and 39 maybes.^{ix}
- 10:45 AM – 11:15 AM, 22 October 2011: The Massachusetts Affordable Housing Alliance is organizing a flash mob to take place in Harvard Square to protest Citi Bank's "irresponsible lending practices".^x
Analyst Notes: As of now the BRIC has no information to indicate that OB is involved in this flash mob.
- 2:00 PM, 22 October 2011, (Uncorroborated): Protest against Occupy Boston at Dewey Square.
- 6:00 PM, 22 October 2011: Open Question & Answer Discussion with Noam Chomsky (Occupy Boston).
Analyst Notes: This event is likely to draw a significant amount of people.
- 7:00 PM, 22 October 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled to Occur Sunday, 23 October 2011

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- There are multiple FSU classes / forums, yoga, faith & spirituality classes etc. planned for Sunday, 23 October 2011 with Occupy Boston. As of 3:30 PM on Thursday, 20 October 2011 there are no scheduled marches / rallies.

Events Scheduled to Occur Monday, 24 October 2011

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- 6:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 24 October 2011, A Working Class Occupation is scheduled to take place at the “Save our Somerville” banner outside South Station. People from Somerville have arranged to assemble in solidarity with Occupy Boston and will have speakers. As of 3:30 PM on 20 October 2011 61 people are listed as attending and 24 are maybes.^{xi}
Analyst Notes: This event is listed on OB’s calendar as “Occupy Somerville Speakers” occurring at 7:00 PM.

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- On Saturday, 22 October 2011, the hacking / activism group Anonymous, in conjunction with numerous “Occupy movements” from “Santa Cruz to Boston”, will supposedly launch “Operation USA” according to a statement posted 17 October 2011 claiming to be from Anonymous. According to the statement released, this event will consist of marches and demonstrations organized throughout the country in protest of supposed police brutality against protestors of the Occupy movements and the U.S. Government’s failure to protect protesters. According to the statement Operation USA will coincide with “Day of Justice” marches which will supposedly be occurring nationwide.^{xii} While the statement regarding Operation USA references that it will be a “Cyber Op” there are no specific references to illegal hacking activities planned to coincide with this event. However, it should be noted that the group Anonymous has had significant past involvement in incidents of criminal hacking and cyber intrusion against public figures as well as corporate and government websites and data. At this time the extent of Operation USA is unknown as well as whether Occupy Boston participants will have any involvement in this potential event.

Analyst Notes: According to DHS reports, Anonymous has no formalized central leadership which has complicated law enforcement efforts to target illegal cyber activities engaged in by the group. DHS assesses with high confidence that Anonymous and associated groups will continue to exploit vulnerable publicly available web servers, web sites, computer networks, and other digital information mediums for the foreseeable future.^{xiii} The BRIC does not currently have any information indicating any active threats posed by Anonymous to critical infrastructure assets, systems or networks in the Metro Boston Homeland Security Region. However, DHS reporting highlights the growing technical capability of the group as well as its past demonstrated hacking capabilities opening the potential for evolving incidences of cyber attack.^{xiv} In addition, a recently released DHS bulletin highlights concerns regarding a potential interest of Anonymous in targeting industrial control systems.^{xv}

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Events Scheduled for Today, Friday 21 October 2011ⁱ

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- 12:00 PM – Citizens to Expose the “Real Romney Record” on Jobs: Mass Layoff, Huge Personal Payoffs: A demonstration will take place outside the Hancock Tower. Massuniting is the group that is sponsoring this demonstration. Information regarding this event states the individuals involved will be protesting and leafleting.
Analyst Notes: Massuniting has taken part in some of the OB marches; however, the BRIC has no information that indicates OB will be coordinating with this group for the demonstration. It is not posted on any of OB’s calendars; however, it should be noted that OB likely knows about this event and their participating, (including a possible march to the Hancock tower), cannot be ruled out.
- 1:00 PM – 2:00 PM, 21 October 2011: Free School University – The Wall Street Complex, a discussion with David Rothauser. (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Note: Rothauser is a writer/director/producer and has several film credits. He wrote and acted in a 2004 docudrama entitled ‘The Diary of Sacco and Vanzetti.’ⁱⁱ It is unknown at this time if Rothauser is a known/respected figure within the anarchist movement.
- 4:00 PM, 21 October 2011: Discussion, March and Sit-in at Copley Square. Monks of Thich Nhat Hanh’s Plum Village Practice will speak at Occupy Boston at 4:00 PM, take part in a “mindful walk” toward Copley Square at 4:30 PM, and then participate in a “flashmob sitting meditation” at Copley Square at 5:30 PM. As of 10:30 AM on 21 October 2011, the Facebook event page for this event has 76 confirmed attendees and 56 maybes.ⁱⁱⁱ

- 5:00 PM, 21 October 2011: March to Occupy the Hood – An unknown number of Occupy Boston members plan to march from Dewey Square to Dudley Square to show support for the Occupy the Hood action taking place tonight; see below for more details.
- 6:00 PM, 21 October 2011, Occupy the Hood's first action will be a community speak out / rally held at Dudley Square on the Dudley Plaza (directly across from the new B2 Police Department).^{iv} The Occupy Boston Globe website states that a solidarity march is being planned for this event but there is no corroborating information at this time.

Analyst Notes: Tufts students are organizing a group to go to Dudley Square to show support for the Occupy the Hood occurring at 6:00 PM in Dudley Square. The students are planning to depart Tufts at 4:30 PM As of 10:30 AM on 21 October 2011, 42 people are listed as attending and 10 listed as maybes on the Facebook event page.^v

Situational Awareness “Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 28 21 October 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Events Scheduled for Today, Friday 21 October 2011ⁱ

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- 12:00 PM – Citizens to Expose the “Real Romney Record” on Jobs: Mass Layoff, Huge Personal Payoffs: A demonstration will take place outside the Hancock Tower. Massuniting is the group that is sponsoring this demonstration. Information regarding this event states the individuals involved will be protesting and leafleting.
Analyst Notes: Massuniting has taken part in some of the OB marches; however, the BRIC has no information that indicates OB will be coordinating with this group for the demonstration. It is not posted on any of OB’s calendars; however, it should be noted that OB likely knows about this event and their participating, (including a possible march to the Hancock tower), cannot be ruled out.
- 1:00 PM – 2:00 PM, 21 October 2011: Free School University – The Wall Street Complex, a discussion with David Rothauser. (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Note: Rothauser is a writer/director/producer and has several film credits. He wrote and acted in a 2004 docudrama entitled ‘The Diary of Sacco and Vanzetti.’ⁱⁱ It is unknown at this time if Rothauser is a known/respected figure within the anarchist movement.
- 4:00 PM, 21 October 2011: Discussion, March and Sit-in at Copley Square. Monks of Thich Nhat Hanh’s Plum Village Practice will speak at Occupy Boston at 4:00 PM, take part in a “mindful walk” toward Copley Square at 4:30 PM, and then participate in a “flashmob sitting meditation” at Copley Square at 5:30 PM. As of 10:30 AM on 21 October 2011, the Facebook event page for this event has 76 confirmed attendees and 56 maybes.ⁱⁱⁱ

- 5:00 PM, 21 October 2011: March to Occupy the Hood – An unknown number of Occupy Boston members plan to march from Dewey Square to Dudley Square to show support for the Occupy the Hood action taking place tonight; see below for more details.
- 6:00 PM, 21 October 2011, Occupy the Hood's first action will be a community speak out / rally held at Dudley Square on the Dudley Plaza (directly across from the new B2 Police Department).^{iv} The Occupy Boston Globe website states that a solidarity march is being planned for this event but there is no corroborating information at this time.

Analyst Notes: Tufts students are organizing a group to go to Dudley Square to show support for the Occupy the Hood occurring at 6:00 PM in Dudley Square. The students are planning to depart Tufts at 4:30 PM As of 10:30 AM on 21 October 2011, 42 people are listed as attending and 10 listed as maybes on the Facebook event page.^v

Events Scheduled to Saturday 22 October 2011

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- 12:00 PM, 22 October 2011: Occupy the Hood Boston Demonstration for the "16th National Day of Protest to Stop Police Brutality".
Analyst Note: This is being organized, at least in part, by the same individuals that are organizing the Occupy the Hood event on Friday 21 October 2011 in Dudley Square. There is also a Facebook event page for "Occupy Boston & Occupy the Hood present: A Day of Strength and Solidarity" that appears to be for this event and indicates that OB will be participating as well. It will take place 12:00 PM – 3:00 PM outside BPD Headquarters and on the event page it states "a march will be in the works". As of 10:30 AM on 21 October 2011 117 people are listed as attending and 66 maybes.^{vi}
- 10:45 AM – 11:15 AM, 22 October 2011: The Massachusetts Affordable Housing Alliance is organizing a flash mob to take place in Harvard Square to protest Citi Bank's "irresponsible lending practices".^{vii}
Analyst Notes: As of now the BRIC has no information to indicate that OB is involved in this flash mob.
- 2:00 PM, 22 October 2011, (Uncorroborated): Protest against Occupy Boston at Dewey Square.
- 6:00 PM, 22 October 2011: Open Question & Answer Discussion with Noam Chomsky (Occupy Boston).
Analyst Notes: This event is likely to draw a significant amount of people.
- 6:00 PM, 22 October 2011: March in Protest of Humanitarian Award – OB will be marching to protest the Humanitarian Award given to Commissioner Davis, "given to commend success of last week's violent raid at Occupy Boston".^{viii}
Analyst Notes: OB's calendar of events states Dewey Square is the location of this march. There is no further information on OB's website regarding the destination of this march.
- 7:00 PM, 22 October 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled to Occur Sunday, 23 October 2011

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- There are multiple FSU classes / forums, yoga, faith & spirituality classes etc. planned for Sunday, 23 October 2011 with Occupy Boston. As of 3:30 PM on Thursday, 20 October 2011 there are no scheduled marches / rallies.

Events Scheduled to Occur Monday, 24 October 2011

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- 6:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 24 October 2011, A Working Class Occupation is scheduled to take place at the “Save our Somerville” banner outside South Station. People from Somerville have arranged to assemble in solidarity with Occupy Boston and will have speakers. As of 10:30 AM on 21 October 2011 65 people are listed as attending and 25 are maybes.^{ix}
Analyst Notes: This event is listed on OB’s calendar as “Occupy Somerville Speakers” occurring at 7:00 PM.

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- On Saturday, 22 October 2011, the hacking / activism group Anonymous, in conjunction with numerous “Occupy movements” from “Santa Cruz to Boston”, will supposedly launch “Operation USA” according to a statement posted 17 October 2011 claiming to be from Anonymous. According to the statement released, this event will consist of marches and demonstrations organized throughout the country in protest of supposed police brutality against protestors of the Occupy movements and the U.S. Government’s failure to protect protesters. According to the statement Operation USA will coincide with “Day of Justice” marches which will supposedly be occurring nationwide.^x While the statement regarding Operation USA references that it will be a “Cyber Op” there are no specific references to illegal hacking activities planned to coincide with this event. However, it should be noted that the group Anonymous has had significant past involvement in incidents of criminal hacking and cyber intrusion against public figures as well as corporate and government websites and data. At this time the extent of Operation USA is unknown as well as whether Occupy Boston participants will have any involvement in this potential event.

Analyst Notes: According to DHS reports, Anonymous has no formalized central leadership which has complicated law enforcement efforts to target illegal cyber activities engaged in by the group. DHS assesses with high confidence that Anonymous and associated groups will continue to exploit vulnerable publicly available web servers, web sites, computer networks, and other digital information mediums for the foreseeable future.^{xi} The BRIC does not currently have any information indicating any active threats posed by Anonymous to critical infrastructure assets, systems or networks in the Metro Boston Homeland Security Region. However, DHS reporting highlights the growing technical capability of the group as well as its past demonstrated hacking capabilities opening the potential for evolving incidences of cyber attack.^{xii} In addition, a recently released DHS bulletin highlights concerns regarding a potential interest of Anonymous in targeting industrial control systems.^{xiii}

The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Events Scheduled for Today, Friday 21 October 2011ⁱ

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- 12:00 PM – Citizens to Expose the “Real Romney Record” on Jobs: Mass Layoff, Huge Personal Payoffs: A demonstration will take place outside the Hancock Tower. Massuniting is the group that is sponsoring this demonstration. Information regarding this event states the individuals involved will be protesting and leafleting.
Analyst Notes: Massuniting has taken part in some of the OB marches; however, the BRIC has no information that indicates OB will be coordinating with this group for the demonstration. It is not posted on any of OB’s calendars; however, it should be noted that OB likely knows about this event and their participating, (including a possible march to the Hancock tower), cannot be ruled out.
- 1:00 PM – 2:00 PM, 21 October 2011: Free School University – The Wall Street Complex, a discussion with David Rothauser. (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Note: Rothauser is a writer/director/producer and has several film credits. He wrote and acted in a 2004 docudrama entitled ‘The Diary of Sacco and Vanzetti.’ⁱⁱ It is unknown at this time if Rothauser is a known/respected figure within the anarchist movement.
- 4:00 PM, 21 October 2011: Discussion, March and Sit-in at Copley Square. Monks of Thich Nhat Hanh’s Plum Village Practice will speak at Occupy Boston at 4:00 PM, take part in a “mindful walk” toward Copley Square at 4:30 PM, and then participate in a “flashmob sitting meditation” at Copley Square at 5:30 PM. As of 10:30 AM on 21 October 2011, the Facebook event page for this event has 76 confirmed attendees and 56 maybes.ⁱⁱⁱ

- 5:00 PM, 21 October 2011: March to Occupy the Hood – An unknown number of Occupy Boston members plan to march from Dewey Square to Dudley Square to show support for the Occupy the Hood action taking place tonight; see below for more details.
- 6:00 PM, 21 October 2011, Occupy the Hood's first action will be a community speak out / rally held at Dudley Square on the Dudley Plaza (directly across from the new B2 Police Department).^{iv} The Occupy Boston Globe website states that a solidarity march is being planned for this event but there is no corroborating information at this time.

Analyst Notes: Tufts students are organizing a group to go to Dudley Square to show support for the Occupy the Hood occurring at 6:00 PM in Dudley Square. The students are planning to depart Tufts at 4:30 PM As of 10:30 AM on 21 October 2011, 42 people are listed as attending and 10 listed as maybes on the Facebook event page.^v

Events Scheduled to Saturday 22 October 2011

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- 12:00 PM, 22 October 2011: Occupy the Hood Boston Demonstration for the "16th National Day of Protest to Stop Police Brutality".
Analyst Note: This is being organized, at least in part, by the same individuals that are organizing the Occupy the Hood event on Friday 21 October 2011 in Dudley Square. There is also a Facebook event page for "Occupy Boston & Occupy the Hood present: A Day of Strength and Solidarity" that appears to be for this event and indicates that OB will be participating as well. It will take place 12:00 PM – 3:00 PM outside BPD Headquarters and on the event page it states "a march will be in the works". As of 10:30 AM on 21 October 2011 117 people are listed as attending and 66 maybes.^{vi}
- 10:45 AM – 11:15 AM, 22 October 2011: The Massachusetts Affordable Housing Alliance is organizing a flash mob to take place in Harvard Square to protest Citi Bank's "irresponsible lending practices".^{vii}
Analyst Notes: As of now the BRIC has no information to indicate that OB is involved in this flash mob.
- 2:00 PM, 22 October 2011, (Uncorroborated): Protest against Occupy Boston at Dewey Square.
- 6:00 PM, 22 October 2011: Open Question & Answer Discussion with Noam Chomsky (Occupy Boston).
Analyst Notes: This event is likely to draw a significant amount of people.
- 6:00 PM, 22 October 2011: March in Protest of Humanitarian Award – OB will be marching to protest the Humanitarian Award given to Commissioner Davis, "given to commend success of last week's violent raid at Occupy Boston".^{viii}
Analyst Notes: OB's calendar of events states Dewey Square is the location of this march. There is no further information on OB's website regarding the destination of this march.
- 7:00 PM, 22 October 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled to Occur Sunday, 23 October 2011

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- There are multiple FSU classes / forums, yoga, faith & spirituality classes etc. planned for Sunday, 23 October 2011 with Occupy Boston. As of 3:30 PM on Thursday, 20 October 2011 there are no scheduled marches / rallies.

Events Scheduled to Occur Monday, 24 October 2011

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- 6:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 24 October 2011, A Working Class Occupation is scheduled to take place at the “Save our Somerville” banner outside South Station. People from Somerville have arranged to assemble in solidarity with Occupy Boston and will have speakers. As of 10:30 AM on 21 October 2011 65 people are listed as attending and 25 are maybes.^{ix}
Analyst Notes: This event is listed on OB’s calendar as “Occupy Somerville Speakers” occurring at 7:00 PM.

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- On Saturday, 22 October 2011, the hacking / activism group Anonymous, in conjunction with numerous “Occupy movements” from “Santa Cruz to Boston”, will supposedly launch “Operation USA” according to a statement posted 17 October 2011 claiming to be from Anonymous. According to the statement released, this event will consist of marches and demonstrations organized throughout the country in protest of supposed police brutality against protestors of the Occupy movements and the U.S. Government’s failure to protect protesters. According to the statement Operation USA will coincide with “Day of Justice” marches which will supposedly be occurring nationwide.^x While the statement regarding Operation USA references that it will be a “Cyber Op” there are no specific references to illegal hacking activities planned to coincide with this event. However, it should be noted that the group Anonymous has had significant past involvement in incidents of criminal hacking and cyber intrusion against public figures as well as corporate and government websites and data. At this time the extent of Operation USA is unknown as well as whether Occupy Boston participants will have any involvement in this potential event.

Analyst Notes: According to DHS reports, Anonymous has no formalized central leadership which has complicated law enforcement efforts to target illegal cyber activities engaged in by the group. DHS assesses with high confidence that Anonymous and associated groups will continue to exploit vulnerable publicly available web servers, web sites, computer networks, and other digital information mediums for the foreseeable future.^{xi} The BRIC does not currently have any information indicating any active threats posed by Anonymous to critical infrastructure assets, systems or networks in the Metro Boston Homeland Security Region. However, DHS reporting highlights the growing technical capability of the group as well as its past demonstrated hacking capabilities opening the potential for evolving incidences of cyber attack.^{xii} In addition, a recently released DHS bulletin highlights concerns regarding a potential interest of Anonymous in targeting industrial control systems.^{xiii}

Situational Awareness “Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 29 21 October 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Events Scheduled for Today, Friday 21 October 2011ⁱ

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- 4:00 PM, 21 October 2011: Discussion, March and Sit-in at Copley Square. Monks of Thich Nhat Hanh’s Plum Village Practice will speak at Occupy Boston at 4:00 PM, take part in a “mindful walk” toward Copley Square at 4:30 PM, and then participate in a “flashmob sitting meditation” at Copley Square at 5:30 PM. As of 10:30 AM on 21 October 2011, the Facebook event page for this event has 76 confirmed attendees and 56 maybes.ⁱⁱ
- 5:00 PM, 21 October 2011: March to Occupy the Hood – An unknown number of Occupy Boston members plan to march from Dewey Square to Dudley Square to show support for the Occupy the Hood action taking place tonight; see below for more details.
- 6:00 PM, 21 October 2011, Occupy the Hood’s first action will be a community speak out / rally held at Dudley Square on the Dudley Plaza (directly across from the new B2 Police Department).ⁱⁱⁱ The Occupy Boston Globe website states that a solidarity march is being planned for this event but there is no corroborating information at this time.

Analyst Notes: Tufts students are organizing a group to go to Dudley Square to show support for the Occupy the Hood occurring at 6:00 PM in Dudley Square. The students are planning to depart Tufts at 4:30 PM As of 4:00 PM on 21 October 2011, 44 people are listed as attending and 11 listed as maybes on the Facebook event page.^{iv} On BU Occupies Boston Facebook page, one person posted: “Heading down to Dewey to march to Dudley: Meet at March Plaza 4:15”. This may indicate that other schools that have participated in OB will march with OB or go directly to Occupy the Hood to show their support.^v

- 7:00 PM, 21 October 2011 – 3:00 PM, 23 October 2011: Social Movements / Digital Revolutions – Digital Media Conference & Grassroots Use of Technology Conference. This conference will begin at 7:00 PM on Friday, 21 October 2011 with events occurring each day through Sunday, 23 October 2011 at 3:00 PM. On Friday, 21 October 2011 at 7:00 PM there will be an Opening Panel: Town Hall Meeting on Media and Democracy at MIT room 10-250. See Saturday and Sunday's list of events for the other events occurring related to this conference.^{vi}

Analyst Notes: This conference could draw people from OB this weekend, as multiple OB participants are speaking at the conference (see Saturday's events for more information).

Events Scheduled to Saturday 22 October 2011

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- 9:00 AM – 6:00 PM: Main Conference of the above listed conference taking place, the Digital Media Conference & Grassroots Use of Technology Conference. This all-day event will be held at Lesley University, Doble Campus Welford House.^{vii} The complete agenda for Saturday, and the entire weekend can be found at: <http://www.digitalmediaconference.org/2011/node/12>.

- 12:00 PM, 22 October 2011: Occupy the Hood Boston Demonstration for the "16th National Day of Protest to Stop Police Brutality".

Analyst Note: This is being organized, at least in part, by the same individuals that are organizing the Occupy the Hood event on Friday 21 October 2011 in Dudley Square. There is also a Facebook event page for "Occupy Boston & Occupy the Hood present: A Day of Strength and Solidarity" that appears to be for this event and indicates that OB will be participating as well. - 10:45 AM – 11:15 AM, 22 October 2011: The Massachusetts Affordable Housing Alliance is organizing a flash mob to take place in Harvard Square to protest Citi Bank's "irresponsible lending practices".^{ix}

Analyst Notes: As of now the BRIC has no information to indicate that OB is involved in this flash mob.

- 2:00 PM, 22 October 2011, (Uncorroborated): Protest against Occupy Boston at Dewey Square.
- 6:00 PM, 22 October 2011: Open Question & Answer Discussion with Noam Chomsky (Occupy Boston).

Analyst Notes: This event is likely to draw a significant amount of people, and Chomsky's events are known to draw counter protests.

- 6:00 PM, 22 October 2011: March in Protest of Humanitarian Award – OB will be marching to protest the Humanitarian Award given to Commissioner Davis, "given to commend success of last week's violent raid at Occupy Boston".^x

Analyst Notes: OB's calendar of events states Dewey Square is the location of this march. There is no further information on OB's website regarding the destination of this march.

- 7:00 PM, 22 October 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled to Occur Sunday, 23 October 2011

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- 12:00 PM – 3:00 PM: Conference Follow-Up Events for the Digital Media Conference & Grassroots Use of Technology Conference. There are two sessions for Sunday, 12:00 – 1:30 PM, and 1:30 – 3:00 PM; both at Lesley University, Doble Campus Woldford House.^{xi}
- 4:30 PM – 6:00 PM: OB Panel at Harvard – A Harvard student is putting together a panel to take place in the Quincy House Junior Common Room at Harvard and is looking for a couple students to volunteer to speak. The panel will be focused on information about OB, "what we are fighting for and why it's important".^{xii}
- There are multiple FSU classes / forums, yoga, faith & spirituality classes etc. planned for Sunday, 23 October 2011 with Occupy Boston. As of 4:00 PM on Friday, 21 October 2011 there are no scheduled marches / rallies.

Events Scheduled to Occur Monday, 24 October 2011

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- A General Protest has been called for on Monday, 24 October 2011 by the hacking group Anonymous as part of Operation USA and Occupy USA movement.
Analyst Notes: Students Occupy Boston posted this in the summary of their GA from last night on their Facebook page.^{xiii} Open Source shows that individuals from Occupy Wall Street are calling for a general strike. On Facebook there is a group Call for a General Strike which is "liked" by approximately 1,500 people, but they do not seem to be centralized in one location.^{xiv}
- 6:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 24 October 2011, A Working Class Occupation is scheduled to take place at the "Save our Somerville" banner outside South Station. People from Somerville have arranged to assemble in solidarity with Occupy Boston and will have speakers. As of 4:00 PM on 21 October 2011 66 people are listed as attending and 25 are maybes.^{xv}

Analyst Note: This is being organized, at least in part, by the same individuals that are organizing the Occupy the Hood event on Friday 21 October 2011 in Dudley Square. There is also a Facebook event page for "Occupy Boston & Occupy the Hood present: A Day of Strength and Solidarity" that appears to be for this event and indicates that OB will be participating as well. It will take place 12:00 PM – 3:00 PM outside BPD Headquarters and on the event page it states "a march will be in the works". As of 4:00 PM on 21 October 2011 125 people are listed as attending and 72 maybes.^{viii}

- 10:45 AM – 11:15 AM, 22 October 2011: The Massachusetts Affordable Housing Alliance is organizing a flash mob to take place in Harvard Square to protest Citi Bank's "irresponsible lending practices".^{ix}

Analyst Notes: As of now the BRIC has no information to indicate that OB is involved in this flash mob.

- 2:00 PM, 22 October 2011, (Uncorroborated): Protest against Occupy Boston at Dewey Square.
- 6:00 PM, 22 October 2011: Open Question & Answer Discussion with Noam Chomsky (Occupy Boston).

Analyst Notes: This event is likely to draw a significant amount of people, and Chomsky's events are known to draw counter protests.

- 6:00 PM, 22 October 2011: March in Protest of Humanitarian Award – OB will be marching to protest the Humanitarian Award given to Commissioner Davis, "given to commend success of last week's violent raid at Occupy Boston".^x

Analyst Notes: OB's calendar of events states Dewey Square is the location of this march. There is no further information on OB's website regarding the destination of this march.

- 7:00 PM, 22 October 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled to Occur Sunday, 23 October 2011

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- 12:00 PM – 3:00 PM: Conference Follow-Up Events for the Digital Media Conference & Grassroots Use of Technology Conference. There are two sessions for Sunday, 12:00 – 1:30 PM, and 1:30 – 3:00 PM; both at Lesley University, Doble Campus Woldford House.^{xi}
- 4:30 PM – 6:00 PM: OB Panel at Harvard – A Harvard student is putting together a panel to take place in the Quincy House Junior Common Room at Harvard and is looking for a couple students to volunteer to speak. The panel will be focused on information about OB, "what we are fighting for and why it's important".^{xii}
- There are multiple FSU classes / forums, yoga, faith & spirituality classes etc. planned for Sunday, 23 October 2011 with Occupy Boston. As of 4:00 PM on Friday, 21 October 2011 there are no scheduled marches / rallies.

Events Scheduled to Occur Monday, 24 October 2011

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- A General Protest has been called for on Monday, 24 October 2011 by the hacking group Anonymous as part of Operation USA and Occupy USA movement.
Analyst Notes: Students Occupy Boston posted this in the summary of their GA from last night on their Facebook page.^{xiii} Open Source shows that individuals from Occupy Wall Street are calling for a general strike. On Facebook there is a group Call for a General Strike which is "liked" by approximately 1,500 people, but they do not seem to be centralized in one location.^{xiv}
- 6:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 24 October 2011, A Working Class Occupation is scheduled to take place at the "Save our Somerville" banner outside South Station. People from Somerville have arranged to assemble in solidarity with Occupy Boston and will have speakers. As of 4:00 PM on 21 October 2011 66 people are listed as attending and 25 are maybes.^{xv}
Analyst Notes: This event is listed on OB's calendar as "Occupy Somerville Speakers" occurring at 7:00 PM.

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- On Saturday, 22 October 2011, the hacking / activism group Anonymous, in conjunction with numerous "Occupy movements" from "Santa Cruz to Boston", will supposedly launch "Operation USA" according to a statement posted 17 October 2011 claiming to be from Anonymous. According to the statement released, this event will consist of marches and demonstrations organized throughout the country in protest of supposed police brutality against protestors of the Occupy movements and the U.S. Government's failure to protect protesters. According to the statement Operation USA will coincide with “Day of Justice” marches which will supposedly be occurring nationwide.^{xvi} While the statement regarding Operation USA references that it will be a “Cyber Op” there are no specific references to illegal hacking activities planned to coincide with this event. However, it should be noted that the group Anonymous has had significant past involvement in incidents of criminal hacking and cyber intrusion against public figures as well as corporate and government websites and data. At this time the extent of Operation USA is unknown as well as whether Occupy Boston participants will have any involvement in this potential event.

Analyst Notes: According to DHS reports, Anonymous has no formalized central leadership which has complicated law enforcement efforts to target illegal cyber activities engaged in by the group. DHS assesses with high confidence that Anonymous and associated groups will continue to exploit vulnerable publicly available web servers, web sites, computer networks, and other digital information mediums for the foreseeable future.^{xvii} The BRIC does not currently have any information indicating any active threats posed by Anonymous to critical infrastructure assets, systems or networks in the Metro Boston Homeland Security Region. However, DHS reporting highlights the growing technical capability of the group as well as its past demonstrated hacking capabilities opening the potential for evolving incidences of cyber attack.^{xviii} In addition, a recently released DHS bulletin highlights concerns regarding a potential interest of Anonymous in targeting industrial control systems.^{xix}

Situational Awareness “Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 29 21 October 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Events Scheduled for Today, Friday 21 October 2011ⁱ

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- 4:00 PM, 21 October 2011: Discussion, March and Sit-in at Copley Square. Monks of Thich Nhat Hanh’s Plum Village Practice will speak at Occupy Boston at 4:00 PM, take part in a “mindful walk” toward Copley Square at 4:30 PM, and then participate in a “flashmob sitting meditation” at Copley Square at 5:30 PM. As of 10:30 AM on 21 October 2011, the Facebook event page for this event has 76 confirmed attendees and 56 maybes.ⁱⁱ
- 5:00 PM, 21 October 2011: March to Occupy the Hood – An unknown number of Occupy Boston members plan to march from Dewey Square to Dudley Square to show support for the Occupy the Hood action taking place tonight; see below for more details.
- 6:00 PM, 21 October 2011, Occupy the Hood’s first action will be a community speak out / rally held at Dudley Square on the Dudley Plaza (directly across from the new B2 Police Department).ⁱⁱⁱ The Occupy Boston Globe website states that a solidarity march is being planned for this event but there is no corroborating information at this time.

Analyst Notes: Tufts students are organizing a group to go to Dudley Square to show support for the Occupy the Hood occurring at 6:00 PM in Dudley Square. The students are planning to depart Tufts at 4:30 PM As of 4:00 PM on 21 October 2011, 44 people are listed as attending and 11 listed as maybes on the Facebook event page.^{iv} On BU Occupies Boston Facebook page, one person posted: “Heading down to Dewey to march to Dudley: Meet at March Plaza 4:15”. This may indicate that other schools that have participated in OB will march with OB or go directly to Occupy the Hood to show their support.^v

- 7:00 PM, 21 October 2011 – 3:00 PM, 23 October 2011: Social Movements / Digital Revolutions – Digital Media Conference & Grassroots Use of Technology Conference. This conference will begin at 7:00 PM on Friday, 21 October 2011 with events occurring each day through Sunday, 23 October 2011 at 3:00 PM. On Friday, 21 October 2011 at 7:00 PM there will be an Opening Panel: Town Hall Meeting on Media and Democracy at MIT room 10-250. See Saturday and Sunday's list of events for the other events occurring related to this conference.^{vi}

Analyst Notes: This conference could draw people from OB this weekend, as multiple OB participants are speaking at the conference (see Saturday's events for more information).

Events Scheduled to Saturday 22 October 2011

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- 9:00 AM – 6:00 PM: Main Conference of the above listed conference taking place, the Digital Media Conference & Grassroots Use of Technology Conference. This all-day event will be held at Lesley University, Doble Campus Wofford House.^{vii} The complete agenda for Saturday, and the entire weekend can be found at: <http://www.digitalmediaconference.org/2011/node/12>.

- 12:00 PM, 22 October 2011: Occupy the Hood Boston Demonstration for the "16th National Day of Protest to Stop Police Brutality".

Analyst Note: This is being organized, at least in part, by the same individuals that are organizing the Occupy the Hood event on Friday 21 October 2011 in Dudley Square. - 12:00 PM – 3:00 PM: Conference Follow-Up Events for the Digital Media Conference & Grassroots Use of Technology Conference. There are two sessions for Sunday, 12:00 – 1:30 PM, and 1:30 – 3:00 PM; both at Lesley University, Doble Campus Woldford House.^{xi}
- 4:30 PM – 6:00 PM: OB Panel at Harvard – A Harvard student is putting together a panel to take place in the Quincy House Junior Common Room at Harvard and is looking for a couple students to volunteer to speak. The panel will be focused on information about OB, "what we are fighting for and why it's important".^{xii}
- There are multiple FSU classes / forums, yoga, faith & spirituality classes etc. planned for Sunday, 23 October 2011 with Occupy Boston. As of 4:00 PM on Friday, 21 October 2011 there are no scheduled marches / rallies.

Events Scheduled to Occur Monday, 24 October 2011

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- A General Protest has been called for on Monday, 24 October 2011 by the hacking group Anonymous as part of Operation USA and Occupy USA movement.
Analyst Notes: Students Occupy Boston posted this in the summary of their GA from last night on their Facebook page.^{xiii} Open Source shows that individuals from Occupy Wall Street are calling for a general strike. On Facebook there is a group Call for a General Strike which is "liked" by approximately 1,500 people, but they do not seem to be centralized in one location.^{xiv}
- 6:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 24 October 2011, A Working Class Occupation is scheduled to take place at the "Save our Somerville" banner outside South Station. People from Somerville have arranged to assemble in solidarity with Occupy Boston and will have speakers. As of 4:00 PM on 21 October 2011 66 people are listed as attending and 25 are maybes.^{xv}
Analyst Notes: This event is listed on OB's calendar as "Occupy Somerville Speakers" occurring at 7:00 PM.

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- On Saturday, 22 October 2011, the hacking / activism group Anonymous, in conjunction with numerous "Occupy movements" from "Santa Cruz to Boston", will supposedly launch "Operation USA" according to a statement posted 17 October 2011 claiming to be from Anonymous. According to the statement released, this event will consist of marches and demonstrations organized throughout the country in protest of supposed police brutality against protestors of the Occupy movements and the U.S. Government's failure to protect protesters. According to the statement Operation USA will coincide with “Day of Justice” marches which will supposedly be occurring nationwide.^{xvi} While the statement regarding Operation USA references that it will be a “Cyber Op” there are no specific references to illegal hacking activities planned to coincide with this event. However, it should be noted that the group Anonymous has had significant past involvement in incidents of criminal hacking and cyber intrusion against public figures as well as corporate and government websites and data. At this time the extent of Operation USA is unknown as well as whether Occupy Boston participants will have any involvement in this potential event.

Analyst Notes: According to DHS reports, Anonymous has no formalized central leadership which has complicated law enforcement efforts to target illegal cyber activities engaged in by the group. DHS assesses with high confidence that Anonymous and associated groups will continue to exploit vulnerable publicly available web servers, web sites, computer networks, and other digital information mediums for the foreseeable future.^{xvii} The BRIC does not currently have any information indicating any active threats posed by Anonymous to critical infrastructure assets, systems or networks in the Metro Boston Homeland Security Region. However, DHS reporting highlights the growing technical capability of the group as well as its past demonstrated hacking capabilities opening the potential for evolving incidences of cyber attack.^{xviii} In addition, a recently released DHS bulletin highlights concerns regarding a potential interest of Anonymous in targeting industrial control systems.^{xix}

Occupy Boston Related Incidents

- There were several dozen reports of vandalism in A1 over the weekend. Most were incidents of graffiti, much of it anarchist related.
- Hackers associated with the umbrella group Anonymous claimed responsibility for hacking into a website run by the Boston Police Patrolmen's Association and publicly releasing the names, unique usernames and passwords of all BPD patrolmen. Some members of OB have condemned this action and stressed that it was not approved by a consensus of OB members.

Analyst Notes: According to DHS reports, Anonymous has no formalized central leadership which has complicated law enforcement efforts to target illegal cyber activities engaged in by the group. DHS assesses with high confidence that Anonymous and associated groups will continue to exploit vulnerable publicly available web servers, web sites, computer networks, and other digital information mediums for the foreseeable future.^{viii} The BRIC does not currently have any information indicating any active threats posed by Anonymous to critical infrastructure assets, systems or networks in the Metro Boston Homeland Security Region. However, DHS reporting highlights the growing technical capability of the group as well as its past demonstrated hacking capabilities opening the potential for evolving incidences of cyber attack.^{ix} In addition, a recently released DHS bulletin highlights concerns regarding a potential interest of Anonymous in targeting industrial control systems.^x

- Anonymous also hacked into the IACP website releasing over 600 MB of private information including internal documents, membership rosters, addresses, passwords and social security numbers and other confidential data. The IACP website is currently down as of Saturday evening.
- Occupy the Hood took place on Friday, 21 October – estimated crowd was approximately 200 individuals with a large presence of college students from Northeastern and Tufts. Speakers included local activists and politicians and one Latin Kings associate, who called for all gangs to come together.
- On Saturday, 22 October the protest behind HQ took place; approximately 50-60 people attended. They dispersed in the afternoon and headed down to Roxbury Community College.

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- A student walk-out and march is being planned for Monday, October 31 at 1:00 PM. Students from all Boston-area college are being asked to walk out of class and meet at the Boston Common at 1:00 PM for a rally. A march to Dewey Square will follow. As of 8:30 AM on 24 October 2011, this event has 74 confirmed attendees on Facebook.^{xi} This event will be updated as it gets closer.

Key Points Regarding Occupy Boston:

Information Cutoff: Monday, 24 October 2011, 8:30 AM

Events Scheduled for Today, Monday 24 October 2011ⁱ

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- A General Protest has been called for on Monday, 24 October 2011 by the hacking group Anonymous as part of Operation USA and Occupy USA movement.
Analyst Notes: Students Occupy Boston re-posted this in the summary of their GA from last week and on their Facebook page.ⁱⁱ Open Source shows that individuals from Occupy Wall Street are calling for a general strike. On Facebook there is a group call for a General Strike which is “liked” by approximately 1,500 people, but they do not seem to be centralized in one location.ⁱⁱⁱ
- 6:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 24 October 2011: A Working Class Occupation is scheduled to take place at the “Save our Somerville” banner outside South Station. People from Somerville have arranged to assemble in solidarity with Occupy Boston and will have speakers. As of 8:30 AM on 24 October 2011, 70 people are listed as attending and 33 are maybes.^{iv}
- 7:00 PM, 24 October 2011: Public meeting to review “Priority Proposal Process” proposal at the Federal Reserve Plaza.
Analyst Note: Moving forward, there will be General Assemblies on Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays and Sundays. In past weeks, there has been a GA every night.

Events Scheduled for Tuesday, 25 October 2011^v

- No known significant events are scheduled at this time.

Events Scheduled for Wednesday, 26 October 2011^{vi}

- 3:00: PM, 26 October 2011: Free School University Lecture by Nancy Murray: The USA Patriot Act and You. (Occupy Boston) Murray is the Director of Education at the ACLU-Massachusetts.
- 5:00 PM. 26 October 2011, March with Verizon Workers. This march is tentatively scheduled to begin at Dewey Square and go to the “Verizon Wireless Downtown.”
- 9:00 PM, 26 October 2011: Students Occupy Boston, Meeting #8, occurring in Dewey Sq.^{vii} (Students Occupy Boston) Hosted / facilitated by UMass Boston.

Occupy Boston Related Incidents

- There were several dozen reports of vandalism in A1 over the weekend. Most were incidents of graffiti, much of it anarchist related.
- Hackers associated with the umbrella group Anonymous claimed responsibility for hacking into a website run by the Boston Police Patrolmen's Association and publicly releasing the names, unique usernames and passwords of all BPD patrolmen. Some members of OB have condemned this action and stressed that it was not approved by a consensus of OB members.

Analyst Notes: According to DHS reports, Anonymous has no formalized central leadership which has complicated law enforcement efforts to target illegal cyber activities engaged in by the group. DHS assesses with high confidence that Anonymous and associated groups will continue to exploit vulnerable publicly available web servers, web sites, computer networks, and other digital information mediums for the foreseeable future.viii The BRIC does not currently have any information indicating any active threats posed by Anonymous to critical infrastructure assets, systems or networks in the Metro Boston Homeland Security Region. However, DHS reporting highlights the growing technical capability of the group as well as its past demonstrated hacking capabilities opening the potential for evolving incidences of cyber attack.ix In addition, a recently released DHS bulletin highlights concerns regarding a potential interest of Anonymous in targeting industrial control systems. x

- Anonymous also hacked into the IACP website releasing over 600 MB of private information including internal documents, membership rosters, addresses, passwords and social security numbers and other confidential data. The IACP website is currently down as of Saturday evening.
- Occupy the Hood took place on Friday, 21 October – estimated crowd was approximately 200 individuals with a large presence of college students from Northeastern and Tufts. Speakers included local activists and politicians and one Latin Kings associate, who called for all gangs to come together.
- On Saturday, 22 October the protest behind HQ took place; approximately 50-60 people attended. They dispersed in the afternoon and headed down to Roxbury Community College.

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- A student walk-out and march is being planned for Monday, October 31 at 1:00 PM. Students from all Boston-area college are being asked to walk out of class and meet at the Boston Common at 1:00 PM for a rally. A march to Dewey Square will follow. As of 8:30 AM on 24 October 2011, this event has 74 confirmed attendees on Facebook.^{xi} This event will be updated as it gets closer.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 31

24 October 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Events Scheduled to Occur Monday, 24 October 2011

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- 6:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 24 October 2011, A Working Class Occupation is scheduled to take place at the “Save our Somerville” banner outside South Station. People from Somerville have arranged to assemble in solidarity with Occupy Boston and will have speakers. As of 3:00 PM on 21 October 2011 71 people are listed as attending and 35 are maybes.ⁱ
Analyst Notes: This event is listed on OB’s calendar as “Occupy Somerville Speakers” occurring at 7:00 PM. Tufts Occupiers have noted they will be participating in support of this event.
- Today marks the start of the trial for Tarek Mehanna with the jury selection. The trial is scheduled to last through 2 December 2011 at the Federal Court in South Boston.

Events Scheduled to Occur Tuesday, 25 October 2011

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- No known significant events are scheduled at this time.

Events Scheduled for Wednesday, 26 October 2011ⁱⁱ

- 3:00: PM, 26 October 2011: Free School University Lecture by Nancy Murray: The USA Patriot Act and You. (Occupy Boston) Murray is the Director of Education at the ACLU-Massachusetts.
- 5:00 PM. 26 October 2011, March with Verizon Workers. This march is tentatively scheduled to begin at Dewey Square and go to the “Verizon Wireless Downtown.”
- 9:00 PM, 26 October 2011: Students Occupy Boston, Meeting #8, occurring in Dewey Sq.ⁱⁱⁱ (Students Occupy Boston) Hosted / facilitated by UMass Boston.

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 27 October 2011

- 7:30 AM, 27 October 2011: Supporters for Tarek Mehanna are calling for a rally and march from Dewey Square to the Moakley Courthouse in South Boston.

Analyst Notes: This type of march has the possibility of occurring consistently throughout the Mehanna trial. There is a Facebook page encouraging people to come every day or when they can, but especially on important trial days to show support for Mehanna.^{iv} There has been no indication of OB's corroboration with supporters of Tarek Mehanna; however, it is possible for these two groups to overlap and coordinate marches together.

- 11:00 AM, 27 October 2011: Free School University – Van Jones Environmental activist and civil rights activist Van Jones will be visiting Occupy Boston.^v

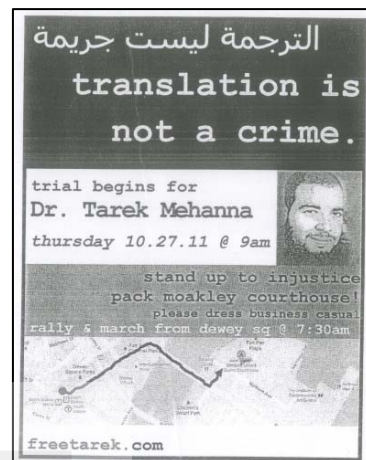

Analyst Notes: Van Jones is a globally recognized in his efforts for human rights and the clean energy economy. In 2009, TIME magazine called him one of the 100 most influential people in the world. Van has also spoken at Occupy Wall Street.

- 5:00 PM, 27 October 2011: Annual March and Rally for Peace by Mothers for Justice & Equality. This march will go from the Dudley, Jackson and Ruggles MBTA station to the Reggie Lewis Center.^{vi}

Analyst Notes: This event is also posted on OB's calendar, indicating their intent to join and support this march. OB has also posted that after the march from 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM there will be a rally at Roxbury Community College.^{vii}

- 6:30 PM, 27 October 2011: Protest of Gilad Sharon – son of Ariel Sharon. Gilad Sharon is scheduled to be speaking at a free forum “The Life of a Leader” at the Walsh Theater at Suffolk University; individuals are planning on protesting this event.^{viii}

Analyst Notes: Is it unknown at this time if the protestors will be attending or staying outside; but it should be noted this event is free.

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- On Saturday, 22 October 2011, the hacking / activism group Anonymous, in conjunction with numerous “Occupy movements” from “Santa Cruz to Boston”, will supposedly launch “Operation USA” according to a statement posted 17 October 2011 claiming to be from Anonymous. According to the statement released, this event will consist of marches and demonstrations organized throughout the country in protest of supposed police brutality against protestors of the Occupy movements and the U.S. Government’s failure to protect protesters. According to the statement Operation USA will coincide with “Day of Justice” marches which will supposedly be occurring nationwide.^{ix} While the statement regarding Operation USA references that it will be a “Cyber Op” there are no specific references to illegal hacking activities planned to coincide with this event. However, it should be noted that the group Anonymous has had significant past involvement in incidents of criminal hacking and cyber intrusion against public figures as well as corporate and government websites and data. At this time the extent of Operation USA is unknown as well as whether Occupy Boston participants will have any involvement in this potential event.

Analyst Notes: According to DHS reports, Anonymous has no formalized central leadership which has complicated law enforcement efforts to target illegal cyber activities engaged in by the group. DHS assesses with high confidence that Anonymous and associated groups will continue to exploit vulnerable publicly available web servers, web sites, computer networks, and other digital information mediums for the foreseeable future.^x The BRIC does not currently have any information indicating any active threats posed by Anonymous to critical infrastructure assets, systems or networks in the Metro Boston Homeland Security Region. However, DHS reporting highlights the growing technical capability of the group as well as its past demonstrated hacking capabilities opening the potential for evolving incidences of cyber attack.^{xi} In addition, a recently released DHS bulletin highlights concerns regarding a potential interest of Anonymous in targeting industrial control systems.^{xii}

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Events Scheduled to Occur Monday, 24 October 2011

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- 6:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 24 October 2011, A Working Class Occupation is scheduled to take place at the “Save our Somerville” banner outside South Station. People from Somerville have arranged to assemble in solidarity with Occupy Boston and will have speakers. As of 3:00 PM on 21 October 2011 71 people are listed as attending and 35 are maybes.ⁱ
Analyst Notes: This event is listed on OB’s calendar as “Occupy Somerville Speakers” occurring at 7:00 PM. Tufts Occupiers have noted they will be participating in support of this event.
- Today marks the start of the trial for Tarek Mehanna with the jury selection. The trial is scheduled to last through 2 December 2011 at the Federal Court in South Boston.

Events Scheduled to Occur Tuesday, 25 October 2011

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- No known significant events are scheduled at this time.

Events Scheduled for Wednesday, 26 October 2011ⁱⁱ

- 3:00: PM, 26 October 2011: Free School University Lecture by Nancy Murray: The USA Patriot Act and You. (Occupy Boston) Murray is the Director of Education at the ACLU-Massachusetts.
- 5:00 PM. 26 October 2011, March with Verizon Workers. This march is tentatively scheduled to begin at Dewey Square and go to the “Verizon Wireless Downtown.”
- 9:00 PM, 26 October 2011: Students Occupy Boston, Meeting #8, occurring in Dewey Sq.ⁱⁱⁱ (Students Occupy Boston) Hosted / facilitated by UMass Boston.

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 27 October 2011

- 7:30 AM, 27 October 2011: Supporters for Tarek Mehanna are calling for a rally and march from Dewey Square to the Moakley Courthouse in South Boston.

Analyst Notes: This type of march has the possibility of occurring consistently throughout the Mehanna trial. There is a Facebook page encouraging people to come every day or when they can, but especially on important trial days to show support for Mehanna.^{iv} There has been no indication of OB's corroboration with supporters of Tarek Mehanna; however, it is possible for these two groups to overlap and coordinate marches together.

- 11:00 AM, 27 October 2011: Free School University – Van Jones Environmental activist and civil rights activist Van Jones will be visiting Occupy Boston.^v

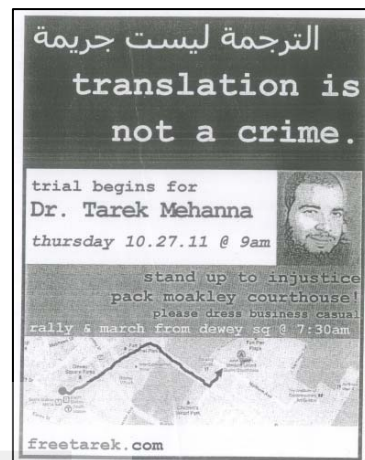

Analyst Notes: Van Jones is a globally recognized in his efforts for human rights and the clean energy economy. In 2009, TIME magazine called him one of the 100 most influential people in the world. Van has also spoken at Occupy Wall Street.

- 5:00 PM, 27 October 2011: Annual March and Rally for Peace by Mothers for Justice & Equality. This march will go from the Dudley, Jackson and Ruggles MBTA station to the Reggie Lewis Center.^{vi}

Analyst Notes: This event is also posted on OB's calendar, indicating their intent to join and support this march. OB has also posted that after the march from 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM there will be a rally at Roxbury Community College.^{vii}

- 6:30 PM, 27 October 2011: Protest of Gilad Sharon – son of Ariel Sharon. Gilad Sharon is scheduled to be speaking at a free forum “The Life of a Leader” at the Walsh Theater at Suffolk University; individuals are planning on protesting this event.^{viii}

Analyst Notes: Is it unknown at this time if the protestors will be attending or staying outside; but it should be noted this event is free.

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- On Saturday, 22 October 2011, the hacking / activism group Anonymous, in conjunction with numerous “Occupy movements” from “Santa Cruz to Boston”, will supposedly launch “Operation USA” according to a statement posted 17 October 2011 claiming to be from Anonymous. According to the statement released, this event will consist of marches and demonstrations organized throughout the country in protest of supposed police brutality against protestors of the Occupy movements and the U.S. Government’s failure to protect protesters. According to the statement Operation USA will coincide with “Day of Justice” marches which will supposedly be occurring nationwide.^{ix} While the statement regarding Operation USA references that it will be a “Cyber Op” there are no specific references to illegal hacking activities planned to coincide with this event. However, it should be noted that the group Anonymous has had significant past involvement in incidents of criminal hacking and cyber intrusion against public figures as well as corporate and government websites and data. At this time the extent of Operation USA is unknown as well as whether Occupy Boston participants will have any involvement in this potential event.

Analyst Notes: According to DHS reports, Anonymous has no formalized central leadership which has complicated law enforcement efforts to target illegal cyber activities engaged in by the group. DHS assesses with high confidence that Anonymous and associated groups will continue to exploit vulnerable publicly available web servers, web sites, computer networks, and other digital information mediums for the foreseeable future.^x The BRIC does not currently have any information indicating any active threats posed by Anonymous to critical infrastructure assets, systems or networks in the Metro Boston Homeland Security Region. However, DHS reporting highlights the growing technical capability of the group as well as its past demonstrated hacking capabilities opening the potential for evolving incidences of cyber attack.^{xi} In addition, a recently released DHS bulletin highlights concerns regarding a potential interest of Anonymous in targeting industrial control systems.^{xii}

- Anonymous also hacked into the IACP website releasing over 600 MB of private information including internal documents, membership rosters, addresses, passwords and social security numbers and other confidential data. The IACP website is currently down as of Saturday evening.
- Occupy the Hood took place on Friday, 21 October – estimated crowd was approximately 200 individuals with a large presence of college students from Northeastern and Tufts. Speakers included local activists and politicians and one Latin Kings associate, who called for all gangs to come together.
- On Saturday, 22 October the protest behind HQ took place; approximately 50-60 people attended. They dispersed in the afternoon and headed down to Roxbury Community College.

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- A student walk-out and march is being planned for Monday, October 31 at 1:00 PM. Students from all Boston-area college are being asked to walk out of class and meet at the Boston Common at 1:00 PM for a rally. A march to Dewey Square will follow. As of 4:00 PM on 24 October 2011, this event has 82 confirmed attendees on Facebook.^{xiii} This event will be updated as it gets closer.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 33

25 October 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Events Scheduled to Occur Today, 25 October 2011

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- 5:00 PM – 6:00 PM, 25 October 2011 (Uncorroborated): Occupy Boston participants will meet at 4:30 PM in Dewey Square and march at 5:00 PM in support of and to show solidarity with Occupy Oakland. There is no further information on where this march will take place.
Analyst Notes: Today in Oakland, CA hundreds of police officers in riot gear cleared the plaza and another encampment that protestors have been camping in for nearly 2 weeks. Multiple arrests were made; but no confirmed numbers as of 2:30 PM. Chatter on Twitter leads to accusations of tear gas, flash grenades and rubber bullets used by police. News reports confirmed use of tear gas but there is conflicting stories of whether police or protestors deployed the use of it. OB is actively tweeting links to this story and calling for a march.
- 7:00 PM, 18 October 2011: General Assembly, Dewey Sq. (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Wednesday, 26 October 2011ⁱ

- 12:00 PM, 26 October 2011: Protest of the Patriot Act. OB will rally at Dewey Square at 12:00 PM and march at 1:00 PM in protest of the Patriot Act and the expanding prison-industrial complex. (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: This is on OB's main website "home" page, but has not yet been added to their calendar of events on the same website. The location of this march is unknown at this time. There has been very little discussion regarding this march today; the BRIC has no further information on numbers or location, the BRIC will continue to assess open source material surrounding this march.

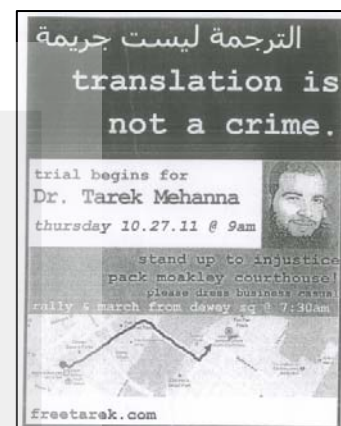

- 3:00 PM, 26 October 2011: Free School University Lecture by Nancy Murray: The USA Patriot Act and You. (Occupy Boston) Murray is the Director of Education at the ACLU-Massachusetts.
- 5:00 PM, 26 October 2011, March with Verizon Workers. This march is tentatively scheduled to begin at Dewey Square and go to the "Verizon Wireless Downtown."
- 9:00 PM, 26 October 2011: Students Occupy Boston, Meeting #8, occurring in Dewey Square.ⁱⁱ (Students Occupy Boston) Hosted / facilitated by UMass Boston.

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 27 October 2011

- 7:30 AM, 27 October 2011: Supporters for Tarek Mehanna are calling for a rally and march from Dewey Square to the Moakley Courthouse in South Boston.

Analyst Notes: This type of march has the possibility of occurring consistently throughout the Mehanna trial, which began jury selection yesterday. There is a Facebook page encouraging people to come every day or when they can, but especially on important trial days to show support for Mehanna.ⁱⁱⁱ

The BRIC received information that a counter protest will take place at 8:00 AM on Thursday, 27 October 2011 by American for Peace and Tolerance. It is unknown at this time if OB will join with Mehanna supporters and rally at Dewey Square for 7:30 AM to march to the courthouse. However, it should be noted that OB has conducted marches in support of Mehanna in the past.

- 11:00 AM, 27 October 2011: Free School University –Environmental activist and civil rights activist Van Jones will be visiting Occupy Boston.^{iv}
- 5:00 PM, 27 October 2011: Annual March and Rally for Peace by Mothers for Justice & Equality. This march will go from the Dudley, Jackson and Ruggles MBTA station to the Reggie Lewis Center and will be followed by a rally at RCC from 6:00 PM and 8:00 PM.^v
- 6:30 PM, 27 October 2011: Protest of Gilad Sharon – son of Ariel Sharon. Gilad Sharon is scheduled to be speaking at a free forum, "The Life of a Leader," at the Walsh Theater at Suffolk University; individuals are planning on protesting this event.^{vi}

Analyst Notes: Is it unknown at this time if the protestors will be attending or staying outside; but it should be noted that this event is free and open to the public. There has been no OB related chatter pertaining to this event.

- 7:00 PM, 18 October 2011: General Assembly, Dewey Sq. (Occupy Boston)

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- A march for New England Solidarity is being planned for Saturday, 29 October. This event has 42 confirmed attendees on facebook as of 2:30 PM on 25 October 2011. (Occupy Boston)^{vii}
- A student walk-out and march is being planned for Monday, October 31 at 1:00 PM. Students from all Boston-area colleges are being asked to walk out of class and meet at the Boston Common at 1:00 PM for a rally. A march to Dewey Square will follow. As of 3:30 PM on 25 October 2011, this event has 105 confirmed attendees on Facebook.^{viii} This event will be updated as it gets closer. (Occupy Boston)

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 33

25 October 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Events Scheduled to Occur Today, 25 October 2011

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- 5:00 PM – 6:00 PM, 25 October 2011 (Uncorroborated): Occupy Boston participants will meet at 4:30 PM in Dewey Square and march at 5:00 PM in support of and to show solidarity with Occupy Oakland. There is no further information on where this march will take place.
Analyst Notes: Today in Oakland, CA hundreds of police officers in riot gear cleared the plaza and another encampment that protestors have been camping in for nearly 2 weeks. Multiple arrests were made; but no confirmed numbers as of 2:30 PM. Chatter on Twitter leads to accusations of tear gas, flash grenades and rubber bullets used by police. News reports confirmed use of tear gas but there is conflicting stories of whether police or protestors deployed the use of it. OB is actively tweeting links to this story and calling for a march.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 34

26 October 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Events Scheduled to Occur Today, 26 October 2011

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- 12:00 PM, 26 October 2011: Protest of the Patriot Act. OB will rally at Dewey Square at 12:00 PM and march at 1:00 PM in protest of the Patriot Act and the expanding prison-industrial complex.ⁱ (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: This is on OB's main website homepage, but has not yet been added to their calendar of events on the same website. The route of this march and the extent of OBs participation are unknown at this time.
- 3:00: PM, 26 October 2011: Free School University Lecture by Nancy Murray: The USA Patriot Act and You. (Occupy Boston) Murray is the Director of Education at the ACLU-Massachusetts.
- 26 October 2011: A flash mob was referenced during the GA last night, but no time or location was given. This event is not on the calendar and has not been discussed on social media sites.
- 5:00 PM. 26 October 2011, March with Verizon Workers. This march is tentatively scheduled to begin at Dewey Square and go to the “Verizon Wireless Downtown.”
Analyst Note: Based on past protests, this march may go to the Verizon Wireless store in Downtown Crossing. OB has not officially announced a march route yet.
- 9:00 PM, 26 October 2011: Students Occupy Boston, Meeting #8, occurring in Dewey Square.ⁱⁱ (Students Occupy Boston) Hosted / facilitated by UMass Boston.

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 27 October 2011

- 7:30 AM, 27 October 2011: Supporters for Tarek Mehanna are calling for a rally and march from Dewey Square to the Moakley Courthouse in South Boston.
Analyst Notes: This type of march has the possibility of occurring consistently throughout the Mehanna trial, which is currently in jury selection and is expected to last 6-8 weeks.. There is a Facebook page encouraging people to come every day or when they can, but especially on important trial days to show support for Mehanna.ⁱⁱⁱ
The BRIC received information that a counter protest will take place at 8:00 AM on Thursday, 27 October 2011 by Americans for Peace and Tolerance. It is unknown at this time if OB will join with Mehanna supporters and rally at Dewey Square for 7:30 AM to march to the courthouse. However, it should be noted that OB has conducted marches in support of Mehanna in the past.
- 11:00 AM, 27 October 2011: Free School University – Van Jones Environmental activist and civil rights activist Van Jones will be visiting Occupy Boston.^{iv}
Analyst Notes: Van Jones is a globally recognized in his efforts for human rights and the clean energy economy. In 2009, TIME magazine recognized him one of the 100 most influential people in the world. Jones has also spoken at Occupy Wall Street.
- 5:00 PM, 27 October 2011: Annual March and Rally for Peace by Mothers for Justice & Equality. This march will go from the Dudley, Jackson and Ruggles MBTA station to the Reggie Lewis Center and will be followed by a rally at RCC from 6:00 PM and 8:00 PM.^v
Analyst Notes: This event is also posted on OB's calendar, indicating their intent to join and support this march.
- 6:30 PM, 27 October 2011: Protest of Gilad Sharon – son of Ariel Sharon. Gilad Sharon is scheduled to be speaking at a free forum, "The Life of a Leader," at the Walsh Theater at Suffolk University; individuals are planning on protesting this event.^{vi}
*Analyst Notes: Is it unknown at this time if the protestors will be attending or staying outside; but it should be noted that this event is free and open to the public. It is unlikely that this event will receive significant attention from OB protestors.
- 7:00 PM, 18 October 2011: General Assembly, Dewey Sq. (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Friday, 28 October 2011

- 3:00: PM, 28 October 2011: Free School University Lecture by Dennis Fox: Challenging Basic Assumptions, Personal & PoliticalThe USA Patriot Act and You. (Occupy Boston) Murray is the Director of Education at the ACLU- Massachusetts.
Analyst Notes: Fox is a retired professor of Legal Studies and Psychology at the University of Illinois at Springfield. His work focuses on the intersection of social psychology and anarchist theory and practice.

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- A march for New England Solidarity is being planned for Saturday, 29 October. This event has 42 confirmed attendees on facebook as of 2:30 PM on 25 October 2011. (Occupy Boston)^{vii}
- A student walk-out and march is being planned for Monday, October 31 at 1:00 PM. Students from all Boston-area colleges are being asked to walk out of class and meet at the Boston Common at 1:00 PM for a rally. A march to Dewey Square will follow. As of 3:30 PM on 25 October 2011, this event has 105 confirmed attendees on Facebook.^{viii} This event will be updated as it gets closer. (Occupy Boston)

General Notes Regarding the Occupy Movement:

- Police in Atlanta broke up the Occupy Atlanta camp overnight, arresting 53 protesters who ignored warnings to leave Woodruff Park. According to open source reporting, the arrests were orderly and peaceful and took less than an hour.^{ix}
 - Analyst Notes: This event has received limited attention from OB supporters, but it is unknown at this time if they will march in solidarity as they did yesterday evening.

The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Events Scheduled to Occur Today, 26 October 2011

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events.

- 26 October 2011: A flash mob was referenced during OB's GA last night, but no time or location was given. This event is not on OB's calendar and has not been discussed on social media sites.
- 5:00 PM, 26 October 2011, March with Verizon Workers. This march is tentatively scheduled to begin at Dewey Square and go to the “Verizon Wireless Downtown.”
Analyst Note: Based on past protests, this march may go to the Verizon Wireless store in Downtown Crossing. OB has not officially announced a march route yet.
- 9:00 PM, 26 October 2011: Students Occupy Boston, Meeting #8, occurring in Dewey Square.ⁱ (Students Occupy Boston) Hosted / facilitated by UMass Boston.
- 9:00 PM, 26 October 2011: March in Solidarity with Occupy Oakland. This was tweeted late this afternoon by Occupy Boston Direct Action, saying that Occupy Oakland will be marching at 6:00 PM pacific time and OB will march with them at 9:00 PM eastern time.ⁱⁱ

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 27 October 2011

- 7:30 AM, 27 October 2011: Supporters for Tarek Mehanna are calling for a rally and march from Dewey Square to the Moakley Courthouse in South Boston.
*Analyst Notes: This type of march has the possibility of occurring consistently throughout the Mehanna trial, which is currently in jury selection and is expected to last 6-8 weeks. There is a Facebook page encouraging people to come every day or when they can, but especially on important trial days to show support for Mehanna.*ⁱⁱⁱ

The BRIC received information that a counter protest will take place at 8:00 AM on Thursday, 27 October 2011 by Americans for Peace and Tolerance, who expect to have approximately 25 people protesting. It is unknown at this time if OB will join with Mehanna supporters and rally at Dewey Square for 7:30 AM to march to the courthouse. However, it should be noted that OB has conducted marches in support of Mehanna in the past.

- 11:00 AM, 27 October 2011: Free School University – Van Jones Environmental activist and civil rights activist Van Jones will be visiting Occupy Boston.^{iv}

Analyst Notes: Van Jones is a globally recognized in his efforts for human rights and the clean energy economy. In 2009, TIME magazine recognized him one of the 100 most influential people in the world. Jones has also spoken at Occupy Wall Street.

- 5:00 PM, 27 October 2011: Annual March and Rally for Peace by Mothers for Justice & Equality. This march will go from the Dudley, Jackson and Ruggles MBTA station to the Reggie Lewis Center and will be followed by a rally at RCC from 6:00 PM and 8:00 PM.^v

Analyst Notes: This event is also posted on OB's calendar, indicating their intent to join and support this march.

- 6:30 PM, 27 October 2011: Protest of Gilad Sharon – son of Ariel Sharon. Gilad Sharon is scheduled to be speaking at a free forum, "The Life of a Leader," at the Walsh Theater at Suffolk University; individuals are planning on protesting this event.^{vi}

Analyst Notes: Is it unknown at this time if the protestors will be attending or staying outside; but it should be noted that this event is free and open to the public. It is unknown if this event will receive significant attention from OB protestors.

- 7:00 PM, 18 October 2011: General Assembly, Dewey Sq. (Occupy Boston)
- 9:00 PM, 27 October 2011: Winterizing Meeting (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Friday, 28 October 2011

- 3:00: PM, 28 October 2011: Free School University Lecture by Dennis Fox: Challenging Basic Assumptions, Personal & PoliticalThe USA Patriot Act and You. (Occupy Boston) Murray is the Director of Education at the ACLU – Massachusetts.

Analyst Notes: Fox is a retired professor of Legal Studies and Psychology at the University of Illinois at Springfield. His work focuses on the intersection of social psychology and anarchist theory and practice.

Events Scheduled for Monday, 31 October 2011

- 1:00 PM, 31 October 2011: Occupy Boston in collaboration with Students Occupy Boston is calling for a city-wide walkout rally and march. Each campus involved is organizing to walk out of class at the same time and to convene at the gazebo in the Boston Common for 1:00 PM. The rally in the commons will then be followed by a march to Dewey Square. Students are encouraging participants to dress as zombie bankers. The purpose of this march is to draw attention to students' concerns such as affordable higher education and student loans. This event has been noted on Students

Occupy Boston's website as well as added to OB's calendar. On the Facebook page for this event as of 2:30 PM on 26 October 122 are listed as attending.^{vii}

Analyst Notes: At this time it is unknown how many colleges / universities will be participating. The BRIC will update this event as more information becomes available.

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- A march for New England Solidarity is being planned for Saturday, 29 October. This event has 45 confirmed attendees on Facebook as of 2:30 PM on 26 October 2011. (Occupy Boston)^{viii}

General Notes Regarding the Occupy Movement:

- The encampment at Dewey Square passed an inspection today by the Boston Public Health Commissioner.^{ix}
- Police in Atlanta broke up the Occupy Atlanta camp overnight, arresting 53 protesters who ignored warnings to leave Woodruff Park. According to open source reporting, the arrests were orderly and peaceful and took less than an hour.^x
 - Analyst Notes: This event has received limited attention from OB supporters, but it is unknown at this time if they will march in solidarity as they did yesterday evening.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 37

27 October 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Events Scheduled for Today, Thursday, 27 October 2011

- 5:00 PM, 27 October 2011: Annual March and Rally for Peace by Mothers for Justice & Equality. This march will go from Dudley to Jackson to Ruggles MBTA station and then to the Reggie Lewis Center and will be followed by a rally at RCC from 6:00 PM and 8:00 PM.ⁱ The group is hoping to have at least 200 people join the march at each stop.
Analyst Notes: This event is also posted on OB's calendar and there has been online dialogue concerning coordinating efforts between OB and the Mothers.
- 6:30 PM, 27 October 2011: Protest of Gilad Sharon – son of Ariel Sharon. Gilad Sharon is scheduled to be speaking at a free forum, “The Life of a Leader,” at the Walsh Theater at Suffolk University; individuals are planning on protesting this event.ⁱⁱ
Analyst Notes: Is it unknown at this time if the protestors will be attending or staying outside; but it should be noted that this event is free and open to the public. It is unknown if this event will receive attention from OB protestors.
- A nationwide peaceful vigil will be held tonight from 7:00 PM – 8:00 PM in Oakland for Scott Olsen, a Marine veteran who was critically injured and remains in the hospital with a fractured skull when OPD removed protesters from their camp on 25 October.
Analyst Notes: The Facebook page for this event asks for Occupy movements across the nation to hold a solidarity vigil at this time (7:00 PM in their respective time zones).ⁱⁱⁱ This was re-tweeted OB participants; however, it is unknown at this time if OB will participate. It should be noted that OB marched last night at 9:00 PM in solidarity with Oakland who marched at 6:00 PM their time.

- 7:00 PM, 27 October 2011: General Assembly, Dewey Sq. (Occupy Boston)
- 9:00 PM, 27 October 2011: Winterizing Meeting (Occupy Boston)
- 10:00 PM, 27 October 2011: Student GA held at Harvard (exact location unknown). This GA is being held in response to Oakland's call for a general strike / walkout on 2 November 2011 (see general notes on Occupy movement for more information regarding this event). The students will be discussing whether or not to hold their previously planned walkout for 31 October 2011, to postpone and walkout in solidarity with Oakland on 2 November 2011, or participate in both events.^{iv}

Events Scheduled for Friday, 28 October 2011

- 3:00: PM, 28 October 2011: Free School University Lecture by Dennis Fox: Challenging Basic Assumptions, Personal & Political The USA Patriot Act and You. (Occupy Boston) Murray is the Director of Education at the ACLU – Massachusetts.^v
Analyst Notes: Fox is a retired professor of Legal Studies and Psychology at the University of Illinois at Springfield. His work focuses on the intersection of social psychology and anarchist theory and practice.
- Time TBD, 28 October 2011: During a march on 26 October, the possibility of a night march on Friday was mentioned. There is no internet activity to corroborate this information at this time.
Analyst Notes: There are indications that night marches may occur with more frequency moving forward.

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 29 October 2011

- The group Adbusters is calling for a Robin Hood Global March for 29 October 2011 (the eve of the G20 Leaders Summit in France), and encouraging Occupy movements across the globe to participate. Protestors are called on to demand that the G20 leaders impose a 1% tax on all financial transactions and currency trades. Adbusters is asking that Occupy movements propose this at their GA's.^{vi}
- 1:00 PM, 29 October 2011: OB organizers are planning a march for New England Solidarity. They hope to draw representation from members of Occupy New Hampshire, Occupy Worcester and a number of local organizations, unions and students. This event has 50 confirmed attendees on Facebook as of 3:00 PM on 27 October 2011.^{vii}
- 2:00 PM, 29 October 2011: Winterizing Meeting (Occupy Boston)
- 4:00: PM, 29 October 2011: Free School University Lecture by Glenn Greenwald: With Liberty and Justice for Some. (Occupy Boston) Greenwald is a best-selling author and political commentator.
Analyst Note: This event has the potential to attract non-OB members to the Dewey Square encampment.
- 7:00 PM, 29 October 2011: General Assembly, Dewey Sq. (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Sunday, 30 October 2011

- Multiple classes, group meetings, a concert, and a GA are scheduled for Sunday; no significant events / marches as of 3:00 PM on 27 October 2011. (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Monday, 31 October 2011

- 1:00 PM, 31 October 2011: Occupy Boston in collaboration with Students Occupy Boston is calling for a city-wide walkout rally and march. Each campus involved is organizing to walk out of class at the same time and to convene at the gazebo in the Boston Common for 1:00 PM. The rally in the commons will then be followed by a march to Dewey Square. Students are encouraging participants to dress as zombie bankers. This event has been noted on the Students Occupy Boston's website and is on OB's calendar as well. There is a Facebook page for this event, as of 3:00 PM on 27 October 133 are listed as attending.^{viii}

Analyst Notes: At this time it is unknown how many colleges / universities will be participating. The BRIC will update this event as more information becomes available.

Occupy Boston Actions/Marches

- There were three separate marches on 26 October 2011
 - The 12:00 PM march against the patriot act was small with only 25 participants.
 - The 5:00 PM march in solidarity with Verizon workers drew approximately 50 participants. Demonstrators walked to the Verizon Store on Washington Street and then went to South Station where they blocked one entrance for 15 minutes.
 - A 9:00 PM march in solidarity with Occupy Oakland was not announced until approximately 4:00 PM, yet drew roughly 150 people. The protestors marched for two hours, stopping at a private residence on Beacon Street to protest outside for ten minutes before moving on. There was chatter of more late night marches including one on Friday night at a time TBD.

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- The encampment at Dewey Square passed an inspection yesterday by the Boston Public Health Commissioner.^{ix}

General Notes Regarding the Occupy Movement:

- Occupy Oakland is calling for a general strike to take place on 2 November 2011 in retaliation for Scott Olsen's injuries endured on 25 October. Protestors are requesting students and workers not to attend school/work and to convene in downtown Oakland.^x
Analyst Notes: OB posted on this on their website, it is unknown if they will participate in this strike but they have participated in solidarity events with Occupy Oakland in the past.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 37

27 October 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Events Scheduled for Today, Thursday, 27 October 2011

- 5:00 PM, 27 October 2011: Annual March and Rally for Peace by Mothers for Justice & Equality. This march will go from Dudley to Jackson to Ruggles MBTA station and then to the Reggie Lewis Center and will be followed by a rally at RCC from 6:00 PM and 8:00 PM.ⁱ The group is hoping to have at least 200 people join the march at each stop.
Analyst Notes: This event is also posted on OB's calendar and there has been online dialogue concerning coordinating efforts between OB and the Mothers.
- 6:30 PM, 27 October 2011: Protest of Gilad Sharon – son of Ariel Sharon. Gilad Sharon is scheduled to be speaking at a free forum, “The Life of a Leader,” at the Walsh Theater at Suffolk University; individuals are planning on protesting this event.ⁱⁱ
Analyst Notes: Is it unknown at this time if the protestors will be attending or staying outside; but it should be noted that this event is free and open to the public. It is unknown if this event will receive attention from OB protestors.
- A nationwide peaceful vigil will be held tonight from 7:00 PM – 8:00 PM in Oakland for Scott Olsen, a Marine veteran who was critically injured and remains in the hospital with a fractured skull when OPD removed protesters from their camp on 25 October.
Analyst Notes: The Facebook page for this event asks for Occupy movements across the nation to hold a solidarity vigil at this time (7:00 PM in their respective time zones).ⁱⁱⁱ This was re-tweeted OB participants; however, it is unknown at this time if OB will participate. It should be noted that OB marched last night at 9:00 PM in solidarity with Oakland who marched at 6:00 PM their time.

- 7:00 PM, 27 October 2011: General Assembly, Dewey Sq. (Occupy Boston)
- 9:00 PM, 27 October 2011: Winterizing Meeting (Occupy Boston)
- 10:00 PM, 27 October 2011: Student GA held at Harvard (exact location unknown). This GA is being held in response to Oakland's call for a general strike / walkout on 2 November 2011 (see general notes on Occupy movement for more information regarding this event). The students will be discussing whether or not to hold their previously planned walkout for 31 October 2011, to postpone and walkout in solidarity with Oakland on 2 November 2011, or participate in both events.^{iv}

Events Scheduled for Friday, 28 October 2011

- 3:00: PM, 28 October 2011: Free School University Lecture by Dennis Fox: Challenging Basic Assumptions, Personal & Political The USA Patriot Act and You. (Occupy Boston) Murray is the Director of Education at the ACLU – Massachusetts.^v
Analyst Notes: Fox is a retired professor of Legal Studies and Psychology at the University of Illinois at Springfield. His work focuses on the intersection of social psychology and anarchist theory and practice.
- Time TBD, 28 October 2011: During a march on 26 October, the possibility of a night march on Friday was mentioned. There is no internet activity to corroborate this information at this time.
Analyst Notes: There are indications that night marches may occur with more frequency moving forward.

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 29 October 2011

- The group Adbusters is calling for a Robin Hood Global March for 29 October 2011 (the eve of the G20 Leaders Summit in France), and encouraging Occupy movements across the globe to participate. Protestors are called on to demand that the G20 leaders impose a 1% tax on all financial transactions and currency trades. Adbusters is asking that Occupy movements propose this at their GA's.^{vi}
- 1:00 PM, 29 October 2011: OB organizers are planning a march for New England Solidarity. They hope to draw representation from members of Occupy New Hampshire, Occupy Worcester and a number of local organizations, unions and students. This event has 50 confirmed attendees on Facebook as of 3:00 PM on 27 October 2011.^{vii}
- 2:00 PM, 29 October 2011: Winterizing Meeting (Occupy Boston)
- 4:00: PM, 29 October 2011: Free School University Lecture by Glenn Greenwald: With Liberty and Justice for Some. (Occupy Boston) Greenwald is a best-selling author and political commentator.
Analyst Note: This event has the potential to attract non-OB members to the Dewey Square encampment.
- 7:00 PM, 29 October 2011: General Assembly, Dewey Sq. (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Sunday, 30 October 2011

- Multiple classes, group meetings, a concert, and a GA are scheduled for Sunday; no significant events / marches as of 3:00 PM on 27 October 2011. (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Monday, 31 October 2011

- 1:00 PM, 31 October 2011: Occupy Boston in collaboration with Students Occupy Boston is calling for a city-wide walkout rally and march. Each campus involved is organizing to walk out of class at the same time and to convene at the gazebo in the Boston Common for 1:00 PM. The rally in the commons will then be followed by a march to Dewey Square. Students are encouraging participants to dress as zombie bankers. This event has been noted on the Students Occupy Boston's website and is on OB's calendar as well. There is a Facebook page for this event, as of 3:00 PM on 27 October 133 are listed as attending.^{viii}

Analyst Notes: At this time it is unknown how many colleges / universities will be participating. The BRIC will update this event as more information becomes available.

Occupy Boston Actions/Marches

- There were three separate marches on 26 October 2011
 - The 12:00 PM march against the patriot act was small with only 25 participants.
 - The 5:00 PM march in solidarity with Verizon workers drew approximately 50 participants. Demonstrators walked to the Verizon Store on Washington Street and then went to South Station where they blocked one entrance for 15 minutes.
 - A 9:00 PM march in solidarity with Occupy Oakland was not announced until approximately 4:00 PM, yet drew roughly 150 people. The protestors marched for two hours, stopping at a private residence on Beacon Street to protest outside for ten minutes before moving on. There was chatter of more late night marches including one on Friday night at a time TBD.

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- The encampment at Dewey Square passed an inspection yesterday by the Boston Public Health Commissioner.^{ix}

General Notes Regarding the Occupy Movement:

- Occupy Oakland is calling for a general strike to take place on 2 November 2011 in retaliation for Scott Olsen's injuries endured on 25 October. Protestors are requesting students and workers not to attend school/work and to convene in downtown Oakland.^x
Analyst Notes: OB posted on this on their website, it is unknown if they will participate in this strike but they have participated in solidarity events with Occupy Oakland in the past.

Analyst Notes: There is an ongoing debate among the Students OB over whether to participate in a general strike on Wednesday, 2 November, remain focused on the Halloween walkout, or do both.^{iv}

General Notes Regarding the Occupy Movement:

- Police in Nashville arrested roughly 30 Occupy Nashville protestors early today after they violated a newly enacted curfew for land around the state capital. The protestors were quickly released after a judge refused to sign the warrants.^v
- Occupy Oakland is calling for a general strike to take place on 2 November 2011 in retaliation for Scott Olsen's injuries endured on 25 October. Protestors are requesting students and workers not to attend school/work and to convene in downtown Oakland.^{vi}

Analyst Notes: OB posted this on their website. It is unknown if they will participate in this strike but they have participated in solidarity events with Occupy Oakland.

- The group Adbusters is calling for a Robin Hood Global March for 29 October 2011 (the eve of the G20 Leaders Summit in France), and encouraging Occupy movements across the globe to participate. Protestors are called on to demand that the G20 leaders impose a 1% tax on all financial transactions and currency trades. Adbusters is asking that Occupy movements propose this at their GA's.^{vii}

Analyst Notes: The BRIC has not seen any chatter regarding this march with OB and they do not have this march on their calendar as of 2:30 PM on 27 October 2011; but this does not rule out their participation in such march.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 38

27 October 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Events Scheduled for Today, Friday, 28 October 2011

- Time TBD, 28 October 2011: During a march on 26 October, the possibility of a night march on Friday was mentioned. There is no internet activity to corroborate this information

Analyst Notes: There are indications that night marches may occur with more frequency moving forward. This may also include marches to homes of prominent Boston residents.

- The Massachusetts Nurses Association will conduct a protest outside of 500 Boylston St (Cerberus/ Steward Health Care) today. They will meet at Dewey Square at 12:15 PM and then travel (likely march) to 500 Boylston St for a 1:30 PM rally.

Analyst Note: According to the Massachusetts Nurses Association website, they are meeting at Occupy Boston to, “draw attention to the fact that Cerberus/Steward, exemplifies the unbridled corporate greed that has caused the current financial crisis and undermining of the middle class.”

This event was recently posted on the main OB website, indicating that they may participate in this demonstration. Recall that approximately 300 nurses participated in a demonstration at OB in early October. There is no indication of numbers for today’s march.

- 5:30 PM, 28 October 2011: The Legal team from OB is asking individuals from each working group to meet at the Gandhi statue regarding critical legal tactics and strategies. This was re-tweeted by @caulkthewagon.ⁱ

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 29 October 2011

- 1:00 PM, 29 October 2011: OB organizers are planning a march for New England Solidarity. They hope to draw representation from members of Occupy New Hampshire, Occupy Worcester and a number of local organizations, unions and students. This event has 50 confirmed attendees on Facebook as of 8:30 AM on 28 October 2011.ⁱⁱ
- 2:00 PM, 29 October 2011: Winterizing Meeting (Occupy Boston)
- 7:00 PM, 29 October 2011: General Assembly, Dewey Sq. (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Sunday, 30 October 2011

- Multiple classes, group meetings, a concert, and a GA are scheduled for Sunday; no significant events / marches as of 3:00 PM on 27 October 2011. (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Monday, 31 October 2011

- 1:00 PM, 31 October 2011: Occupy Boston in collaboration with Students Occupy Boston is calling for a city-wide walkout, rally and march. Each campus involved is organizing to walk out of class at the same time and to convene at the gazebo in the Boston Common at 1:00 PM. The rally in the commons will then be followed by a march to Dewey Square. Students are encouraging participants to dress as zombie bankers. This event has been noted on the Students Occupy Boston's website and is on OB's calendar as well. There is a Facebook page for this event, as of 8:30 AM on 28 October 134 are listed as attending.ⁱⁱⁱ

Analyst Notes: There is an ongoing debate among the Students OB over whether to participate in a general strike on Wednesday, 2 November, remain focused on the Halloween walkout, or do both.^{iv}

General Notes Regarding the Occupy Movement:

- Police in Nashville arrested roughly 30 Occupy Nashville protestors early today after they violated a newly enacted curfew for land around the state capital. The protestors were quickly released after a judge refused to sign the warrants.^v
- Occupy Oakland is calling for a general strike to take place on 2 November 2011 in retaliation for Scott Olsen's injuries endured on 25 October. Protestors are requesting students and workers not to attend school/work and to convene in downtown Oakland.^{vi}

- An emergency GA will reportedly be held tonight. This was tweeted by an OB organizer to OBLogistics asking the reason for the emergency GA; there is no further information on time for this GA and this event has not yet been added to OB's calendar. ⁱⁱ

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 29 October 2011

- 1:00 PM, 29 October 2011: OB organizers are planning a march for New England Solidarity. They hope to draw representation from members of Occupy New Hampshire, Occupy Worcester and a number of local organizations, unions and students. This event has 50 confirmed attendees on Facebook as of 3:30 PM on 28 October 2011. ⁱⁱⁱ There has also been chatter of a 12:00 PM rally and march in solidarity with Occupy Oakland; it is likely that these two marches will combine. The BRIC estimates 150-200 participants for the march with Oakland alone based on past marches in solidarity with Oakland; and the New England March for Solidarity has the potential to draw in participants from other New England areas including the above listed group. It should be noted that the 26 October 2011 march in solidarity with Oakland had strong anti-police connotations.

- 2:00 PM, 29 October 2011: Winterizing Meeting (Occupy Boston)
- 4:00 PM, 29 October 2011: Students Occupy Boston GA. This is likely a continuation of the GA from last night in an effort for the students to come to an agreement and solidify a plan for Mondays march versus the general strike on 2 November 2011. ^{iv}

Analyst Notes: There is an ongoing debate among the Students of OB over whether to participate in a general strike on Wednesday, 2 November, remain focused on the Halloween walkout, or do both. ^{vi} Please see below for more information.

General Notes Regarding the Occupy Movement:

- The Providence Police have issued the occupiers in their city an eviction notice, stating they must be out of Burnside Park within 72 hours or legal action will be taken. The Commissioner has stated that they will not physically remove or force protestors out of the park, but that PPD will go through the court system to get them removed. ^{vii}
- Copies of an informational letter titled "When Should You Shoot a Cop?" were found at Occupy Phoenix in Arizona. The letter suggests that law enforcement personnel are corrupt and commit acts of injustice and violence in the name of law enforcement. The document encourages occupiers to resist any action by law enforcement officers that they may see as a violation of citizens' rights. The document also suggests that occasionally resistance involves killing officers. ^{viii}

Analyst Notes: Although not cited, this article found at Occupy Phoenix appears to be the same article published by the group CopBlock on their website a few months ago.

- Occupy Boston posted an article on their website "Victory in Oakland" in reference to the Mayor Jean Quan allegedly declaring that the protestors can stay "indefinitely" and that there would be "minimal police presence in the future". ^{ix}

Analyst Notes: These statements by Oakland's Mayor cannot be confirmed at this time.

- Police in Nashville arrested roughly 30 Occupy Nashville protestors early today after they violated a newly enacted curfew for land around the state capital. The protestors were quickly released after a judge refused to sign the warrants.^x
- Occupy Oakland is calling for a general strike to take place on 2 November 2011 in retaliation for Scott Olsen's injuries endured on 25 October. Protestors are requesting students and workers not to attend school/work and to convene in downtown Oakland.^{xi}

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 39

27 October 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Events Scheduled for Today, Friday, 28 October 2011

- Time TBD, 28 October 2011: During a march on 26 October, the possibility of a night march on Friday was mentioned. There is no internet activity to corroborate this information Analyst Notes: There are indications that night marches may occur with more frequency moving forward. This may also include marches to homes of prominent Boston residents.
- 5:30 PM, 28 October 2011: The Legal team from OB is asking individuals from each working group to meet at the Gandhi statue regarding critical legal tactics and strategies. This was re-tweeted by an OB participant. ⁱ
- An emergency GA will reportedly be held tonight. This was tweeted by an OB organizer to OBLogistics asking the reason for the emergency GA; there is no further information on time for this GA and this event has not yet been added to OB's calendar. ⁱⁱ

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 29 October 2011

- 1:00 PM, 29 October 2011: OB organizers are planning a march for New England Solidarity. They hope to draw representation from members of Occupy New Hampshire, Occupy Worcester and a number of local organizations, unions and students. This event has 50 confirmed attendees on Facebook as of 3:30 PM on 28 October 2011. ⁱⁱⁱ There has also been chatter of a 12:00 PM rally and march in solidarity with Occupy Oakland; it is likely that these two marches will combine. The BRIC estimates 150-200 participants for the march with Oakland alone based on past marches in solidarity with Oakland; and the New England March for Solidarity has the potential to draw in participants from other New England areas including the above listed group. It should be noted that the 26 October 2011 march in solidarity with Oakland had strong anti-police connotations.

- 2:00 PM, 29 October 2011: Winterizing Meeting (Occupy Boston)
- 4:00 PM, 29 October 2011: Students Occupy Boston GA. This is likely a continuation of the GA from last night in an effort for the students to come to an agreement and solidify a plan for Mondays march versus the general strike on 2 November 2011. ^{iv}
- 7:00 PM, 29 October 2011: General Assembly, Dewey Sq. (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Sunday, 30 October 2011

- Multiple classes, group meetings, a concert, and a GA are scheduled for Sunday; no significant events / marches as of 3:00 PM on 28 October 2011. (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Monday, 31 October 2011

- 1:00 PM, 31 October 2011: Occupy Boston in collaboration with Students Occupy Boston is calling for a city-wide walkout, rally and march. Each campus involved is organizing to walk out of class at the same time and to convene at the gazebo in the Boston Common at 1:00 PM. The rally in the commons will then be followed by a march to Dewey Square. Students are encouraging participants to dress as zombie bankers. This event has been noted on the Students Occupy Boston's website and is on OB's calendar as well. There is a Facebook page for this event, as of 2:30 PM on 28 October 134 are listed as attending. ^v

Analyst Notes: There is an ongoing debate among the Students of OB over whether to participate in a general strike on Wednesday, 2 November, remain focused on the Halloween walkout, or do both. ^{vi} Please see below for more information.

General Notes Regarding the Occupy Movement:

- The Providence Police have issued the occupiers in their city an eviction notice, stating they must be out of Burnside Park within 72 hours or legal action will be taken. The Commissioner has stated that they will not physically remove or force protestors out of the park, but that PPD will go through the court system to get them removed. ^{vii}
- Copies of an informational letter titled "When Should You Shoot a Cop?" were found at Occupy Phoenix in Arizona. The letter suggests that law enforcement personnel are corrupt and commit acts of injustice and violence in the name of law enforcement. The document encourages occupiers to resist any action by law enforcement officers that they may see as a violation of citizens' rights. The document also suggests that occasionally resistance involves killing officers. ^{viii}

Analyst Notes: Although not cited, this article found at Occupy Phoenix appears to be the same article published by the group CopBlock on their website a few months ago.

- Occupy Boston posted an article on their website "Victory in Oakland" in reference to the Mayor Jean Quan allegedly declaring that the protestors can stay "indefinitely" and that there would be "minimal police presence in the future". ^{ix}

- Occupy Boston posted an article on their website "Victory in Oakland" in reference to the Mayor Jean Quan allegedly declaring that the protestors can stay "indefinitely" and that there would be "minimal police presence in the future". ^{ix}

Analyst Notes: These statements by Oakland's Mayor cannot be confirmed at this time.

- Police in Nashville arrested roughly 30 Occupy Nashville protestors early today after they violated a newly enacted curfew for land around the state capital. The protestors were quickly released after a judge refused to sign the warrants.^x
- Occupy Oakland is calling for a general strike to take place on 2 November 2011 in retaliation for Scott Olsen's injuries endured on 25 October. Protestors are requesting students and workers not to attend school/work and to convene in downtown Oakland.^{xi}

Analyst Notes: OB posted this on their website. It is unknown if they will participate in this strike but they have participated in solidarity events with Occupy Oakland.

- The group Adbusters is calling for a Robin Hood Global March for 29 October 2011 (the eve of the G20 Leaders Summit in France), and encouraging Occupy movements across the globe to participate. Protestors are called on to demand that the G20 leaders impose a 1% tax on all financial transactions and currency trades. Adbusters is asking that Occupy movements propose this at their GA's.^{xii}

Analyst Notes: The BRIC has not seen any chatter regarding this march with OB and they do not have this march on their calendar as of 2:30 PM on 27 October 2011; but this does not rule out their participation in such march.

Events Scheduled for Today, Monday, 31 October 2011

- OB had a zombie march scheduled to take place yesterday, Sunday, 30 October 2011; however, the march was cancelled and was tentatively re-scheduled for today, 31 October 2011.

Analyst Notes: There is no definitive information on the OB website or on open sources online for the march today. However, there is a student walk-out zombie march scheduled in collaboration with OB today (see below), where discussion has taken place the past week regarding cancelling this event due to Oakland's call for a walk-out / strike for 2 November 2011; at this time it is believed the 1:00 PM zombie march / walk-out will take place.

- 1:00 PM, 31 October 2011: Occupy Boston in collaboration with Students Occupy Boston is calling for a city-wide walkout, rally and march. Each campus involved is organizing to walk out of class at the same time and to convene at the gazebo in the Boston Common at 1:00 PM. This event has been noted on the Students Occupy Boston's website and is on OB's calendar as well. *There is a Facebook page for this event, as of 8:30 AM on 31 October, 162 are listed as attending.*ⁱ

- 1:00 PM – 2:00 PM, 31 October 2011: FSU Class: Consensus: So That All Voices May Be Heard, A Workshop with C.T. Butler.ⁱⁱ (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: C.T. Butler is the co-founder of Food Not Bombs.

- 6:00 PM – 6:30 PM, 31 October 2011: Comedian Sandra Bernhard (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Tuesday, 1 November 2011

- 5:00 PM, 1 November 2011: Anarchist Potluck / Caucus, at 33 Harrison Ave Chinatown 5th floor. ⁱⁱⁱ (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: There is no further information on this event or what it entails.
- 5:30 PM – 6:30 PM, 1 November 2011: Women's Caucus at Dewey Square. ^{iv} (Occupy Boston)
- 7:00 PM, 1 November 2011: General Assembly ^v (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Wednesday, 2 November 2011

- 12:00 PM – 1:00 PM, 2 November 2011: National Day of Action: Student Walk-out, Rally and March. As part of a National Day of Action in solidarity with Occupy Oakland's call for a general strike and Occupy movements worldwide facing eviction and police brutality. ^{vi} (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: The location for this event is listed as Dewey Square; there is no further information at this time as to where this march will take place. It should be noted this event is on OB's calendar twice, at 12:00 PM and scheduled again 5:00 PM – 7:00 PM. It is unknown at this time what time they will be marching, or if there will be marches at both scheduled times.
- 12:30 PM – 3:30 PM, 2 November 2011: Student Debt Street Action. Students Occupy Boston is organizing a march from the Federal Reserve Bank to the State House protesting student debt. As of 8:15 AM on 31 October 2011, 54 are listed as attending on the Facebook event page. ^{vii}
- 5:00 PM – 6:30 PM, 2 November 2011: Holding for Rebooking Concert. ^{viii} (Occupy Boston)
- 8:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 2 November 2011: Move Your Money Planning Meeting in the area of the GA's. ^{ix} (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: The Move Your Money project is a nonprofit campaign that encourages individuals and institutions to divest from the nation's largest Wall Street banks and move to local financial institutions and credit unions. ^x Bank transfer day is scheduled to take place on 5 November 2011. ^{xi} The BRIC will report further on events scheduled for 5 November later in the week.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 40

31 October 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Events Scheduled for Today, Monday, 31 October 2011

- OB had a zombie march scheduled to take place yesterday, Sunday, 30 October 2011; however, the march was cancelled and was tentatively re-scheduled for today, 31 October 2011.

Analyst Notes: There is no definitive information on the OB website or on open sources online for the march today. However, there is a student walk-out zombie march scheduled in collaboration with OB today (see below), where discussion has taken place the past week regarding cancelling this event due to Oakland's call for a walk-out / strike for 2 November 2011; at this time it is believed the 1:00 PM zombie march / walk-out will take place.

- 1:00 PM, 31 October 2011: Occupy Boston in collaboration with Students Occupy Boston is calling for a city-wide walkout, rally and march. Each campus involved is organizing to walk out of class at the same time and to convene at the gazebo in the Boston Common at 1:00 PM. The rally in the commons will then be followed by a march to Dewey Square. Students are encouraging participants to dress as zombie bankers. This event has been noted on the Students Occupy Boston's website and is on OB's calendar as well. *There is a Facebook page for this event, as of 8:30 AM on 31 October, 162 are listed as attending.*ⁱ

- 1:00 PM – 2:00 PM, 31 October 2011: FSU Class: Consensus: So That All Voices May Be Heard, A Workshop with C.T. Butler.ⁱⁱ (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: C.T. Butler is the co-founder of Food Not Bombs.

- 6:00 PM – 6:30 PM, 31 October 2011: Comedian Sandra Bernhard (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Tuesday, 1 November 2011

- 5:00 PM, 1 November 2011: Anarchist Potluck / Caucus, at 33 Harrison Ave Chinatown 5th floor. ⁱⁱⁱ (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: There is no further information on this event or what it entails.

- 5:30 PM – 6:30 PM, 1 November 2011: Women's Caucus at Dewey Square. ^{iv} (Occupy Boston)
- 7:00 PM, 1 November 2011: General Assembly ^v (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Wednesday, 2 November 2011

- 12:00 PM – 1:00 PM, 2 November 2011: National Day of Action: Student Walk-out, Rally and March. As part of a National Day of Action in solidarity with Occupy Oakland's call for a general strike and Occupy movements worldwide facing eviction and police brutality. ^{vi} (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: The location for this event is listed as Dewey Square; there is no further information at this time as to where this march will take place. It should be noted this event is on OB's calendar twice, at 12:00 PM and scheduled again 5:00 PM – 7:00 PM. It is unknown at this time what time they will be marching, or if there will be marches at both scheduled times.

- 12:30 PM – 3:30 PM, 2 November 2011: Student Debt Street Action. Students Occupy Boston is organizing a march from the Federal Reserve Bank to the State House protesting student debt. As of 8:15 AM on 31 October 2011, 54 are listed as attending on the Facebook event page. ^{vii}

The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Events Scheduled for Today, Monday, 31 October 2011

- 4:30 PM – 7:00 PM, 31 October 2011: Free concert (Bojah and the Insurrection) to occur after the student walk-out at Dewey Sq. according to the Colleges Occupy Boston website.ⁱ (Occupy Boston)
- 5:00 PM – 8:00 PM, 31 October 2011: Protest at the Whole Foods in Jamaica Plain: Scheduled to occur at the opening of the new Whole Foods grocery store at 415 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (E13). There are currently 35 individuals attending this event according to the Facebook page as of 3:30 PM on 31 October 2011.ⁱⁱ

Analyst Notes: The above protest event at the Whole Foods had been scheduled previously and independently from Occupy Boston; however, it was announced during today's student walkout / zombie march in solidarity with Occupy Boston that a small group from OB would be joining protestors at the opening.

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- On Monday, 31 October 2011, approximately 110 participants of the college walkout / zombie march in solidarity with Occupy Boston gathered at the Boston Common bandstand. While on the way to the Boston Common, a group of approx. 30 participants from Northeastern University staged a small sit-in in the area of Arlington & Boylston St. After the arrival of more participants at the Boston Common bandstand the group marched to Senator Kerry's residence in the area of Louisburg Sq. where they stopped and later moved past the MA State House, Fox News Beacon Hill Studio and through Downtown Crossing to stage at sit-in, in the area of Washington St. and Summer St. The march concluded in front of the Federal Reserve Bank where participants staged a “die-in” on the steps of the building. Throughout the course of this march, participants walked in the streets against traffic at times impeding the flow of traffic.

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- On Monday, 31 October 2011, approximately 110 participants of the college walkout / zombie march in solidarity with Occupy Boston gathered at the Boston Common bandstand. While on the way to the Boston Common, a group of approx. 30 participants from Northeastern University staged a small sit-in in the area of Arlington & Boylston St. After the arrival of more participants at the Boston Common bandstand the group marched to Senator Kerry's residence in the area of Louisburg Sq. where they stopped and later moved past the MA State House, Fox News Beacon Hill Studio and through Downtown Crossing to stage at sit-in, in the area of Washington St. and Summer St. The march concluded in front of the Federal Reserve Bank where participants staged a “die-in” on the steps of the building. Throughout the course of this march, participants walked in the streets against traffic at times impeding the flow of traffic.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 42

1 November 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 44

2 November 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Events Scheduled for Today, Wednesday, 2 November 2011

- The BRIC received information that on Wednesday, 2 November 2011 the New England Carpenters Union will be protesting outside the Copley Marriot Hotel. Time for this protest is unknown.

Analyst Notes: This union has been protesting since mid October due to a major construction project at the Marriot Hotel which union workers were not hired for. The Union has also gone to the MA Attorney General to petition to enter the Copley Mall to leaflet. At this time this event is not listed on OB's calendar, and there has been no open source chatter indicating OB's plan to participate in this protest. However, the possibility of OB participation cannot be ruled out due to past participation in labor themed demonstrations.

- 12:30 PM – 3:30 PM, 2 November 2011: Student Debt Street Action. Students Occupy Boston is organizing a march from the Federal Reserve Bank to the State House protesting student debt. As of 11:00 AM on 2 November 2011, 88 are listed as attending on the Facebook event page.ⁱ (Occupy Boston)

*Analyst Notes: Occupy Boston has posted this march on their website and on their calendar, as “National Day of Action: Student Walk-out, rally and march” indicating their plan to participate in this march. Massachusetts Jobs with Justice have announced their participation in this march. Occupy the Hood has also put this march on their calendar.

- 5:00 PM – 7:00 PM, 2 November 2011: National Day of Action: Rally and March in Solidarity with Occupy Oakland General Strike. ⁱⁱ (Occupy Boston) As of 11:00 AM on 2 November 2011 114 are listed as attending on the Facebook event page. ⁱⁱⁱ
Analyst Notes: The location for this event is Dewey Square; there is no further information at this time as to where this march will take place. It is likely that the colleges will participate in this march as well.
- 5:00 PM – 6:30 PM, 2 November 2011: Holding for Rebooking Concert. ^{iv} (Occupy Boston)
- 6:30 PM, 2 November 2011: FSU: Big Pharma, Another Big Player on Wall Street. ^v (Occupy Boston)
- 8:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 2 November 2011: Move Your Money Planning Meeting in the area of the GA's. ^{vi} (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: The Move Your Money project is a nonprofit campaign that encourages individuals and institutions to divest from the nation's largest Wall Street banks and move to local financial institutions and credit unions. ^{vii} Bank transfer day is scheduled to take place on 5 November 2011. ^{viii} The BRIC will report further on events scheduled for 5 November later in the week.

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 3 November 2011

- 3-4 November 2011: BancAnalysts Association of Boston 2011 Meeting – Scheduled to occur at the Langham Hotel at 250 Franklin St. According to open sources, Christopher M. Gorman, President of Key Corporate Bank and Chairman of KeyBank NA will be present at this event. ^{ix x xi}
Analyst Notes: This event has received significant online media coverage to include the Wall Street Journal. It is currently unknown whether Occupy Boston is aware of this event; however, the potential exists for OB to stage a demonstration (First Amendment protected activity) in response to this meeting as they have for similar past events.
- 9:30 AM, 3 November 2011: FSU Workshop: My Red Carpet Moment, How Do I Best Express What I Do? (Occupy Boston)
- 2:00 PM – 5:00 PM, 3 November 2011: Historical March Campaign. OB and guest speaker Dave Tree will be holding the first event of their historical march campaign; they will be meeting in Dewey Square at 2:00 PM for a 2:30 rally. ^{xii} (Occupy Boston)
- 4:00 PM – 5:00 PM, 3 November 2011: FSU: The Howard Zinn Memorial Lecture Series, The Perils of American Democracy (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: This FSU lecture features Professor Luis Jimenez from UMass Boston.
- 7:00 PM, 3 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)
- 9:00 PM, 3 November 2011: Winterizing Meeting (Occupy Boston)

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- Participants in the 2 November 2011, Student Debt Street Action organized by Students Occupy Boston staged a march from the Federal Reserve Bank to the State House in protest of student debt. The march proceeded without incident.
- On 1 November 2011 around 8:00 PM approximately 25 individuals marched to district A-1. They went the wrong way on Tremont St. and blocked one lane of traffic; group then proceeded back to Dewey Square via the sidewalk and broke up at 15 Quincy Market.
- On November 1 35-40 protestors showed up to UMass Boston to protest the inauguration of a new president; amongst them were some OB participants. No incidents.

General Notes Regarding the Occupy Movement:

- According to media reports, thousands of Occupy Oakland participants staged a march and rally in downtown Oakland 2 November 2011. Protesters additionally called for a general citywide strike^{xviii} to “help shutdown the city” in which all workers were asked to “go on strike, call in sick, take a vacation day or simply walk off the job.”^{xix} A large volume of conflicting Twitter comments claimed that either protesters had shut down the Oakland port or that it remains only partially operational at this time.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 48

4 November 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Events Scheduled for Friday, 4 November 2011ⁱ

- 12:00 PM – 1:00 PM, 4 November 2011: FSU – Lessons from the Wisconsin Uprising (Occupy Boston)
- 2:00 PM – 4:00 PM, 4 November 2011: Toxic Tour of Dudley Square. Participants will be meeting at Alternatives for Community and Environment (ACE) at 2181 Washington St. Suite 301 Roxbury. ACE is giving the tour that is scheduled to take place in and around Dudley Square to show “environmental injustices and stories of residents organizing for safer, healthier, and greener communities”. (Occupy Boston).

Analyst Notes: The event information page on OB’s calendar notes that this event is limited to 25 people and they must sign up.

- 4:00 PM – 5:00 PM, 4 November 2011: Street Theatre Group at the Gandhi Statute in Dewey Sq. (Occupy Boston)
- 5:00 PM – 6:00 PM, 4 November 2011: Musical Concert – Quill; occurring at the “main stage” at Dewey Sq. (Occupy Boston)
- 7:00 PM – 9:30 PM, 4 November 2011: Public Discussion: Strategy, Actions and Unity (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 5 November 2011ⁱⁱ

- 10:30 AM, 5 November 2011: Move Your Money, Meeting and March. Occupy Boston will convene at Dewey Square to make a route and march to Bank of America and possibly other banks. (Occupy Boston).

- 11:00 AM, 5 November 2011: MoveOn.org Foreclose on BOA. Move Your Money, a Make Wall Street Pay Action: MoveOn.org is requesting a permit for this event that will consist of a march from the Bank of America building at 161 Cambridge St. through the Financial District and then back to Dewey Square (exact route is enclosed in email that was sent). 100 participants are expected at this event according to MoveOn.org.
Analyst Notes: This event has not been specifically listed on the Occupy Boston calendar; however, the OB calendar does list an event titled "Move Your Money / Bank Transfer Day" for 5 November, which provides links to a similar nationwide movement. ⁱⁱⁱ It is possible that Occupy Boston will participate in the 5 November MoveOn.org march and rallies despite it not being listed on OB's calendar at this time; the march is ending at Dewey Square and MoveOn.org states on their website this march is in solidarity with OB. It should also be noted that 5 November 2011 is "Guy Fawkes Day", the anniversary of Fawkes' attempt to destroy the British Parliament with explosives in 1605. ^{iv} Fawkes' likeness has been replicated in plastic masks which are frequently worn by members of the "hacktivist" group Anonymous and have been seen at past OB events and marches. It should also be noted that Anonymous has stated its intention to dismantle the Fox News website on 5 November in response to the network's supposed opposition to the Occupy Wall Street protests. ^v At this time it is unknown if OB and / or Anonymous will participate in the above event.
- 1:00 PM – 2:00 PM, 5 November 2011: Musical Concert – The J Kirks; occurring at the "plaza stage" at Dewey Sq. (Occupy Boston)
- 2:00 PM, 5 November 2011: Musical Concert – Cowgill; occurring at the "main stage" at Dewey Sq. (Occupy Boston)
- Move Your Money / Bank Transfer Day. Individuals are encouraged to close their accounts at large banks such as Chase and Bank of America and transfer their money to credit unions or small local banks. (Occupy Boston) No time specified for this event.
- 7:00 PM, 5 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)
- Many other FSU classes, working group meetings, and musical concerts are scheduled to take place on Saturday, 5 November 2011.

Events Scheduled for Sunday, 6 November 2011 ^{vi}

- At this time there are no marches scheduled for Sunday, 6 November 2011. Multiple meetings, FSU classes and workshops are on OB's calendar.
- 7:00 PM, 6 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- On 3 November 2011 At 3:10 PM, approximately 40 participants in the 3 November 2011 Occupy Boston Historical March Campaign departed Dewey Sq. and proceeded to the Granary Burying Ground on Tremont St. then through Fanueil Hall passing the site of the Boston Massacre at State and Congress St. then concluding at Dewey Sq. No known incidents have been reported at this time.

General Notes Regarding the Occupy Movement:

- According to media reports, thousands of Occupy Oakland participants staged a march and rally in downtown Oakland on 2 November 2011. Protesters additionally called for a general citywide strike^{vii} to “help shutdown the city” in which all workers were asked to “go on strike, call in sick, take a vacation day or simply walk off the job.”^{viii} According to CNN, protestors temporarily shut down the port and police used tear gas early Thursday morning after protestors refused to disperse and were throwing rocks and fireworks at police.^{ix}
- Seattle police deployed pepper spray on protestors who disrupted rush-hour traffic; protestors also surrounded the hotel where JPMorgan Chase CEO Jamie Dimon was speaking. Seattle PD arrested 5 people.^x

Events Scheduled for Sunday, 6 November 2011^{ix}

- At this time there are no marches scheduled for Sunday, 6 November 2011. Multiple meetings, FSU classes and workshops are on OB’s calendar.
- 7:00 PM, 6 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Monday, 7 November 2011^x

- 12:00 PM – 1:30 PM, 7 November 2011: 42nd Annual Tufts Black Solidarity Day: The theme of the rally will be “OccupyYourMind” and will occur at the Mayer Campus Center at Tufts University.

Analyst Notes: While this event is posted on the Occupy Boston calendar, it is unknown whether members of Occupy Boston will have a presence at this event. The BRIC will continue to monitor this event and provide updates as necessary.

- 5:00 PM, 7 November 2011: The New Anti-Semitism: A Contemporary Discussion in Historic Faneuil Hall: The Anti-Defamation League will be holding a closed panel discussion regarding anti-semitism in the Great Hall at Faneuil Hall. According to the event website the following speakers will be in attendance at this event: Nobel Laureate Elie Wiesel, ADL National Director Abraham H. Foxman, Brandeis University President Fredrick M. Lawrence, and MA Governor Deval Patrick.

Analyst Notes: The BRIC does not have any information to indicate that Occupy Boston is aware of this event and/or planning any demonstrations to coincide with it. The presence of numerous high profile speakers to include MA Governor Deval Patrick should be noted as this may heighten public awareness for any potential demonstrations conducted by OB. The BRIC will continue to monitor this event and update as necessary.

- Unknown Time, 7-9 November 2011: FundForum (Langham Hotel Boston – 425 Summer Street) According the event’s website, FundForum USA 2011 provides a meeting point for the asset management community and will be attended by numerous high profile speakers to include executives and leadership of major corporations such as State Street Global Advisors, Putnam Investments, Morgan Stanley and JP Morgan among others.^{xi}

Analyst Notes: The BRIC does not have any information to indicate that Occupy Boston is aware of this event and/or whether any protest actions have been planned in response to it. It should be noted that although this event has not been acknowledged officially by Occupy Boston, its proximity to the OB camp at Dewey Sq. may invite potential for spontaneous protests. It should be noted that Brown Brothers Herriman, one of the organizations in attendance at this event, has been the target of unannounced protest activity at its private meetings by Occupy Wall Street protesters.

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- At 3:10 PM, approximately 40 participants in the 3 November 2011 Occupy Boston Historical March Campaign departed Dewey Sq. and proceeded to the Granary Burying Ground on Tremont St. then through Faneuil Hall passing the site of the Boston Massacre at State and Congress St. then concluding at Dewey Sq. Marchers disrupted traffic along many roads such as Congress St. and Surface Rd. which caused a grid lock. No incidents to report.

- 7:00 PM, 6 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Monday, 7 November 2011^x

- 12:00 PM – 1:30 PM, 7 November 2011: 42nd Annual Tufts Black Solidarity Day: The theme of the rally will be “OccupyYourMind” and will occur at the Mayer Campus Center at Tufts University.

Analyst Notes: While this event is posted on the Occupy Boston calendar, it is unknown whether members of Occupy Boston will have a presence at this event. The BRIC will continue to monitor this event and provide updates as necessary.

- 5:00 PM, 7 November 2011: The New Anti-Semitism: A Contemporary Discussion in Historic Faneuil Hall: The Anti-Defamation League will be holding a closed panel discussion regarding anti-semitism in the Great Hall at Faneuil Hall. According to the event website the following speakers will be in attendance at this event: Nobel Laureate Elie Wiesel, ADL National Director Abraham H. Foxman, Brandeis University President Fredrick M. Lawrence, and MA Governor Deval Patrick.

Analyst Notes: The BRIC does not have any information to indicate that Occupy Boston is aware of this event and/or planning any demonstrations to coincide with it. The presence of numerous high profile speakers to include MA Governor Deval Patrick should be noted as this may heighten public awareness for any potential demonstrations conducted by OB. The BRIC will continue to monitor this event and update as necessary.

- Unknown Time, 7-9 November 2011: FundForum (Langham Hotel Boston – 425 Summer Street) According the event’s website, FundForum USA 2011 provides a meeting point for the asset management community and will be attended by numerous high profile speakers to include executives and leadership of major corporations such as State Street Global Advisors, Putnam Investments, Morgan Stanley and JP Morgan among others.^{xi}

Analyst Notes: The BRIC does not have any information to indicate that Occupy Boston is aware of this event and/or whether any protest actions have been planned in response to it. It should be noted that although this event has not been acknowledged officially by Occupy Boston, its proximity to the OB camp at Dewey Sq. may invite potential for spontaneous protests. It should be noted that Brown Brothers Herriman, one of the organizations in attendance at this event, has been the target of unannounced protest activity at its private meetings by Occupy Wall Street protesters.

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- At 3:10 PM, approximately 40 participants in the 3 November 2011 Occupy Boston Historical March Campaign departed Dewey Sq. and proceeded to the Granary Burying Ground on Tremont St. then through Faneuil Hall passing the site of the Boston Massacre at State and Congress St. then concluding at Dewey Sq. Marchers disrupted traffic along many roads such as Congress St. and Surface Rd. which caused a grid lock. No incidents to report.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 50

7 November 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Events Scheduled for Monday, 7 November 2011ⁱ

- 6-9 November 2011: 2011 AFP (Association for Financial Professionals) Annual Conference at the Boston Convention & Exhibition Center. Former President Clinton attended and spoke at this event on 6 November 2011; it is unknown if he will be in attendance all week.

Analyst Notes: Over 6,000 treasury and financial professionals will be in attendance. It should be noted that a handful of Occupy Boston members were outside the BCEC on 6 November 2011 around 8:00 PM. This indicates that although this event is not on OB's calendar, they are aware of it and may stage more demonstrations this week.

- 7-9 November 2011: FundForum (Westin Boston Waterfront Hotel – 425 Summer Street) According to the event's website, FundForum USA 2011 provides a meeting point for the asset management community and will be attended by numerous high profile speakers to include executives and leadership of major corporations such as State Street Global Advisors, Putnam Investments, Morgan Stanley and JP Morgan among others.ⁱⁱ

Analyst Notes: The BRIC does not have any information to indicate that Occupy Boston is aware of this event and/or whether any protest actions have been planned in response to it. It should be noted that although this event has not been acknowledged officially by Occupy Boston, its proximity to the OB camp at Dewey Sq. may invite potential for spontaneous protests. It should be noted that Brown Brothers Herriman, one of the organizations in attendance at this event, has been the target of unannounced protest activity at its private meetings by Occupy Wall Street protesters.

- 12:00 PM – 1:30 PM, 7 November 2011: 42nd Annual Tufts Black Solidarity Day: The theme of the rally will be “OccupyYourMind” and will occur at the Mayer Campus Center at Tufts University. As of 8:30 AM on 7 November 2011 138 people are attending on the Facebook event page.

Analyst Notes: While this event is posted on the Occupy Boston calendar, it is unknown whether members of Occupy Boston will have a presence at this event.

- 5:00 PM, 7 November 2011: The New Anti-Semitism: A Contemporary Discussion in Historic Faneuil Hall: The Anti-Defamation League will be holding a closed panel discussion regarding anti-Semitism in the Great Hall at Faneuil Hall. According to the event website the following speakers will be in attendance at this event: Nobel Laureate Elie Wiesel, ADL National Director Abraham H. Foxman, Brandeis University President Fredrick M. Lawrence, and MA Governor Deval Patrick.

Analyst Notes: The BRIC does not have any information to indicate that Occupy Boston is aware of this event and/or planning any demonstrations to coincide with it. The presence of numerous high profile speakers to include MA Governor Deval Patrick should be noted as this may heighten public awareness for any potential demonstrations conducted by OB.

- 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 7 November 2011: Meeting with Community Organizers (movement building). (Occupy Boston)
- 8:00 PM – 11:00 PM, 7 November 2011: Dubstep Party. A dance techno party at Dewey Square; people are asked to bring strobe lights, fog machines and balloons.

Events Scheduled for Tuesday, 8 November 2011 ⁱⁱⁱ

- All day, 8 November 2011: Occupy the Polls! Get out the Vote!! (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: This event is in relation to Boston Municipal Election Day. It is unknown if OB plans on conducting any demonstrations relative to Election Day.
- 3:30 PM, 8 November 2011: Musical Concert – TBA artist
- 7:00 PM, 8 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)
- 9:00 PM, 8 November 2011: Students General Assembly #10 at Dewey Square. This GA will be hosted / facilitated by Emerson College.

Events Scheduled for Wednesday, 9 November 2011 ^{iv}

- 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM, 9 November 2011: Carpenters Union Protest at Copley Marriot Hotel. New England's Carpenters Union will be protesting at the Copley Marriot Hotel.
Analyst Notes: This protest is not currently on OB's calendar; however, it is possible they will participate due to OB's involvement in past union marches.
- 1:00 PM – 3:00 PM, 9 November 2011: Non-Violence Working Group (Occupy Boston)
- 3:00 PM – 4:00 PM, 9 November 2011: FSU Workshop: Your Rights at Work (Occupy Boston)
- 4:00 PM – 5:00 PM, 9 November 2011: Comedy – Barry Crimmins (Occupy Boston)
- 4:30 PM – 6:00 PM, 9 November 2011: Musical Concert – Chadwick Stokes from State Radio / Dispatch (Occupy Boston)

- 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM, 9 November 2011: FSU Workshop: The Practice of Non-Violence and Civil Disobedience (Occupy Boston)
- 6:30 – 7:30 PM, 9 November 2011: Protest Michelle Rhee at Symphony Hall (301 Mass Ave.) Protest by teachers, students and community members against Michelle Rhee, former Washington DC chancellor of schools.
Analyst Notes: Possible participation from Mass Teachers Unions cannot be ruled out; MTA has also endorsed OB and participated in past OB marches; therefore Occupy Boston's participation is possible as well.
- 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 9 November 2011 (TENTATIVE): FSU Film Screening of "How to Start a Revolution". (Occupy Boston)

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- At approximately 5:00 PM on Friday, 4 November 2011 about 25 protestors marched to the Israeli Consulate (20 Park Plaza) and sat inside the foyer; the consulate was closed at this time. By 6:15 PM the group was back to the camp at Dewey Square.
- At 11:15 AM on 5 November 2011, approximately 30 protestors departed Dewey Square and marched until 12:45 PM when they returned to camp all peaceful and orderly.
- At 4:30 PM on 5 November 2011, Occupy Boston marched from Dewey Square to Boylston St. where they entered the Prudential building and conducted a sit-in at the food court. Group was warned they were trespassing and were subject to arrest; at this time they got up and exited the building and continued the march on Stuart St., Atlantic Ave. and back to camp.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 51

7 November 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Events Scheduled for Today, Monday, 7 November 2011ⁱ

- 6:00 PM, 7 November 2011: March in Solidarity with Occupy Worcester: According to the Occupy Boston Twitter feedⁱⁱⁱ, this march is in solidarity with members of Occupy Worcester who were arrested yesterday.ⁱⁱⁱ March will be departing from Dewey Sq. (Occupy Boston)
- 6-9 November 2011: 2011 AFP (Association for Financial Professionals) Annual Conference at the Boston Convention & Exhibition Center. Former President Clinton attended and spoke at and departed from this event on 6 November 2011.
Analyst Notes: Over 6,000 treasury and financial professionals will be in attendance. It should be noted that a handful of Occupy Boston members were outside the BCEC on 6 November 2011 around 8:00 PM. This event has received mention on the OB Facebook page calling for protests at the BCEC and it is possible OB will stage a demonstration outside this event again this week (First Amendment protected activity).
- 5:00 PM, 7 November 2011: The New Anti-Semitism: A Contemporary Discussion in Historic Faneuil Hall: The Anti-Defamation League will be holding a closed panel discussion regarding anti-Semitism in the Great Hall at Faneuil Hall. According to the event website the following speakers will be attending this event: Nobel Laureate Elie Wiesel, ADL National Director Abraham H. Foxman, Brandeis University President Fredrick M. Lawrence, and MA Governor Deval Patrick.
Analyst Notes: The BRIC does not have any information to indicate that Occupy Boston is aware of this event and/or planning any demonstrations to coincide with it.

The presence of numerous high profile speakers to include MA Governor Deval Patrick should be noted as this may heighten public awareness for any potential demonstrations conducted by OB.

- 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM, 7 November 2011: FSU – What is Violence? What is Nonviolence? (Roundtable Discussion). (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: According to the Occupy Boston calendar entry for this event, discussion will focus on the principle of nonviolence and will feature “short illustrative exercises”
- 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 7 November 2011: Meeting with Community Organizers (SEIU 615, 26 West St., movement building). (Occupy Boston)
- 8:00 PM – 11:00 PM, 7 November 2011: Dubstep Party. A dance techno party at Dewey Square, people are asked to bring strobe lights, fog machines and balloons.

Events Scheduled for Tuesday, 8 November 2011^{iv}

- All day, 8 November 2011: Occupy the Polls! Get out the Vote!! (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: This event is in relation to Boston Municipal Election Day. Occupy Boston encourages those eligible to vote, and puts an emphasis on African-American politicians; namely Ayanna Pressley and Will Darcena.
- 3:30 PM, 8 November 2011: Musical Concert – TBA artist
- 7:00 PM, 8 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)
- 9:00 PM, 8 November 2011: Students General Assembly #10 at Dewey Square. This GA will be hosted / facilitated by Emerson College.

Events Scheduled for Wednesday, 9 November 2011^v

- 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM, 9 November 2011: Carpenters Union Protest at Copley Marriot Hotel. New England’s Carpenters Union will be protesting at the Copley Marriot Hotel.
Analyst Notes: This protest is not currently on OB’s calendar; however, it is possible they will participate due to OB’s involvement in past union marches.

- 4:30 PM – 6:00 PM, 9 November 2011: Musical Concert – Chadwick Stokes from State Radio / Dispatch (Occupy Boston)
- 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM, 9 November 2011: FSU Workshop: The Practice of Non-Violence and Civil Disobedience (Occupy Boston). According to the Occupy Boston calendar entry for this event, participants will meet at the South Station mezzanine in the event of bad weather.
- 6:30 – 7:30 PM, 9 November 2011: Protest Michelle Rhee at Symphony Hall (301 Mass Ave.) Protest by teachers, students and community members against Michelle Rhee, former Washington DC chancellor of schools.

Analyst Notes: Possible participation from Mass Teachers Unions cannot be ruled out; MTA has also endorsed OB and participated in past OB marches; therefore Occupy

Boston's participation is possible as well. There is no information on OB's websites or chatter on open source media indicating OB's intentions to participate.

- 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 9 November 2011 (TENTATIVE): FSU Film Screening of “How to Start a Revolution”. (Occupy Boston)

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- At approximately 5:00 PM on Friday, 4 November 2011 about 25 protestors marched to the Israeli Consulate (20 Park Plaza) and sat inside the foyer; the consulate was closed at this time. By 6:15 PM the group was back to the camp at Dewey Square.
- At 11:15 AM on 5 November 2011, approximately 30 protestors departed Dewey Square and marched until 12:45 PM when they returned to camp without incident.
- At 4:30 PM on 5 November 2011, Occupy Boston marched from Dewey Square to Boylston St. where they entered the Prudential building and conducted a sit-in at the food court in the Prudential building. Group was warned they were trespassing and were subject to arrest; at this time they got up and exited the building and continued the march on Stuart St., Atlantic Ave. and back to camp.

General Notes Regarding the Occupy Movement:

- On 6 November 2011, according to the Worcester Police, 25 participants of Occupy Worcester were arrested after refusing officers' orders to vacate the Worcester Common. Some individuals were reportedly linking arms to form a human chain.^{vi}

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 51

7 November 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Events Scheduled for Today, Monday, 7 November 2011ⁱ

- 6:00 PM, 7 November 2011: March in Solidarity with Occupy Worcester: According to the Occupy Boston Twitter feedⁱⁱⁱ, this march is in solidarity with members of Occupy Worcester who were arrested yesterday.ⁱⁱⁱ March will be departing from Dewey Sq. (Occupy Boston)
- 6-9 November 2011: 2011 AFP (Association for Financial Professionals) Annual Conference at the Boston Convention & Exhibition Center. Former President Clinton attended and spoke at and departed from this event on 6 November 2011.
Analyst Notes: Over 6,000 treasury and financial professionals will be in attendance. It should be noted that a handful of Occupy Boston members were outside the BCEC on 6 November 2011 around 8:00 PM. This event has received mention on the OB Facebook page calling for protests at the BCEC and it is possible OB will stage a demonstration outside this event again this week (First Amendment protected activity).
- 5:00 PM, 7 November 2011: The New Anti-Semitism: A Contemporary Discussion in Historic Faneuil Hall: The Anti-Defamation League will be holding a closed panel discussion regarding anti-Semitism in the Great Hall at Faneuil Hall. According to the event website the following speakers will be attending this event: Nobel Laureate Elie Wiesel, ADL National Director Abraham H. Foxman, Brandeis University President Fredrick M. Lawrence, and MA Governor Deval Patrick.
Analyst Notes: The BRIC does not have any information to indicate that Occupy Boston is aware of this event and/or planning any demonstrations to coincide with it.

The presence of numerous high profile speakers to include MA Governor Deval Patrick should be noted as this may heighten public awareness for any potential demonstrations conducted by OB.

- 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM, 7 November 2011: FSU – What is Violence? What is Nonviolence? (Roundtable Discussion). (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: According to the Occupy Boston calendar entry for this event, discussion will focus on the principle of nonviolence and will feature “short illustrative exercises”
- 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 7 November 2011: Meeting with Community Organizers (SEIU 615, 26 West St., movement building). (Occupy Boston)
- 8:00 PM – 11:00 PM, 7 November 2011: Dubstep Party. A dance techno party at Dewey Square, people are asked to bring strobe lights, fog machines and balloons.

Events Scheduled for Tuesday, 8 November 2011^{iv}

- All day, 8 November 2011: Occupy the Polls! Get out the Vote!! (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: This event is in relation to Boston Municipal Election Day. Occupy Boston encourages those eligible to vote, and puts an emphasis on African-American politicians; namely Ayanna Pressley and Will Darcena.
- 3:30 PM, 8 November 2011: Musical Concert – TBA artist
- 7:00 PM, 8 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)
- 9:00 PM, 8 November 2011: Students General Assembly #10 at Dewey Square. This GA will be hosted / facilitated by Emerson College.

Events Scheduled for Wednesday, 9 November 2011^v

- 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM, 9 November 2011: Carpenters Union Protest at Copley Marriot Hotel. New England’s Carpenters Union will be protesting at the Copley Marriot Hotel.
Analyst Notes: This protest is not currently on OB’s calendar; however, it is possible they will participate due to OB’s involvement in past union marches.
- 1:00 PM – 3:00 PM, 9 November 2011: Non-Violence Working Group (Occupy Boston)
- 3:00 PM – 4:00 PM, 9 November 2011: FSU Workshop: Your Rights at Work (Occupy Boston)
- 4:00 PM – 5:00 PM, 9 November 2011: Comedy – Barry Crimmins (Occupy Boston)
- 4:30 PM – 6:00 PM, 9 November 2011: Musical Concert – Chadwick Stokes from State Radio / Dispatch (Occupy Boston)
- 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM, 9 November 2011: FSU Workshop: The Practice of Non-Violence and Civil Disobedience (Occupy Boston). According to the Occupy Boston calendar entry for this event, participants will meet at the South Station mezzanine in the event of bad weather.
- 6:30 – 7:30 PM, 9 November 2011: Protest Michelle Rhee at Symphony Hall (301 Mass Ave.) Protest by teachers, students and community members against Michelle Rhee, former Washington DC chancellor of schools.

Analyst Notes: Possible participation from Mass Teachers Unions cannot be ruled out; MTA has also endorsed OB and participated in past OB marches; therefore Occupy

Boston's participation is possible as well. There is no information on OB's websites or chatter on open source media indicating OB's intentions to participate.

- 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 9 November 2011 (TENTATIVE): FSU Film Screening of “How to Start a Revolution”. (Occupy Boston)

It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Events Scheduled for Today, Tuesday, 8 November 2011ⁱ

- 6-9 November 2011: 2011 AFP (Association for Financial Professionals) Annual Conference at the Boston Convention & Exhibition Center. Former President Clinton attended and spoke at and departed from this event on 6 November 2011.
Analyst Notes: Over 6,000 treasury and financial professionals will be in attendance. It should be noted that a handful of Occupy Boston members were outside the BCEC on 6 and 7 November 2011 around 8:00 PM. This event has received mention on the OB Facebook page calling for protests at the BCEC and it is possible OB will stage a demonstration outside this event again this week (First Amendment protected activity).
- All day, 8 November 2011: Occupy the Polls! Get out the Vote!! (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: This event is in relation to Boston Municipal Election Day. Occupy Boston encourages those eligible to vote, and puts an emphasis on African-American politicians; namely Ayanna Pressley and Will Darcena.
- 7:00 PM, 8 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)
- 9:00 PM, 8 November 2011: Students General Assembly #10 at Dewey Square. This GA will be hosted / facilitated by Emerson College.

Events Scheduled for Wednesday, 9 November 2011ⁱⁱ

- 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM, 9 November 2011: Carpenters Union Protest at Copley Marriot Hotel. New England's Carpenters Union will be protesting at the Copley Marriot Hotel.

Analyst Notes: This protest is not currently on OB's calendar; however, it is possible they will participate due to OB's involvement in past union marches.

- 1:00 PM – 3:00 PM, 9 November 2011: Non-Violence Working Group (Occupy Boston)
- 4:30 PM – 6:00 PM, 9 November 2011: Musical Concert – Chadwick Stokes from State Radio / Dispatch (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: The band State Radio, has a significant local following according to open sources and has a number of upcoming tour dates in the region including PA, Washington DC, ME, NY and VT.ⁱⁱⁱ

- 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM, 9 November 2011: FSU Workshop: The Practice of Non-Violence and Civil Disobedience (Occupy Boston). According to the Occupy Boston calendar entry for this event, participants will meet at the South Station mezzanine in the event of bad weather.
- 6:30 – 7:30 PM, 9 November 2011: Protest Michelle Rhee at Symphony Hall (301 Mass Ave.) Protest by teachers, students and community members against Michelle Rhee, former Washington DC chancellor of schools.

Analyst Notes: Possible participation from Mass Teachers Unions cannot be ruled out; MTA has also endorsed OB and participated in past OB marches; therefore Occupy Boston's participation is possible as well. There is no information on OB's websites or chatter on open source media indicating OB's intentions to participate.

- 7:00 PM – 10:00 PM, 9 November 2011: Occupy Harvard. Individuals from Occupy Harvard will be holding a rally and General Assembly in front of the John Harvard Statue in the Harvard Yard. The Facebook page for this event has 122 attendees as of 9:00 AM on 8 November 2011.^{iv}

Analyst Notes: This event is not yet on OB's calendar; however, OB has been asked to participate.

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 10 November 2011^v

- 12:00 PM, 10 November 2011: Health Care for All and the Greater Boston Interfaith Organization will rally at the State House and visit Representatives regarding the high cost of health care. Group will rally at 12:00 PM at the Nurse's Hall in the State House and legislative visits at 1:00 PM.^{vi}

Analyst Notes: This has been posted on BU Occupies' Facebook page; there has been no further chatter or posting on any OB sites regarding this event.

- 4:00 PM, 10 November 2011: Direct Action Meeting (Occupy Boston)
- 5:30 PM, 10 November 2011: Winterizing Meeting (Occupy Boston)
- 7:00 PM, 10 November: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- On 7 November 2011, a march scheduled for 6:00 PM stepped off with approximately 30 people. The group marched over the bridge to the BCEC where the Association for Financial Professionals conference is being held. Officers reported that the group blocked traffic and taunted the officers throughout the march.

General Notes Regarding the Occupy Movement:

- On 13 November 2011 Occupy Worcester is planning a New England Solidarity March in Worcester.

Analyst Notes: This march is not posted on OB's calendar; however, it is possible they will participate due to past New England Solidarity Marches and marches in solidarity with Occupy Worcester.

This event has received mention on the OB Facebook page calling for protests at the BCEC and it is possible OB will stage a demonstration outside this event again this week (First Amendment protected activity).
- All day – Occupy Mobile/Occupy Alabama is facing potential police action on 9 November 2011 if they don't leave Spanish Plaza, where they have camped since 5 November 2011.ⁱⁱ Analyst Notes: Arrests and/or police interaction in Alabama could increase tension at the OB events listed below and potentially lead to a separate solidarity march.
- 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM, 9 November 2011: Carpenters Union Protest at Copley Marriot Hotel. New England's Carpenters Union will be protesting at the Copley Marriot Hotel.
- 11:00 AM, 9 November 2011: Rally to Protect Medicare, Medicaid, Social Security with Mass Senior Action. Occupy Stands with Workers against “Super Committee” Cuts at the Wang Theater (270 Tremont St). This rally is sponsored by Mass Senior Action and Mass Home Care amongst other groups. Several labor unions, including teachers and nurses, will participate.ⁱⁱⁱ Forty buses, organized by United for Justice with Peace, will transport

senior citizens to the Wang. United for Justice with Peace is also calling for a 12:30 PM protest of the Super Committee outside Sen. John Kerry's office (One Bowdoin Sq.).^{iv} It is unknown if there will be a march from the Wang to Senator Kerry's office or if this is a separate protest. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: The Super Committee, which included Senator Kerry, will be meeting to decide how to cut $1.5 trillion from federal spending by 23 November 2011; cuts include social security, Medicare, Medicaid and other social programs. According to BostonSocialism.org groups will meet at Dewey Sq. at 10:30 AM and march to the Wang.

- 1:00 PM – 3:00 PM, 9 November 2011: Non-Violence Working Group (Occupy Boston)
- 4:30 PM – 6:00 PM, 9 November 2011: Musical Concert – Chadwick Stokes from State Radio / Dispatch (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: The band State Radio has a significant local following according to open sources and has a number of upcoming tour dates including in PA, Washington DC, ME, NY and VT.^v

- 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM, 9 November 2011: FSU Workshop: The Practice of Non-Violence and Civil Disobedience (Occupy Boston). According to the Occupy Boston calendar entry for this event, participants will meet at the South Station mezzanine in the event of bad weather.
- 6:30 – 7:30 PM, 9 November 2011: Protest Michelle Rhee at Symphony Hall (301 Mass Ave.) Protest by teachers, students and community members against Michelle Rhee, former Washington DC chancellor of schools.

Analyst Notes: The Mass Teachers Unions, which have endorsed OB and participated in past OB marches, will participate in this protest. OB has also announced their intent to participate in this march on their website. They will march from Dewey Square at 6:30 PM for a rally at Symphony Hall for 7:00 PM.^{vi}

- 7:00 PM – 10:00 PM, 9 November 2011: Occupy Harvard. Harvard will be holding a rally and General Assembly in front of the John Harvard Statue in the Harvard Yard. The Facebook page for this event has 238 attendees as of 8:30 AM on 9 November 2011.^{vii}

Analyst Notes: @Occupy_Harvard tweeted to @Occupy_Boston at 7:33 AM on 8 November 2011 to join them for this event; however, it is not yet on OB's calendar. This has received attention on Twitter reminding people to participate as well as a topic of conversation on the students Google group chat page.^{viii} It is unknown at this time if this is a planned overnight occupation.

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 10 November 2011^{ix}

- 12:00 PM, 10 November 2011: Health Care for All and the Greater Boston Interfaith Organization will rally at the State House and visit Representatives regarding the high cost of health care. Group will rally at 12:00 PM at the Nurse's Hall in the State House and legislative visits at 1:00 PM.^x

Analyst Notes: This has been posted on BU Occupies' Facebook page; there has been no further chatter or posting on any OB sites regarding this event.

- 10:00 AM – 4:00 PM, 11 November 2011: Veteran's Day: Veteran's for Peace (off-site) Parade and Peace Rally. The location for this event on OB's calendar is the Boston Common, Faneuil Hall and then march back to Occupy Boston (at Dewey Square). The schedule for the day is listed as follows: 10:00 AM – join pre-parade pickets, meet at Boston Common on the corner of Beacon and Charles St. 12:00 PM – march behind the official Veteran's Day Parade with Veterans for Peace. 1:00 PM – parade steps off. There will be a post-parade rally at Faneuil Hall with speakers and live music followed by a march to Occupy Boston.
- 11-13 November 2011: Project No One Leaves: Anti-Foreclosure Conference held at Harvard Law School. Project No One Leaves and the Harvard Legal Aid Bureau will be hosting a national conference of attorneys, activists, students, and organizers to discuss the foreclosure crisis. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: This event is on OB's calendar, it is unknown if any OB supporters will be attending.

- All day, 11 November 2011: Occupy the Streets, Occupy the World. This is a global event; the Facebook page for this event appears to be mostly international, with links to the Facebook event page for multiple cities and countries abroad.^{xii}

Analyst Notes: This event is not on OB's calendar and there has not been any chatter or open source media indicating their plan to participate; the exact plan of action for this day abroad is unknown. It is possible that if OB becomes aware of this global event they will stage a march and / or demonstration in solidarity with this event.

- All day, 11 November 2011: Community Food Drive – Feed the Hood. Occupy Boston is promoting a food drive, this event is also being sponsored by Blackstonian (creator of Occupy the Hood), Union of Minority Neighborhoods, and Brothers for Boston. Potential drop off locations include: Firehouses at Columbia Rd., Dudley and Egelston; churches at Charles St. (Groover), Greater Love (Dickerson), Dorchester Temple (Wall), and Pleasant Hill (Culpepper). (Occupy Boston).
- 6:00 PM, 11 November 2011: Occupar el Barrio (Occupy the Hood) Meeting at the Maverick Landing Community Center (31 Liverpool St., East Boston).^{xiii}

Analyst Notes: This event is also listed on OB's calendar; however, it is unclear what this event entails.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 44

2 November 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Events Scheduled for Today, Wednesday, 2 November 2011

- The BRIC received information that on Wednesday, 2 November 2011 the New England Carpenters Union will be protesting outside the Copley Marriot Hotel. Time for this protest is unknown.

Analyst Notes: This union has been protesting since mid October due to a major construction project at the Marriot Hotel which union workers were not hired for. The Union has also gone to the MA Attorney General to petition to enter the Copley Mall to leaflet. At this time this event is not listed on OB's calendar, and there has been no open source chatter indicating OB's plan to participate in this protest. However, the possibility of OB participation cannot be ruled out due to past participation in labor themed demonstrations.

- 12:30 PM – 3:30 PM, 2 November 2011: Student Debt Street Action. Students Occupy Boston is organizing a march from the Federal Reserve Bank to the State House protesting student debt. As of 11:00 AM on 2 November 2011, 88 are listed as attending on the Facebook event page.ⁱ (Occupy Boston)

*Analyst Notes: Occupy Boston has posted this march on their website and on their calendar, as “National Day of Action: Student Walk-out, rally and march” indicating their plan to participate in this march. Massachusetts Jobs with Justice have announced their participation in this march. Occupy the Hood has also put this march on their calendar.

- 5:00 PM – 7:00 PM, 2 November 2011: National Day of Action: Rally and March in Solidarity with Occupy Oakland General Strike. ⁱⁱ (Occupy Boston) As of 11:00 AM on 2 November 2011 114 are listed as attending on the Facebook event page. ⁱⁱⁱ
Analyst Notes: The location for this event is Dewey Square; there is no further information at this time as to where this march will take place. It is likely that the colleges will participate in this march as well.
- 5:00 PM – 6:30 PM, 2 November 2011: Holding for Rebooking Concert. ^{iv} (Occupy Boston)
- 6:30 PM, 2 November 2011: FSU: Big Pharma, Another Big Player on Wall Street. ^v (Occupy Boston)
- 8:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 2 November 2011: Move Your Money Planning Meeting in the area of the GA's. ^{vi} (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: The Move Your Money project is a nonprofit campaign that encourages individuals and institutions to divest from the nation's largest Wall Street banks and move to local financial institutions and credit unions. ^{vii} Bank transfer day is scheduled to take place on 5 November 2011. ^{viii} The BRIC will report further on events scheduled for 5 November later in the week.

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 3 November 2011

- 3-4 November 2011: BancAnalysts Association of Boston 2011 Meeting – Scheduled to occur at the Langham Hotel at 250 Franklin St. According to open sources, Christopher M. Gorman, President of Key Corporate Bank and Chairman of KeyBank NA will be present at this event. ^{ix x xi}
Analyst Notes: This event has received significant online media coverage to include the Wall Street Journal. It is currently unknown whether Occupy Boston is aware of this event; however, the potential exists for OB to stage a demonstration (First Amendment protected activity) in response to this meeting as they have for similar past events.
- 9:30 AM, 3 November 2011: FSU Workshop: My Red Carpet Moment, How Do I Best Express What I Do? (Occupy Boston)
- 2:00 PM – 5:00 PM, 3 November 2011: Historical March Campaign. OB and guest speaker Dave Tree will be holding the first event of their historical march campaign; they will be meeting in Dewey Square at 2:00 PM for a 2:30 rally. ^{xii} (Occupy Boston)
- 4:00 PM – 5:00 PM, 3 November 2011: FSU: The Howard Zinn Memorial Lecture Series, The Perils of American Democracy (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: This FSU lecture features Professor Luis Jimenez from UMass Boston.
- 7:00 PM, 3 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)
- 9:00 PM, 3 November 2011: Winterizing Meeting (Occupy Boston)
- 9:30 PM – 11:30 PM, 3 November 2011: Ideas Working Group Meeting. (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Friday, 4 November 2011 ^{xiii}

- 12:00 PM – 1:00 PM, 4 November 2011: FSU – Lessons from the Wisconsin Uprising (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: This event is sponsored by Majority Agenda Project, UMass Boston Labor Resource Center, and the Public Higher Education Network of Massachusetts.

- 2:00 PM – 4:00 PM, 4 November 2011: Toxic Tour of Dudley Square. Participants will be meeting at Alternatives for Community and Environment (ACE) at 2181 Washington St. Suite 301 Roxbury. ACE is giving the tour that is scheduled to take place in and around Dudley Square to show “environmental injustices and stories of residents organizing for safer, healthier, and greener communities”. (Occupy Boston).

Analyst Notes: The event information page on OB’s calendar notes that this event is limited to 25 people and they must sign up.

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 5 November 2011^{xiv}

- 11:00 AM, 5 November 2011: MoveOn.org Foreclose on BOA. Move Your Money, a Make Wall Street Pay Action: MoveOn.org they are requesting a permit for this event that will consist of a march from the Bank of America building at 161 Cambridge St. through the Financial District and then back to Dewey, approximately 100 participants are expected at this event according to MoveOn.org.

Analyst Notes: This event has not been specifically listed on the Occupy Boston calendar; however, the OB calendar does list an event titled “Move Your Money / Bank Transfer Day” for 5 November, which provides links to a similar nationwide movement.^{xv} It is possible that Occupy Boston will participate in the 5 November MoveOn.org march and rallies despite it not being listed on OB’s calendar at this time; the march is ending at Dewey Square and MoveOn.org states on their website this march is in solidarity with OB. It should also be noted that 5 November 2011 is “Guy Fawkes Day”, the anniversary of Fawkes’ attempt to destroy the British Parliament with explosives in 1605.^{xvi} Fawkes’ likeness has been replicated in plastic masks which are frequently worn by members of the “hactivist” group Anonymous and have been seen at past OB events and marches. It should also be noted that Anonymous has stated its intention to dismantle the Fox News website on 5 November in response to the network’s supposed opposition to the Occupy Wall Street protests.^{xvii} At this time it is unknown if OB and / or Anonymous will participate in the above event.

- Move Your Money / Bank Transfer Day. Individuals are encouraged to close their accounts at large banks such as Chase and Bank of America and transfer their money to credit unions or small local banks. (Occupy Boston)
- 7:00 PM, 5 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- On 1 November 2011 around 8:00 PM approximately 25 individuals marched to district A-1. They went the wrong way on Tremont St. and blocked one lane of traffic; group then proceeded back to Dewey Square via the sidewalk and broke up at 15 Quincy Market.
- On November 1 35-40 protestors showed up to UMass Boston to protest the inauguration of a new president; amongst them were some OB participants. No incidents.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 54

9 November 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Events Scheduled for Today, Wednesday, 9 November 2011ⁱ

- 6-9 November 2011: 2011 AFP (Association for Financial Professionals) Annual Conference at the Boston Convention & Exhibition Center. Former President Clinton attended and spoke at and departed from this event on 6 November 2011.

Analyst Notes: Over 6,000 treasury and financial professionals will be in attendance. It should be noted that a handful of Occupy Boston members were outside the BCEC on 6 and 7 November 2011 around 8:00 PM. This event has received mention on the OB Facebook page calling for protests at the BCEC and it is possible OB will stage a demonstration outside this event again this week (First Amendment protected activity).

- All day – Occupy Mobile/Occupy Alabama is facing potential police action on 9 November 2011 if they don't leave Spanish Plaza, where they have camped since 5 November 2011.ⁱⁱ

Analyst Notes: Arrests and/or police interaction in Alabama could increase tension at the OB events listed below and potentially lead to a separate solidarity march.

- 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM, 9 November 2011: Carpenters Union Protest at Copley Marriot Hotel. New England's Carpenters Union will be protesting at the Copley Marriot Hotel.
- 11:00 AM, 9 November 2011: Rally to Protect Medicare, Medicaid, Social Security with Mass Senior Action. Occupy Stands with Workers against “Super Committee” Cuts at the Wang Theater (270 Tremont St). This rally is sponsored by Mass Senior Action and Mass Home Care amongst other groups. Several labor unions, including teachers and nurses, will participate.ⁱⁱⁱ Forty buses, organized by United for Justice with Peace, will transport

senior citizens to the Wang. United for Justice with Peace is also calling for a 12:30 PM protest of the Super Committee outside Sen. John Kerry's office (One Bowdoin Sq.).^{iv} It is unknown if there will be a march from the Wang to Senator Kerry's office or if this is a separate protest. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: The Super Committee, which included Senator Kerry, will be meeting to decide how to cut $1.5 trillion from federal spending by 23 November 2011; cuts include social security, Medicare, Medicaid and other social programs. According to BostonSocialism.org groups will meet at Dewey Sq. at 10:30 AM and march to the Wang.

- 1:00 PM – 3:00 PM, 9 November 2011: Non-Violence Working Group (Occupy Boston)
- 4:30 PM – 6:00 PM, 9 November 2011: Musical Concert – Chadwick Stokes from State Radio / Dispatch (Occupy Boston)

- 6:30 – 7:30 PM, 9 November 2011: Protest Michelle Rhee at Symphony Hall (301 Mass Ave.) Protest by teachers, students and community members against Michelle Rhee, former Washington DC chancellor of schools.

Analyst Notes: The Mass Teachers Unions, which have endorsed OB and participated in past OB marches, will participate in this protest. OB has also announced their intent to participate in this march on their website. They will march from Dewey Square at 6:30 PM for a rally at Symphony Hall for 7:00 PM.^{vi}

- 7:00 PM – 10:00 PM, 9 November 2011: Occupy Harvard. Harvard will be holding a rally and General Assembly in front of the John Harvard Statue in the Harvard Yard. The Facebook page for this event has 238 attendees as of 8:30 AM on 9 November 2011.^{vii}

Analyst Notes: @Occupy_Harvard tweeted to @Occupy_Boston at 7:33 AM on 8 November 2011 to join them for this event; however, it is not yet on OB's calendar. This has received attention on Twitter reminding people to participate as well as a topic of conversation on the students Google group chat page.^{viii} It is unknown at this time if this is a planned overnight occupation.

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 10 November 2011^{ix}

- 12:00 PM, 10 November 2011: Health Care for All and the Greater Boston Interfaith Organization will rally at the State House and visit Representatives regarding the high cost of health care. Group will rally at 12:00 PM at the Nurse's Hall in the State House and legislative visits at 1:00 PM.^x

Analyst Notes: This has been posted on BU Occupies' Facebook page; there has been no further chatter or posting on any OB sites regarding this event.

- 4:00 PM, 10 November 2011: Direct Action Meeting (Occupy Boston)

- 5:30 PM, 10 November 2011: Winterizing Meeting (Occupy Boston)
- 7:00 PM, 10 November: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Friday, 11 November 2011^{xi}

- 10:00 AM – 4:00 PM, 11 November 2011: Veteran's Day: Veteran's for Peace (off-site) Parade and Peace Rally. The location for this event on OB's calendar is the Boston Common, Faneuil Hall and then march back to Occupy Boston (at Dewey Square). The schedule for the day is listed as follows: 10:00 AM – join pre-parade pickets, meet at Boston Common on the corner of Beacon and Charles St. 12:00 PM – march behind the official Veteran's Day Parade with Veterans for Peace. 1:00 PM – parade steps off. There will be a post-parade rally at Faneuil Hall with speakers and live music followed by a march to Occupy Boston.
- 11-13 November 2011: Project No One Leaves: Anti-Foreclosure Conference held at Harvard Law School. Project No One Leaves and the Harvard Legal Aid Bureau will be hosting a national conference of attorneys, activists, students, and organizers to discuss the foreclosure crisis. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: This event is on OB's calendar, it is unknown if any OB supporters will be attending.

- All day, 11 November 2011: Occupy the Streets, Occupy the World. This is a global event; the Facebook page for this event appears to be mostly international, with links to the Facebook event page for multiple cities and countries abroad.^{xii}

Analyst Notes: This event is not on OB's calendar and there has not been any chatter or open source media indicating their plan to participate; the exact plan of action for this day abroad is unknown. It is possible that if OB becomes aware of this global event they will stage a march and / or demonstration in solidarity with this event.

- All day, 11 November 2011: Community Food Drive – Feed the Hood. Occupy Boston is promoting a food drive, this event is also being sponsored by Blackstonian (creator of Occupy the Hood), Union of Minority Neighborhoods, and Brothers for Boston. “Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 54

9 November 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Events Scheduled for Today, Wednesday, 9 November 2011ⁱ

- 6-9 November 2011: 2011 AFP (Association for Financial Professionals) Annual Conference at the Boston Convention & Exhibition Center. Former President Clinton attended and spoke at and departed from this event on 6 November 2011.

Analyst Notes: Over 6,000 treasury and financial professionals will be in attendance. It should be noted that a handful of Occupy Boston members were outside the BCEC on 6 and 7 November 2011 around 8:00 PM. This event has received mention on the OB Facebook page calling for protests at the BCEC and it is possible OB will stage a demonstration outside this event again this week (First Amendment protected activity).

- All day – Occupy Mobile/Occupy Alabama is facing potential police action on 9 November 2011 if they don't leave Spanish Plaza, where they have camped since 5 November 2011.ⁱⁱ

Analyst Notes: Arrests and/or police interaction in Alabama could increase tension at the OB events listed below and potentially lead to a separate solidarity march.

- 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM, 9 November 2011: Carpenters Union Protest at Copley Marriot Hotel. New England's Carpenters Union will be protesting at the Copley Marriot Hotel.
- 11:00 AM, 9 November 2011: Rally to Protect Medicare, Medicaid, Social Security with Mass Senior Action. Occupy Stands with Workers against “Super Committee” Cuts at the Wang Theater (270 Tremont St). This rally is sponsored by Mass Senior Action and Mass Home Care amongst other groups. Several labor unions, including teachers and nurses, will participate.ⁱⁱⁱ Forty buses, organized by United for Justice with Peace, will transport

senior citizens to the Wang. United for Justice with Peace is also calling for a 12:30 PM protest of the Super Committee outside Sen. John Kerry's office (One Bowdoin Sq.).^{iv} It is unknown if there will be a march from the Wang to Senator Kerry's office or if this is a separate protest. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: The Super Committee, which included Senator Kerry, will be meeting to decide how to cut $1.5 trillion from federal spending by 23 November 2011; cuts include social security, Medicare, Medicaid and other social programs. According to BostonSocialism.org groups will meet at Dewey Sq. at 10:30 AM and march to the Wang.

- 1:00 PM – 3:00 PM, 9 November 2011: Non-Violence Working Group (Occupy Boston)
- 4:30 PM – 6:00 PM, 9 November 2011: Musical Concert – Chadwick Stokes from State Radio / Dispatch (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: The band State Radio has a significant local following according to open sources and has a number of upcoming tour dates including in PA, Washington DC, ME, NY and VT.^v

- 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM, 9 November 2011: FSU Workshop: The Practice of Non-Violence and Civil Disobedience (Occupy Boston). According to the Occupy Boston calendar entry for this event, participants will meet at the South Station mezzanine in the event of bad weather.
- 6:30 – 7:30 PM, 9 November 2011: Protest Michelle Rhee at Symphony Hall (301 Mass Ave.) Protest by teachers, students and community members against Michelle Rhee, former Washington DC chancellor of schools.

Analyst Notes: The Mass Teachers Unions, which have endorsed OB and participated in past OB marches, will participate in this protest. OB has also announced their intent to participate in this march on their website. They will march from Dewey Square at 6:30 PM for a rally at Symphony Hall for 7:00 PM.^{vi}

- 7:00 PM – 10:00 PM, 9 November 2011: Occupy Harvard. Harvard will be holding a rally and General Assembly in front of the John Harvard Statue in the Harvard Yard. The Facebook page for this event has 238 attendees as of 8:30 AM on 9 November 2011.^{vii}

Analyst Notes: @Occupy_Harvard tweeted to @Occupy_Boston at 7:33 AM on 8 November 2011 to join them for this event; however, it is not yet on OB's calendar. This has received attention on Twitter reminding people to participate as well as a topic of conversation on the students Google group chat page.^{viii} It is unknown at this time if this is a planned overnight occupation.

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 10 November 2011^{ix}

- 12:00 PM, 10 November 2011: Health Care for All and the Greater Boston Interfaith Organization will rally at the State House and visit Representatives regarding the high cost of health care. Group will rally at 12:00 PM at the Nurse's Hall in the State House and legislative visits at 1:00 PM.^x

Analyst Notes: This has been posted on BU Occupies' Facebook page; there has been no further chatter or posting on any OB sites regarding this event.

- 4:00 PM, 10 November 2011: Direct Action Meeting (Occupy Boston)

- 5:30 PM, 10 November 2011: Winterizing Meeting (Occupy Boston)
- 7:00 PM, 10 November: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Friday, 11 November 2011^{xi}

- 10:00 AM – 4:00 PM, 11 November 2011: Veteran's Day: Veteran's for Peace (off-site) Parade and Peace Rally. The location for this event on OB's calendar is the Boston Common, Faneuil Hall and then march back to Occupy Boston (at Dewey Square). The schedule for the day is listed as follows: 10:00 AM – join pre-parade pickets, meet at Boston Common on the corner of Beacon and Charles St. 12:00 PM – march behind the official Veteran's Day Parade with Veterans for Peace. 1:00 PM – parade steps off. There will be a post-parade rally at Faneuil Hall with speakers and live music followed by a march to Occupy Boston.
- 11-13 November 2011: Project No One Leaves: Anti-Foreclosure Conference held at Harvard Law School. Project No One Leaves and the Harvard Legal Aid Bureau will be hosting a national conference of attorneys, activists, students, and organizers to discuss the foreclosure crisis. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: This event is on OB's calendar, it is unknown if any OB supporters will be attending.

- All day, 11 November 2011: Occupy the Streets, Occupy the World. This is a global event; the Facebook page for this event appears to be mostly international, with links to the Facebook event page for multiple cities and countries abroad.^{xii}

Analyst Notes: This event is not on OB's calendar and there has not been any chatter or open source media indicating their plan to participate; the exact plan of action for this day abroad is unknown. It is possible that if OB becomes aware of this global event they will stage a march and / or demonstration in solidarity with this event.

- All day, 11 November 2011: Community Food Drive – Feed the Hood. Occupy Boston is promoting a food drive, this event is also being sponsored by Blackstonian (creator of Occupy the Hood), Union of Minority Neighborhoods, and Brothers for Boston. Potential drop off locations include: Firehouses at Columbia Rd., Dudley and Egelston; churches at Charles St. (Groover), Greater Love (Dickerson), Dorchester Temple (Wall), and Pleasant Hill (Culpepper). (Occupy Boston).
- 6:00 PM, 11 November 2011: Occupar el Barrio (Occupy the Hood) Meeting at the Maverick Landing Community Center (31 Liverpool St., East Boston).^{xiii}

Analyst Notes: This event is also listed on OB's calendar; however, it is unclear what this event entails.

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 56

10 November 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Events Scheduled for Today, Thursday, 10 November 2011 ⁱ

- 4:00 PM, 10 November 2011: Direct Action Meeting (Occupy Boston)
- 5:30 PM, 10 November 2011: Winterizing Meeting (Occupy Boston)
- 5:00 PM, 10 November 2011: Occupy Harvard is planning a General Assembly for tonight at Science Center Plaza. Individuals without a Harvard University ID will gather outside of Johnston Gate.
- 6:00 PM, 10 November 2011: CityWide Outreach Meeting at Howard Thurman Center at BU. This meeting’s focus will be planning the 3 December 2011 Unity March. Those who will be in attendance are reportedly to include: members from OB Logistics team, Occupy the Hood representatives, and a representative from Occupy the Barrio. ⁱⁱ
Analyst Notes: This meeting is posted on BU Occupies’ Facebook page with 5 listed representatives. It is likely that the 3 December march will be a prominent action with all groups involved. See General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston for more details.
- 7:00 PM, 10 November: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Friday, 11 November 2011 ⁱⁱⁱ

- 10:00 AM – 4:00 PM, 11 November 2011: Veteran’s Day: Veteran’s for Peace (off-site) Parade and Peace Rally. The location for this event on OB’s calendar is the Boston

Common, Faneuil Hall and then march back to Occupy Boston (at Dewey Square). The schedule for the day is listed as follows: 10:00 AM – join pre-parade pickets, meet at Boston Common on the corner of Beacon and Charles St. 12:00 PM – march behind the official Veteran's Day Parade with Veterans for Peace. 1:00 PM – parade steps off. There will be a post-parade rally at Faneuil Hall with speakers and live music followed by a march to Occupy Boston. OB notes on this event that the Smedley D. Butler Brigade of Veteran's for Peace will march behind the official Veteran's Day Parade because they are not allowed to walk with their flags in the actual parade. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: The Smedley Butler Brigade is an anti-war group made up of older veterans; arrests have been made at this event in the past. It is likely that OB will participate in this march; the Veterans for Peace and OB have marched in solidarity together, and have supported each other's marches in the past. There has not been any Twitter chatter regarding this march; however it appears the Occupy Harvard action has taken precedence on Twitter.

- 11-13 November 2011: Project No One Leaves: Anti-Foreclosure Conference held at Harvard Law School. Project No One Leaves and the Harvard Legal Aid Bureau will be hosting a national conference of attorneys, activists, students, and organizers to discuss the foreclosure crisis. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: This event is on OB's calendar, it is unknown if any OB /OTH supporters will be attending; there has been no open source chatter within OB members / supporters relative to this event.

- All day, 11 November 2011: Occupy the Streets, Occupy the World. This is a global event; the Facebook page for this event appears to be mostly international, with links to the Facebook event page for multiple cities and countries abroad.^{iv}

Analyst Notes: This event is not on OB's calendar and there has not been any chatter or open source media indicating their plan to participate; the exact plan of action for this day abroad is unknown. It is possible that if OB becomes aware of this global event they will stage a march and / or demonstration in solidarity with this event. However; it is more likely OB will participate in the Veteran's Day March, which is scheduled for the majority of the day.

- All day, 11 November 2011: Community Food Drive – Feed the Hood. Occupy Boston is promoting a food drive, this event is also being sponsored by Blackstonian (creator of Occupy the Hood), Union of Minority Neighborhoods, and Brothers for Boston. Potential drop off locations include: Firehouses at Columbia Rd., Dudley and Egelston; churches at Charles St. (Groover), Greater Love (Dickerson), Dorchester Temple (Wall), and Pleasant Hill (Culpepper). (Occupy Boston)
- 6:00 PM, 11 November 2011: Occupar el Barrio (Occupy the Hood) Meeting at the Maverick Landing Community Center (31 Liverpool St., East Boston).^v

Analyst Note: This event is also listed on OB's calendar; however, it is unclear what this event entails. This event is being organized by Occupar el Barrio; last week at the first meeting for Occupar el Barrio approximately 120-140 supporters showed up.

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 12 November 2011^{vi}

- 9:30 AM – 3:00 PM, 12 November 2011: Foreclosure Canvassing in Malden with City Life / Vida Urbana. According to OB, participants will meet at the info tent at 9:30 AM and then head to Malden. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: This type of foreclosure canvassing events has been organized by Vida Urbana in the past. There has not been any chatter regarding this event within OB on open source media; however, small numbers of OB have participated in events and foreclosure protests with Vida Urbana in the past. At this time it is unknown if any OB will participate.

- 1:00 PM, 12 November 2011: March for Health Care Justice. OB will have a speak-out at 12:00 PM and then possibly march from Dewey Square to Senator Kerry's residence at 1:00 PM. OB also plans to make stops at the offices of some of the biggest corporate healthcare players during the march. (Occupy Boston)^{vii}

Analyst Notes: Based on open sources this appears to a march planned by OB; however, numbers for this march cannot be estimated at this time. There has been no open source chatter relative to this march.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston's calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB's plans to participate in these marches.

- 7:00 PM, 12 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Sunday, 13 November 2011^{viii}

- 9:00 AM – 4:00 PM, 12 November 2011: Teach-In: Reclaiming our Economy. Northeastern University is hosting a teach-in open to the public at Blackman Auditorium (360 Huntington Ave). Listed speakers include: Governor Deval Patrick and Mayor Menino. This daylong event will consist of speaking panels all day.

Analyst Notes: Northeastern University is expecting anywhere between 500 and 1,000 attendees. This has received some attention on Facebook and Twitter. It is unknown at this time if any OB members will be attending. This event has been widely advertised through the Boston Globe and numerous social media outlets.

- 2:00 PM – 3:00 PM, 12 November 2011: Existence is Resistance Kuffeya Day at Occupy Boston. In support of Palestinian political prisoners, OB is hosting a Kuffeya Day at Dewey Square to spread awareness and get signatures for a petition which will later be delivered to Israeli authorities. (Occupy Boston) This was posted on OB's calendar under information for this event, no further information on a plan to deliver said petition to Israeli authorities is available at this time.

Analyst Notes: On 5 November 2011 a group of about 30 protestors staged a sit-in in the foyer of 20 Park Plaza where the Israeli Consulate is located.

- 7:00 PM, 12 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Monday, 14 November 2011^{ix}

- 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM, 14 November 2011: Occupy the Hood Boston Public Town Hall Meeting at Dudley Branch Library, 65 Warren St. Dudley Square, Roxbury. Items to be addressed include: education, employment, housing, crime, violence, guns, drugs, incarceration, police brutality, civic engagement, and voting. Updates from Occupy the Hood, Occupy Boston, and Ocupemos el Barrio will be given.

Analyst Notes: This event is being organized by Occupy the Hood, it is possible that some organizers and leaders from OB will attend this meeting to help facilitate; it is on OB's calendar of events and there are no marches planned for Monday, 14 November 2011 as of Thursday afternoon.

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- Occupy Boston did not march in either marches planned for yesterday, 9 November 2011; the Wang Theater march or the march to Symphony Hall in protest of Michelle Rhee.
- About 150 Occupy Harvard / Occupy Cambridge protestors shut down Mass Ave. in Cambridge last night. 10 individuals from OB entered the red line station with their flags and headed to Cambridge. Harvard PD closed Harvard Yard to non-Harvard students where Occupy Harvard was scheduled to take place.

Analyst Note: This event is also listed on OB's calendar; however, it is unclear what this event entails. This event is being organized by Occupar el Barrio; last week at the first meeting for Occupar el Barrio approximately 120-140 supporters showed up.

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 12 November 2011^{vi}

- 9:30 AM – 3:00 PM, 12 November 2011: Foreclosure Canvassing in Malden with City Life / Vida Urbana. According to OB, participants will meet at the info tent at 9:30 AM and then head to Malden. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: This type of foreclosure canvassing events has been organized by Vida Urbana in the past. There has not been any chatter regarding this event within OB on open source media; however, small numbers of OB have participated in events and foreclosure protests with Vida Urbana in the past. At this time it is unknown if any OB will participate.

- 1:00 PM, 12 November 2011: March for Health Care Justice. OB will have a speak-out at 12:00 PM and then possibly march from Dewey Square to Senator Kerry's residence at 1:00 PM. OB also plans to make stops at the offices of some of the biggest corporate healthcare players during the march. (Occupy Boston)^{vii}

Analyst Notes: Based on open sources this appears to a march planned by OB; however, numbers for this march cannot be estimated at this time. There has been no open source chatter relative to this march.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston's calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB's plans to participate in these marches.

- 7:00 PM, 12 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Sunday, 13 November 2011^{viii}

- 9:00 AM – 4:00 PM, 12 November 2011: Teach-In: Reclaiming our Economy. Northeastern University is hosting a teach-in open to the public at Blackman Auditorium (360 Huntington Ave). Listed speakers include: Governor Deval Patrick and Mayor Menino. This daylong event will consist of speaking panels all day.

Analyst Notes: Northeastern University is expecting anywhere between 500 and 1,000 attendees. This has received some attention on Facebook and Twitter. It is unknown at this time if any OB members will be attending. This event has been widely advertised through the Boston Globe and numerous social media outlets.

- 2:00 PM – 3:00 PM, 12 November 2011: Existence is Resistance Kuffeya Day at Occupy Boston. In support of Palestinian political prisoners, OB is hosting a Kuffeya Day at Dewey Square to spread awareness and get signatures for a petition which will later be delivered to Israeli authorities. (Occupy Boston) This was posted on OB's calendar under information for this event, no further information on a plan to deliver said petition to Israeli authorities is available at this time.

Analyst Notes: On 5 November 2011 a group of about 30 protestors staged a sit-in in the foyer of 20 Park Plaza where the Israeli Consulate is located.

- 7:00 PM, 12 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Monday, 14 November 2011^{ix}

- 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM, 14 November 2011: Occupy the Hood Boston Public Town Hall Meeting at Dudley Branch Library, 65 Warren St. Dudley Square, Roxbury. Items to be addressed include: education, employment, housing, crime, violence, guns, drugs, incarceration, police brutality, civic engagement, and voting. Updates from Occupy the Hood, Occupy Boston, and Ocupemos el Barrio will be given.

Analyst Notes: This event is being organized by Occupy the Hood, it is possible that some organizers and leaders from OB will attend this meeting to help facilitate; it is on OB's calendar of events and there are no marches planned for Monday, 14 November 2011 as of Thursday afternoon.

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- Occupy Boston did not march in either marches planned for yesterday, 9 November 2011; the Wang Theater march or the march to Symphony Hall in protest of Michelle Rhee.
- About 150 Occupy Harvard / Occupy Cambridge protestors shut down Mass Ave. in Cambridge last night. 10 individuals from OB entered the red line station with their flags and headed to Cambridge. Harvard PD closed Harvard Yard to non-Harvard students where Occupy Harvard was scheduled to take place.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 56

10 November 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Events Scheduled for Today, Thursday, 10 November 2011ⁱ

- 4:00 PM, 10 November 2011: Direct Action Meeting (Occupy Boston)
- 5:30 PM, 10 November 2011: Winterizing Meeting (Occupy Boston)
- 5:00 PM, 10 November 2011: Occupy Harvard is planning a General Assembly for tonight at Science Center Plaza. Individuals without a Harvard University ID will gather outside of Johnston Gate.
- 6:00 PM, 10 November 2011: CityWide Outreach Meeting at Howard Thurman Center at BU. This meeting’s focus will be planning the 3 December 2011 Unity March. Those who will be in attendance are reportedly to include: members from OB Logistics team, Occupy the Hood representatives, and a representative from Occupy the Barrio.ⁱⁱ
Analyst Notes: This meeting is posted on BU Occupies’ Facebook page with 5 listed representatives. It is likely that the 3 December march will be a prominent action with all groups involved. See General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston for more details.
- 7:00 PM, 10 November: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Friday, 11 November 2011ⁱⁱⁱ

- 10:00 AM – 4:00 PM, 11 November 2011: Veteran’s Day: Veteran’s for Peace (off-site) Parade and Peace Rally. The location for this event on OB’s calendar is the Boston

Common, Faneuil Hall and then march back to Occupy Boston (at Dewey Square). The schedule for the day is listed as follows: 10:00 AM – join pre-parade pickets, meet at Boston Common on the corner of Beacon and Charles St. 12:00 PM – march behind the official Veteran's Day Parade with Veterans for Peace. 1:00 PM – parade steps off. There will be a post-parade rally at Faneuil Hall with speakers and live music followed by a march to Occupy Boston. OB notes on this event that the Smedley D. Butler Brigade of Veteran's for Peace will march behind the official Veteran's Day Parade because they are not allowed to walk with their flags in the actual parade. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: The Smedley Butler Brigade is an anti-war group made up of older veterans; arrests have been made at this event in the past. It is likely that OB will participate in this march; the Veterans for Peace and OB have marched in solidarity together, and have supported each other's marches in the past. There has not been any Twitter chatter regarding this march; however it appears the Occupy Harvard action has taken precedence on Twitter.

- 11-13 November 2011: Project No One Leaves: Anti-Foreclosure Conference held at Harvard Law School. Project No One Leaves and the Harvard Legal Aid Bureau will be hosting a national conference of attorneys, activists, students, and organizers to discuss the foreclosure crisis. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: This event is on OB's calendar, it is unknown if any OB /OTH supporters will be attending; there has been no open source chatter within OB members / supporters relative to this event.

- All day, 11 November 2011: Occupy the Streets, Occupy the World. This is a global event; the Facebook page for this event appears to be mostly international, with links to the Facebook event page for multiple cities and countries abroad.^{iv}

Analyst Notes: This event is not on OB's calendar and there has not been any chatter or open source media indicating their plan to participate; the exact plan of action for this day abroad is unknown. It is possible that if OB becomes aware of this global event they will stage a march and / or demonstration in solidarity with this event. However; it is more likely OB will participate in the Veteran's Day March, which is scheduled for the majority of the day.

- All day, 11 November 2011: Community Food Drive – Feed the Hood. Occupy Boston is promoting a food drive, this event is also being sponsored by Blackstonian (creator of Occupy the Hood), Union of Minority Neighborhoods, and Brothers for Boston. Potential drop off locations include: Firehouses at Columbia Rd., Dudley and Egelston; churches at Charles St. (Groover), Greater Love (Dickerson), Dorchester Temple (Wall), and Pleasant Hill (Culpepper). (Occupy Boston)
- 6:00 PM, 11 November 2011: Occupar el Barrio (Occupy the Hood) Meeting at the Maverick Landing Community Center (31 Liverpool St., East Boston).^v

Analyst Note: This event is also listed on OB's calendar; however, it is unclear what this event entails. This event is being organized by Occupar el Barrio; last week at the first meeting for Occupar el Barrio approximately 120-140 supporters showed up.

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 12 November 2011^{vi}

- 9:30 AM – 3:00 PM, 12 November 2011: Foreclosure Canvassing in Malden with City Life / Vida Urbana. According to OB, participants will meet at the info tent at 9:30 AM and then head to Malden. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: This type of foreclosure canvassing events has been organized by Vida Urbana in the past. There has not been any chatter regarding this event within OB on open source media; however, small numbers of OB have participated in events and foreclosure protests with Vida Urbana in the past. At this time it is unknown if any OB will participate.

- 1:00 PM, 12 November 2011: March for Health Care Justice. OB will have a speak-out at 12:00 PM and then possibly march from Dewey Square to Senator Kerry's residence at 1:00 PM. OB also plans to make stops at the offices of some of the biggest corporate healthcare players during the march. (Occupy Boston)^{vii}

Analyst Notes: Based on open sources this appears to a march planned by OB; however, numbers for this march cannot be estimated at this time. There has been no open source chatter relative to this march.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston's calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB's plans to participate in these marches.

- 7:00 PM, 12 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Sunday, 13 November 2011^{viii}

- 9:00 AM – 4:00 PM, 12 November 2011: Teach-In: Reclaiming our Economy. Northeastern University is hosting a teach-in open to the public at Blackman Auditorium (360 Huntington Ave). Listed speakers include: Governor Deval Patrick and Mayor Menino. This daylong event will consist of speaking panels all day.

Analyst Notes: Northeastern University is expecting anywhere between 500 and 1,000 attendees. This has received some attention on Facebook and Twitter. It is unknown at this time if any OB members will be attending. This event has been widely advertised through the Boston Globe and numerous social media outlets.

- 2:00 PM – 3:00 PM, 12 November 2011: Existence is Resistance Kuffeya Day at Occupy Boston. In support of Palestinian political prisoners, OB is hosting a Kuffeya Day at Dewey Square to spread awareness and get signatures for a petition which will later be delivered to Israeli authorities. (Occupy Boston) This was posted on OB's calendar under information for this event, no further information on a plan to deliver said petition to Israeli authorities is available at this time.

Analyst Notes: On 5 November 2011 a group of about 30 protestors staged a sit-in in the foyer of 20 Park Plaza where the Israeli Consulate is located.

- 7:00 PM, 12 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Monday, 14 November 2011^{ix}

- 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM, 14 November 2011: Occupy the Hood Boston Public Town Hall Meeting at Dudley Branch Library, 65 Warren St. Dudley Square, Roxbury. Items to be addressed include: education, employment, housing, crime, violence, guns, drugs, incarceration, police brutality, civic engagement, and voting. Updates from Occupy the Hood, Occupy Boston, and Ocupemos el Barrio will be given.

Analyst Notes: This event is being organized by Occupy the Hood, it is possible that some organizers and leaders from OB will attend this meeting to help facilitate; it is on OB's calendar of events and there are no marches planned for Monday, 14 November 2011 as of Thursday afternoon.

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 17

13 October 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

Scheduled to Occur today, 13 October 2011ⁱ

- 4:30 PM: National Student Solidarity Protest. It should be noted that this event has not been acknowledged on the Occupy Boston or Colleges Occupy Boston websites; however, it is possible that individuals or groups participating in this event may go to Occupy Boston. It should be noted that the only local university that participated in a similar event on 10/5/11 was Northeastern University. Approximately 50 students from Northeastern University marched from campus to Dewey Square, where they proceeded to sit in the middle of Atlantic Ave for a period of time. According to Occupycolleges.org, the following colleges from Massachusetts are registered to participate.ⁱⁱ
 - Berklee
 - UMass Dartmouth
 - Wentworth Institute of Technology
 - Boston University
 - Northeastern University
 - Stonehill College
 - Smith College, Northampton, MA
 - UMass Amherst
 - Tufts University
- Labor Rallies Today (Occupy Boston)
 - According to the Boston Phoenix, incoming president of the AFL-CIO Steven A. Tolman will visit Occupy Boston at 10:00 AM. Later at 1:00 PM, State Representative Marty Walsh will join labor leaders from the Mass Building Trades Council and the Greater Boston Labor Council in a rally at the “decrepit” North Washington Bridge to call for more infrastructure investment.ⁱⁱⁱ At 3:00

PM, the AFL-CIO will join Occupy Boston and other labor unions in Dewey Sq. for a Jobs Accountability rally where labor leaders will pledge their support. All will later join in a march with Verizon workers and at 5:00 PM. Currently, the only location they are interested in marching to is the Verizon Wireless Store at Washington and Milk St, however, other locations cannot be ruled out. Approximately 500-700 people are expected. The following groups have co-sponsored the Jobs Accountability Rally and may be present during the events today: Greater Boston Labor Council, AFL-CIO, Community Labor United, Mass Nurses Association, Metropolitan Boston Building & Construction Trades Council, New England Regional Council of Carpenters, SEIU Local 615, 1199SEIU, and SEIU State Council.^{iv}

- 5:30 PM: Concert, Lauren Flaherty (Occupy Boston)
- 6:00 PM: Anti-Oppression Working Group 1st Meeting by “Big Dig ventilation building” (Occupy Boston)
- 7:00 PM: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)
- 8:00 PM: Civil Disobedience Training. Hosted by the legal working group held by the Gandhi statue (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled to Occur Weekend of 14-16 October 2011

- Friday, 14 October 2011 6:00 – 7:00 PM: Musical concert at Dewey Square – Hallelujah the Hills. (Occupy Boston)
- Saturday, 15 October 2011 9:00 PM: Occupy Boston Benefit Show at the Midway Café in Jamaica Plain, $5.00 – 10.00 donations. This event was on Twitter, but has not yet been added to Occupy Boston’s calendar or Midway Café’s website calendar.^v
- Saturday, 15 October 2011 4:00 – 6:00 PM: Musical concert at Dewey Square – The Whitehaus Family Record.^{vi} (Occupy Boston)
- There are a variety of events occurring in the city on Saturday 15 October 2011 that will likely affect, be impacted by or combine with Occupy Boston:
 - Saturday, 15 October 2011: March (Location / Time TBA). A posting on the Occupy Boston Facebook page^{vii} mentions that a march is planned to occur however it mentions that planning is currently preliminary and the event has not been added to the Occupy Boston Calendar. (Occupy Boston)
 - Saturday, 15 October – International Day of Action against Austerity and War. Boston Anti-war rally: Protesting 10 years of war/occupation. On the Facebook event page there are approximately 70 people attending with 35 maybes and 220 more who haven’t replied. The event will take place at the Boston Common at Park & Tremont at 1:00 PM.^{viii}

Analyst Note: There has been nothing specific mentioned on social media about OB participation in this event; however, it is possible that OB participants will either participate in or combine events with this event or others like it.

- On 15 October 2011, United for Global Change is scheduled to occur worldwide with 826 cities and 76 countries reportedly participating according to the event's website.^{ix} The event's website states it will consist of public demonstrations. While this event has garnered sporadic comment and mention by Occupy Boston participants^x, it is unknown whether any Occupy Boston events have been planned to coincide with it at this time. However it should be noted that there is a potential for events related to United for Global Change to occur in Boston supported by Occupy Boston.
- Animal rights protest outside of The Ringling Bros. and Barnum and Bailey Circus Saturday, 15 October from 1:00pm to 3:00pm at the intersection of Legends Way and Causeway St. Expected Attendance: 24
- There is an Adbusters sponsored event occurring in New York City's Times Square on Saturday 15 October 2011 at 5:00 PM.

Analyst Note: Adbusters is the company that sponsored the initial Occupy Wall Street action in NYC. It is unknown if this event occurring in NYC will spark similar events in other cities with occupy events occurring.

General Notes

- Regarding Occupy Wall St. – Members of Occupy Wall Street's camp at Zuccotti Park in Manhattan have been asked to leave the area on Friday, 14 October 2011 so that the city can clean the area. They will be allowed to return, but they will not be able to bring their camping gear. Commissioner Ray Kelly stated, "People will have to remove all their belongings and leave the park," Kelly said today after a memorial ceremony in Battery Park. "After it's cleaned, they'll be able to come back. But they won't be able to bring back the gear. The sleeping bags, that sort of thing, will not be able to be brought back into the park."ⁱ

Analyst Comment: One of the organizers of OB re-tweeted an article regarding this situation. If the situation in NYC escalates on 14 October 2011, it is possible that OB may conduct some sort of demonstration or other action to show solidarity with Occupy Wall Street.

- At approximately 2:30 – 3:00 PM today there were multiple tweets about how BPD was in and around Dewey Square allegedly filming the camp and their civil disobedience training. Occupiers at one point were tweeting requests for legal observers to come down to the camp "RIGHT NOW".

Analyst Note: This illustrates that the camp members are extra sensitive to police activity around the camp. A BRIC detective arrived at the camp shortly after these tweets started and reported no unusual activity or law enforcement officers in the area.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 17

13 October 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

Scheduled to Occur today, 13 October 2011ⁱ

- 4:30 PM: National Student Solidarity Protest. It should be noted that this event has not been acknowledged on the Occupy Boston or Colleges Occupy Boston websites; however, it is possible that individuals or groups participating in this event may go to Occupy Boston. It should be noted that the only local university that participated in a similar event on 10/5/11 was Northeastern University. Approximately 50 students from Northeastern University marched from campus to Dewey Square, where they proceeded to sit in the middle of Atlantic Ave for a period of time. According to Occupycolleges.org, the following colleges from Massachusetts are registered to participate.ⁱⁱ
 - Berklee
 - UMass Dartmouth
 - Wentworth Institute of Technology
 - Boston University
 - Northeastern University
 - Stonehill College
 - Smith College, Northampton, MA
 - UMass Amherst
 - Tufts University
- Labor Rallies Today (Occupy Boston)
 - According to the Boston Phoenix, incoming president of the AFL-CIO Steven A. Tolman will visit Occupy Boston at 10:00 AM. Later at 1:00 PM, State Representative Marty Walsh will join labor leaders from the Mass Building Trades Council and the Greater Boston Labor Council in a rally at the “decrepit” North Washington Bridge to call for more infrastructure investment.ⁱⁱⁱ At 3:00

PM, the AFL-CIO will join Occupy Boston and other labor unions in Dewey Sq. for a Jobs Accountability rally where labor leaders will pledge their support. All will later join in a march with Verizon workers and at 5:00 PM. Currently, the only location they are interested in marching to is the Verizon Wireless Store at Washington and Milk St, however, other locations cannot be ruled out. Approximately 500-700 people are expected. The following groups have co-sponsored the Jobs Accountability Rally and may be present during the events today: Greater Boston Labor Council, AFL-CIO, Community Labor United, Mass Nurses Association, Metropolitan Boston Building & Construction Trades Council, New England Regional Council of Carpenters, SEIU Local 615, 1199SEIU, and SEIU State Council.^{iv}

- 5:30 PM: Concert, Lauren Flaherty (Occupy Boston)
- 6:00 PM: Anti-Oppression Working Group 1st Meeting by “Big Dig ventilation building” (Occupy Boston)
- 7:00 PM: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)
- 8:00 PM: Civil Disobedience Training. Hosted by the legal working group held by the Gandhi statue (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled to Occur Weekend of 14-16 October 2011

- Friday, 14 October 2011 6:00 – 7:00 PM: Musical concert at Dewey Square – Hallelujah the Hills. (Occupy Boston)
- Saturday, 15 October 2011 9:00 PM: Occupy Boston Benefit Show at the Midway Café in Jamaica Plain, $5.00 – 10.00 donations. This event was on Twitter, but has not yet been added to Occupy Boston’s calendar or Midway Café’s website calendar.^v
- Saturday, 15 October 2011 4:00 – 6:00 PM: Musical concert at Dewey Square – The Whitehaus Family Record.^{vi} (Occupy Boston)
- There are a variety of events occurring in the city on Saturday 15 October 2011 that will likely affect, be impacted by or combine with Occupy Boston:
 - Saturday, 15 October 2011: March (Location / Time TBA). A posting on the Occupy Boston Facebook page^{vii} mentions that a march is planned to occur however it mentions that planning is currently preliminary and the event has not been added to the Occupy Boston Calendar. (Occupy Boston)
 - Saturday, 15 October – International Day of Action against Austerity and War. Boston Anti-war rally: Protesting 10 years of war/occupation. On the Facebook event page there are approximately 70 people attending with 35 maybes and 220 more who haven’t replied. The event will take place at the Boston Common at Park & Tremont at 1:00 PM.^{viii}

Analyst Note: There has been nothing specific mentioned on social media about OB participation in this event; however, it is possible that OB participants will either participate in or combine events with this event or others like it.

- On 15 October 2011, United for Global Change is scheduled to occur worldwide with 826 cities and 76 countries reportedly participating according to the event's website.^{ix} The event's website states it will consist of public demonstrations. While this event has garnered sporadic comment and mention by Occupy Boston participants^x, it is unknown whether any Occupy Boston events have been planned to coincide with it at this time. However it should be noted that there is a potential for events related to United for Global Change to occur in Boston supported by Occupy Boston.
- Animal rights protest outside of The Ringling Bros. and Barnum and Bailey Circus Saturday, 15 October from 1:00pm to 3:00pm at the intersection of Legends Way and Causeway St. Expected Attendance: 24
- There is an Adbusters sponsored event occurring in New York City's Times Square on Saturday 15 October 2011 at 5:00 PM.

Analyst Note: Adbusters is the company that sponsored the initial Occupy Wall Street action in NYC. It is unknown if this event occurring in NYC will spark similar events in other cities with occupy events occurring.

General Notes

- Regarding Occupy Wall St. – Members of Occupy Wall Street's camp at Zuccotti Park in Manhattan have been asked to leave the area on Friday, 14 October 2011 so that the city can clean the area. They will be allowed to return, but they will not be able to bring their camping gear. Commissioner Ray Kelly stated, "People will have to remove all their belongings and leave the park," Kelly said today after a memorial ceremony in Battery Park. "After it's cleaned, they'll be able to come back. But they won't be able to bring back the gear. The sleeping bags, that sort of thing, will not be able to be brought back into the park."ⁱ

Analyst Comment: One of the organizers of OB re-tweeted an article regarding this situation. If the situation in NYC escalates on 14 October 2011, it is possible that OB may conduct some sort of demonstration or other action to show solidarity with Occupy Wall Street.

- At approximately 2:30 – 3:00 PM today there were multiple tweets about how BPD was in and around Dewey Square allegedly filming the camp and their civil disobedience training. Occupiers at one point were tweeting requests for legal observers to come down to the camp "RIGHT NOW".

Analyst Note: This illustrates that the camp members are extra sensitive to police activity around the camp. A BRIC detective arrived at the camp shortly after these tweets started and reported no unusual activity or law enforcement officers in the area.

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 16

13 October 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

Scheduled to Occur today, 13 October 2011ⁱ

- 1:00 PM: Concert, Manasseh Israel, Dewey Sq. stage (Occupy Boston)
- 4:30 PM: National Student Solidarity Protest. It should be noted that this event has not been acknowledged on the Occupy Boston or Colleges Occupy Boston websites; however, it is possible that individuals or groups participating in this event may go to Occupy Boston. It should be noted that the only local university that participated in a similar event on 10/5/11 was Northeastern University. Approximately 50 students from Northeastern University marched from campus to Dewey Square, where they proceeded to sit in the middle of Atlantic Ave for a period of time. According to Occupycolleges.org, the following colleges from Massachusetts are registered to participate.ⁱⁱ
 - Berklee
 - Northeastern
 - Tufts
 - Wentworth
 - UMass Dartmouth
 - Wentworth Institute of Technology
 - Boston University
 - Northeastern University
 - Stonehill College
 - Smith College, Northampton, MA
 - UMass Amherst
 - Tufts University

- Labor Rallies Today (Occupy Boston)
 - According to the Boston Phoenix, incoming president of the AFL-CIO Steven A. Tolman will visit Occupy Boston at 10:00 AM. Later at 1:00 PM, State Representative Marty Walsh will join labor leaders from the Mass Building Trades Council and the Greater Boston Labor Council in a rally at the “decrepit” North Washington Bridge to call for more infrastructure investment.ⁱⁱⁱ At 3:00 PM, the AFL-CIO will join Occupy Boston and other labor unions in Dewey Sq. for a Jobs Accountability rally where labor leaders will pledge their support. All will later join in a march with Verizon workers and at 5:00 PM. Currently, the only location they are interested in marching to is the Verizon Wireless Store at Washington and Milk St, however, other locations cannot be ruled out. Approximately 500-700 people are expected. Situational Awareness

14 November 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Events Scheduled for Monday, 14 November 2011ⁱ

- 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM, 14 November 2011: Occupy the Hood Boston Public Town Hall Meeting at Dudley Branch Library, 65 Warren St. Dudley Square, Roxbury. Items to be addressed include: education, employment, housing, crime, violence, guns, drugs, incarceration, police brutality, civic engagement, and voting. Updates from Occupy the Hood, Occupy Boston, and Ocupemos el Barrio will be given.

Analyst Notes: This event is being organized by Occupy the Hood; it is possible that some organizers and leaders from OB will attend this meeting to help facilitate.

- 4:00 PM – 5:00 PM, 14 November 2011: The History of Black Bloc & Ways to Utilize It. This is being held at the Direct Action area of Dewey Square. (Occupy Boston)
- 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM, 14 November 2011: Jobs Not Cuts Public Meeting. A public meeting will be held at the Thomas Crane Public Library in Quincy, MA for the march that is scheduled for 17 November 2011.

Analyst Notes: This meeting is not being organized by Occupy Boston; it is not on their calendar of events.

- 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 14 November 2011: Ideas Public Discussion: OCCUPY THE WHITEHOUSE.GOV. This event is a public discussion where people can bring their ideas “to craft a series of petitions to be delivered to the Obama Administration’s website. This will be the first part of a nationally-coordinated campaign to force the White House to respond to our presence and our Occupation". (Occupy Boston)

- 9:00 PM, 14 November 2011: Student Occupy Boston General Assembly #11 at Dewey Square. This GA will be facilitated / hosted by Berkeley. ⁱⁱ

Events Scheduled for Tuesday, 15 November 2011 ⁱⁱⁱ

- 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM, 15 November 2011: The Chinese Progressive Association Tour & Press Conference. The Chinese Progressive Association is an organization that works on job training, workers' rights, immigrant rights and other social justice issues. The group is offering to take members of OB on a tour through Chinatown departing from the Chinatown gate at 11:00 AM. Following the tour the press conference will take place at 1:00 PM. ^{iv}

Analyst Notes: This event has been advertised on a students' occupy Google group. This event is not on Occupy Boston's calendar of events.

- 12:00 PM – 1:30 PM, 15 November 2011: No More Cuts! Tax the 1%! End the Wars! Invest in Jobs! March by United for Justice with Peace to Senator Kerry's office at One Bowdoin Square. ^v

Analyst Notes: This event is listed on United for Justice with Jobs' website; it is not on OB's calendar of events and there has been no OB related chatter indicating their plan to participate; however the possibility cannot be ruled out due to OB and this group participating in events together in the past.

- 7:00 PM, 15 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Wednesday, 16 November 2011 ^{vi}

- No significant events planned for Wednesday, 16 November 2011. Normal weekly meetings will continue to take place.

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 17 November 2011 ^{vii}

- 4:00 PM, 17 November 2011: Jobs Not Cuts March. Mass Uniting in collaboration with Jobs for Justice, Occupy Boston, and Occupy the Hood and possibly plan to occupy the North Washington Bridge. Exact route is unknown; they will depart Dewey Square at 4:00 PM.

Analyst Notes: BU Occupies put this march on their Facebook page last week stating their support and plan to participate. The participation from other universities is also possible. United for Justice with Peace, Mass Nurses and Mass Green Rainbow Party will also likely participate. This march has the potential to draw hundreds of participants. This day is also the 2 month anniversary of the Occupy Wall Street movement and has received significant attention on Twitter. The plans are likely to remain fluid in the days leading up to 17 November. The BRIC will provide updates as necessary.

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- On 11 November 2011, about 20 Occupy Boston participants marched behind the Veterans Day Parade with the Smedley Butler Brigade. Group marched to Faneuil Hall for music and celebrating; by around 4:00 PM group was back at Dewey Square, all quiet. No incidents to report from this march.
- On Saturday, 12 November 2011 at 1:00 PM a group of about 150 people stepped off to march from Dewey Square. Group marched to the Bank of American on Federal & Franklin St. then to the State House and to Senator Kerry's residence, where they stayed for about 20 minutes. The group then dispersed from Senator Kerry's residence and broke up at the Boston Common; approximately 15 OB members headed back to Dewey Square and were there by 3:00 PM.

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- Harvard University janitors (participants and supporters of Occupy Harvard) have voted to authorize a strike if contract negotiations fail; their contract expires at midnight on Tuesday, 15 November 2011. The occupation inside Harvard Yard will continue at least until then. A GA is scheduled for tonight at 6:00 PM.
- Northeastern University began an occupation on Sunday, 13 November 2011. About 40 students and 4 tents are set up on Krentzman Quadrangle (360 Huntington Ave.). Northeastern will be occupying this area of 48 hours; the group has until 4:00 PM on Tuesday, 15 November 2011 to disperse according to NUPD. According to organizers, this will be a peaceful and non-violent protest.

General Notes Regarding the Occupy Movement:

- On 10 November 2011 at approximately 5:00 PM a man was fatally shot at the entrance to Occupy Oakland in Oakland, CA. Victim was identified as Kayode Ola Foster, 25; his family indicated that he had been staying at the Occupy camp. No arrests have been made, but police stated the suspect was also a "frequent resident" of the tent city.^{viii} The shooting prompted Mayor Jean Quan to call for the campers to voluntarily leave Thursday evening. The Oakland Police Officers Association asked campers to leave the plaza peacefully and immediately in an open letter.^{ix}
- In the afternoon of 10 November 2011 a man was fatally shot inside a tent at Occupy Vermont in Burlington, VT. Police suspect the gunshot was self-inflicted but closed off the area to investigate, causing tension between police and protestors.^x
- There were multiple arrests and police action at Occupy movements through the U.S. See below for a summary from this past weekend:
 - Oakland – Monday, 14 November 2011: 25 protestors arrested at Occupy Oakland at their encampment outside City Hall after protestors had ignored their eviction notice given to them on Sunday. According to open source news, today's police action prompted Mayor Jean Quan's legal advisor, San Siegel, to resign his position; stating the city should have worked harder to work with campers.^{xi}
 - Tulsa – Sunday, 13 November 2011: 6 arrests made and 4 citations issued during a police action to enforce an 11 PM curfew for the park. Curfew

- enforcements have been ongoing for several weeks now and other arrests have been made.
- Portland – Sunday, 13 November 2011: Approximately 50 arrested during an afternoon action. Mayor Sam Adams ordered the camp shut down citing unhealthy conditions and the camp's attraction of drug users and thieves. The mayor gave a few days notice for the camp to clear out. Numbers of protesters in the area swelled throughout the day, but police were able to prevent them from re-occupying the original two camps. The group discussed occupying foreclosed homes, Portland State University or the banks of the Willamette River as alternative locations for them to continue their occupation.
 - Salt Lake City – Saturday, 12 November 2011: 19 arrested after they refused to leave the camp a day after a man was found dead inside his tent. Police Chief Chris Burbank announced Friday that camping would no longer be allowed at Gallivan Center or Pioneer Park due to ongoing drug, alcohol and fight problems. This announcement came a day after a man was found dead inside his tent at the camp. The death was attributed to carbon monoxide poisoning and drug overdose.
 - Albany – Saturday 12 November 2011: 24 arrested after they crossed from city owned land into state owned land (Lafayette Park) and stayed past 11 PM. These arrests followed an arrest earlier on Saturday where a 39 year old man was arrested for building an illegal structure on the state owned property. The man was building a "Freedom fort" out foam board and tape. Occupy Albany organizers immediately planned a flash mob in the state owned park for 10 PM that same evening in response.
 - Denver – Saturday, 12 November 2011: 17 arrested on Saturday after police attempted to clear a public sidewalk of tables, etc that the Occupy Denver participants had set up for serving food. The participants were given notice that they were not to have items on the public sidewalk. Approximately 3 arrests were made on Sunday after the table was placed on the sidewalk again. Police cleared the table and protesters blocked the path of the cruiser as it was leaving. Several people also shook the cruiser as if they were going to tip it over. Pepper spray was used and two officers were injured during Sunday's incident.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 57

14 November 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Events Scheduled for Monday, 14 November 2011ⁱ

- 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM, 14 November 2011: Occupy the Hood Boston Public Town Hall Meeting at Dudley Branch Library, 65 Warren St. Dudley Square, Roxbury. Items to be addressed include: education, employment, housing, crime, violence, guns, drugs, incarceration, police brutality, civic engagement, and voting. Updates from Occupy the Hood, Occupy Boston, and Ocupemos el Barrio will be given.

Analyst Notes: This event is being organized by Occupy the Hood; it is possible that some organizers and leaders from OB will attend this meeting to help facilitate.

- 4:00 PM – 5:00 PM, 14 November 2011: The History of Black Bloc & Ways to Utilize It. This is being held at the Direct Action area of Dewey Square. (Occupy Boston)
- 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM, 14 November 2011: Jobs Not Cuts Public Meeting. A public meeting will be held at the Thomas Crane Public Library in Quincy, MA for the march that is scheduled for 17 November 2011.

Analyst Notes: This meeting is not being organized by Occupy Boston; it is not on their calendar of events.

- 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 14 November 2011: Ideas Public Discussion: OCCUPY THE WHITEHOUSE.GOV. This event is a public discussion where people can bring their ideas “to craft a series of petitions to be delivered to the Obama Administration’s website. This will be the first part of a nationally-coordinated campaign to force the White House to respond to our presence and our Occupation". (Occupy Boston)

- 9:00 PM, 14 November 2011: Student Occupy Boston General Assembly #11 at Dewey Square. This GA will be facilitated / hosted by Berkeley. ⁱⁱ

Events Scheduled for Tuesday, 15 November 2011 ⁱⁱⁱ

- 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM, 15 November 2011: The Chinese Progressive Association Tour & Press Conference. The Chinese Progressive Association is an organization that works on job training, workers' rights, immigrant rights and other social justice issues. The group is offering to take members of OB on a tour through Chinatown departing from the Chinatown gate at 11:00 AM. Following the tour the press conference will take place at 1:00 PM. ^{iv}

Analyst Notes: This event has been advertised on a students' occupy Google group. This event is not on Occupy Boston's calendar of events.

- 12:00 PM – 1:30 PM, 15 November 2011: No More Cuts! Tax the 1%! End the Wars! Invest in Jobs! March by United for Justice with Peace to Senator Kerry's office at One Bowdoin Square. ^v

Analyst Notes: This event is listed on United for Justice with Jobs' website; it is not on OB's calendar of events and there has been no OB related chatter indicating their plan to participate; however the possibility cannot be ruled out due to OB and this group participating in events together in the past.

- 7:00 PM, 15 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Wednesday, 16 November 2011 ^{vi}

- No significant events planned for Wednesday, 16 November 2011. Normal weekly meetings will continue to take place.

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 17 November 2011 ^{vii}

- 4:00 PM, 17 November 2011: Jobs Not Cuts March. Mass Uniting in collaboration with Jobs for Justice, Occupy Boston, and Occupy the Hood and possibly plan to occupy the North Washington Bridge. Exact route is unknown; they will depart Dewey Square at 4:00 PM.

Analyst Notes: BU Occupies put this march on their Facebook page last week stating their support and plan to participate. The participation from other universities is also possible. United for Justice with Peace, Mass Nurses and Mass Green Rainbow Party will also likely participate. This march has the potential to draw hundreds of participants. This day is also the 2 month anniversary of the Occupy Wall Street movement and has received significant attention on Twitter. The plans are likely to remain fluid in the days leading up to 17 November. The BRIC will provide updates as necessary.

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- On 11 November 2011, about 20 Occupy Boston participants marched behind the Veterans Day Parade with the Smedley Butler Brigade. Group marched to Faneuil Hall for music and celebrating; by around 4:00 PM group was back at Dewey Square, all quiet. No incidents to report from this march.
- On Saturday, 12 November 2011 at 1:00 PM a group of about 150 people stepped off to march from Dewey Square. Group marched to the Bank of American on Federal & Franklin St. then to the State House and to Senator Kerry's residence, where they stayed for about 20 minutes. The group then dispersed from Senator Kerry's residence and broke up at the Boston Common; approximately 15 OB members headed back to Dewey Square and were there by 3:00 PM.

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- Harvard University janitors (participants and supporters of Occupy Harvard) have voted to authorize a strike if contract negotiations fail; their contract expires at midnight on Tuesday, 15 November 2011. The occupation inside Harvard Yard will continue at least until then. A GA is scheduled for tonight at 6:00 PM.
- Northeastern University began an occupation on Sunday, 13 November 2011. About 40 students and 4 tents are set up on Krentzman Quadrangle (360 Huntington Ave.). Northeastern will be occupying this area of 48 hours; the group has until 4:00 PM on Tuesday, 15 November 2011 to disperse according to NUPD. According to organizers, this will be a peaceful and non-violent protest.

General Notes Regarding the Occupy Movement:

- On 10 November 2011 at approximately 5:00 PM a man was fatally shot at the entrance to Occupy Oakland in Oakland, CA. Victim was identified as Kayode Ola Foster, 25; his family indicated that he had been staying at the Occupy camp. No arrests have been made, but police stated the suspect was also a "frequent resident" of the tent city.^{viii} The shooting prompted Mayor Jean Quan to call for the campers to voluntarily leave Thursday evening. Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 58

15 November 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Events Scheduled for Tuesday, 15 November 2011ⁱ

- 5:00 PM, 15 November 2011: Occupy Boston Marches in Solidarity with Occupy Wall Street. (Occupy Boston).
Analyst Notes: This was tweeted at 8:40 AM on 15 November 2011. The march is scheduled to depart Dewey Square at 5:00 PM; exact route is unknown at this time. The BRIC will update as necessary. During his visit and speech at Occupy Boston, Russell Simmons announced his intention to march with OB today at 5:00 PM. (See below for more details on Simmons’ visit to OB). The BRIC received information that the Occupy Northeastern group will march down to Dewey Square sometime between 4:15 PM and 4:30 PM to join OB. The number of Northeastern members that will join OB cannot yet be determined; however, they stated they hope to have a “good” turn out. It should also be noted the possibility of other universities and groups joining this march.
- 12:00 PM, 15 November 2011: Russell Simmons visited Occupy Boston today to “deliver a document written by an undisclosed member of congress”.
Analyst Notes: Russell Simmons is the co-founder of Def Jams record label, as well as the creator of clothing fashion line Phat Farm. Simmons is an elite figure in the hip-hop community. Simmons announced a recommended amendment to the Constitution

– barring all, but public financing, for Federal candidates running for public office.ⁱⁱ He also announced his plan to participate in the march at 5:00 PM with OB.

- 12:00 PM, 15 November 2011: Strike Captains' Training at Medical Campus at the HMS Quadrangle. (Harvard Custodial Workers)
- 2:30 PM, 15 November 2011: Strike Captains' Training at the Courtyard in front of the Science Center and Burden Hall at the Business School. (Harvard Custodial Workers)
- 3:30 PM, 15 November 2011: Protest at President Drew Faust's speech at Loeb Drama Center, 64 Brattle St. (Harvard Custodial Workers)
- 4:30 PM, 15 November 2011: Harvard Custodial Workers Rally in Dewey Square. Harvard Custodians will be protesting / rallying outside of the Harvard Management Company located at 600 Atlantic Ave. (the Federal Reserve building). (Harvard Custodial Workers)

Analyst Notes: The BRIC has no reason to believe OB or Occupy Harvard will be participating in these events; however with the close proximity of protests in Harvard to Occupy Harvard and the Federal Reserve Bank to OB, it is possible these groups will show support to the custodial workers. In addition, OB has showed support for past labor union marches. OB has posted this event on their website, however, it is not on their calendar.

SEIU Local 615 represents approximately 335 custodians at Harvard University, and on 13 November 2011 approximately 230 custodians voted inside the First Parish Church in Cambridge to strike.

At this time the BRIC has information that Occupy Boston will conduct a solidarity march at approximately 5:00 PM starting from Dewey Square (see above); however, there is no further information to indicate the route that this march will take. There is no information at this time to indicate that Occupy Boston is involved in the protest outside the Federal Reserve building; however, the proximity in time and location to the Occupy Boston solidarity march set for 5:00 PM should be noted for the potential for the groups to merge. We will continue to assess publically available open sources regarding this march and provide updates as more information becomes available.

- 5:00 PM, 15 November 2011: Strike Captains' Training at 3 locations: (Harvard Custodial Workers)
 - Courtyard in front of Science Center
 - Main Yard by the John Harvard Statue
 - Burden Hall at the Business School
- 7:00 PM, 15 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Wednesday, 16 November 2011ⁱⁱⁱ

- No significant events planned for Wednesday, 16 November 2011. Normal weekly meetings will continue to take place.

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 17 November 2011^{iv}

- 4:00 PM, 17 November 2011: Jobs Not Cuts March. Mass Uniting in collaboration with Jobs for Justice, Occupy Boston, and Occupy the Hood. Exact route is unknown; they will depart Dewey Square at 4:00 PM.

Analyst Notes: BU Occupies put this march on their Facebook page last week stating their support and plan to participate. The participation from other universities is also possible. United for Justice with Peace, Mass Nurses and Mass Green Rainbow Party will also likely participate. This march has the potential to draw hundreds of participants. This day is also the 2 month anniversary of the Occupy Wall Street movement and has received significant attention on Twitter. The plans are likely to remain fluid in the days leading up to 17 November. The BRIC will provide updates as necessary.

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- Nothing Significant to Report.

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- Harvard University janitors (participants and supporters of Occupy Harvard) have voted to authorize a strike if contract negotiations fail; their contract expires at midnight tonight, Tuesday, 15 November 2011. The occupation inside Harvard Yard will continue at least until then. They have multiple actions planned throughout the day today, see above for more details.
- Northeastern University began an occupation on Sunday, 13 November 2011. About 40 students and 4 tents are set up on Krentzman Quadrangle (360 Huntington Ave.). Northeastern will be occupying this area of 48 hours; the group has until 4:00 PM on Tuesday, 15 November 2011 to disperse according to NUPD. Occupy Northeastern announced their presence in the quad will end at 3:45 PM today, prior to marching down to Dewey Square to join OB for the 5:00 PM march.

General Notes Regarding the Occupy Movement:

- Zuccotti Park in NYC was cleared early this morning by police; approximately 70 people have been arrested. The Mayor and company that own the park decided to clear the park due to health and fire safety hazards to the protestors and surrounding community. According to open source materials, the protestors will be allowed back in the park, but will not be allowed to stay overnight. The National Lawyers Guild of NY obtained a temporary restraining order against the City of New York directing that occupiers be allowed back on the premises with their belongings.

Analyst Notes: The situation in NY is rapidly developing and changing; exact stipulations of the return of protestors are unknown at this time. The BRIC will update as the situation evolves.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 58

15 November 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Events Scheduled for Tuesday, 15 November 2011ⁱ

- 5:00 PM, 15 November 2011: Occupy Boston Marches in Solidarity with Occupy Wall Street. (Occupy Boston).
Analyst Notes: This was tweeted at 8:40 AM on 15 November 2011. The march is scheduled to depart Dewey Square at 5:00 PM; exact route is unknown at this time. The BRIC will update as necessary. During his visit and speech at Occupy Boston, Russell Simmons announced his intention to march with OB today at 5:00 PM. (See below for more details on Simmons’ visit to OB). The BRIC received information that the Occupy Northeastern group will march down to Dewey Square sometime between 4:15 PM and 4:30 PM to join OB. The number of Northeastern members that will join OB cannot yet be determined; however, they stated they hope to have a “good” turn out. It should also be noted the possibility of other universities and groups joining this march.
- 12:00 PM, 15 November 2011: Russell Simmons visited Occupy Boston today to “deliver a document written by an undisclosed member of congress”.
Analyst Notes: Russell Simmons is the co-founder of Def Jams record label, as well as the creator of clothing fashion line Phat Farm. Simmons is an elite figure in the hip-hop community. Simmons announced a recommended amendment to the Constitution

– barring all, but public financing, for Federal candidates running for public office. ⁱⁱ He also announced his plan to participate in the march at 5:00 PM with OB.

- 12:00 PM, 15 November 2011: Strike Captains' Training at Medical Campus at the HMS Quadrangle. (Harvard Custodial Workers)
- 2:30 PM, 15 November 2011: Strike Captains' Training at the Courtyard in front of the Science Center and Burden Hall at the Business School. (Harvard Custodial Workers)
- 3:30 PM, 15 November 2011: Protest at President Drew Faust's speech at Loeb Drama Center, 64 Brattle St. (Harvard Custodial Workers)
- 4:30 PM, 15 November 2011: Harvard Custodial Workers Rally in Dewey Square. Harvard Custodians will be protesting / rallying outside of the Harvard Management Company located at 600 Atlantic Ave. (the Federal Reserve building). (Harvard Custodial Workers)

Analyst Notes: The BRIC has no reason to believe OB or Occupy Harvard will be participating in these events; however with the close proximity of protests in Harvard to Occupy Harvard and the Federal Reserve Bank to OB, it is possible these groups will show support to the custodial workers. In addition, OB has showed support for past labor union marches. OB has posted this event on their website, however, it is not on their calendar.

SEIU Local 615 represents approximately 335 custodians at Harvard University, and on 13 November 2011 approximately 230 custodians voted inside the First Parish Church in Cambridge to strike.

At this time the BRIC has information that Occupy Boston will conduct a solidarity march at approximately 5:00 PM starting from Dewey Square (see above); however, there is no further information to indicate the route that this march will take. There is no information at this time to indicate that Occupy Boston is involved in the protest outside the Federal Reserve building; however, the proximity in time and location to the Occupy Boston solidarity march set for 5:00 PM should be noted for the potential for the groups to merge. We will continue to assess publically available open sources regarding this march and provide updates as more information becomes available.

- 5:00 PM, 15 November 2011: Strike Captains' Training at 3 locations: (Harvard Custodial Workers)
 - Courtyard in front of Science Center
 - Main Yard by the John Harvard Statue
 - Burden Hall at the Business School
- 7:00 PM, 15 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Wednesday, 16 November 2011 ⁱⁱⁱ

- No significant events planned for Wednesday, 16 November 2011. Normal weekly meetings will continue to take place.

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 17 November 2011^{iv}

- 4:00 PM, 17 November 2011: Jobs Not Cuts March. Mass Uniting in collaboration with Jobs for Justice, Occupy Boston, and Occupy the Hood. Exact route is unknown; they will depart Dewey Square at 4:00 PM.

Analyst Notes: BU Occupies put this march on their Facebook page last week stating their support and plan to participate. The participation from other universities is also possible. United for Justice with Peace, Mass Nurses and Mass Green Rainbow Party will also likely participate. This march has the potential to draw hundreds of participants. This day is also the 2 month anniversary of the Occupy Wall Street movement and has received significant attention on Twitter. The plans are likely to remain fluid in the days leading up to 17 November. The BRIC will provide updates as necessary.

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- Nothing Significant to Report.

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- Harvard University janitors (participants and supporters of Occupy Harvard) have voted to authorize a strike if contract negotiations fail; their contract expires at midnight tonight, Tuesday, 15 November 2011. The occupation inside Harvard Yard will continue at least until then. They have multiple actions planned throughout the day today, see above for more details.
- Northeastern University began an occupation on Sunday, 13 November 2011. About 40 students and 4 tents are set up on Krentzman Quadrangle (360 Huntington Ave.). Northeastern will be occupying this area of 48 hours; the group has until 4:00 PM on Tuesday, 15 November 2011 to disperse according to NUPD. Occupy Northeastern announced their presence in the quad will end at 3:45 PM today, prior to marching down to Dewey Square to join OB for the 5:00 PM march.

General Notes Regarding the Occupy Movement:

- Zuccotti Park in NYC was cleared early this morning by police; approximately 70 people have been arrested. The Mayor and company that own the park decided to clear the park due to health and fire safety hazards to the protestors and surrounding community. According to open source materials, the protestors will be allowed back in the park, but will not be allowed to stay overnight. The National Lawyers Guild of NY obtained a temporary restraining order against the City of New York directing that occupiers be allowed back on the premises with their belongings.

Analyst Notes: The situation in NY is rapidly developing and changing; exact stipulations of the return of protestors are unknown at this time. The BRIC will update as the situation evolves.

Events Scheduled for Today, Wednesday, 16 November 2011ⁱ

- 7:00 PM – 10:00 PM, 16 November 2011: Occupy Cambridge General Assembly Organization / Logistics Discussion. According to the Facebook page for this event, the location will be announced 1 hour prior to the meeting (6:00 PM).ⁱⁱ
Analyst Notes: This GA has not received much attention on Twitter or Facebook.

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 17 November 2011ⁱⁱⁱ

- 4:00 PM, 17 November 2011: Jobs Not Cuts March. Mass Uniting in collaboration with Jobs for Justice, Occupy Boston, and Occupy the Hood. This event is being sponsored by Mass Uniting, who has secured a permit for the march. Organizers are permitted for and expect to get as many as 1,500 participants. This march will go from Dewey Square to the North Washington Street.

Analyst Notes: BU Occupies put this march on their Facebook page last week stating their support and plan to participate. The participation from other universities is also possible. United for Justice with Peace, Mass Nurses and Mass Green Rainbow Party have also indicated possible plans to participate. This day is also the 2 month anniversary of the Occupy Wall Street movement and has received significant attention on Twitter, especially in light of the events involving OWS this week. OB has indicated that this will be in solidarity with Occupy Wall Street in addition to the causes stated above. Also recall that during a large march on 10/10/11, OB participants attempted to “occupy” the bridge. BPD was able to prevent this from happening, however, one arrest was made.

Events Scheduled for Friday, 18 November 2011^{iv}

- 5:00 PM – 6:30 PM, 18 November 2011: Rape Crisis Response Training. Courtesy of BARCC. (Occupy Boston)
- 6:00 PM – 8:30 PM, 18 November 2011: Occupemos el Barrio (OEB) Meeting at 28 Paris St. East Boston, the Lamb’s of Christ Baptist Church.
- 5:00 PM, 18 November 2011: According to Harvard University PD, Newt Gingrich will be at the JFK School of Government for an event at 5:00 PM. Harvard University PD has noted that the Occupy Harvard group has called for a protest at this event.

Events Scheduled for Sunday, 20 November 2011^v

- 6:00 PM, 20 November 2011: An offshoot of Occupy Boston calling themselves Occupy JP will have a second GA meeting at Spontaneous Celebrations (45 Danforth St).

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- On 16 November 2011 Occupy Boston marched in solidarity with Occupy Wall Street. The march stepped off from Dewey Square at approximately 5:00 PM with between 200 and 250 people. The group headed down Summer St. and picked up to 300+ marchers by 5:30 PM and headed from Downtown Crossing towards the Common to the State House. Around 6:30 PM the group was in Faneuil Hall with about 200 participants. The group staged a sit-in at Surface and Milk St. and blocked traffic and then proceeded the wrong way down the middle of Atlantic Ave. blocking traffic. The group then stopped at the second park where arrests were made on 10/11/11 and then made their way back to camp at Dewey Square by about 7:15 PM. Supervisor on scene reported that this was the largest march in three weeks that was sponsored by Occupy Boston.

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- A hearing was held at Suffolk Superior Court in front of Judge McIntyre. The judge ruled in favor of Occupy Boston for a temporary order prohibiting the BPD from dismantling the Dewey Square location unless there is a fire, medical emergency or outbreak of violence. A full hearing on this matter will be held on 1 December 2011.
- Last night, 15 November 2011, Occupy Boston held a General Assembly to discuss plans for if / when the camp is raided by Boston Police. OB called for emergency civil disobedience training and stated that college students and labor unions would be contacted to participate in protecting the camp.

The group staged a sit-in at Surface and Milk St. and blocked traffic and then proceeded the wrong way down the middle of Atlantic Ave. blocking traffic. The group then stopped at the second park where arrests were made on 10/11/11 and then made their way back to camp at Dewey Square by about 7:15 PM. Supervisor on scene reported that this was the largest march in three weeks that was sponsored by Occupy Boston.

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- A hearing was held at Suffolk Superior Court in front of Judge McIntyre. The judge ruled in favor of Occupy Boston for a temporary order prohibiting the BPD from dismantling the Dewey Square location unless there is a fire, medical emergency or outbreak of violence. A full hearing on this matter will be held on 1 December 2011.
- Last night, 15 November 2011, Occupy Boston held a General Assembly to discuss plans for if / when the camp is raided by Boston Police. OB called for emergency civil disobedience training and stated that college students and labor unions would be contacted to participate in protecting the camp.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 59

16 November 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Events Scheduled for Today, Wednesday, 16 November 2011ⁱ

- 7:00 PM – 10:00 PM, 16 November 2011: Occupy Cambridge General Assembly Organization / Logistics Discussion. According to the Facebook page for this event, the location will be announced 1 hour prior to the meeting (6:00 PM).ⁱⁱ
Analyst Notes: This GA has not received much attention on Twitter or Facebook.

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 17 November 2011ⁱⁱⁱ

- 4:00 PM, 17 November 2011: Jobs Not Cuts March. Mass Uniting in collaboration with Jobs for Justice, Occupy Boston, and Occupy the Hood. This event is being sponsored by Mass Uniting, who has secured a permit for the march. Organizers are permitted for and expect to get as many as 1,500 participants. This march will go from Dewey Square to the North Washington Street.

Analyst Notes: BU Occupies put this march on their Facebook page last week stating their support and plan to participate. The participation from other universities is also possible. United for Justice with Peace, Mass Nurses and Mass Green Rainbow Party have also indicated possible plans to participate. This day is also the 2 month anniversary of the Occupy Wall Street movement and has received significant attention on Twitter, especially in light of the events involving OWS this week. OB has indicated that this will be in solidarity with Occupy Wall Street in addition to the causes stated above. Also recall that during a large march on 10/10/11, OB participants attempted to “occupy” the bridge. BPD was able to prevent this from happening, however, one arrest was made.

Events Scheduled for Friday, 18 November 2011^{iv}

- 5:00 PM – 6:30 PM, 18 November 2011: Rape Crisis Response Training. Courtesy of BARCC. (Occupy Boston)
- 6:00 PM – 8:30 PM, 18 November 2011: Occupemos el Barrio (OEB) Meeting at 28 Paris St. East Boston, the Lamb’s of Christ Baptist Church.
- 5:00 PM, 18 November 2011: According to Harvard University PD, Newt Gingrich will be at the JFK School of Government for an event at 5:00 PM. Harvard University PD has noted that the Occupy Harvard group has called for a protest at this event.

Events Scheduled for Sunday, 20 November 2011^v

- 6:00 PM, 20 November 2011: An offshoot of Occupy Boston calling themselves Occupy JP will have a second GA meeting at Spontaneous Celebrations (45 Danforth St).

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- On 16 November 2011 Occupy Boston marched in solidarity with Occupy Wall Street. The march stepped off from Dewey Square at approximately 5:00 PM with between 200 and 250 people. The group headed down Summer St. and picked up to 300+ marchers by 5:30 PM and headed from Downtown Crossing towards the Common to the State House. Around 6:30 PM the group was in Faneuil Hall with about 200 participants. The group staged a sit-in at Surface and Milk St. and blocked traffic and then proceeded the wrong way down the middle of Atlantic Ave. blocking traffic. The group then stopped at the second park where arrests were made on 10/11/11 and then made their way back to camp at Dewey Square by about 7:15 PM. Events Scheduled for Today, Thursday, 17 November 2011ⁱ

- 4:00 PM, 17 November 2011: Jobs Not Cuts March.
 - This event is being organized by Mass Uniting in collaboration with Jobs for Justice, Occupy Boston, and Occupy the Hood, Greater Boston Labor Council and several other unions.
 - This event is being sponsored by Mass Uniting, who has secured a permit for the march. Organizers are permitted for and expect to get as many as 1,500 participants.
 - Mass Uniting is providing bus transportation to Dewey Square from several sections of Boston as well as various parts of the state.
 - Dorchester Area: New England United for Justice at 196 Adams St. 2:30 PM; Codman Academy Charter School at Washington & Talbot St. 3:00 PM; Old KFC Parking Lot at Blue Hill Ave & Morton St. 3:00 PM; Grove Hall Stop & Shop at 460 Blue Hill Ave. 3:00 PM; and Floyd St. & Blue Hill Ave. 3:20 PM.
 - North of Boston: Malden Community Center at 7 Washington St. 3:00 PM; Everett High School at 100 Elm St. 3:00 PM; Lawrence McDonald’s at 50 Broadway St. 3:00 PM; IUE-CWA Local 201 in Lynn at 112 Exchange St. 3:00 PM

- South of Boston: Brockton Stop & Shop at 683 Belmont St. 2:30 PM
- Roxbury & Jamaica Plain Area: New Academy Estates at 2908 Washington St. 3:00 PM; Tobin Community Center at 1481 Tremont St. 3:20 PM; Jamaica Plain Stop & Shop at 301 Centre St. 3:00 PM; Whitter Health Clinic at Whitter & Tremont St. 3:30 PM; Harold & Seaver St. 3:20 PM.
- West of Boston: Northampton Wal-Mart at 180 North King St. 1:00 PM; Plantation Inn – Chicopee at 295 Burnett Rd. 1:20 PM; UMass Amherst at 390 Whitmore Admin Building 1:00 PM.
- East of Boston: Chelsea Collaborative at 683 Belmont St. 2:30 PM.
 - This march will go from Dewey Square to the North Washington Street Bridge.
 - BU Occupies has indicated intent to participate and participation from local universities is likely as we have seen in the past.
 - United for Justice with Peace, Mass Nurses and Mass Green Rainbow Party have also indicated possible plans to participate, all of which have shown the ability to attract significant numbers at past demonstrations.
 - While the Boston event is being sponsored and largely organized by Mass Uniting as a labor rally, OB chatter on publically available open sources has indicated that their participation in today's march will be largely to show solidarity with OWS, in addition to the labor cause.

Analyst Note: This day is also the 2 month anniversary of the Occupy Wall Street movement and has received significant attention on Twitter, especially in light of the events involving OWS this week. Further, Occupy Wall Street is engaging in a "Mass non-violent DIRECT ACTION" throughout the day today with the intentions of "shutting down" Wall Street, Subway stations and other areas of New York. As of 9:00 AM this morning, several intersections near the stock exchange have been blocked and arrests have been made. The unfolding situation in New York City with the OWS actions today are likely to influence the nature and tone of OB's actions in Boston during the march today. As such, acts of civil disobedience and other criminal activity cannot be ruled out as we have seen at similar past actions.

- 6:00 PM – 7:00 PM, 17 November 2011: Houseless Community Meeting. Meeting with members of OB houseless community and others to discuss onsite issues; in the South Station Mezzanine. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: This appears to be a re-occurring event daily at 6:00 PM.

- 7:00 PM – 10:00 PM, 17 November 2011: Day of Action After Party at Encuentro Five, 33 Harrison Ave. (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Friday, 18 November 2011ⁱⁱ

- 5:00 PM – 6:30 PM, 18 November 2011: Rape Crisis Response Training. Courtesy of BARCC. (Occupy Boston)
- 5:00 PM, 18 November 2011: According to Harvard University PD, Newt Gingrich will be at the JFK School of Government for an event at 5:00 PM. Harvard University PD has noted that the Occupy Harvard group has called for a protest at this event. The BRIC will continue to monitor.

- 5:00 PM, 18 November 2011: Occupy Harvard General Assembly at Johnston Gate.
- 6:00 PM – 8:30 PM, 18 November 2011: Occupemos el Barrio (OEB) Meeting at 28 Paris St. East Boston, the Lamb's of Christ Baptist Church.

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 19 November 2011 ⁱⁱⁱ

- 10:00 AM – 8:00 PM, 19 November 2011: Student Service Day at Occupy Boston. This event is being sponsored by Students Occupy Boston; they are encouraging those who have questions regarding the Occupy movement or would like to get involved to stop by Dewey Square on Saturday to learn about the movement, volunteer and get to know members. ^{iv}
Analyst Notes: This event is not on OB's main calendar of events; it has been advertised through Students' group Facebook pages and websites.
- 12:00 PM, 19 November 2011: Rally to Oppose Repression and Super Committee Cuts. This march will meet at Dewey Square and march to Senator Kerry's office. Some endorsers include: Mass Nurses Association, UAW Local 879, CWA Local 37083, Veterans for Peace, Chris Hedges, and Noam Chomsky. ^v
Analyst Notes: This march has been posted on justicewithpeace.org and jobsnotcuts.org and appears to be sponsored by act-ma – Activists Massachusetts. This event is not on OB's calendar, and their intent to participate is not known at this time. ^{vi vii}
- 7:00 PM, 19 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Sunday, 20 November 2011 ^{viii}

- 6:00 PM, 20 November 2011: An offshoot of Occupy Boston calling themselves Occupy JP will have a second GA meeting at Spontaneous Celebrations (45 Danforth St).
Analyst Notes: In an article in the Jamaica Plain Gazette, it states that the Occupy JP movement is being organized by at least four participants of the anti-Whole Foods Market protests, the founder of Occupy the Hood, and promoted by the socialist organized Socialist Alternative. ^{ix}

- A hearing was held at Suffolk Superior Court in front of Judge McIntyre. The judge ruled in favor of Occupy Boston for a temporary order prohibiting the BPD from dismantling the Dewey Square location unless there is a fire, medical emergency or outbreak of violence. A full hearing on this matter will be held on 1 December 2011.

 - Dorchester Area: New England United for Justice at 196 Adams St. 2:30 PM; Codman Academy Charter School at Washington & Talbot St. 3:00 PM; Old KFC Parking Lot at Blue Hill Ave & Morton St. 3:00 PM; Grove Hall Stop & Shop at 460 Blue Hill Ave. 3:00 PM; and Floyd St. & Blue Hill Ave. 3:20 PM.
 - North of Boston: Malden Community Center at 7 Washington St. 3:00 PM; Everett High School at 100 Elm St. 3:00 PM; Lawrence McDonald’s at 50 Broadway St. 3:00 PM; IUE-CWA Local 201 in Lynn at 112 Exchange St. 3:00 PM

- South of Boston: Brockton Stop & Shop at 683 Belmont St. 2:30 PM
- Roxbury & Jamaica Plain Area: New Academy Estates at 2908 Washington St. 3:00 PM; Tobin Community Center at 1481 Tremont St. 3:20 PM; Jamaica Plain Stop & Shop at 301 Centre St. 3:00 PM; Whitter Health Clinic at Whitter & Tremont St. 3:30 PM; Harold & Seaver St. 3:20 PM.
- West of Boston: Northampton Wal-Mart at 180 North King St. 1:00 PM; Plantation Inn – Chicopee at 295 Burnett Rd. 1:20 PM; UMass Amherst at 390 Whitmore Admin Building 1:00 PM.
- East of Boston: Chelsea Collaborative at 683 Belmont St. 2:30 PM.
 - This march will go from Dewey Square to the North Washington Street Bridge.
 - BU Occupies has indicated intent to participate and participation from local universities is likely as we have seen in the past.
 - United for Justice with Peace, Mass Nurses and Mass Green Rainbow Party have also indicated possible plans to participate, all of which have shown the ability to attract significant numbers at past demonstrations.
 - While the Boston event is being sponsored and largely organized by Mass Uniting as a labor rally, OB chatter on publically available open sources has indicated that their participation in today's march will be largely to show solidarity with OWS, in addition to the labor cause.

Analyst Note: This day is also the 2 month anniversary of the Occupy Wall Street movement and has received significant attention on Twitter, especially in light of the events involving OWS this week. Further, Occupy Wall Street is engaging in a "Mass non-violent DIRECT ACTION" throughout the day today with the intentions of "shutting down" Wall Street, Subway stations and other areas of New York. As of 9:00 AM this morning, several intersections near the stock exchange have been blocked and arrests have been made. The unfolding situation in New York City with the OWS actions today are likely to influence the nature and tone of OB's actions in Boston during the march today. As such, acts of civil disobedience and other criminal activity cannot be ruled out as we have seen at similar past actions.

- 6:00 PM – 7:00 PM, 17 November 2011: Houseless Community Meeting. Meeting with members of OB houseless community and others to discuss onsite issues; in the South Station Mezzanine. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: This appears to be a re-occurring event daily at 6:00 PM.

- 7:00 PM – 10:00 PM, 17 November 2011: Day of Action After Party at Encuentro Five, 33 Harrison Ave. (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Friday, 18 November 2011ⁱⁱ

- 5:00 PM – 6:30 PM, 18 November 2011: Rape Crisis Response Training. Courtesy of BARCC. (Occupy Boston)
- 5:00 PM, 18 November 2011: According to Harvard University PD, Newt Gingrich will be at the JFK School of Government for an event at 5:00 PM. Harvard University PD has noted that the Occupy Harvard group has called for a protest at this event. The BRIC will continue to monitor.

- 5:00 PM, 18 November 2011: Occupy Harvard General Assembly at Johnston Gate.
- 6:00 PM – 8:30 PM, 18 November 2011: Occupemos el Barrio (OEB) Meeting at 28 Paris St. East Boston, the Lamb's of Christ Baptist Church.

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 19 November 2011 ⁱⁱⁱ

- 10:00 AM – 8:00 PM, 19 November 2011: Student Service Day at Occupy Boston. This event is being sponsored by Students Occupy Boston; they are encouraging those who have questions regarding the Occupy movement or would like to get involved to stop by Dewey Square on Saturday to learn about the movement, volunteer and get to know members. ^{iv}
Analyst Notes: This event is not on OB's main calendar of events; it has been advertised through Students' group Facebook pages and websites.
- 12:00 PM, 19 November 2011: Rally to Oppose Repression and Super Committee Cuts. This march will meet at Dewey Square and march to Senator Kerry's office. Some endorsers include: Mass Nurses Association, UAW Local 879, CWA Local 37083, Veterans for Peace, Chris Hedges, and Noam Chomsky. ^v
Analyst Notes: This march has been posted on justicewithpeace.org and jobsnotcuts.org and appears to be sponsored by act-ma – Activists Massachusetts. This event is not on OB's calendar, and their intent to participate is not known at this time. ^{vi vii}
- 7:00 PM, 19 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Sunday, 20 November 2011 ^{viii}

- 6:00 PM, 20 November 2011: An offshoot of Occupy Boston calling themselves Occupy JP will have a second GA meeting at Spontaneous Celebrations (45 Danforth St).
Analyst Notes: In an article in the Jamaica Plain Gazette, it states that the Occupy JP movement is being organized by at least four participants of the anti-Whole Foods Market protests, the founder of Occupy the Hood, and promoted by the socialist organized Socialist Alternative. ^{ix}

- A hearing was held at Suffolk Superior Court in front of Judge McIntyre. The judge ruled in favor of Occupy Boston for a temporary order prohibiting the BPD from dismantling the Dewey Square location unless there is a fire, medical emergency or outbreak of violence. A full hearing on this matter will be held on 1 December 2011.

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 60

17 November 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Events Scheduled for Today, Thursday, 17 November 2011ⁱ

- 4:00 PM, 17 November 2011: Jobs Not Cuts March.
 - This event is being organized by Mass Uniting in collaboration with Jobs for Justice, Occupy Boston, and Occupy the Hood, Greater Boston Labor Council and several other unions.
 - This event is being sponsored by Mass Uniting; according to communication with organizers, they are expecting to get as many as 1,500 participants. (Opposed to what was previously disseminated, the group did not secure a permit for this march).
 - Mass Uniting is providing bus transportation to Dewey Square from several sections of Boston as well as various parts of the state.
 - Dorchester Area: New England United for Justice at 196 Adams St. 2:30 PM; Codman Academy Charter School at Washington & Talbot St. 3:00 PM; Old KFC Parking Lot at Blue Hill Ave & Morton St. 3:00 PM; Grove Hall Stop & Shop at 460 Blue Hill Ave. 3:00 PM; and Floyd St. & Blue Hill Ave. 3:20 PM.
 - North of Boston: Malden Community Center at 7 Washington St. 3:00 PM; Everett High School at 100 Elm St. 3:00 PM; Lawrence McDonald’s

- at 50 Broadway St. 3:00 PM; IUE-CWA Local 201 in Lynn at 112 Exchange St. 3:00 PM
- South of Boston: Brockton Stop & Shop at 683 Belmont St. 2:30 PM
- Roxbury & Jamaica Plain Area: New Academy Estates at 2908 Washington St. 3:00 PM; Tobin Community Center at 1481 Tremont St. 3:20 PM; Jamaica Plain Stop & Shop at 301 Centre St. 3:00 PM; Whitter Health Clinic at Whitter & Tremont St. 3:30 PM; Harold & Seaver St. 3:20 PM.
- West of Boston: Northampton Wal-Mart at 180 North King St. 1:00 PM; Plantation Inn – Chicopee at 295 Burnett Rd. 1:20 PM; UMass Amherst at 390 Whitmore Admin Building 1:00 PM.
- East of Boston: Chelsea Collaborative at 683 Belmont St. 2:30 PM.
 - This march will go from Dewey Square to the North Washington Street Bridge.
 - BU Occupies has indicated intent to participate and participation from local universities is likely as we have seen in the past.
 - United for Justice with Peace, Mass Nurses and Mass Green Rainbow Party have also indicated possible plans to participate, all of which have shown the ability to attract significant numbers at past demonstrations.
 - While the Boston event is being sponsored and largely organized by Mass Uniting as a labor rally, OB chatter on publically available open sources has indicated that their participation in today's march will be largely to show solidarity with OWS, in addition to the labor cause.

Analyst Note: This day is also the 2 month anniversary of the Occupy Wall Street movement and has received significant attention on Twitter, especially in light of the events involving OWS this week. Further, Occupy Wall Street is engaging in a "Mass non-violent DIRECT ACTION" throughout the day today with the intentions of "shutting down" Wall Street, Subway stations and other areas of New York. As of 9:00 AM this morning, several intersections near the stock exchange have been blocked and arrests have been made. The unfolding situation in New York City with the OWS actions today are likely to influence the nature and tone of OB's actions in Boston during the march today. As such, acts of civil disobedience and other criminal activity cannot be ruled out as we have seen at similar past actions.

- 6:00 PM – 7:00 PM, 17 November 2011: Houseless Community Meeting. Meeting with members of OB houseless community and others to discuss onsite issues; in the South Station Mezzanine. (Occupy Boston)
- Analyst Notes: This appears to be a re-occurring event daily at 6:00 PM.
- 7:00 PM – 10:00 PM, 17 November 2011: Day of Action After Party at Encuentro Five, 33 Harrison Ave. (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Friday, 18 November 2011ⁱⁱ

- 5:00 PM – 6:30 PM, 18 November 2011: Rape Crisis Response Training. Courtesy of BARCC. (Occupy Boston)
- 5:00 PM, 18 November 2011: According to Harvard University PD, Newt Gingrich will be at the JFK School of Government for an event at 5:00 PM. Harvard University PD has noted that the Occupy Harvard group has called for a protest at this event. The BRIC will continue to monitor.

- 5:00 PM, 18 November 2011: Occupy Harvard General Assembly at Johnston Gate.
- 6:00 PM – 8:30 PM, 18 November 2011: Occupemos el Barrio (OEB) Meeting at 28 Paris St. East Boston, the Lamb's of Christ Baptist Church.

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 19 November 2011ⁱⁱⁱ

- 10:00 AM – 8:00 PM, 19 November 2011: Student Service Day at Occupy Boston. This event is being sponsored by Students Occupy Boston; they are encouraging those who have questions regarding the Occupy movement or would like to get involved to stop by Dewey Square on Saturday to learn about the movement, volunteer and get to know members.^{iv}

Analyst Notes: This event is not on OB's main calendar of events; it has been advertised through Students' group Facebook pages and websites.

- 12:00 PM, 19 November 2011: Rally to Oppose Repression and Super Committee Cuts. This march will meet at Dewey Square and march to Senator Kerry's office. Some endorsers include: Mass Nurses Association, UAW Local 879, CWA Local 37083, Veterans for Peace, Chris Hedges, and Noam Chomsky.^v

Analyst Notes: This march has been posted on justicewithpeace.org and jobsnotcuts.org and appears to be sponsored by act-ma – Activists Massachusetts. This event is not on OB's calendar, and their intent to participate is not known at this time.^{vi vii}

- 7:00 PM, 19 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Sunday, 20 November 2011^{viii}

- 6:00 PM, 20 November 2011: An offshoot of Occupy Boston calling themselves Occupy JP will have a second GA meeting at Spontaneous Celebrations (45 Danforth St).

Analyst Notes: In an article in the Jamaica Plain Gazette, it states that the Occupy JP movement is being organized by at least four participants of the anti-Whole Foods Market protests, the founder of Occupy the Hood, and promoted by the socialist organized Socialist Alternative.^{ix}

- A hearing was held at Suffolk Superior Court in front of Judge McIntyre. The judge ruled in favor of Occupy Boston for a temporary order prohibiting the BPD from dismantling the Dewey Square location unless there is a fire, medical emergency or outbreak of violence. A full hearing on this matter will be held on 1 December 2011.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 61

18 November 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Events Scheduled for Today, Friday, 18 November 2011ⁱ

- 5:00 PM – 6:30 PM, 18 November 2011: Rape Crisis Response Training. Courtesy of BARCC. (Occupy Boston)
- 5:00 PM, 18 November 2011: According to Harvard University PD, Newt Gingrich will be at the JFK School of Government for an event at 5:00 PM. Harvard University PD has noted that the Occupy Harvard group has called for a protest at this event. The BRIC will continue to monitor.

Analyst Notes: This event has received moderate attention on Twitter amongst OB members; however, there has been no chatter to indicate a plan of action for Occupy Boston relative to this event.

- 5:00 PM, 18 November 2011: Occupy Harvard General Assembly at Johnston Gate.
- 6:00 PM – 8:30 PM, 18 November 2011: Occupemos el Barrio (OEB) Meeting at 28 Paris St. East Boston, the Lamb’s of Christ Baptist Church.

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 19 November 2011ⁱⁱ

- 10:00 AM – 8:00 PM, 19 November 2011: Student Service Day at Occupy Boston. This event is being sponsored by Students Occupy Boston; they are encouraging those who have questions regarding the Occupy movement or would like to get involved to stop by

Dewey Square on Saturday to learn about the movement, volunteer and get to know members.ⁱⁱⁱ

Analyst Notes: This event is not on OB's main calendar of events; it has been advertised through Students' group Facebook pages and websites.

- 12:00 PM, 19 November 2011: Rally to Oppose Repression and Super Committee Cuts. This march will meet at Dewey Square and march to Senator Kerry's office. Some endorsers include: Mass Nurses Association, UAW Local 879, CWA Local 37083, Veterans for Peace, Chris Hedges, and Noam Chomsky.^{iv}

Analyst Notes: This march has been posted on justicewithpeace.org and jobsnotcuts.org and appears to be sponsored by act-ma – Activists Massachusetts. This event is not on OB's calendar, and their intent to participate is not known at this time.^v

- 7:00 PM, 19 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Sunday, 20 November 2011^{vii}

- 1:30 PM – 4:00 PM, 20 November 2011: Musical Concert – Tosh 1 (Peter Tosh's son) will be shooting a music video and performing the remake of his father's song "Get Up, Stand Up For Your Rights". OB notes on the information for this event that they expect a big crowd. (Occupy Boston)
- 3:00 PM – 4:00 PM, 20 November 2011: March to Transgender Day of Remembrance Vigil. Occupy Boston will march at 3:00 PM to St. Paul's Church at 138 Tremont St. where a vigil will be held at 4:00 PM commemorating transgender people from around the world who have been killed due to their gender identity and expression. (Occupy Boston).

Analyst Notes: This event is on OB's calendar, however given that it is off-site, it is unknown at this time if this vigil is organized by OB or another group. Further OB's intent to participate is not known at this time.

- 5:00 PM, 20 November 2011: Students Occupy Boston GA #12 at Dewey Square.^{viii}
- 6:00 PM, 20 November 2011: An offshoot of Occupy Boston calling themselves Occupy JP will have a second GA meeting at Spontaneous Celebrations (45 Danforth St).

Events Scheduled for Monday, 21 November 2011^x

- All day, 21 November 2011: Springfield No One Leaves. March on Wall St. Banks. Occupy Boston is organizing a bus to travel to Springfield, MA to support the Occupy Springfield in a march. Group will meet at the corner of Central & Morris St. in the south end of Springfield. (Occupy Boston). Please note this event is not scheduled to occur in Boston.

Analyst Notes: This event is listed on OB's calendar and states "THIS IS THE BIG ONE". It is also noted at the end of information for this event that "this action will end with a dramatic, non-violent, peaceful act of civil-disobedience".

- 10:30 AM – 11:30 AM, 21 November 2011: Student Immigration Movement – Rally Against Deportation. A rally will take place at the JFK Federal Building at 15 Sudbury St. (Occupy Boston).

Analyst Notes: This event is on OB's calendar with a description that this rally is to demand ICE to stop the deportation of two individuals.

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- Last night, 17 November 2011 a group of approximately 500-550 individuals began marching from Dewey Square at 4:45 PM. Group marched on Atlantic Ave. crossing Seaport Blvd. and arrived at the North Washington Bridge where they were met by an additional 100 people. Speakers addressed the crowd at Causeway and North Washington St. Upon the end of the speakers, a group of individuals attempted to lead the march into Faneuil Hall; however, they were stopped from entering by officers. The march then continued down Congress St. and back to Dewey Square by approximately 7:00 PM.

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- Occupy Boston became aware of a letter dated 8 November 2011 from the Rose Kennedy Greenway Conservancy calling on the police to "remove occupiers" from Dewey Square. Analyst Notes: The knowledge of this letter has been received with chatter amongst OB members on open source outlets.^{xi}
- The first edition of the print version of the Occupy Newspaper is coming out today, 18 November 2011. Students are asking for volunteers to help distribute it. The new name for this newspaper is Boston Occupier, changed from Occupy Boston Globe.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 61

18 November 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Events Scheduled for Today, Friday, 18 November 2011ⁱ

- 5:00 PM – 6:30 PM, 18 November 2011: Rape Crisis Response Training. Courtesy of BARCC. (Occupy Boston)
- 5:00 PM, 18 November 2011: According to Harvard University PD, Newt Gingrich will be at the JFK School of Government for an event at 5:00 PM. Harvard University PD has noted that the Occupy Harvard group has called for a protest at this event. The BRIC will continue to monitor.

Analyst Notes: This event has received moderate attention on Twitter amongst OB members; however, there has been no chatter to indicate a plan of action for Occupy Boston relative to this event.

- 5:00 PM, 18 November 2011: Occupy Harvard General Assembly at Johnston Gate.
- 6:00 PM – 8:30 PM, 18 November 2011: Occupemos el Barrio (OEB) Meeting at 28 Paris St. East Boston, the Lamb’s of Christ Baptist Church.

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 19 November 2011ⁱⁱ

- 10:00 AM – 8:00 PM, 19 November 2011: Student Service Day at Occupy Boston. This event is being sponsored by Students Occupy Boston; they are encouraging those who have questions regarding the Occupy movement or would like to get involved to stop by

Dewey Square on Saturday to learn about the movement, volunteer and get to know members.ⁱⁱⁱ

Analyst Notes: This event is not on OB's main calendar of events; it has been advertised through Students' group Facebook pages and websites.

- 12:00 PM, 19 November 2011: Rally to Oppose Repression and Super Committee Cuts. This march will meet at Dewey Square and march to Senator Kerry's office. Some endorsers include: Mass Nurses Association, UAW Local 879, CWA Local 37083, Veterans for Peace, Chris Hedges, and Noam Chomsky.^{iv}

Analyst Notes: This march has been posted on justicewithpeace.org and jobsnotcuts.org and appears to be sponsored by act-ma – Activists Massachusetts. This event is not on OB's calendar, and their intent to participate is not known at this time.^v

- 7:00 PM, 19 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Sunday, 20 November 2011^{vii}

- 1:30 PM – 4:00 PM, 20 November 2011: Musical Concert – Tosh 1 (Peter Tosh's son) will be shooting a music video and performing the remake of his father's song "Get Up, Stand Up For Your Rights". OB notes on the information for this event that they expect a big crowd. (Occupy Boston)
- 3:00 PM – 4:00 PM, 20 November 2011: March to Transgender Day of Remembrance Vigil. Occupy Boston will march at 3:00 PM to St. Paul's Church at 138 Tremont St. where a vigil will be held at 4:00 PM commemorating transgender people from around the world who have been killed due to their gender identity and expression. (Occupy Boston).

Analyst Notes: This event is on OB's calendar, however given that it is off-site, it is unknown at this time if this vigil is organized by OB or another group. Further OB's intent to participate is not known at this time.

- 5:00 PM, 20 November 2011: Students Occupy Boston GA #12 at Dewey Square.^{viii}
- 6:00 PM, 20 November 2011: An offshoot of Occupy Boston calling themselves Occupy JP will have a second GA meeting at Spontaneous Celebrations (45 Danforth St).

Analyst Notes: In an article in the Jamaica Plain Gazette, it states that the Occupy JP movement is being organized by at least four participants of the anti-Whole Foods Market protests, the founder of Occupy the Hood, and promoted by the socialist organized Socialist Alternative.^{ix}

- 6:00 PM – 7:00 PM, 20 November 2011: Speak Out on Sexism, Sexual Violence and Sexual Harassment. (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Monday, 21 November 2011^x

- All day, 21 November 2011: Springfield No One Leaves. March on Wall St. Banks. Occupy Boston is organizing a bus to travel to Springfield, MA to support the Occupy Springfield in a march. Group will meet at the corner of Central & Morris St. in the south end of Springfield. (Occupy Boston). Please note this event is not scheduled to occur in Boston.

Analyst Notes: This event is listed on OB's calendar and states "THIS IS THE BIG ONE". It is also noted at the end of information for this event that "this action will end with a dramatic, non-violent, peaceful act of civil-disobedience".

- 10:30 AM – 11:30 AM, 21 November 2011: Student Immigration Movement – Rally Against Deportation. A rally will take place at the JFK Federal Building at 15 Sudbury St. (Occupy Boston).

Analyst Notes: This event is on OB's calendar with a description that this rally is to demand ICE to stop the deportation of two individuals.

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- Last night, 17 November 2011 a group of approximately 500-550 individuals began marching from Dewey Square at 4:45 PM. Group marched on Atlantic Ave. crossing Seaport Blvd. and arrived at the North Washington Bridge where they were met by an additional 100 people. Speakers addressed the crowd at Causeway and North Washington St. Upon the end of the speakers, a group of individuals attempted to lead the march into Faneuil Hall; however, they were stopped from entering by officers. The march then continued down Congress St. and back to Dewey Square by approximately 7:00 PM.

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- Occupy Boston became aware of a letter dated 8 November 2011 from the Rose Kennedy Greenway Conservancy calling on the police to "remove occupiers" from Dewey Square. Analyst Notes: The knowledge of this letter has been received with chatter amongst OB members on open source outlets.^{xi}
- The first edition of the print version of the Occupy Newspaper is coming out today, 18 November 2011. Students are asking for volunteers to help distribute it. The new name for this newspaper is Boston Occupier, changed from Occupy Boston Globe.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 62

21 November 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Events Scheduled for Today, Monday, 21 November 2011ⁱ

- All day, 21 November 2011: Springfield No One Leaves. March on Wall St. Banks. Occupy Boston is organizing a bus to travel to Springfield, MA to support the Occupy Springfield in a march. Group will meet at the corner of Central & Morris St. in the south end of Springfield. (Occupy Boston). Please note this event is not scheduled to occur in Boston.

Analyst Notes: This event is listed on OB’s calendar and states “THIS IS THE BIG ONE”. It is also noted at the end of information for this event that “this action will end with a dramatic, non-violent, peaceful act of civil-disobedience”.

A Twitter account associated with Occupy Boston tweeted this afternoon that #occupyboston was down in Springfield, MA for the No One Leaves foreclosure rally and that they shut down the Bank of America. Arrests have reportedly been made during this event; the BRIC will update as more information becomes available.

Events Scheduled for Tuesday, 22 November 2011ⁱⁱ

- Multiple classes, workshops, daily meetings etc. are scheduled to take place on Tuesday, 22 November 2011. No scheduled marches at this time.

Events Scheduled for Wednesday, 23 November 2011 ⁱⁱⁱ

- 7:00 PM – 2:00 AM, 23 November 2011: Fund Awareness Raiser to Benefit Occupy Boston at the Think Tank Bistro in Kendall Square. There will be a pig roast at 7:30 PM, live bands from 9:30 PM – 11:30 PM, then a DJ taking over until close. Raffle, food, cash bar. Individuals need to buy tickets by calling the restaurant. (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 24 November 2011 ^{iv}

- 9:00 AM – 1:00 PM, 24 November 2011: Occupy Thanksgiving. OB will be holding a Thanksgiving meal across from 166 Seaver St. in Dorchester at Franklin Park. The meal will be an outdoor cookout. OB notes that this is a one-time event and that they stated on their website that they do not intend to permanently occupy Franklin Park. (Occupy Boston)
- 10:00 AM – 5:00 PM, 24 November 2011: National Day of Mourning. The United American Indians of New England has invited Occupy Boston to attend the National Day of Mourning at Cole's Hill in Plymouth, MA. The Indigenous Solidarity and Outreach Working Group are facilitating transportation for OB to Plymouth to attend this event. (Occupy Boston).

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- On Saturday, 19 November 2011 Occupy Boston marched at approximately 12:40 PM from Dewey Square with approximately 50 individuals; the group was protesting repression and super committee cuts and planned to march to Senator Kerry's office. By 1:10 PM the group had arrived at One Bowdoin Square and was headed back to Dewey Square with 30 people; the group then stopped at Court St. and the Verizon on Washington St. No issues during this march.
- On Sunday, 20 November 2011 a small group stepped off from camp at 2:30 PM but then returned. Around 3:30 PM a group of about 30 individuals stepped off from Dewey Square to march to Tremont St. for the transgender march.
- On Friday evening at Harvard Kennedy School of Government, Newt Gingrich was there to introduce his documentary A City Upon a Hill: The Spirit of American Exceptionalism. Members of Occupy Boston and Occupy Harvard attended this event and "mic checked" Gingrich as he was speaking. A "mic check" is when one person speaks / yells something and the others in the group repeat it. The video of this can be seen on Occupy Boston's main website: occupyboston.org.

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- On Friday, 18 November 2011 at UC Davis in Davis, CA a group of Occupy Wall Street protestors at the University of California Davis were pepper sprayed after campus police attempted to break up a sit-in conducted by students on the quad. Two Davis police officers have been placed on administrative leave since the incident and the school will be conducting an investigation. ^v

Analyst Notes: There is an article on this incident on #OccupyBoston Wicked Pissah Daily online newspaper; however, there has been no chatter to indicate any kind of solidarity march.

- In Cairo, Egypt, police continue to fight protestors for the third day who are demanding an end or army rule. According to MSNBC the death toll is at 33. On Saturday, police used batons and tear gas to disperse a sit-in in Tahrir Square.^{vi}

Analyst Notes: News media are not calling this an "Occupy" movement; however the protestors seemed to be holding marches and did stage a sit-in over the weekend. The protests appear to be more of a continuation of the Arab Spring, protesting the military governing until a new presidential election.

- A member of BU Occupies is initiating a Fast of OCCUPY event to take place on Tuesday, 22 November 2011. He is encouraging individuals to participate and fast for the day.

- On Sunday, 20 November 2011 a small group stepped off from camp at 2:30 PM but then returned. Around 3:30 PM a group of about 30 individuals stepped off from Dewey Square to march to Tremont St. for the transgender march.
- On Friday evening at Harvard Kennedy School of Government, Newt Gingrich was there to introduce his documentary A City Upon a Hill: The Spirit of American Exceptionalism. Members of Occupy Boston and Occupy Harvard attended this event and "mic checked" Gingrich as he was speaking. A "mic check" is when one person speaks / yells something and the others in the group repeat it. The video of this can be seen on Occupy Boston's main website: occupyboston.org.

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- On Friday, 18 November 2011 at UC Davis in Davis, CA a group of Occupy Wall Street protestors at the University of California Davis were pepper sprayed after campus police attempted to break up a sit-in conducted by students on the quad. Two Davis police officers have been placed on administrative leave since the incident and the school will be conducting an investigation. ^v

Analyst Notes: There is an article on this incident on #OccupyBoston Wicked Pissah Daily online newspaper; however, there has been no chatter to indicate any kind of solidarity march.

- In Cairo, Egypt, police continue to fight protestors for the third day who are demanding an end or army rule. According to MSNBC the death toll is at 33. On Saturday, police used batons and tear gas to disperse a sit-in in Tahrir Square.^{vi}

Analyst Notes: News media are not calling this an "Occupy" movement; however the protestors seemed to be holding marches and did stage a sit-in over the weekend. The protests appear to be more of a continuation of the Arab Spring, protesting the military governing until a new presidential election.

- A member of BU Occupies is initiating a Fast of OCCUPY event to take place on Tuesday, 22 November 2011. He is encouraging individuals to participate and fast for the day.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 63

22 November 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Events Scheduled for Today, Tuesday, 22 November 2011ⁱ

- 3:30 PM, 22 November 2011: Rally at the John Harvard Statue celebrating the Harvard custodians reaching an agreement in contract and 2 weeks of Occupy Harvard. NFI.ⁱⁱ
- Multiple classes, workshops, daily meetings etc. are scheduled to take place on Tuesday, 22 November 2011. No scheduled marches at this time.

Events Scheduled for Wednesday, 23 November 2011ⁱⁱⁱ

- 7:00 PM – 2:00 AM, 23 November 2011: Fund Awareness Raiser to Benefit Occupy Boston at the Think Tank Bistro in Kendall Square. There will be a pig roast at 7:30 PM, live bands from 9:30 PM – 11:30 PM, then a DJ taking over until close. Raffle, food, cash bar. Individuals need to buy tickets by calling the restaurant. (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 24 November 2011^{iv}

- 9:00 AM – 1:00 PM, 24 November 2011: Occupy Thanksgiving. OB will be holding a Thanksgiving meal across from 166 Seaver St. in Dorchester at Franklin Park. The meal will be an outdoor cookout. OB notes that this is a one-time event and that they stated on their website that they do not intend to permanently occupy Franklin Park. (Occupy Boston)

- 10:00 AM – 5:00 PM, 24 November 2011: National Day of Mourning. The United American Indians of New England has invited Occupy Boston to attend the National Day of Mourning at Cole's Hill in Plymouth, MA. The Indigenous Solidarity and Outreach Working Group are facilitating transportation for OB to Plymouth to attend this event. (Occupy Boston).
- 7:00 PM, 24 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Friday, 25 November 2011^v

- Multiple classes, workshops, daily meetings etc. are scheduled to take place on Friday, 25 November 2011. No scheduled marches at this time.
- 12:00 PM – 1:00 PM, 25 November 2011: PETA will be protesting at 37 Newbury St.^{vi}
- 12:00 PM – 7:00 PM, 25 November 2011: Macy's Annual Christmas Tree Lighting on Summer St. Activities start at noon, tree lighting will take place at 5:00 PM.

Analyst Notes: Occupy Boston does not have this event on their calendar; however there have been tweets about Occupy Black Friday (see below); and it is possible that OB will also conduct actions at this event.

Singers Joey McIntyre, and Jasmine V will be in attendance, as well as Tedy Bruschi.

- Occupy Black Friday: There have been many tweets regarding this event; encouraging individuals to "occupy" the stores but not to buy anything. The BRIC will update as more information regarding this event is received.

Analyst Notes: There have been tweets regarding this event and advertising for it; however no definite plan of action has been discussed or released. According to an Occupy Black Friday Facebook page, the following stores are being targeted:

- Abercrombie & Fitch
- Amazon.com
- AT&T Wireless
- Burlington Coat Factory
- Dick's Sporting Goods
- Dollar Tree
- The Home Depot
- Neiman Marcus
- OfficeMax
- Toys R Us
- Verizon Wireless
- Wal-Mart

Please note that this Facebook page is not specific to Boston or Occupy Boston. The Facebook page encourages individuals to "buy local" and stay away from big corporations. The BRIC does not have any information regarding specific actions that demonstrators may take.

- 2:00 – 3:30 PM, 25 November 2011: Massachusetts Animal Rights Coalition (MARC) will be engaging in an anti-fur protest at the Neiman Marcus in Copley Square.

Analyst Notes: OB is not listed anywhere in their posting for this protest. However, being that Neiman Marcus is one of the stores to be "occupied" on Black Friday, it is possible that the activists from OB may join the anti-fur protest at the store.

Singers Joey McIntyre, and Jasmine V will be in attendance, as well as Tedy Bruschi.

- Occupy Black Friday: There have been many tweets regarding this event; encouraging individuals to "occupy" the stores but not to buy anything. The BRIC will update as more information regarding this event is received.

Analyst Notes: There have been tweets regarding this event and advertising for it; however no definite plan of action has been discussed or released. According to an Occupy Black Friday Facebook page, the following stores are being targeted:

- Abercrombie & Fitch
- Amazon.com
- AT&T Wireless
- Burlington Coat Factory
- Dick's Sporting Goods
- Dollar Tree
- The Home Depot
- Neiman Marcus
- OfficeMax
- Toys R Us
- Verizon Wireless
- Wal-Mart

Please note that this Facebook page is not specific to Boston or Occupy Boston. The Facebook page encourages individuals to "buy local" and stay away from big corporations. The BRIC does not have any information regarding specific actions that demonstrators may take.

- 2:00 – 3:30 PM, 25 November 2011: Massachusetts Animal Rights Coalition (MARC) will be engaging in an anti-fur protest at the Neiman Marcus in Copley Square.

Analyst Notes: OB is not listed anywhere in their posting for this protest. However, being that Neiman Marcus is one of the stores to be "occupied" on Black Friday, it is possible that the activists from OB may join the anti-fur protest at the store.

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 64

23 November 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Events Scheduled for Today, Wednesday, 23 November 2011ⁱ

- 7:00 PM – 2:00 AM, 23 November 2011: Fund Awareness Raiser to Benefit Occupy Boston at the Think Tank Bistro in Kendall Square. There will be a pig roast at 7:30 PM, live bands from 9:30 PM – 11:30 PM, then a DJ taking over until close. Raffle, food, cash bar. Individuals need to buy tickets by calling the restaurant. (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 24 November 2011ⁱⁱ

- 9:00 AM – 1:00 PM, 24 November 2011: Occupy Thanksgiving. OB will be holding a Thanksgiving meal across from 166 Seaver St. in Dorchester at Franklin Park. The meal will be an outdoor cookout. OB notes that this is a one-time event and that they stated on their website that they do not intend to permanently occupy Franklin Park. (Occupy Boston)
- 10:00 AM – 5:00 PM, 24 November 2011: National Day of Mourning. The United American Indians of New England has invited Occupy Boston to attend the National Day of Mourning at Cole’s Hill in Plymouth, MA. The Indigenous Solidarity and Outreach Working Group are facilitating transportation for OB to Plymouth to attend this event. (Occupy Boston).
- 1:00 PM – 4:00 PM, 24 November 2011: “Occupie” Harvard Together for Thanksgiving at the Harvard Yard. Celebrate the progress of the Occupy movement on Thanksgiving.

Individuals are welcomed to stay over in the tents and are reminded to bring ID's as they will probably be checked at the gate.ⁱⁱⁱ

- 7:00 PM, 24 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Friday, 25 November 2011^{iv}

- Multiple classes, workshops, daily meetings etc. are scheduled to take place on Friday, 25 November 2011. No scheduled marches at this time.
- 12:00 PM – 1:00 PM, 25 November 2011: PETA will be protesting at 37 Newbury St.^v
- 12:00 PM – 7:00 PM, 25 November 2011: Macy's Annual Christmas Tree Lighting on Summer St. Activities start at noon, tree lighting will take place at 5:00 PM.

Analyst Notes: Occupy Boston does not have this event on their calendar; however there have been tweets about Occupy Black Friday (see below); and it is possible that OB will also conduct actions at this event.

Singers Joey McIntyre, and Jasmine V will be in attendance, as well as Tedy Bruschi.

- Occupy Black Friday: There have been many tweets regarding this event; encouraging individuals to "occupy" the stores but not to buy anything. The BRIC will update as more information regarding this event is received.

Analyst Notes: There have been tweets regarding this event and advertising for it; however no definite plan of action has been discussed or released. According to an Occupy Black Friday Facebook page, the following stores are being targeted:

- Abercrombie & Fitch
- Amazon.com
- AT&T Wireless
- Burlington Coat Factory
- Dick's Sporting Goods
- Dollar Tree
- The Home Depot
- Neiman Marcus
- OfficeMax
- Toys R Us
- Verizon Wireless
- Wal-Mart

Please note that this Facebook page is not specific to Boston or Occupy Boston. The Facebook page encourages individuals to "buy local" and stay away from big corporations. The BRIC does not have any information regarding specific actions that demonstrators may take.

- 2:00 – 3:30 PM, 25 November 2011: Massachusetts Animal Rights Coalition (MARC) will be engaging in an anti-fur protest at the Neiman Marcus in Copley Square.

Analyst Notes: OB is not listed anywhere in their posting for this protest. However, being that Neiman Marcus is one of the stores to be "occupied" on Black Friday, it is possible that the activists from OB may join the anti-fur protest at the store.

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 26 November 2011^{vi}

- 1:00 PM – 2:00 PM, 26 November 2011: OccupyNH and Occupy Lowell will be visiting Occupy Boston and “bringing freshly donated supplies from the North, as well as show solidarity with Occupy Boston”. (Occupy Boston)
- 7:00 PM, 26 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 66

28 November 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Events Scheduled for Today, Monday, 28 November 2011ⁱ

- All day, 28 November 2011: UC Davis and Occupy Colleges General Strike. UC Davis is calling for a general strike on the 28th in response to the police aggression on UC Davis students. Occupy Colleges is calling for a nationwide student strike in support of Occupy UC Davis and Occupy Berkeley. (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: This is posted on OB’s calendar; however, it has received little attention elsewhere with OB and the surrounding colleges and universities.
- 3:00 PM – 6:00 PM, 28 November 2011: Banks Need a Haircut. Occupy Boston will have 6 barstools at Dewey Square representing the 6 largest banks with barbers giving free haircuts to occupiers; representing a “haircut” in banking. (Occupy Boston)
- 3:30 PM - 6:00 PM, 28 November 2011, a 3:30 PM rally in support of University of California is scheduled to take place outside the Harvard Science Center.ⁱⁱ
 - 5:00 PM, 28 November 2011, Chris Hedges is scheduled to address Occupy Harvard and then give a speech at 6:00 PM at Yenching Auditorium.
- 6:00 PM-7:00 PM, 28 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Harvard)
Analyst Notes: There have been tweets regarding this rally and advertising for it. On the Facebook events page for the 3:30 PM rally, it has 78 people listed as confirmed attending.ⁱⁱⁱ The Occupy Harvard website states that Chris Hedges is going to “embed” with Occupy Harvard on the night of 28 November 2011; spending the night in one of the tents. Occupy Boston's Facebook page has advertised this rally, and it is also listed on their calendar of events.^{iv}

- 9:00 PM – 10:00 PM, 28 November 2011: Students Occupy Boston General Assembly #13 at Dewey Square.

Events Scheduled for Tuesday, 29 November 2011^v

- 6:00 PM, 29 November 2011: World Bank President, Robert Zoellick at the Harvard Kennedy School.

Analyst Notes: The BRIC has not seen any Twitter chatter relative to this visit. This event appears to only be posted on two Harvard websites; it is unknown if this is an open event or how many people will be attending.

- 5:00 PM, 29 November 2011: Copley Square Tree Lighting. There will be a short speaking program and then the tree lighting at 5:30 PM followed by refreshments at the Fairmont Copley Plaza Hotel.
- 5:00 PM – 6:00 PM, 29 November 2011: Anti-Foreclosure / Eviction Defense Open Planning Session at the Dudley Public Library Room B. (Occupy Boston)
- 7:00 PM, 29 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Wednesday, 30 November 2011^{vi}

- 5:30 – 8:30 PM, 30 November 2011: 2 Month Anniversary of Occupy Boston. Twitter chatter and a Facebook event page indicates Occupy Boston's plan to march on this day in celebration of 2 months occupation in Boston. The group will rally at 5:30 PM at Dewey Square and march at 6:00 PM.^{vii}

Analyst Notes: This event is not on OB's calendar at this time, but chatter in Twitter and a Facebook event page indicates OB's plan to march Wednesday evening. Furthermore, Wednesday is the night before the hearing between Occupy Boston and the city. Given that information, it is possible the march will be in recognition of both events.

- 6:00 PM, 30 November 2011: Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter and Baltimore Mayor Stephanie Rawlings-Blake will be speaking at Harvard (JFK Jr. Forum). The event is titled "Mayors on the Front Line: Occupy Wall Street, Flash Mobs and Gun Violence"

Analyst Note: As of 1:20 PM on Monday 28 November 2011, this event only received minimal attention on Twitter. This event could become more significant depending on how events unfold regarding Occupy Philadelphia. As of 1:20 PM on 28 November 2011, there were a couple of dozen protesters still remaining in Philadelphia's Dilworth Plaza. The mayor had given Occupy Philadelphia protesters a deadline of Sunday evening to clear the park. Although many left the camp, a couple of dozen still remain and have no plans of moving. The city has officially stated on multiple open source outlets that no police actions are imminent. If arrests are made in Philadelphia, there is a strong possibility that OB and / or OH may stage marches in solidarity; which could possibly be directed at Wednesday's event at Harvard if word of the event spreads throughout the local occupy movement.

- 9:00 AM, 1 December 2011: Court Hearing for Occupy Boston will occur at Suffolk County Superior Court

Analyst Note: At the GA on 27 November 2011, OB voted to pass a proposal that would encourage people to go to the courthouse during the hearing. They specifically discussed holding signs outside the building and that it would be a bad idea to do this inside the courtroom. Additionally, this group will utilize Facebook, Twitter and Blogspot to conduct a public relations campaign to gain support for OB. They will also encourage people to call the mayor, legislators and the management of the Rose Kennedy Greenway to voice their support for OB. The BRIC will continue to assess publically available open source material and provide updates as necessary.

- 4:00 PM – 5:00 PM, 1 December 2011: Boston Common Christmas Tree Lighting

Analyst Note: The BRIC has uncorroborated information indicating that OB plans on conducting some sort of demonstration at this event. The BRIC will continue to assess publically available open source material and provide updates as necessary for this event.

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- On Saturday, 26 November 2011, at approximately 9:00 PM a march stepped off from Dewey Square moving through various streets and stopping at the State House, Fox 25 News and a residence at 95 Beacon St. The march then proceeded on Charles St. and the wrong way and back to Dewey Square.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 67

29 November 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Events Scheduled for Today, Tuesday, 29 November 2011ⁱ

- 5:00 PM, 29 November 2011: Copley Square Tree Lighting. There will be a short speaking program and then the tree lighting at 5:30 PM followed by refreshments at the Fairmont Copley Plaza Hotel.
Analyst Notes: This event is not on OB’s calendar of events; and there has been no chatter relative to OB and this event.
- 5:00 PM – 6:00 PM, 29 November 2011: Anti-Foreclosure / Eviction Defense Open Planning Session at the Dudley Public Library Room B. (Occupy Boston)
- 6:00 PM, 29 November 2011: World Bank President, Robert Zoellick at the Harvard Kennedy School.
Analyst Notes: The BRIC has not seen any Twitter chatter relative to this visit. This event appears to only be posted on two Harvard websites; it is unknown if this is an open event or how many people will be attending.
- 7:00 PM, 29 November 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)
- 7:00 PM, 29 November 2011: Ocupemos el Barrio Media Meeting in South Station (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Wednesday, 30 November 2011ⁱⁱ

- 5:30 – 8:30 PM, 30 November 2011: 2 Month Anniversary of Occupy Boston. Twitter chatter and a Facebook event page indicates Occupy Boston's plan to march on this day in celebration of 2 months occupation in Boston. The group will rally at 5:30 PM at Dewey Square and march at 6:00 PM.ⁱⁱⁱ (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: This event has been added to OB's calendar of events; and has been posted on BU Occupies' Facebook page. In addition, Wednesday is also the night before the hearing between Occupy Boston and the city. Both events are noted in the description for the march, calling for supporters and solidarity.

- 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM, 30 November 2011: Teach-in at Northeastern University. The President and CEO of the Federal Reserve Bank in Boston, Eric Rosengren, will be guest speaking at this event titled The Role of Government in the 21st Century. How Much Should Government Regulate Business? This event is open to the public and will be held at West Campus F, Room 20 at 40 Leon St.^{iv}

Analyst Notes: NUPD is aware of this event. At this time, the BRIC has not seen any OB chatter relative to this event; however, one student posted the event as an FYI in the Students Occupy Google group page.^v It should be noted that OB is scheduled to march tomorrow night at 6:00 PM from Dewey Square; the BRIC will continue to assess publically available open sources and update as necessary.

- 6:00 PM, 30 November 2011: Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter and Baltimore Mayor Stephanie Rawlings-Blake will be speaking at Harvard (JFK Jr. Forum). The event is titled "Mayors on the Front Line: Occupy Wall Street, Flash Mobs and Gun Violence"

Analyst Note: As of 3:00 PM on Tuesday 29 November 2011, this event only received minimal attention on Twitter under the hashtag #occupyharvard. This event could become more significant depending on how events unfold regarding Occupy Philadelphia. As of 1:20 PM on 28 November 2011, there were a couple of dozen protesters still remaining in Philadelphia's Dilworth Plaza. There have been no recent news reports of the occupiers clearing out or any arrests taking place. The mayor had given Occupy Philadelphia protesters a deadline of Sunday evening to clear the park. Although many left the camp, a couple of dozen still remain and have no plans of moving. The city has officially stated on multiple open source outlets that no police actions are imminent. If arrests are made in Philadelphia, there is a strong possibility that OB and / or OH may stage marches in solidarity; which could possibly be directed at Wednesday's event at Harvard if word of the event spreads throughout the local occupy movement.

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 1 December 2011^{vi}

- 9:00 AM, 1 December 2011: Court Hearing for Occupy Boston will occur at Suffolk County Superior Court

Analyst Note: At the GA on 27 November 2011, OB voted to pass a proposal that would encourage people to go to the courthouse during the hearing. They specifically discussed holding signs outside the building and that it would be a bad idea to do this inside the courtroom. Additionally, this group will utilize Facebook, Twitter and Blogspot to conduct a public relations campaign to gain support for OB. They will also encourage people to call the mayor, legislators and the management of the Rose Kennedy Greenway to voice their support for OB. On OB's website on the announcement of Wednesday's march they continue to encourage people to call state and local government / politicians to voice their support for OB. The BRIC will continue to assess publically available open source material and provide updates as necessary.

- 3:30 PM – 4:30 PM, 1 December 2011: WE CAN END AIDS: World AIDS Day Vigil. According to the event posted on OB's website, the group will meet at Dewey Square and march to Senator Kerry's office. (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: This event is posted on OB's calendar of events; there is no further information or open source chatter to indicate OB's intention to march. It is unknown if OB is coordinating this march or they are supporting another group.
- 4:00 PM – 5:00 PM, 1 December 2011: Boston Common Christmas Tree Lighting.
Analyst Note: The BRIC has uncorroborated information indicating that OB plans on conducting some sort of demonstration at this event. The BRIC will continue to assess publically available open source material and provide updates as necessary for this event.

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- Day of Action Scheduled for 3 December 2011: Throughout the month of November, Occupy Boston has been tweeting and planning for a day of action to take place on 3 December 2011. One event page discusses a rally at Copley Square from 1:00 PM – 4:00 PM. This event page is encouraging anyone to participate and create an action or join an existing plan.^{vii}
According to Occupy Boston's GA minutes from Saturday, 26 November 2011, from 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM there will be separate actions / rallies / protests with different community groups through the city. Then from 1:00 PM – 4:00 PM they will all join for a rally at Copley Square.
In the Students Occupy Boston Google group page, one student proposed to plan a student loan die-in for Saturday in a public area, they suggested: Faneuil Hall, Park St. Station, inside the Prudential; with trash bags full of newspaper and labeled with dollar signs. The suggested plan is to have a group of students lie on the ground "being crushed" by the bags and a group standing handing out literature. This was posted at 11:08 AM today, 29 November 2011.^{viii} No one has responded to this yet. The BRIC will continue to update and provide more information as the event gets closer.
- Occupy JP, a branch of Occupy Boston taking place in Jamaica Plain, plans to start camping on the lawn of the Unitarian Universalist Church in Monument Square as soon as Saturday, 3 December 2011 according to an article in the Jamaica Plain Gazette online. The church is allowing Occupy JP to erect tents there, an Occupy JP spokesperson, Michael Russell, reported on in the article. An "informational" march on Centre St. is also possible to occur this weekend the Russell stated. If the march does take place, it will stop at non-profits and city institutions such as the fire station.
Analyst Notes: According to this article, Mayor Menino is scheduled to be at Monument Square for a holiday tree lighting on Saturday, 3 December 2011. The

There has been no chatter relative to Occupy JP and their plans to camp and / or march from Occupy Boston supporters. BRIC will continue to assess publically available open sources and update on this event as necessary.

- There have been some tweets using the hash tag #Occupytheburbs and #occupynatick tweeting on Sunday, 27 November 2011 at 8:23 PM that they will “have an occupytheburbs meeting on Sunday in Natick”. It was also tweeted by @occupytheburbs that they have had “strong meetings / actions in Needham, Natick, Newton, Waltham, Framingham, Walpole soon #occupytheburbs”. The BRIC has no further information on this movement or any planned actions outside of the city; the BRIC will continue to assess publically available open sources and provide updates as necessary.
- An Occupy Somerville group is planning a protest / rally for Saturday, 10 December 2011 in Davis Square. The group will rally in Statue Park and then march down Highland Ave. to the Bank of America. The following Wednesday, the group will hold a General Assembly at 7:00 PM. The group has no plans for camping or erecting tents in Somerville.^{ix}

Although many left the camp, a couple of dozen still remain and have no plans of moving. The city has officially stated on multiple open source outlets that no police actions are imminent. If arrests are made in Philadelphia, there is a strong possibility that OB and / or OH may stage marches in solidarity; which could possibly be directed at Wednesday's event at Harvard if word of the event spreads throughout the local occupy movement.*

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 1 December 2011 ^{vi}

- 9:00 AM, 1 December 2011: Court Hearing for Occupy Boston will occur at Suffolk County Superior Court

Analyst Note: At the GA on 27 November 2011, OB voted to pass a proposal that would encourage people to go to the courthouse during the hearing. They specifically discussed holding signs outside the building and that it would be a bad idea to do this inside the courtroom. Additionally, this group will utilize Facebook, Twitter and Blogspot to conduct a public relations campaign to gain support for OB. They will also encourage people to call the mayor, legislators and the management of the Rose Kennedy Greenway to voice their support for OB. On OB's website on the announcement of Wednesday's march they continue to encourage people to call state and local government / politicians to voice their support for OB. The BRIC will continue to assess publically available open source material and provide updates as necessary.

- 3:30 PM – 4:30 PM, 1 December 2011: WE CAN END AIDS: World AIDS Day Vigil. According to the event posted on OB's website, the group will meet at Dewey Square and march to Senator Kerry's office. (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: This event is posted on OB's calendar of events; there is no further information or open source chatter to indicate OB's intention to march. It is unknown if OB is coordinating this march or they are supporting another group.
- 4:00 PM – 5:00 PM, 1 December 2011: Boston Common Christmas Tree Lighting.
Analyst Note: The BRIC has uncorroborated information indicating that OB plans on conducting some sort of demonstration at this event. The BRIC will continue to assess publically available open source material and provide updates as necessary for this event.

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- Day of Action Scheduled for 3 December 2011: Throughout the month of November, Occupy Boston has been tweeting and planning for a day of action to take place on 3 December 2011. One event page discusses a rally at Copley Square from 1:00 PM – 4:00 PM. This event page is encouraging anyone to participate and create an action or join an existing plan.^{vii}
According to Occupy Boston's GA minutes from Saturday, 26 November 2011, from 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM there will be separate actions / rallies / protests with different community groups through the city. Then from 1:00 PM – 4:00 PM they will all join for a rally at Copley Square.
In the Students Occupy Boston Google group page, one student proposed to plan a student loan die-in for Saturday in a public area, they suggested: Faneuil Hall, Park St. Station, inside the Prudential; with trash bags full of newspaper and labeled with dollar signs. The suggested plan is to have a group of students lie on the ground "being crushed" by the bags and a group standing handing out literature. This was posted at 11:08 AM today, 29 November 2011.^{viii} No one has responded to this yet. The BRIC will continue to update and provide more information as the event gets closer.
- Occupy JP, a branch of Occupy Boston taking place in Jamaica Plain, plans to start camping on the lawn of the Unitarian Universalist Church in Monument Square as soon as Saturday, 3 December 2011 according to an article in the Jamaica Plain Gazette online. The church is allowing Occupy JP to erect tents there, an Occupy JP spokesperson, Michael Russell, reported on in the article. An "informational" march on Centre St. is also possible to occur this weekend the Russell stated. If the march does take place, it will stop at non-profits and city institutions such as the fire station.
Analyst Notes: According to this article, Mayor Menino is scheduled to be at Monument Square for a holiday tree lighting on Saturday, 3 December 2011. The

There has been no chatter relative to Occupy JP and their plans to camp and / or march from Occupy Boston supporters. BRIC will continue to assess publically available open sources and update on this event as necessary.

- There have been some tweets using the hash tag #Occupytheburbs and #occupynatick tweeting on Sunday, 27 November 2011 at 8:23 PM that they will “have an occupytheburbs meeting on Sunday in Natick”. It was also tweeted by @occupytheburbs that they have had “strong meetings / actions in Needham, Natick, Newton, Waltham, Framingham, Walpole soon #occupytheburbs”. The BRIC has no further information on this movement or any planned actions outside of the city; the BRIC will continue to assess publically available open sources and provide updates as necessary.
- An Occupy Somerville group is planning a protest / rally for Saturday, 10 December 2011 in Davis Square. The group will rally in Statue Park and then march down Highland Ave. to the Bank of America. The following Wednesday, the group will hold a General Assembly at 7:00 PM. The group has no plans for camping or erecting tents in Somerville.^{ix}

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 68

30 November 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Events Scheduled for Today, Wednesday, 30 November 2011ⁱ

- 3:00 PM, 30 November 2011: Civil Disobedience Training (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: This was tweeted by OccupyBosDA at 12:15 PM on 30 November 2011.
- 5:30 – 8:30 PM, 30 November 2011: 2 Month Anniversary of Occupy Boston. Twitter chatter and a Facebook event page indicates Occupy Boston’s plan to march tonight in celebration of 2 months occupation in Boston. The group will rally at 5:30 PM at Dewey Square and march at 6:00 PM.ⁱⁱ (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: This event has been added to OB’s calendar of events; and has been posted on BU Occupies’ Facebook page. In addition, today is also the night before the hearing between Occupy Boston and the city. Both events are noted in the description for the march, calling for supporters and solidarity. Individuals associated with Occupy Boston have made comments on publically available chatrooms that tonight’s already scheduled march should also be in solidarity with those arrested in Los Angeles and Philadelphia. It should be noted that the Mayor of Philadelphia will be at Harvard at 6:00 PM tonight for a speaking forum (see below for more details). The BRIC has no information that indicates OB’s plan to go to Harvard; however this event should be noted for awareness purposes.
- 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM, 30 November 2011: Teach-in at Northeastern University. The President and CEO of the Federal Reserve Bank in Boston, Eric Rosengren will be guest

speaking at this event titled The Role of Government in the 21st Century. How Much Should Government Regulate Business? This event is open to the public and will be held at West Campus F, Room 20 at 40 Leon St. ⁱⁱⁱ

Analyst Notes: NUPD is aware of this event. At this time, the BRIC has not seen any OB chatter relative to this event; however, one student posted the event as an FYI in the Students Occupy Google group page. ^{iv} It should be noted that OB is scheduled to march tonight at 6:00 PM from Dewey Square; the BRIC will continue to assess publically available open sources and update as necessary.

- 6:00 PM, 30 November 2011: Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter, Baltimore Mayor Stephanie Rawlings-Blake and the Mayor of Louisville, KY Greg Fischer will be speaking at Harvard (JFK Jr. Forum). The event is titled "Mayors on the Front Line: Occupy Wall Street, Flash Mobs and Gun Violence".

Analyst Note: As of 12:00 PM on Wednesday 30 November 2011, this event only received minimal attention on Twitter under the hashtag #occupyharvard. Given that OB will be conducting a march tonight that will be at least partly in solidarity with Los Angeles and Philadelphia, there is a possibility that the march could be directed at this event if it becomes more widely known among Occupy Boston / Occupy Harvard social media channels. The BRIC will continue to assess publically available open source information and provide updates as necessary.

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 1 December 2011 ^v

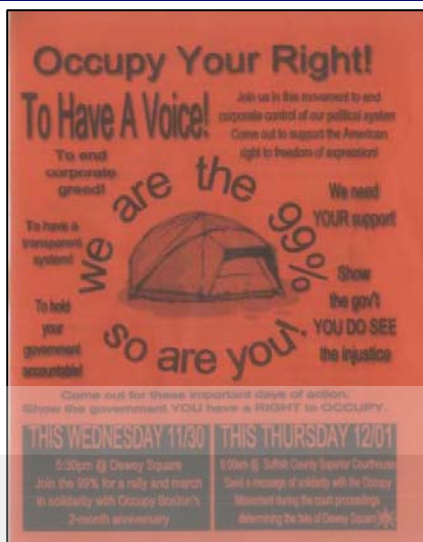

- 8:00 AM, 1 December 2011: World AIDS Day Pool Party. This event is posted on Harvard College Global Health and AIDS Coalition Site. The group will be meeting at 8:00 AM at the Harvard T stop and then a rally will be held from 8:30 – 9:30 AM at the Westin Copley Hotel outside a Merck attended conference. ^{vi}

Analyst Notes: Merck is a pharmaceutical company that will be attending a Therapeutic Area Partnerships Conference at the Westin from 30 November through 2 December 2011. ^{vii} Occupy Boston has a WE CAN END AIDS: World AIDS Day Vigil event on their calendar for 1 December 2011 from 3:30 PM – 4:30 PM. According to OB's website they will meet at Dewey Square and march to Senator Kerry's office. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: This event is posted on OB's calendar of events; there is no further information or open source chatter to indicate OB's intention to march. It is unknown if these two groups will combine efforts or conduct their actions separately.

- 9:00 AM, 1 December 2011: Court Hearing for Occupy Boston will occur at Suffolk County Superior Court

Analyst Notes: OB has been encouraging people to call the Mayor and legislators in an effort to gain support. In addition, there has also been a flier going around that is encouraging people to come out and support OB in the march tonight and at the courthouse tomorrow morning. This advertisement could draw outside supporters of the Occupy movement to stand in solidarity with OB during both or one of these events. See below for flier:

- 4:00 PM – 5:00 PM, 1 December 2011: Boston Common Christmas Tree Lighting.
Analyst Note: The BRIC has uncorroborated information indicating that OB plans on conducting some sort of demonstration at this event. The BRIC will continue to assess publically available open source material and provide updates as necessary for this event.

Events Scheduled for Friday, 2 December 2011 ^{viii}

- Multiple classes and meetings are scheduled to take place on Friday, 2 December 2011. No marches are scheduled at this time.

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 3 December 2011 ^{ix}

- Day of Action Scheduled for 3 December 2011: Throughout the month of November, Occupy Boston has been tweeting and planning for a day of action to take place on 3 December 2011. According to Occupy Boston's GA minutes from Saturday, 26 November 2011, from 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM there will be separate actions / rallies / protests with different community groups throughout the city. Then from 1:00 PM – 4:00 PM they will all join for a rally at Copley Square. An event page is encouraging anyone to participate and create an action or join an existing plan. ^x A Google spreadsheet located on an open source page for the event Saturday contains the following already planned actions. Many groups will be conducting their own separate actions in association with Occupy Boston and then will be either marching to, or meeting at Copley Square for a 1:00 PM rally. Please note this information is uncorroborated and from open source materials; the below listed actions / events are not definite and others may occur throughout the city as well. ^{xi}
 - Ocupemos el Barrio: 10:00 AM – 11:00 AM at Maverick St. and Rosandale. Group will meet at the JFK Federal Building at 11:30 AM. They will be canvassing to raise awareness about deportation. They will then be “demonstrating” in front of ICE at the JFK building at 11:30 AM to march to Copley.

Analyst Notes: From 11:30 AM – 12:30 PM, an event titled Occupy ICE – Ocupa la Migra will occur at the JFK Federal Building. This event is posted on Occupy the Hoods' calendar ^{xii} and is on a Facebook page for Ocupemos el Barrio. ^{xiii} The group will be going to protest deportations and anti-immigration laws. These two actions are likely the same event.

- Emerson College Students & Second Line Band: 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM possibly at the Boston Common. They will be making stilts, blowing bubbles and passing out materials on city life's anti-foreclosure actions.
- Canvassing Around Boston: 10:00 AM – 12:30 PM, small groups will travel "everywhere" to high foot traffic areas in Boston to talk to people about the Occupy movement. Group will be meeting at Dewey Square at 9:00 AM.
- Occupy Small Business: 9:00 AM – 12:00 PM, group will be meeting at the Eastern Service Workers Association at 247 Bowdoin St. in Dorchester. At 9:00 AM new volunteers will meet for orientation then at 9:30 AM they will begin canvassing about supporting small businesses.
- Occupy Boston Copley Marriot: 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM, group will meet outside the Copley Marriot at 110 Huntington Ave. at 10:45 AM and will be demonstrating at the hotel in protest of the Marriot hiring Baystate Services Inc. to perform the renovation. The group will then march to Copley Square to meet the other activists for the 1:00 PM rally.

Analyst Notes: The group is likely the construction workers who have protested at this location in the past; however, a specific group is not noted on the spreadsheet.

- Climate Justice Speak Out: 11:00 AM – 12:30 PM, group will be meeting at the grassy area near the Park St. T stop and will be at the Boston Common on the opposite end from the Emerson students. Group will be holding a speak-out on the ways in which fossil fuel companies have built their businesses by destroying local communities and infrastructures. This is being organized by the OB Climate Justice Working Group.
- Occupy Somerville: 11:30 AM, group will meet at Davis T stop at 11:30 AM and take the bus to Harvard and then the T to Park St. (NFI on this event or what actions the group will be engaging in).
- Health Care Justice: 10:00 AM -12:00 PM, group will meet at Coolidge Corner at the Trader Joe's. NFI.
- In the Students Occupy Boston Google group page, one student proposed to plan a student loan die-in for Saturday in a public area, they suggested: Faneuil Hall, Park St. Station, inside the Prudential; with trash bags full of newspaper and labeled with dollar signs. The suggested plan is to have a group of students lie on the ground "being crushed" by the bags and a group standing handing out literature. This was posted at 11:08 AM on 29 November 2011. ^{xiv} The BRIC will continue to update and provide more information as the event gets closer.

- 7:00 PM, 3 December 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

General Notes Regarding the Occupy Movement

Occupy Camps Closed by Police Overnight:

- Los Angeles: Approximately 1,400 officers moved in at 12:30 AM to clear occupy campers from the City Hall lawn where they had been in place for 60 days.^{xv} Approximately 200 arrests were made in the overnight action. According to ABC News.com, beanbags were used to subdue the final three protesters who refused to leave their makeshift tree house.^{xvi}

Analyst Note: Individuals associated with Occupy Boston have made comments on publically available chat rooms that tonight's already scheduled march should be in solidarity with those arrested in Los Angeles and Philadelphia. Tonight's march was planned to celebrate the two month anniversary of Occupy Boston and demonstrate and garner support for Occupy Boston on the evening before tomorrow's court hearing.

- Philadelphia: Approximately 50 people were arrested when Philadelphia officers cleared the Occupy Philadelphia camp from Dilworth Plaza. Most of the arrests occurred on a street several blocks northeast of Dilworth Plaza after protesters were marching through the streets after being cleared from their camp.^{xvii}

Analyst Note: Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter will be speaking at Harvard University (JFK Jr Forum) this evening at 6:00 PM as part of a "Mayors on the Front Line: Occupy Wall Street, Flash Mobs and Gun Violence" event. This event was tweeted yesterday and given a #occupyharvard hashtag; however, it was not re-tweeted widely and #occupyboston was not hashtagged. Given that OB will be conducting a march tonight that will be at least partly in solidarity with Los Angeles and Philadelphia, there is a possibility that the march could be directed at this event if it becomes more widely known among Occupy Boston / Occupy Harvard social media channels. The BRIC will continue to assess publically available open source information and provide updates as necessary.

Analyst Notes: Merck is a pharmaceutical company that will be attending a Therapeutic Area Partnerships Conference at the Westin from 30 November through 2 December 2011. ^{vii} Occupy Boston has a WE CAN END AIDS: World AIDS Day Vigil event on their calendar for 1 December 2011 from 3:30 PM – 4:30 PM. According to OB's website they will meet at Dewey Square and march to Senator Kerry's office. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: This event is posted on OB's calendar of events; there is no further information or open source chatter to indicate OB's intention to march. It is unknown if these two groups will combine efforts or conduct their actions separately.

- 9:00 AM, 1 December 2011: Court Hearing for Occupy Boston will occur at Suffolk County Superior Court

Analyst Notes: OB has been encouraging people to call the Mayor and legislators in an effort to gain support. In addition, there has also been a flier going around that is encouraging people to come out and support OB in the march tonight and at the courthouse tomorrow morning. This advertisement could draw outside supporters of the Occupy movement to stand in solidarity with OB during both or one of these events. See below for flier:

- 4:00 PM – 5:00 PM, 1 December 2011: Boston Common Christmas Tree Lighting.
Analyst Note: The BRIC has uncorroborated information indicating that OB plans on conducting some sort of demonstration at this event. The BRIC will continue to assess publically available open source material and provide updates as necessary for this event.

Events Scheduled for Friday, 2 December 2011 ^{viii}

- Multiple classes and meetings are scheduled to take place on Friday, 2 December 2011. No marches are scheduled at this time.

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 3 December 2011 ^{ix}

- Day of Action Scheduled for 3 December 2011: Throughout the month of November, Occupy Boston has been tweeting and planning for a day of action to take place on 3 December 2011. According to Occupy Boston's GA minutes from Saturday, 26 November 2011, from 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM there will be separate actions / rallies / protests with different community groups throughout the city. Then from 1:00 PM – 4:00 PM they will all join for a rally at Copley Square. An event page is encouraging anyone to participate and create an action or join an existing plan. ^x A Google spreadsheet located on an open source page for the event Saturday contains the following already planned actions. Many groups will be conducting their own separate actions in association with Occupy Boston and then will be either marching to, or meeting at Copley Square for a 1:00 PM rally. Please note this information is uncorroborated and from open source materials; the below listed actions / events are not definite and others may occur throughout the city as well. ^{xi}
 - Ocupemos el Barrio: 10:00 AM – 11:00 AM at Maverick St. and Rosandale. Group will meet at the JFK Federal Building at 11:30 AM. They will be canvassing to raise awareness about deportation. They will then be “demonstrating” in front of ICE at the JFK building at 11:30 AM to march to Copley.

Analyst Notes: From 11:30 AM – 12:30 PM, an event titled Occupy ICE – Ocupa la Migra will occur at the JFK Federal Building. This event is posted on Occupy the Hoods' calendar ^{xii} and is on a Facebook page for Ocupemos el Barrio. ^{xiii} The group will be going to protest deportations and anti-immigration laws. These two actions are likely the same event.

- Emerson College Students & Second Line Band: 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM possibly at the Boston Common. They will be making stilts, blowing bubbles and passing out materials on city life's anti-foreclosure actions.
- Canvassing Around Boston: 10:00 AM – 12:30 PM, small groups will travel "everywhere" to high foot traffic areas in Boston to talk to people about the Occupy movement. Group will be meeting at Dewey Square at 9:00 AM.
- Occupy Small Business: 9:00 AM – 12:00 PM, group will be meeting at the Eastern Service Workers Association at 247 Bowdoin St. in Dorchester. At 9:00 AM new volunteers will meet for orientation then at 9:30 AM they will begin canvassing about supporting small businesses.
- Occupy Boston Copley Marriot: 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM, group will meet outside the Copley Marriot at 110 Huntington Ave. at 10:45 AM and will be demonstrating at the hotel in protest of the Marriot hiring Baystate Services Inc. to perform the renovation. The group will then march to Copley Square to meet the other activists for the 1:00 PM rally.

Analyst Notes: The group is likely the construction workers who have protested at this location in the past; however, a specific group is not noted on the spreadsheet.

- Climate Justice Speak Out: 11:00 AM – 12:30 PM, group will be meeting at the grassy area near the Park St. T stop and will be at the Boston Common on the opposite end from the Emerson students. Group will be holding a speak-out on the ways in which fossil fuel companies have built their businesses by destroying local communities and infrastructures. This is being organized by the OB Climate Justice Working Group.
- Occupy Somerville: 11:30 AM, group will meet at Davis T stop at 11:30 AM and take the bus to Harvard and then the T to Park St. (NFI on this event or what actions the group will be engaging in).
- Health Care Justice: 10:00 AM -12:00 PM, group will meet at Coolidge Corner at the Trader Joe's. NFI.
- In the Students Occupy Boston Google group page, one student proposed to plan a student loan die-in for Saturday in a public area, they suggested: Faneuil Hall, Park St. Station, inside the Prudential; with trash bags full of newspaper and labeled with dollar signs. The suggested plan is to have a group of students lie on the ground "being crushed" by the bags and a group standing handing out literature. This was posted at 11:08 AM on 29 November 2011. ^{xiv} The BRIC will continue to update and provide more information as the event gets closer.

- 7:00 PM, 3 December 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

General Notes Regarding the Occupy Movement

Occupy Camps Closed by Police Overnight:

- Los Angeles: Approximately 1,400 officers moved in at 12:30 AM to clear occupy campers from the City Hall lawn where they had been in place for 60 days.^{xv} Approximately 200 arrests were made in the overnight action. According to ABC News.com, beanbags were used to subdue the final three protesters who refused to leave their makeshift tree house.^{xvi}

Analyst Note: Individuals associated with Occupy Boston have made comments on publically available chat rooms that tonight's already scheduled march should be in solidarity with those arrested in Los Angeles and Philadelphia. Tonight's march was planned to celebrate the two month anniversary of Occupy Boston and demonstrate and garner support for Occupy Boston on the evening before tomorrow's court hearing.

- Philadelphia: Approximately 50 people were arrested when Philadelphia officers cleared the Occupy Philadelphia camp from Dilworth Plaza. Most of the arrests occurred on a street several blocks northeast of Dilworth Plaza after protesters were marching through the streets after being cleared from their camp.^{xvii}

Analyst Note: Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter will be speaking at Harvard University (JFK Jr Forum) this evening at 6:00 PM as part of a "Mayors on the Front Line: Occupy Wall Street, Flash Mobs and Gun Violence" event. This event was tweeted yesterday and given a #occupyharvard hashtag; however, it was not re-tweeted widely and #occupyboston was not hashtagged. Given that OB will be conducting a march tonight that will be at least partly in solidarity with Los Angeles and Philadelphia, there is a possibility that the march could be directed at this event if it becomes more widely known among Occupy Boston / Occupy Harvard social media channels. The BRIC will continue to assess publically available open source information and provide updates as necessary.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 68

30 November 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Events Scheduled for Today, Wednesday, 30 November 2011ⁱ

- 3:00 PM, 30 November 2011: Civil Disobedience Training (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: This was tweeted by OccupyBosDA at 12:15 PM on 30 November 2011.
- 5:30 – 8:30 PM, 30 November 2011: 2 Month Anniversary of Occupy Boston. Twitter chatter and a Facebook event page indicates Occupy Boston’s plan to march tonight in celebration of 2 months occupation in Boston. The group will rally at 5:30 PM at Dewey Square and march at 6:00 PM.ⁱⁱ (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: This event has been added to OB’s calendar of events; and has been posted on BU Occupies’ Facebook page. In addition, today is also the night before the hearing between Occupy Boston and the city. Both events are noted in the description for the march, calling for supporters and solidarity. Individuals associated with Occupy Boston have made comments on publically available chatrooms that tonight’s already scheduled march should also be in solidarity with those arrested in Los Angeles and Philadelphia. It should be noted that the Mayor of Philadelphia will be at Harvard at 6:00 PM tonight for a speaking forum (see below for more details). The BRIC has no information that indicates OB’s plan to go to Harvard; however this event should be noted for awareness purposes.
- 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM, 30 November 2011: Teach-in at Northeastern University. The President and CEO of the Federal Reserve Bank in Boston, Eric Rosengren will be guest

speaking at this event titled The Role of Government in the 21st Century. How Much Should Government Regulate Business? This event is open to the public and will be held at West Campus F, Room 20 at 40 Leon St. ⁱⁱⁱ

Analyst Notes: NUPD is aware of this event. At this time, the BRIC has not seen any OB chatter relative to this event; however, one student posted the event as an FYI in the Students Occupy Google group page. ^{iv} It should be noted that OB is scheduled to march tonight at 6:00 PM from Dewey Square; the BRIC will continue to assess publically available open sources and update as necessary.

- 6:00 PM, 30 November 2011: Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter, Baltimore Mayor Stephanie Rawlings-Blake and the Mayor of Louisville, KY Greg Fischer will be speaking at Harvard (JFK Jr. Forum). The event is titled "Mayors on the Front Line: Occupy Wall Street, Flash Mobs and Gun Violence".

Analyst Note: As of 12:00 PM on Wednesday 30 November 2011, this event only received minimal attention on Twitter under the hashtag #occupyharvard. Given that OB will be conducting a march tonight that will be at least partly in solidarity with Los Angeles and Philadelphia, there is a possibility that the march could be directed at this event if it becomes more widely known among Occupy Boston / Occupy Harvard social media channels. The BRIC will continue to assess publically available open source information and provide updates as necessary.

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 1 December 2011 ^v

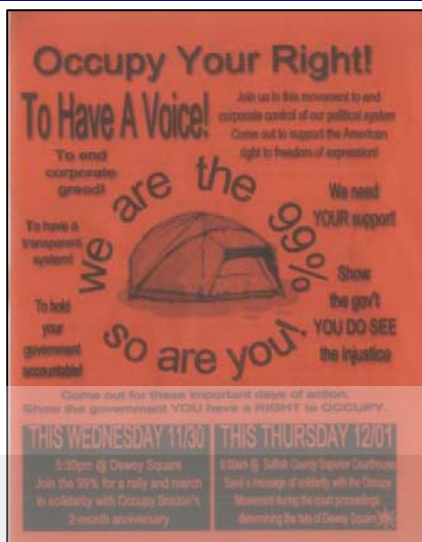

- 8:00 AM, 1 December 2011: World AIDS Day Pool Party. This event is posted on Harvard College Global Health and AIDS Coalition Site. The group will be meeting at 8:00 AM at the Harvard T stop and then a rally will be held from 8:30 – 9:30 AM at the Westin Copley Hotel outside a Merck attended conference. ^{vi}

Analyst Notes: Merck is a pharmaceutical company that will be attending a Therapeutic Area Partnerships Conference at the Westin from 30 November through 2 December 2011. ^{vii} Occupy Boston has a WE CAN END AIDS: World AIDS Day Vigil event on their calendar for 1 December 2011 from 3:30 PM – 4:30 PM. According to OB's website they will meet at Dewey Square and march to Senator Kerry's office. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: This event is posted on OB's calendar of events; there is no further information or open source chatter to indicate OB's intention to march. It is unknown if these two groups will combine efforts or conduct their actions separately.

- 9:00 AM, 1 December 2011: Court Hearing for Occupy Boston will occur at Suffolk County Superior Court

Analyst Notes: OB has been encouraging people to call the Mayor and legislators in an effort to gain support. In addition, there has also been a flier going around that is encouraging people to come out and support OB in the march tonight and at the courthouse tomorrow morning. This advertisement could draw outside supporters of the Occupy movement to stand in solidarity with OB during both or one of these events. See below for flier:

- 4:00 PM – 5:00 PM, 1 December 2011: Boston Common Christmas Tree Lighting.
Analyst Note: The BRIC has uncorroborated information indicating that OB plans on conducting some sort of demonstration at this event. The BRIC will continue to assess publically available open source material and provide updates as necessary for this event.

Events Scheduled for Friday, 2 December 2011 ^{viii}

- Multiple classes and meetings are scheduled to take place on Friday, 2 December 2011. No marches are scheduled at this time.

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 3 December 2011 ^{ix}

- Day of Action Scheduled for 3 December 2011: Throughout the month of November, Occupy Boston has been tweeting and planning for a day of action to take place on 3 December 2011. According to Occupy Boston's GA minutes from Saturday, 26 November 2011, from 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM there will be separate actions / rallies / protests with different community groups throughout the city. Many groups will be conducting their own separate actions in association with Occupy Boston and then will be either marching to, or meeting at Copley Square for a 1:00 PM rally. Please note this information is uncorroborated and from open source materials; the below listed actions / events are not definite and others may occur throughout the city as well. ^{xi}
 - Ocupemos el Barrio: 10:00 AM – 11:00 AM at Maverick St. and Rosandale. Group will meet at the JFK Federal Building at 11:30 AM. They will be canvassing to raise awareness about deportation. They will then be “demonstrating” in front of ICE at the JFK building at 11:30 AM to march to Copley.

Analyst Notes: From 11:30 AM – 12:30 PM, an event titled Occupy ICE – Ocupa la Migra will occur at the JFK Federal Building. This event is posted on Occupy the Hoods' calendar ^{xii} and is on a Facebook page for Ocupemos el Barrio. ^{xiii} The group will be going to protest deportations and anti-immigration laws. These two actions are likely the same event.

- Emerson College Students & Second Line Band: 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM possibly at the Boston Common. They will be making stilts, blowing bubbles and passing out materials on city life's anti-foreclosure actions.
- Canvassing Around Boston: 10:00 AM – 12:30 PM, small groups will travel "everywhere" to high foot traffic areas in Boston to talk to people about the Occupy movement. Group will be meeting at Dewey Square at 9:00 AM.
- Occupy Small Business: 9:00 AM – 12:00 PM, group will be meeting at the Eastern Service Workers Association at 247 Bowdoin St. in Dorchester. At 9:00 AM new volunteers will meet for orientation then at 9:30 AM they will begin canvassing about supporting small businesses.
- Occupy Boston Copley Marriot: 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM, group will meet outside the Copley Marriot at 110 Huntington Ave. at 10:45 AM and will be demonstrating at the hotel in protest of the Marriot hiring Baystate Services Inc. to perform the renovation. The group will then march to Copley Square to meet the other activists for the 1:00 PM rally.

Analyst Notes: The group is likely the construction workers who have protested at this location in the past; however, a specific group is not noted on the spreadsheet.

- Climate Justice Speak Out: 11:00 AM – 12:30 PM, group will be meeting at the grassy area near the Park St. T stop and will be at the Boston Common on the opposite end from the Emerson students. Group will be holding a speak-out on the ways in which fossil fuel companies have built their businesses by destroying local communities and infrastructures. This is being organized by the OB Climate Justice Working Group.
- Occupy Somerville: 11:30 AM, group will meet at Davis T stop at 11:30 AM and take the bus to Harvard and then the T to Park St. (NFI on this event or what actions the group will be engaging in).
- Health Care Justice: 10:00 AM -12:00 PM, group will meet at Coolidge Corner at the Trader Joe's. NFI.
- In the Students Occupy Boston Google group page, one student proposed to plan a student loan die-in for Saturday in a public area, they suggested: Faneuil Hall, Park St. Station, inside the Prudential; with trash bags full of newspaper and labeled with dollar signs. The suggested plan is to have a group of students lie on the ground "being crushed" by the bags and a group standing handing out literature. This was posted at 11:08 AM on 29 November 2011. ^{xiv} The BRIC will continue to update and provide more information as the event gets closer.

Events Scheduled for Today, Thursday, 1 December 2011ⁱ

- 3:30 PM – 4:30 PM, 1 December 2011: WE CAN END AIDS: World AIDS Day Vigil. According to OB’s website they will meet at Dewey Square and march to Senator Kerry’s office. (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: This event is posted on OB’s calendar of events; there is no further information or open source chatter to indicate OB’s intention to march.
- 9:00 AM, 1 December 2011: Court Hearing for Occupy Boston will occur at Suffolk County Superior Court
Analyst Notes: The hearing between Occupy Boston and the city ended today with the Judge deciding she will render a written decision on or before 15 December 2011. Until that time, the TRO remains in effect.
- 4:00 PM, 1 December 2011: MoveOn.org is organizing a rally for a “99% Congressional Speak-Out” at the Cambridge office of U.S. Rep. Mike Capuano at 110 First St. Capuano will not be present at the event.
Analyst Notes: The BRIC has seen no OB chatter relative to this event. This event is not listed on OB’s or Occupy Harvard’s websites / calendar.
- 5:00 PM – 6:00 PM, 1 December 2011: Occupy Harvard will stand in solidarity with Marvin Byrd at a rally outside the Holyoke Center at 1350 Mass Ave. and will join members of the Harvard Union of Clerical and Technical Workers (HUCTW). Occupy

Harvard is advertising that there is NO Harvard ID required and has created an event on Facebook,ⁱⁱ which is currently showing 27 people as attending. This is listed on Occupy Harvard's calendar; however, it is not listed on Occupy Boston's calendar.

Analyst Note: Marvin Byrd is an employee of Harvard's Science Center mail room who has been affected by hourly cutbacks the university management has made. The BRIC has no information that indicates OB's plan to go to Harvard to participate in this event.

- 4:00 PM – 5:00 PM, 1 December 2011: Boston Common Christmas Tree Lighting.
Analyst Note: The BRIC has uncorroborated information indicating that OB plans on conducting some sort of demonstration at this event. As of 1 December 2011, the BRIC has not received any new information pertaining to this event or any planned OB actions.

Events Scheduled for Friday, 2 December 2011ⁱⁱⁱ

- Multiple classes and meetings are scheduled to take place on Friday, 2 December 2011. No marches are scheduled at this time.

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 3 December 2011^{iv}

- Day of Action Scheduled for 3 December 2011: Throughout the month of November, Occupy Boston has been tweeting and planning for a day of action to take place on 3 December 2011. According to Occupy Boston's GA minutes from Saturday, 26 November 2011, from 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM there will be separate actions / rallies / protests with different community groups throughout the city. Then from 1:00 PM – 4:00 PM they will all join for a rally at Copley Square. An event page is encouraging anyone to participate and create an action or join an existing plan.^v A Google spreadsheet located on an open source page for the event Saturday contains the following already planned actions. Many groups will be conducting their own separate actions in association with Occupy Boston and then will be either marching to, or meeting at Copley Square for a 1:00 PM rally. Please note this information is uncorroborated and from open source materials; the below listed actions / events are not definite and others may occur throughout the city as well.^{vi}
 - Ocupemos el Barrio: 10:00 AM – 11:00 AM at Maverick St. and Rosandale. Group will meet at the JFK Federal Building at 11:30 AM. They will be canvassing to raise awareness about deportation. They will then be “demonstrating” in front of ICE at the JFK building at 11:30 AM to march to Copley.
Analyst Notes: From 11:30 AM – 12:30 PM, an event titled Occupy ICE – Ocupa la Migra will occur at the JFK Federal Building. This event is posted on Occupy the Hoods' calendar^{vii} and is on a Facebook page for Ocupemos el Barrio.^{viii} The group will be going to protest deportations and anti-immigration laws. These two actions are likely the same event.
 - Emerson College Students & Second Line Band: 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM possibly at the Boston Common. They will be making stilts, blowing bubbles and passing out materials on city life's anti-foreclosure actions.

- Canvassing Around Boston: 10:00 AM – 12:30 PM, small groups will travel “everywhere” to high foot traffic areas in Boston to talk to people about the Occupy movement. Group will be meeting at Dewey Square at 9:00 AM.
- Occupy Small Business: 9:00 AM – 12:00 PM, group will be meeting at the Eastern Service Workers Association at 247 Bowdoin St. in Dorchester. At 9:00 AM new volunteers will meet for orientation then at 9:30 AM they will begin canvassing about supporting small businesses.
- Occupy Boston Copley Marriot: 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM, group will meet outside the Copley Marriot at 110 Huntington Ave. at 10:45 AM and will be demonstrating at the hotel in protest of the Marriot hiring Baystate Services Inc. to perform the renovation. The group will then march to Copley Square to meet the other activists for the 1:00 PM rally.

Analyst Notes: The group is likely the construction workers who have protested at this location in the past; however, a specific group is not noted on the spreadsheet.

- Climate Justice Speak Out: 11:00 AM – 12:30 PM, group will be meeting at the grassy area near the Park St. T stop and will be at the Boston Common on the opposite end from the Emerson students. Group will be holding a speak-out on the ways in which fossil fuel companies have built their businesses by destroying local communities and infrastructures. This is being organized by the OB Climate Justice Working Group.
- Occupy Somerville: 11:30 AM, group will meet at Davis T stop at 11:30 AM and take the bus to Harvard and then the T to Park St. (NFI on this event or what actions the group will be engaging in).
- Health Care Justice: 10:00 AM -12:00 PM, group will meet at Coolidge Corner at the Trader Joe’s. NFI.
- In the Students Occupy Boston Google group page, one student proposed to plan a student loan die-in for Saturday in a public area, they suggested: Faneuil Hall, Park St. Station, inside the Prudential; with trash bags full of newspaper and labeled with dollar signs. The suggested plan is to have a group of students lie on the ground “being crushed” by the bags and a group standing handing out literature. This was posted at 11:08 AM on 29 November 2011. ^{ix} The BRIC will continue to update and provide more information as the event gets closer.
- Old-Time Soap Box: 10:00 AM – 12:30 PM, educators and speakers are asked to choose a street corner and step-up to the soap box (with or without an actual soap box) and say your peace; “step-up, shout-out, and jump-in”.
- ESWA: 9:30 AM – 12:30 PM, at 247 Bowdoin St.; join teams of volunteers canvassing door to door in low-income neighborhoods, uniting the poorest of the 99% in an organization. Training will be provided by experienced volunteer organizers.
- Roxbury & Bunker Hill Community Colleges: unk time; a meeting to bring together students, faculty and staff of the two colleges to plan a response to the Boston Foundation.

- BU Occupies: 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM, group will meet at Marsh Plaza at 11:00 AM and conduct a mobile speak-out starting from the BU campus continuing to Copley Square.
- 7:00 PM, 3 December 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- Last night on 30 November 2011, a march from Dewey Square stepped off at approximate 6:10 PM with 125-150 individuals. The group then split up and had 1 group heading down Congress St. and 1 down Pearl St. A few minutes later they merged back together going the wrong way down Congress. The group then stopped in Downtown Crossing; and at 7:30 PM the march was over. No incidents to report.

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 69

1 December 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Events Scheduled for Today, Thursday, 1 December 2011ⁱ

- 3:30 PM – 4:30 PM, 1 December 2011: WE CAN END AIDS: World AIDS Day Vigil. According to OB’s website they will meet at Dewey Square and march to Senator Kerry’s office. (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: This event is posted on OB’s calendar of events; there is no further information or open source chatter to indicate OB’s intention to march.
- 9:00 AM, 1 December 2011: Court Hearing for Occupy Boston will occur at Suffolk County Superior Court
Analyst Notes: The hearing between Occupy Boston and the city ended today with the Judge deciding she will render a written decision on or before 15 December 2011. Until that time, the TRO remains in effect.
- 4:00 PM, 1 December 2011: MoveOn.org is organizing a rally for a “99% Congressional Speak-Out” at the Cambridge office of U.S. Rep. Mike Capuano at 110 First St. Capuano will not be present at the event.
Analyst Notes: The BRIC has seen no OB chatter relative to this event. This event is not listed on OB’s or Occupy Harvard’s websites / calendar.
- 5:00 PM – 6:00 PM, 1 December 2011: Occupy Harvard will stand in solidarity with Marvin Byrd at a rally outside the Holyoke Center at 1350 Mass Ave. and will join members of the Harvard Union of Clerical and Technical Workers (HUCTW). Occupy

Harvard is advertising that there is NO Harvard ID required and has created an event on Facebook,ⁱⁱ which is currently showing 27 people as attending. This is listed on Occupy Harvard's calendar; however, it is not listed on Occupy Boston's calendar.

Analyst Note: Marvin Byrd is an employee of Harvard's Science Center mail room who has been affected by hourly cutbacks the university management has made. The BRIC has no information that indicates OB's plan to go to Harvard to participate in this event.

- 4:00 PM – 5:00 PM, 1 December 2011: Boston Common Christmas Tree Lighting.
Analyst Note: The BRIC has uncorroborated information indicating that OB plans on conducting some sort of demonstration at this event. As of 1 December 2011, the BRIC has not received any new information pertaining to this event or any planned OB actions.

Events Scheduled for Friday, 2 December 2011ⁱⁱⁱ

The suggested plan is to have a group of students lie on the ground “being crushed” by the bags and a group standing handing out literature. This was posted at 11:08 AM on 29 November 2011.^{ix} The BRIC will continue to update and provide more information as the event gets closer.
- Old-Time Soap Box: 10:00 AM – 12:30 PM, educators and speakers are asked to choose a street corner and step-up to the soap box (with or without an actual soap box) and say your peace; “step-up, shout-out, and jump-in”.
- ESWA: 9:30 AM – 12:30 PM, at 247 Bowdoin St.; join teams of volunteers canvassing door to door in low-income neighborhoods, uniting the poorest of the 99% in an organization. Training will be provided by experienced volunteer organizers.
- Roxbury & Bunker Hill Community Colleges: unk time; a meeting to bring together students, faculty and staff of the two colleges to plan a response to the Boston Foundation.

- BU Occupies: 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM, group will meet at Marsh Plaza at 11:00 AM and conduct a mobile speak-out starting from the BU campus continuing to Copley Square.
- 7:00 PM, 3 December 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- Last night on 30 November 2011, a march from Dewey Square stepped off at approximate 6:10 PM with 125-150 individuals. The group then split up and had 1 group heading down Congress St. and 1 down Pearl St. A few minutes later they merged back together going the wrong way down Congress. The group then stopped in Downtown Crossing; and at 7:30 PM the march was over. No incidents to report.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 69

1 December 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Events Scheduled for Today, Thursday, 1 December 2011ⁱ

- 3:30 PM – 4:30 PM, 1 December 2011: WE CAN END AIDS: World AIDS Day Vigil. According to OB’s website they will meet at Dewey Square and march to Senator Kerry’s office. (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: This event is posted on OB’s calendar of events; there is no further information or open source chatter to indicate OB’s intention to march.
- 9:00 AM, 1 December 2011: Court Hearing for Occupy Boston will occur at Suffolk County Superior Court
Analyst Notes: The hearing between Occupy Boston and the city ended today with the Judge deciding she will render a written decision on or before 15 December 2011. Until that time, the TRO remains in effect.
- 4:00 PM, 1 December 2011: MoveOn.org is organizing a rally for a “99% Congressional Speak-Out” at the Cambridge office of U.S. Rep. Mike Capuano at 110 First St. Capuano will not be present at the event.
Analyst Notes: The BRIC has seen no OB chatter relative to this event. This event is not listed on OB’s or Occupy Harvard’s websites / calendar.
- 5:00 PM – 6:00 PM, 1 December 2011: Occupy Harvard will stand in solidarity with Marvin Byrd at a rally outside the Holyoke Center at 1350 Mass Ave. and will join members of the Harvard Union of Clerical and Technical Workers (HUCTW). Occupy

Harvard is advertising that there is NO Harvard ID required and has created an event on Facebook,ⁱⁱ which is currently showing 27 people as attending. This is listed on Occupy Harvard's calendar; however, it is not listed on Occupy Boston's calendar.

Analyst Note: Marvin Byrd is an employee of Harvard's Science Center mail room who has been affected by hourly cutbacks the university management has made. The BRIC has no information that indicates OB's plan to go to Harvard to participate in this event.

- 4:00 PM – 5:00 PM, 1 December 2011: Boston Common Christmas Tree Lighting.
Analyst Note: The BRIC has uncorroborated information indicating that OB plans on conducting some sort of demonstration at this event. As of 1 December 2011, the BRIC has not received any new information pertaining to this event or any planned OB actions.

Events Scheduled for Friday, 2 December 2011ⁱⁱⁱ

- Multiple classes and meetings are scheduled to take place on Friday, 2 December 2011. No marches are scheduled at this time.

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 3 December 2011^{iv}

- Day of Action Scheduled for 3 December 2011: Throughout the month of November, Occupy Boston has been tweeting and planning for a day of action to take place on 3 December 2011. According to Occupy Boston's GA minutes from Saturday, 26 November 2011, from 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM there will be separate actions / rallies / protests with different community groups throughout the city. Then from 1:00 PM – 4:00 PM they will all join for a rally at Copley Square. An event page is encouraging anyone to participate and create an action or join an existing plan.^v A Google spreadsheet located on an open source page for the event Saturday contains the following already planned actions. Many groups will be conducting their own separate actions in association with Occupy Boston and then will be either marching to, or meeting at Copley Square for a 1:00 PM rally. Please note this information is uncorroborated and from open source materials; the below listed actions / events are not definite and others may occur throughout the city as well.^{vi}
 - Ocupemos el Barrio: 10:00 AM – 11:00 AM at Maverick St. and Rosandale. Group will meet at the JFK Federal Building at 11:30 AM. They will be canvassing to raise awareness about deportation. They will then be “demonstrating” in front of ICE at the JFK building at 11:30 AM to march to Copley.
Analyst Notes: From 11:30 AM – 12:30 PM, an event titled Occupy ICE – Ocupa la Migra will occur at the JFK Federal Building. This event is posted on Occupy the Hoods' calendar^{vii} and is on a Facebook page for Ocupemos el Barrio.^{viii} The group will be going to protest deportations and anti-immigration laws. These two actions are likely the same event.
 - Emerson College Students & Second Line Band: 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM possibly at the Boston Common. They will be making stilts, blowing bubbles and passing out materials on city life's anti-foreclosure actions.

- Canvassing Around Boston: 10:00 AM – 12:30 PM, small groups will travel “everywhere” to high foot traffic areas in Boston to talk to people about the Occupy movement. Group will be meeting at Dewey Square at 9:00 AM.
- Occupy Small Business: 9:00 AM – 12:00 PM, group will be meeting at the Eastern Service Workers Association at 247 Bowdoin St. in Dorchester. At 9:00 AM new volunteers will meet for orientation then at 9:30 AM they will begin canvassing about supporting small businesses.
- Occupy Boston Copley Marriot: 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM, group will meet outside the Copley Marriot at 110 Huntington Ave. at 10:45 AM and will be demonstrating at the hotel in protest of the Marriot hiring Baystate Services Inc. to perform the renovation. The group will then march to Copley Square to meet the other activists for the 1:00 PM rally.

Analyst Notes: The group is likely the construction workers who have protested at this location in the past; however, a specific group is not noted on the spreadsheet.

- Climate Justice Speak Out: 11:00 AM – 12:30 PM, group will be meeting at the grassy area near the Park St. T stop and will be at the Boston Common on the opposite end from the Emerson students. Group will be holding a speak-out on the ways in which fossil fuel companies have built their businesses by destroying local communities and infrastructures. This is being organized by the OB Climate Justice Working Group.
- Occupy Somerville: 11:30 AM, group will meet at Davis T stop at 11:30 AM and take the bus to Harvard and then the T to Park St. (NFI on this event or what actions the group will be engaging in).
- Health Care Justice: 10:00 AM -12:00 PM, group will meet at Coolidge Corner at the Trader Joe’s. NFI.
- In the Students Occupy Boston Google group page, one student proposed to plan a student loan die-in for Saturday in a public area, they suggested: Faneuil Hall, Park St. Station, inside the Prudential; with trash bags full of newspaper and labeled with dollar signs. The suggested plan is to have a group of students lie on the ground “being crushed” by the bags and a group standing handing out literature. This was posted at 11:08 AM on 29 November 2011. ^{ix} The BRIC will continue to update and provide more information as the event gets closer.
- Old-Time Soap Box: 10:00 AM – 12:30 PM, educators and speakers are asked to choose a street corner and step-up to the soap box (with or without an actual soap box) and say your peace; “step-up, shout-out, and jump-in”.
- ESWA: 9:30 AM – 12:30 PM, at 247 Bowdoin St.; join teams of volunteers canvassing door to door in low-income neighborhoods, uniting the poorest of the 99% in an organization. Training will be provided by experienced volunteer organizers.
- Roxbury & Bunker Hill Community Colleges: unk time; a meeting to bring together students, faculty and staff of the two colleges to plan a response to the Boston Foundation.

- BU Occupies: 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM, group will meet at Marsh Plaza at 11:00 AM and conduct a mobile speak-out starting from the BU campus continuing to Copley Square.
- 7:00 PM, 3 December 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 70

2 December 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Events Scheduled for Today, Friday, 2 December 2011ⁱ

- Multiple classes and meetings are scheduled to take place on Friday, 2 December 2011. No marches are scheduled at this time.

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 3 December 2011ⁱⁱ

- Day of Action Scheduled for 3 December 2011: Throughout the month of November, Occupy Boston has been tweeting and planning for a day of action to take place on 3 December 2011. According to Occupy Boston’s GA minutes from Saturday, 26 November 2011, from 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM there will be separate actions / rallies / protests with different community groups through the city. Then from 1:00 PM – 4:00 PM they will all join for a rally at Copley Square. An event page is encouraging anyone to participate and create an action or join an existing plan.ⁱⁱⁱ A search of a Google spreadsheet located on an open source page for the event Saturday and other open source materials contained the following already planned actions. Many groups will be conducting their own separate actions in association with Occupy Boston and then will be either marching to, or meeting at Copley Square for a 1:00 PM rally. Please note this information is uncorroborated and from open source materials; the below listed actions / events are not definite and others may occur throughout the city as well.

The number of individuals participating in each event cannot be determined at this time.^{iv}

- Occupy Harvard: Meet at 11:45 AM at the John Harvard Statue to then go to Copley Square for the 1:00 PM rally. They will be meeting other students at the Park St. and will be marching to Copley.^v
 - Occupy Somerville: 11:30 AM, Occupy Somerville will be joining Tufts Occupiers to support the Day of Unity / Day of Action. The group has two meeting locations: Davis Square at 11:30 AM where individuals will be shuttled to Harvard Square to ride the T to Park St. The other option is to meet at Park St. at 1:00 PM to march with the group to Copley Square.^{vi}
 - Students Occupy Boston March and Rally: 11:30 AM – 1:00 PM, an event has been created through the Students Occupy Boston Facebook page to bring all students together to march to Copley Square. The proposed location to meet and have a rally is at the Huntington Ave. YMCA near Northeastern University; they will then march to Copley Square. The groups will convene between 11:30 AM and 12:00 PM and then will march at 12:30 PM.^{vii}
 - Occupy the Farm: 11:00 AM – 12:30 PM, individuals will meet at Harvest Coop in Central Square, Cambridge at 11:00 AM. They will go from Central Square to Kendall Square.
 - Women's Caucus Public Meeting: 11:00 AM – 12:30 PM, group will meet at Copley Square at 11:00 AM and hold a public meeting to prepare for the Women's March on Sunday, 4 December 2011.
 - Berklee Occupies Boston: 11:30 AM – 12:30 PM, TBA meeting place, potentially the JP Licks at 352 Newbury St. This event will be a pre-rally concert before the group proceeds to Copley Square.
 - Ocupemos el Barrio: 10:00 AM – 11:00 AM at Maverick St. and Rosendale. Group will meet at the JFK Federal Building at 11:30 AM. They will be canvassing to raise awareness about deportation. They will then be "demonstrating" in front of ICE at the JFK building at 11:30 AM to march to Copley.
- Analyst Notes: From 11:30 AM – 12:30 PM, an event titled Occupy ICE – Ocupa la Migra will occur at the JFK Federal Building. This event is posted on Occupy the Hoods' calendar^{viii} and is on a Facebook page for Ocupemos el Barrio.^{ix} The group will be going to protest deportations and anti-immigration laws. These two actions are likely the same event. According to an article in the Jamaica Plain Gazette, Occupy JP will be joining this protest / march.^x
- Emerson College Students & Second Line Band: 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM possibly at the Boston Common. They will be making stilts, blowing bubbles and passing out materials on city life's anti-foreclosure actions.
 - Canvassing Around Boston: 10:00 AM – 12:30 PM, small groups will travel "everywhere" to high foot traffic areas in Boston to talk to people about the Occupy movement. Group will be meeting at Dewey Square at 9:00 AM.
 - Occupy Small Business: 9:00 AM – 12:00 PM, group will be meeting at the Eastern Service Workers Association at 247 Bowdoin St. in Dorchester. At 9:00 AM new volunteers will meet for orientation then at 9:30 AM they will begin canvassing about supporting small businesses.

- Occupy Boston Copley Marriot: 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM, group will meet outside the Copley Marriot at 110 Huntington Ave. at 10:45 AM and will be demonstrating at the hotel in protest of the Marriot hiring Baystate Services Inc. to perform the renovation. The group will then march to Copley Square to meet the other activists for the 1:00 PM rally.

Analyst Notes: The group is likely the construction workers who have protested at this location in the past; however, a specific group is not noted on the spreadsheet.

- Climate Justice Speak Out: 11:00 AM – 12:30 PM, group will be meeting at the grassy area near the Park St. T stop and will be at the Boston Common on the opposite end from the Emerson students. Group will be holding a speak-out on the ways in which fossil fuel companies have built their businesses by destroying local communities and infrastructures. This is being organized by the OB Climate Justice Working Group.
- Occupy Somerville: 11:30 AM, group will meet at Davis T stop at 11:30 AM and take the bus to Harvard and then the T to Park St. (NFI on this event or what actions the group will be engaging in).
- Health Care Justice: 10:00 AM -12:00 PM, group will meet at Coolidge Corner at the Trader Joe's. NFI.
- In the Students Occupy Boston Google group page, one student proposed to plan a student loan die-in for Saturday in a public area, they suggested: Faneuil Hall, Park St. Station, inside the Prudential; with trash bags full of newspaper and labeled with dollar signs. The suggested plan is to have a group of students lie on the ground "being crushed" by the bags and a group standing handing out literature.^{xi}
- Old-Time Soap Box: 10:00 AM – 12:30 PM, educators and speakers are asked to choose a street corner and step-up to the soap box (with or without an actual soap box) and say your peace; "step-up, shout-out, and jump-in".
- ESWA: 9:30 AM – 12:30 PM, at 247 Bowdoin St.; join teams of volunteers canvassing door to door in low-income neighborhoods, uniting the poorest of the 99% in an organization. Training will be provided by experienced volunteer organizers.
- Roxbury & Bunker Hill Community Colleges: unk time; a meeting to bring together students, faculty and staff of the two colleges to plan a response to the Boston Foundation.
- BU Occupies: 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM, group will meet at Marsh Plaza at 11:00 AM and conduct a mobile speak-out starting from the BU campus continuing to Copley Square.
- 7:00 PM, 3 December 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)
- It was tweeted and hash tagged #occupyboston to go to Biddy Early's after the GA on Saturday, 3 December 2011.

Events Scheduled for Sunday, 4 December 2011^{xii}

- 12:00 – 2:00 PM, 4 December 2011: Occupy Boston Women's March. The Women's Caucus at OB will be joined by local organizations representing women, people of color and other marginalized voices in a march starting and ending at Dewey Square. Live music and "spoken word" will follow the march at the OB General Assembly area in Dewey Square. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: This march has been discussed and advertised for the past few weeks. The BRIC has no information on the route of this march at this time.

- 1:00 PM, 3 December 2011: Occupy JP will hold a march called "The Economic Hard Times Tour of JP" that will start in Monument Square at 1:00 PM. A spokesman from Occupy JP told the Jamaica Plain Gazette that the march would remain on Centre St. but did not comment on how far or how long the march will last.

Analyst Notes: The information regarding this march was retrieved from an article in The Jamaica Plain Gazette.^{xiii} This march cannot be confirmed at this time.

- 3:00 PM, 4 December 2011: Civil Disobedience Training. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: This was tweeted by Occupy Boston's Direct Action group.

- 7:00 PM, 4 December 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Monday, 5 December 2011^{xiv}

- 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 5 December 2011: Occupy Boston Social at Encuentro 5, 33 Harrison Ave. Open Media Boston and Mass Global Action, and the sponsors of Encuentro 5 will be having a social in honor and celebration of Occupy Boston. (Occupy Boston)

- Multiple classes and meetings are scheduled to take place on Friday, 2 December 2011. No marches are scheduled at this time.

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 3 December 2011ⁱⁱ

- Day of Action Scheduled for 3 December 2011: Throughout the month of November, Occupy Boston has been tweeting and planning for a day of action to take place on 3 December 2011. According to Occupy Boston’s GA minutes from Saturday, 26 November 2011, from 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM there will be separate actions / rallies / protests with different community groups through the city. Then from 1:00 PM – 4:00 PM they will all join for a rally at Copley Square. An event page is encouraging anyone to participate and create an action or join an existing plan.ⁱⁱⁱ A search of a Google spreadsheet located on an open source page for the event Saturday and other open source materials contained the following already planned actions. Many groups will be conducting their own separate actions in association with Occupy Boston and then will be either marching to, or meeting at Copley Square for a 1:00 PM rally. Please note this information is uncorroborated and from open source materials; the below listed actions / events are not definite and others may occur throughout the city as well.

The number of individuals participating in each event cannot be determined at this time.^{iv}

- Occupy Harvard: Meet at 11:45 AM at the John Harvard Statue to then go to Copley Square for the 1:00 PM rally. They will be meeting other students at the Park St. and will be marching to Copley.^v
 - Occupy Somerville: 11:30 AM, Occupy Somerville will be joining Tufts Occupiers to support the Day of Unity / Day of Action. The group has two meeting locations: Davis Square at 11:30 AM where individuals will be shuttled to Harvard Square to ride the T to Park St. The other option is to meet at Park St. at 1:00 PM to march with the group to Copley Square.^{vi}
 - Students Occupy Boston March and Rally: 11:30 AM – 1:00 PM, an event has been created through the Students Occupy Boston Facebook page to bring all students together to march to Copley Square. The proposed location to meet and have a rally is at the Huntington Ave. YMCA near Northeastern University; they will then march to Copley Square. The groups will convene between 11:30 AM and 12:00 PM and then will march at 12:30 PM.^{vii}
 - Occupy the Farm: 11:00 AM – 12:30 PM, individuals will meet at Harvest Coop in Central Square, Cambridge at 11:00 AM. They will go from Central Square to Kendall Square.
 - Women's Caucus Public Meeting: 11:00 AM – 12:30 PM, group will meet at Copley Square at 11:00 AM and hold a public meeting to prepare for the Women's March on Sunday, 4 December 2011.
 - Berklee Occupies Boston: 11:30 AM – 12:30 PM, TBA meeting place, potentially the JP Licks at 352 Newbury St. This event will be a pre-rally concert before the group proceeds to Copley Square.
 - Ocupemos el Barrio: 10:00 AM – 11:00 AM at Maverick St. and Rosandale. Group will meet at the JFK Federal Building at 11:30 AM. They will be canvassing to raise awareness about deportation. They will then be "demonstrating" in front of ICE at the JFK building at 11:30 AM to march to Copley.
- Analyst Notes: From 11:30 AM – 12:30 PM, an event titled Occupy ICE – Ocupa la Migra will occur at the JFK Federal Building. This event is posted on Occupy the Hoods' calendar^{viii} and is on a Facebook page for Ocupemos el Barrio.^{ix} The group will be going to protest deportations and anti-immigration laws. These two actions are likely the same event. According to an article in the Jamaica Plain Gazette, Occupy JP will be joining this protest / march.^x
- Emerson College Students & Second Line Band: 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM possibly at the Boston Common. They will be making stilts, blowing bubbles and passing out materials on city life's anti-foreclosure actions.
 - Canvassing Around Boston: 10:00 AM – 12:30 PM, small groups will travel "everywhere" to high foot traffic areas in Boston to talk to people about the Occupy movement. Group will be meeting at Dewey Square at 9:00 AM.
 - Occupy Small Business: 9:00 AM – 12:00 PM, group will be meeting at the Eastern Service Workers Association at 247 Bowdoin St. in Dorchester. At 9:00 AM new volunteers will meet for orientation then at 9:30 AM they will begin canvassing about supporting small businesses.

- Occupy Boston Copley Marriot: 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM, group will meet outside the Copley Marriot at 110 Huntington Ave. at 10:45 AM and will be demonstrating at the hotel in protest of the Marriot hiring Baystate Services Inc. to perform the renovation. The group will then march to Copley Square to meet the other activists for the 1:00 PM rally.

Analyst Notes: The group is likely the construction workers who have protested at this location in the past; however, a specific group is not noted on the spreadsheet.

- Climate Justice Speak Out: 11:00 AM – 12:30 PM, group will be meeting at the grassy area near the Park St. T stop and will be at the Boston Common on the opposite end from the Emerson students. Group will be holding a speak-out on the ways in which fossil fuel companies have built their businesses by destroying local communities and infrastructures. This is being organized by the OB Climate Justice Working Group.
- Occupy Somerville: 11:30 AM, group will meet at Davis T stop at 11:30 AM and take the bus to Harvard and then the T to Park St. (NFI on this event or what actions the group will be engaging in).
- Health Care Justice: 10:00 AM -12:00 PM, group will meet at Coolidge Corner at the Trader Joe's. NFI.
- In the Students Occupy Boston Google group page, one student proposed to plan a student loan die-in for Saturday in a public area, they suggested: Faneuil Hall, Park St. Station, inside the Prudential; with trash bags full of newspaper and labeled with dollar signs. The suggested plan is to have a group of students lie on the ground "being crushed" by the bags and a group standing handing out literature.^{xi}
- Old-Time Soap Box: 10:00 AM – 12:30 PM, educators and speakers are asked to choose a street corner and step-up to the soap box (with or without an actual soap box) and say your peace; "step-up, shout-out, and jump-in".
- ESWA: 9:30 AM – 12:30 PM, at 247 Bowdoin St.; join teams of volunteers canvassing door to door in low-income neighborhoods, uniting the poorest of the 99% in an organization. Training will be provided by experienced volunteer organizers.
- Roxbury & Bunker Hill Community Colleges: unk time; a meeting to bring together students, faculty and staff of the two colleges to plan a response to the Boston Foundation.
- BU Occupies: 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM, group will meet at Marsh Plaza at 11:00 AM and conduct a mobile speak-out starting from the BU campus continuing to Copley Square.
- 7:00 PM, 3 December 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)
- It was tweeted and hash tagged #occupyboston to go to Biddy Early's after the GA on Saturday, 3 December 2011.

Events Scheduled for Sunday, 4 December 2011^{xii}

- 12:00 – 2:00 PM, 4 December 2011: Occupy Boston Women's March. The Women's Caucus at OB will be joined by local organizations representing women, people of color and other marginalized voices in a march starting and ending at Dewey Square. Live music and "spoken word" will follow the march at the OB General Assembly area in Dewey Square. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: This march has been discussed and advertised for the past few weeks. The BRIC has no information on the route of this march at this time.

- 1:00 PM, 3 December 2011: Occupy JP will hold a march called "The Economic Hard Times Tour of JP" that will start in Monument Square at 1:00 PM. A spokesman from Occupy JP told the Jamaica Plain Gazette that the march would remain on Centre St. but did not comment on how far or how long the march will last.

Analyst Notes: The information regarding this march was retrieved from an article in The Jamaica Plain Gazette.^{xiii} This march cannot be confirmed at this time.

- 3:00 PM, 4 December 2011: Civil Disobedience Training. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: This was tweeted by Occupy Boston's Direct Action group.

- 7:00 PM, 4 December 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Monday, 5 December 2011^{xiv}

- 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 5 December 2011: Occupy Boston Social at Encuentro 5, 33 Harrison Ave. Open Media Boston and Mass Global Action, and the sponsors of Encuentro 5 will be having a social in honor and celebration of Occupy Boston. (Occupy Boston)

Situational Awareness
“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 71
5 December 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston's calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB's plans to participate in these marches.

Events Scheduled for Today, Monday, 5 December 2011ⁱ

- 5-9 December 2011: Take Back the Capitol begins today. Mass Uniting organized a group to go to Washington, DC for “days of action” 6-8 December and returning on the 9th. The group departed from the Bayside Expo Center at 150 Mt. Vernon St. in Dorchester at 8:00 AM.
- 12:00 PM, 5 December 2011: The Occupy Boston Health and Safety Improvement Festival. OB planned to celebrate the arrival of a fireproof, winterized tent in order to increase the health and safety of the camp. All city officials, the BPD, the Rose Kennedy Greenway Conservation, the Boston Fire Dept., and the Health Dept. amongst others were specially invited and welcome to come. (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: BPD did not allow the tent to enter the encampment; at that time OB had the tent picked up and taken off site. No incidents to report.
- 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 5 December 2011: Occupy Boston Social at Encuentro 5, 33 Harrison Ave. Open Media Boston and Mass Global Action, and the sponsors of Encuentro 5 will be having a social in honor and celebration of Occupy Boston. (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Tuesday, 6 December 2011ⁱⁱ

- 9:00 AM, 6 December 2011: Pre-Trial Hearing for Shaun Joseph at BMC, 24 New Chardon St.

Analyst Notes: On 26 September 2011, during a protest at a Donald Rumsfeld appearance, Joseph was arrested and charged with A&B on a PO and Resisting Arrest. Supporters are asking people to go to the pre-trial hearing to show support for Joseph. This is advertised on BostonSocialism.org.ⁱⁱⁱ

This has not been posted on OB's calendar of events and the BRIC has not seen any OB chatter on publically available open sources relative to this event; however, this event is posted on United Justice for Peace's website. It should be noted that OB and UJP have joined forces in support of one another's actions in the past.

- All day, 6 December 2011: National Day of Action to Stop (and Reverse) Foreclosures. It appears this event is being initiated by OWS and they are asking other occupations to join in solidarity. There is no information on OB's plan of action for this day. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: In past anti-foreclosure acts by Occupy Boston, a small number of supporters have traveled to Malden and joined with Urban Life to protest foreclosures. At this time the BRIC has no information about what OB may engage in on this day.

- 7:00 PM, 6 December 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Wednesday, 7 December 2011^{iv}

- Multiple classes, meetings and lectures are scheduled to take place on Wednesday, 7 December 2011. No marches scheduled at this time.
- 12:30 PM, 7 December 2011: Occupy Boston City Hall Against Secure Communities. This event is posted on United for Justice with Peace's website and states that "Centro Presente and the Immigration Working Group at Occupy Boston are calling for an URGENT ACTION". The focus of this action is to educate the community against the Secure Communities initiative.^v

Analyst Notes: This event is not posted on OB's calendar despite it being stated that the Immigration working group is, in part, organizing this action on UJP's website. It should be noted that Ocupemos el Barrio drew 60-70 supporters to their anti-immigration laws protest at the JFK building on Saturday, 3 December 2011; however, their participation in this event is unknown at this time.

- 3:30 PM – 7:30 PM, 7 December 2011: Occupy Harvard Teach-in at Science Center Hall D.^{vi}

Analyst Notes: This event is free and open to the public and consists of multiple speakers.

- 7:00 PM, 7 December 2011: Encuentro 5 Turns 5 Commemorative Dinner.^{vii}

Analyst Notes: This event is posted on UJP's website; this event is not on Occupy Boston's calendar.

- 9:00 PM, 7 December 2011: Emergency Student General Assembly at Dewey Square.

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- On Saturday, 3 December 2011, at approximately 10:30 AM, a group of 20 individuals marched from Dewey Square camp and then split into two groups. One went to the Bank of America on 557 Tremont St. where a marcher attempted to close her bank account. The bank refused to meet with her and reportedly told the individual that she needs an appointment to do so. This caused some Twitter chatter regarding bank rules; the group dispersed from there.
- Many of the smaller events planned for the Day of Unity / Day of Action for Saturday, 3 December 2011 did not materialize into anything significant. The rally at Copley Square drew 150 – 200 people.
- On Sunday, 4 December 2011, the Women's March stepped off around 12:30 PM with 200+ marchers. By 2:00 PM the group had returned to Dewey Square.

General Notes Regarding the Occupy Movement

- On Sunday, 4 December 2011, police arrested 31 protestors in Washington DC's McPherson Square after a day-long standoff between police and protestors when protestors defied police orders to dismantle a 15 foot wood shelter.^{viii}

Analyst Notes: The events in DC were gained significant Twitter chatter amongst OB individuals calling for solidarity with DC. No solidarity march took place; however, it should be noted that OB has conducted solidarity marches with other cities that faced police action.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 72

6 December 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Events Scheduled for Today, Tuesday, 6 December 2011ⁱ

- All day, 6 December 2011: National Day of Action to Stop (and Reverse) Foreclosures. It appears this event is being initiated by OWS and they are asking other occupations to join in solidarity. There is no information on OB’s plan of action for this day. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: In past anti-foreclosure acts by Occupy Boston, a small number of supporters have traveled to Malden and joined with Urban Life to protest foreclosures. At this time the BRIC has no information about what OB may engage in on this day. As of 2:30 PM today, OB has not conducted any significant actions relative to this event.

- 7:00 PM, 6 December 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Wednesday, 7 December 2011ⁱⁱ

- Multiple classes, meetings and lectures are scheduled to take place on Wednesday, 7 December 2011. No marches scheduled at this time.
- 12:30 PM, 7 December 2011: Occupy Boston City Hall Against Secure Communities. This event is posted on United for Justice with Peace’s website and states that “Centro Presente and the Immigration Working Group at Occupy Boston are calling for an URGENT ACTION". The focus of this action is to educate the community against the Secure Communities initiative.ⁱⁱⁱ Analyst Notes: This event has now been added to OB's calendar; however, participation by OB is unknown at this time.

It should be noted that Ocupemos el Barrio drew 60-70 supporters to their anti-immigration laws protest at the JFK building on Saturday, 3 December 2011; however, their participation in this event is unknown at this time.

- 3:30 PM – 7:30 PM, 7 December 2011: Occupy Harvard Teach-in at Science Center Hall D.^{iv}

Analyst Notes: This event is free and open to the public and consists of multiple speakers. This event has received moderate Twitter chatter advertising and encouraging people to attend.

- 7:00 PM, 7 December 2011: Encuentro 5 Turns 5 Commemorative Dinner.^v

Analyst Notes: This event is posted on UJP's website; this event is not on Occupy Boston's calendar.

- 9:00 PM, 7 December 2011: Student General Assembly at Dewey Square

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 8 December 2011^{vi}

- 10:00 AM – 4:00 PM, 8 December 2011: Non-Violent Direct Action Basics with Starhawk. This training will take place at the Community Church at 565 Boylston St. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: This event is also posted on the Rule19.org calendar.^{vii} This training will be facilitated by members of the New England Trainers Network, Alliance of Community Trainers and the Health Justice Working Group at OB.^{viii}

- 7:00 PM, 8 December 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- Nothing Significant to Report

General Notes Regarding the Occupy Movement

- There will be a "Philly+ Regional Gathering" for northeast occupy movements on 10 December 2011 in Philadelphia, PA at the Friends Center.^{ix}

Analyst Notes: This was re-tweeted by Occupy Boston's main Twitter account; however, there has been no further talk of this meeting on publically available open sources, and it is unknown if any OB members will attend.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 73

7 December 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

- Unk Time, 10 December 2011: Occupy Somerville Protest. An Occupy Somerville group will rally in Statue Park and then march down Highland Ave. to the Bank of America and attempt to close their accounts. ^{vii}
- Analyst Notes: This event information is from an article in the Wicked Local Somerville online newspaper. The article reports that the group has no intention of erecting tents or camping anywhere in Somerville. The BRIC has not seen any OB chatter relative to this event; however it should be noted that last weekend a small group of OB supporters marched to a Bank of America in Boston where one participant attempted to close her account but was turn away by the bank, who told her she must set up an appointment to do so.
- 4:00 PM, 10 December 2011: Students Occupy Boston General Assembly at Dewey Square
 - 5:00 PM, 10 December 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- Nothing Significant to Report

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- On 7 December 2011, Judge McIntyre ruled in favor of the city in the hearing between the city and Occupy Boston. The ruling lifted the temporary restraining order on the city and the police. The lawyers for Occupy Boston have announced they will appeal the decision today and seek an extension on the restraining order.
- On 8 December 2011, Mayor Menino issued a deadline of midnight tonight for Occupy Boston to clear the site at Dewey Square.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 74

8 December 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Given today’s events regarding the city’s midnight deadline given to Occupy Boston, any and all events and notes posted below are subject to change. The BRIC will continue to update with any significant actions. Please note that all of the events below were planed prior to the deadline given unless otherwise noted.

Events Scheduled for Today, Thursday, 8 December 2011ⁱ

- 10:00 AM – 4:00 PM, 8 December 2011: Non-Violent Direct Action Basics with Starhawk. This training will take place at the Community Church at 565 Boylston St. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: This event is also posted on the Rule19.org calendar.ⁱⁱ This training will be facilitated by members of the New England Trainers Network, Alliance of Community Trainers and the Health Justice Working Group at OB.ⁱⁱⁱ

- 5:30 PM – 7:30 PM, 8 December 2011: Black People for Better Schools: Town Hall Meeting at Codman Square Library. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: This event is posted on OB’s calendar; however, there has been no chatter to indicate their intention to attend.

- 6:30 PM, 8 December 2011: Two part Civil Disobedience Training, the first part will take place at 6:30 PM and the 2nd part will take place after the 7:00 PM GA. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: Please be advised that this training was planned today upon news of the midnight deadline to leave Dewey Square.

- 7:00 PM, 8 December 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)
- 7:00 PM, 8 December 2011: From Global Revolt to Revolution: How do we get from here to there? A public forum hosted by the Boston International Socialist Organization at Cambridge YWCA, 7 Temple St. Central Square. ^{iv}

Analyst Notes: This is posted on BostonSocialism.org; the BRIC has not seen any Twitter chatter from OB or OH relative to this event.

- 12:00 AM, 8 December 2011: Midnight Dance Party at Dewey Square. (Occupy Boston)
- Analyst Notes: This was tweeted throughout the day today, no further information on what this event will entail.

Please note that this is uncorroborated open source information.

Analyst Notes: Please be advised that this dance party was planned today upon news of the midnight deadline to leave Dewey Square.

Events Scheduled for Friday, 9 December 2011 ^v

- Multiple classes, meetings and lectures are scheduled to take place on Friday, 9 December 2011. No marches scheduled at this time.

Analyst Notes: The Dorchester People for Peace announced they will be honoring OB and the Veterans for Peace this year at their holiday party. This event has been added to OB's calendar.

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- Occupy Boston held a GA last night at 7:00 PM, the crowd continued to grow significantly throughout the night; by around midnight there were approximately 1,000 OB supporters in and around Dewey Square. The group voted against having a dance party at midnight during the GA; however, musicians from Cambridge's Second Line Social Aid and Pleasure Society Brass Band were present marching around and playing music.
- Around 12:30 AM, the crowds had moved into Atlantic Ave. and were blocking all lanes of traffic until approximately 4:00 AM. The group moved 4-5 of tents into the middle of Atlantic Ave. which resulted in two arrests (see above incidents for more details).

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- There were multiple tweets around 2:30 PM today of a rumor that Dewey Square was currently being raided by police.
- Occupy Boston drew a large crowd last night; an estimated 1,000 people were at Dewey Square by about midnight.

Analyst Notes: It should be noted that OB and supporters are continue to reach out and request supporters come to Dewey Square tonight and this weekend. It is possible that the next several nights will draw a similar crowd.

- The police announced at approximately 1:00 AM on 9 December 2011 that they would not be moving in to evict protestors in Dewey Square.
- According to video streams from last night, many people are back in Boston from DC where they traveled on Monday for the week. The date of return was not scheduled until today, Friday 9 December 2011. However, given the deadline given to OB yesterday, many people took buses back from DC yesterday.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 76

12 December 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Given the recent events and eviction of Occupy Boston from Dewey Square, any and all events and notes posted below are subject to change.

Events Scheduled for Monday, 12 December 2011ⁱ

- 4:00 PM, 12 December 2011: Rally / Speak out at Government Center. Between 5:00 PM and 6:00 PM the group plans to march to City Hall, through the Financial District, past Dewey Square and possibly back to Boston Common (Occupy Boston)
- 5:30 PM, 12 December 2011: Silent Protest in front of South Station. OB protestors plan to hold signs in front of South Station that state “you can’t evict an idea”. (Occupy Boston)
- 6:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 12 December 2011: Dorchester People for Peace Holiday Party Honoring Occupy Boston and Veterans for Peace. This party will take place at the Vietnamese American Community Center at 42 Charles St. in Dorchester. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: This was announced at OB’s GA last night.

Analyst Notes: The Dorchester People for Peace announced they will be honoring OB and the Veterans for Peace this year at their holiday party. This event has been added to OB’s calendar; however it is unknown if they will attend.

Events Scheduled for Tuesday, 13 December 2011ⁱⁱ

- 9:00 AM, 13 December 2011: Arraignment at BMC. for Occupy Boston protestors who were arrested on 10 December 2011.
Analyst Notes: There has been a call for solidarity for this hearing; Occupy Boston is asking for supporters to go to the courthouse to show solidarity and support for those who were arrested.
- 5:50 PM, 13 December 2011: Labor Solidarity Meeting at E5.
Analyst Notes: This was announced at the GA on Saturday night.
- 6:30 PM, 13 December 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: According to their GA last night, the group will be holding future GA's at St. Paul's Cathedral at 138 Tremont St.

Events Scheduled for Wednesday, 14 December 2011ⁱⁱⁱ

- No significant events scheduled for Wednesday, 14 December 2011 at this time.

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 15 December 2011^{iv}

- 12:15 PM – 1:30 PM, 15 December 2011: NDAA Working Group Action for Bill of Right's Day. Meeting at 12:15 PM at Dewey Square for a march, unknown route.
Analyst Notes: This was announced at the GA on Sunday night. This event is also posted on UJP's website and states that they will meet at Dewey Square at 12:15 PM and march at 12:30 PM to the JFK Federal Building and then have a rally / speak out at 1:00 PM. This event is not yet on OB's calendar, their plan on participation is unknown at this time.
NDAA stands for the National Defense Authorization Act; a 2012 bill, that if passed, has language in it stating that the President and military have full authority to arrest, indefinitely detain and interrogate anyone involved with Al-Qaeda, the Taliban, or anyone associated with a terrorist organized.^v
- 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 15 December 2011: Occupy Allston First General Assembly. Location is TBD currently; on the Facebook page^{vi vii} they are looking for suggestions of an indoor meeting space they could use. The BRIC will continue to assess publically available open sources and provide updates to this event and where it will be held as necessary.

Occupy Boston Related Incidents

- At approximately 5:00 AM on Saturday, 10 December 2011, Boston Police moved in on Dewey Square protestors and removed campers from the Greenway. At the time of the raid there were about 80-100 people on site. Most protestors left the camp without incident; however, some protestors locked arms inside the camp and were subsequently arrested. In total, 47 individuals were arrested, 33 males and 14 females.

General Notes Regarding the Occupy Movement

#D12 on the West Coast – Shutting down of Ports:

- Several hundred protestors began picketing at the Port of Oakland in the early morning hours today, blocking some trucks from entering. ^{viii}
- In Long Beach, CA, approximately 400 demonstrators gathered with the intention to march on the Port of Long Beach, specifically a dock owned by the SSA Marine; which Goldman Sachs owns a major stake in. However, officers prevented any disruption to this port. ^{ix}
- In Portland, Oregon, police confronted at least 200 protestors who attempted to disrupt traffic outside a terminal. Officers permitted protestors to march to the terminal entrance, and the port stated two of its four terminals were closed for the day due to security reasons. ^x

Analyst Notes: The BRIC has no information to indicate any similar actions are planned in the Boston area by Occupy Boston or other activist groups.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 76

12 December 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Given the recent events and eviction of Occupy Boston from Dewey Square, any and all events and notes posted below are subject to change.

Events Scheduled for Monday, 12 December 2011ⁱ

- 4:00 PM, 12 December 2011: Rally / Speak out at Government Center. Between 5:00 PM and 6:00 PM the group plans to march to City Hall, through the Financial District, past Dewey Square and possibly back to Boston Common (Occupy Boston)
- 5:30 PM, 12 December 2011: Silent Protest in front of South Station. OB protestors plan to hold signs in front of South Station that state “you can’t evict an idea”. (Occupy Boston)
- 6:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 12 December 2011: Dorchester People for Peace Holiday Party Honoring Occupy Boston and Veterans for Peace. This party will take place at the Vietnamese American Community Center at 42 Charles St. in Dorchester. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: This was announced at OB’s GA last night.

Analyst Notes: The Dorchester People for Peace announced they will be honoring OB and the Veterans for Peace this year at their holiday party. This event has been added to OB’s calendar; however it is unknown if they will attend.

Events Scheduled for Tuesday, 13 December 2011ⁱⁱ

- 9:00 AM, 13 December 2011: Arraignment at BMC. for Occupy Boston protestors who were arrested on 10 December 2011.
Analyst Notes: There has been a call for solidarity for this hearing; Occupy Boston is asking for supporters to go to the courthouse to show solidarity and support for those who were arrested.
- 5:50 PM, 13 December 2011: Labor Solidarity Meeting at E5.
Analyst Notes: This was announced at the GA on Saturday night.
- 6:30 PM, 13 December 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: According to their GA last night, the group will be holding future GA's at St. Paul's Cathedral at 138 Tremont St.

Events Scheduled for Wednesday, 14 December 2011ⁱⁱⁱ

- No significant events scheduled for Wednesday, 14 December 2011 at this time.

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 15 December 2011^{iv}

- 12:15 PM – 1:30 PM, 15 December 2011: NDAA Working Group Action for Bill of Right's Day. Meeting at 12:15 PM at Dewey Square for a march, unknown route.
Analyst Notes: This was announced at the GA on Sunday night. This event is also posted on UJP's website and states that they will meet at Dewey Square at 12:15 PM and march at 12:30 PM to the JFK Federal Building and then have a rally / speak out at 1:00 PM. This event is not yet on OB's calendar, their plan on participation is unknown at this time.
NDAA stands for the National Defense Authorization Act; a 2012 bill, that if passed, has language in it stating that the President and military have full authority to arrest, indefinitely detain and interrogate anyone involved with Al-Qaeda, the Taliban, or anyone associated with a terrorist organized.^v
- 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 15 December 2011: Occupy Allston First General Assembly. Location is TBD currently; on the Facebook page^{vi} ^{vii} they are looking for suggestions of an indoor meeting space they could use. The BRIC will continue to assess publically available open sources and provide updates to this event and where it will be held as necessary.

Occupy Boston Related Incidents

- At approximately 5:00 AM on Saturday, 10 December 2011, Boston Police moved in on Dewey Square protestors and removed campers from the Greenway. At the time of the raid there were about 80-100 people on site. Most protestors left the camp without incident; however, some protestors locked arms inside the camp and were subsequently arrested. In total, 47 individuals were arrested, 33 males and 14 females.

General Notes Regarding the Occupy Movement

#D12 on the West Coast – Shutting down of Ports:

- Several hundred protestors began picketing at the Port of Oakland in the early morning hours today, blocking some trucks from entering. ^{viii}
- In Long Beach, CA, approximately 400 demonstrators gathered with the intention to march on the Port of Long Beach, specifically a dock owned by the SSA Marine; which Goldman Sachs owns a major stake in. However, officers prevented any disruption to this port. ^{ix}
- In Portland, Oregon, police confronted at least 200 protestors who attempted to disrupt traffic outside a terminal. Officers permitted protestors to march to the terminal entrance, and the port stated two of its four terminals were closed for the day due to security reasons. ^x

Analyst Notes: The BRIC has no information to indicate any similar actions are planned in the Boston area by Occupy Boston or other activist groups.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Given the recent events and eviction of Occupy Boston from Dewey Square, any and all events and notes posted below are subject to change.

Events Scheduled for Wednesday, 14 December 2011ⁱ

- 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM: OWS Forum on Jobs for ALL: OWS Proposed Demand (Occupy Boston FSU) at Encuentro 5.

Analyst Notes: This item has been placed on the main OB calendar and appears to be a part of OB’s Free School University (FSU). At this time it appears that this will be a lecture / discussion and will not involve any demonstrations and / or marches.

- 8:00 PM: Symphony Hall, “A Company Christmas at Pops” Fundraiser event
Analyst Notes: This is an annual fundraiser by the Boston Pops in which executives from several companies attend. This event was discussed at the OB GA on 13 December 2011 and organizers asked for demonstrators to show up and hold signs. This event has received moderate attention on Twitter.

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 15 December 2011ⁱⁱ

- 12:15 PM – 1:30 PM: All Out March Against Indefinite Detention (aka Bill of Rights Day).ⁱⁱⁱ Meeting at 12:15 PM at Dewey Square and march to JFK Federal Building at 12:30 PM with a 1:00 PM rally and “Speak out”.

Analyst Notes: This event is being co-sponsored by several local activist groups such as ACLU of Massachusetts, Amnesty International, National Lawyers Guild, the National Police Accountability Project, United for Justice with Peace and the Occupy Boston Action for Peace Working Group. Further, this event was announced at the OB GA on Sunday night. This event was discussed at the OB GA on 13 December 2011 and has been advertised widely throughout local activist group networks. Further, media coverage of this bill being voted on in congress this week has been extensive, which could draw more supporters for the protest. Also note that at the GA on 13 December 2011 OB discussed meeting at Boston Common at 11:45 AM and then marching to Dewey Square at 12:00 PM; however, it is unknown whether this indicates that all of the groups will meet at the common first.

This event is geared towards protesting the NDAA, which stands for the National Defense Authorization Act; a 2012 bill, that if passed, has language in it stating that the President and military have full authority to arrest, indefinitely detain and interrogate anyone involved with Al-Qaeda, the Taliban, or anyone associated with a terrorist organized.^{iv}

- 6:30 PM – 9:00 PM: Occupy Allston-Brighton First General Assembly, Jackson-Mann School

Analyst Notes: It appears that this group has changed its Facebook page from Occupy Allston to Occupy Allston-Brighton^v. Please note that the Facebook event page lists 85 individuals attending with 19 listed as maybe.

Events Scheduled for Friday, 16 December 2011^{vi}

- 5:00 PM, Starbucks (1 Financial Center, A1), Picket in Support of Starbucks Union Organizer Liberte Locke (IWW)

Analyst Note: This event is being advertised by local activist groups; however, it has not received any attention on Twitter from OB as of 14 December 2011.

- 8:15 AM, BMC (A1), Court hearing for OB arrests on 11 October 2011.

Analyst Notes: OB discussed this event at their GA on 13 December 2011 and plans on holding a press conference at the courthouse. Additionally, they asked for supporters at the courthouse to show solidarity.

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 17 December 2011^{vii}

- 12:00 PM, D17 and Tea Party Day of Action
 - 12:00 PM – 2:00 PM: march (unknown location – but likely to start at Boston Common and include Dewey Square)
 - 2:00 PM – 4:00 PM: Picnic at Boston Common Gazebo
 - 4:00 PM – Boston Tea Party Direct Action

Analyst Note: This day of action is intended to celebrate D17, which is the 3 month anniversary of the beginning of Occupy Wall Street as well as the anniversary of the Boston Tea Party. The theme of the 12:00 PM march “is to sarcastically invoke the ideas and thoughts that OB are fighting against.”^{viii} The group mentions on their Facebook page for the event that there will be a “massive direct action at Dewey Square”, however, the BRIC does not have any further details. Further, the

BRIC has received uncorroborated information that the Tea Party direct action may include demonstrators throwing items into the harbor, such as little pieces of green paper.

Regional Occupy Events

Occupy Somerville

- 7:00 PM, 14 December 2011: Occupy Somerville GA meeting at Statue Park in Somerville.

Analyst Notes: The organizer of this event is attempting to find an indoors location to hold this meeting due to the weather. Additionally, the organizer expects at least a half of the 75 people that attended last week's GA to be present. The BRIC will provide updates as more information becomes available. Please note that on 10 December 2011, Occupy Somerville held a rally at the BOA branch on Highland Ave. The crowd was accompanied by a marching band and approximately 5 people reportedly closed their BOA accounts, which was the intended purpose of the march. No arrests were reported in the media. This received moderate attention on Twitter under the hashtags #occupysomerville and #occupy Somerville.

Occupy Harvard

- 6:00 PM – 7:00 PM, 15 December 2011: Occupy Harvard GA.
- 6:00 PM – 8:30 PM, 15 December 2011: Round Table: What is the Occupy Movement? In Room K354 CGIS Knafel Building with 5 speakers listed.

Occupy Quincy

- Occupy Quincy is having their third GA on Friday, 16 December 2011 at 6:30 PM in the park near the Quincy Center MBTA Station (the backup location is the Unitarian Church at 1306 Hancock Street). At this time, there are 8 confirmed attendees on the Facebook event page (<https://www.facebook.com/events/230974610307072/>). Numbers for the GA last Friday were very small and Quincy PD reports that there were no issues. The group has a website (<http://occupyquincy.org/>) and a Twitter account (@occupyquincy), neither of which are very active.

Events Scheduled for Wednesday, 14 December 2011ⁱ

- 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM: OWS Forum on Jobs for ALL: OWS Proposed Demand (Occupy Boston FSU) at Encuentro 5.

Analyst Notes: This item has been placed on the main OB calendar and appears to be a part of OB’s Free School University (FSU). At this time it appears that this will be a lecture / discussion and will not involve any demonstrations and / or marches.

- 8:00 PM: Symphony Hall, “A Company Christmas at Pops” Fundraiser event
Analyst Notes: This is an annual fundraiser by the Boston Pops in which executives from several companies attend. This event was discussed at the OB GA on 13 December 2011 and organizers asked for demonstrators to show up and hold signs. This event has received moderate attention on Twitter.

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 15 December 2011ⁱⁱ

- 12:15 PM – 1:30 PM: All Out March Against Indefinite Detention (aka Bill of Rights Day).ⁱⁱⁱ Meeting at 12:15 PM at Dewey Square and march to JFK Federal Building at 12:30 PM with a 1:00 PM rally and “Speak out”.

Analyst Notes: This event is being co-sponsored by several local activist groups such as ACLU of Massachusetts, Amnesty International, National Lawyers Guild, the National Police Accountability Project, United for Justice with Peace and the Occupy Boston Action for Peace Working Group. Further, this event was announced at the OB GA on Sunday night. This event was discussed at the OB GA on 13 December 2011 and has been advertised widely throughout local activist group networks. Further, media coverage of this bill being voted on in congress this week has been extensive, which could draw more supporters for the protest. Also note that at the GA on 13 December 2011 OB discussed meeting at Boston Common at 11:45 AM and then marching to Dewey Square at 12:00 PM; however, it is unknown whether this indicates that all of the groups will meet at the common first.

This event is geared towards protesting the NDAA, which stands for the National Defense Authorization Act; a 2012 bill, that if passed, has language in it stating that the President and military have full authority to arrest, indefinitely detain and interrogate anyone involved with Al-Qaeda, the Taliban, or anyone associated with a terrorist organized.^{iv}

- 6:30 PM – 9:00 PM: Occupy Allston-Brighton First General Assembly, Jackson-Mann School

Analyst Notes: It appears that this group has changed its Facebook page from Occupy Allston to Occupy Allston-Brighton^v. Please note that the Facebook event page lists 85 individuals attending with 19 listed as maybe.

Events Scheduled for Friday, 16 December 2011^{vi}

- 5:00 PM, Starbucks (1 Financial Center, A1), Picket in Support of Starbucks Union Organizer Liberte Locke (IWW)

Analyst Note: This event is being advertised by local activist groups; however, it has not received any attention on Twitter from OB as of 14 December 2011.

- 8:15 AM, BMC (A1), Court hearing for OB arrests on 11 October 2011.

Analyst Notes: OB discussed this event at their GA on 13 December 2011 and plans on holding a press conference at the courthouse. Additionally, they asked for supporters at the courthouse to show solidarity.

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 17 December 2011^{vii}

- 12:00 PM, D17 and Tea Party Day of Action
 - 12:00 PM – 2:00 PM: march (unknown location – but likely to start at Boston Common and include Dewey Square)
 - 2:00 PM – 4:00 PM: Picnic at Boston Common Gazebo
 - 4:00 PM – Boston Tea Party Direct Action

Analyst Note: This day of action is intended to celebrate D17, which is the 3 month anniversary of the beginning of Occupy Wall Street as well as the anniversary of the Boston Tea Party. The theme of the 12:00 PM march “is to sarcastically invoke the ideas and thoughts that OB are fighting against.”^{viii} The group mentions on their Facebook page for the event that there will be a “massive direct action at Dewey Square”, however, the BRIC does not have any further details. Further, the

BRIC has received uncorroborated information that the Tea Party direct action may include demonstrators throwing items into the harbor, such as little pieces of green paper.

Regional Occupy Events

Occupy Somerville

- 7:00 PM, 14 December 2011: Occupy Somerville GA meeting at Statue Park in Somerville.

Analyst Notes: The organizer of this event is attempting to find an indoors location to hold this meeting due to the weather. Additionally, the organizer expects at least a half of the 75 people that attended last week's GA to be present. The BRIC will provide updates as more information becomes available. Please note that on 10 December 2011, Occupy Somerville held a rally at the BOA branch on Highland Ave. The crowd was accompanied by a marching band and approximately 5 people reportedly closed their BOA accounts, which was the intended purpose of the march. No arrests were reported in the media. This received moderate attention on Twitter under the hashtags #occupysomerville and #occupy Somerville.

Occupy Harvard

- 6:00 PM – 7:00 PM, 15 December 2011: Occupy Harvard GA.
- 6:00 PM – 8:30 PM, 15 December 2011: Round Table: What is the Occupy Movement? In Room K354 CGIS Knafel Building with 5 speakers listed.

Occupy Quincy

- Occupy Quincy is having their third GA on Friday, 16 December 2011 at 6:30 PM in the park near the Quincy Center MBTA Station (the backup location is the Unitarian Church at 1306 Hancock Street). At this time, there are 8 confirmed attendees on the Facebook event page (<https://www.facebook.com/events/230974610307072/>). Numbers for the GA last Friday were very small and Quincy PD reports that there were no issues. The group has a website (<http://occupyquincy.org/>) and a Twitter account (@occupyquincy), neither of which are very active.

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 79

15 December 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Given the recent events and eviction of Occupy Boston from Dewey Square, any and all events and notes posted below are subject to change.

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 15 December 2011ⁱ

- 6:30 PM – 9:00 PM: Occupy Allston-Brighton First General Assembly, Palestine Cultural Center for Peace (41 Quint St)
Analyst Notes: It appears that this group has changed its Facebook page from Occupy Allston to Occupy Allston-Brightonⁱⁱ. Please note that the Facebook event page lists 100 individuals attending with 30 listed as maybe.
- 6:00 PM: Caroling for the 99%. The CWA Local 1400 (Verizon Workers) and Mass Jobs with Justice are planning on caroling outside of the home of Sandra Moose (53 Beverly St, Chestnut Hill, MA), a Verizon Board member. (CWA Local 1400 & Mass Jobs with Justice)
Analyst Notes: This event has not received any attention on Twitter from OB participants. Further, this event is not listed on any OB calendars and has not received any attention on Twitter.
- 6:00 PM – 11:00 PM, Emmanuel Church (15 Newbury St), OB General Assembly.

Events Scheduled for Friday, 16 December 2011ⁱⁱⁱ

- 8:15 AM, BMC (A1), Court hearing for OB arrests on 11 October 2011.

Analyst Notes: OB discussed this event at their GA on 13 December 2011 and plans on holding a press conference at the courthouse. Additionally, they asked for supporters at the courthouse to show solidarity.

- 5:00 PM, Starbucks (1 Financial Center, A1), Rally for Starbucks Union Organizer Liberte Locke (IWW)

Analyst Note: Please note that OB has often placed items on their calendar to advertise for other groups; however, it does not necessarily indicate that they will be participating. This event has received no attention on Twitter as of 15 December 2011.

- 12:00 PM – 2:00 PM, 40 Fowler St (Dorchester B3). City Life/ Vita Urbana will be holding a press conference for families who have won their homes back through a combination of public pressure, legal defense, and alternative financing. Specifically, the group will be advertising their successful effort to assist a woman and her family move back into 40 Fowler St after she had been foreclosed on. As part of the event, City Life will be decorating its annual Justice Tree and states that Occupy Boston members will speak on their plans for the future.^{iv}
- 12:00 PM – 1:00 PM, Dewey Square (A1), Caroling at Dewey Square. The description of this event on the OB calendar states “you can’t evict a song”

Analyst Notes: This has been added to the main OB calendar; however, it has received no attention on Twitter.

- 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM, Maverick Landing Community Center, 31 Liverpool St, East Boston (A7). Ocupemos El Barrio reunion. Organizers of Ocupemos El Barrio will be holding a reunion meeting to regroup and plan for the future of the movement.

Analyst Notes: According to a Boston Phoenix Article from 14 December 2011, Ocupemos El Barrio will be among many occupy groups in the Boston area that will keep their movement going throughout the winter, with the overall goal of planning for the spring. Ocupemos El Barrio has asked for members of OB to attend this meeting^v.

- 5:00 PM – 8:00 PM, Boston Common Bandstand, OB General Assembly.

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 17 December 2011^{vi}

- 6:30 PM – 9:00 PM: Occupy Allston-Brighton First General Assembly, Palestine Cultural Center for Peace (41 Quint St)
Analyst Notes: It appears that this group has changed its Facebook page from Occupy Allston to Occupy Allston-Brightonⁱⁱ. Please note that the Facebook event page lists 100 individuals attending with 30 listed as maybe.
- 6:00 PM: Caroling for the 99%. The CWA Local 1400 (Verizon Workers) and Mass Jobs with Justice are planning on caroling outside of the home of Sandra Moose (53 Beverly St, Chestnut Hill, MA), a Verizon Board member. (CWA Local 1400 & Mass Jobs with Justice)
Analyst Notes: This event has not received any attention on Twitter from OB participants. Further, this event is not listed on any OB calendars and has not received any attention on Twitter.
- 6:00 PM – 11:00 PM, Emmanuel Church (15 Newbury St), OB General Assembly.

Events Scheduled for Friday, 16 December 2011ⁱⁱⁱ

- 8:15 AM, BMC (A1), Court hearing for OB arrests on 11 October 2011.

Analyst Notes: OB discussed this event at their GA on 13 December 2011 and plans on holding a press conference at the courthouse. Additionally, they asked for supporters at the courthouse to show solidarity.

- 5:00 PM, Starbucks (1 Financial Center, A1), Rally for Starbucks Union Organizer Liberte Locke (IWW)

Analyst Note: Please note that OB has often placed items on their calendar to advertise for other groups; however, it does not necessarily indicate that they will be participating. This event has received no attention on Twitter as of 15 December 2011.

- 12:00 PM – 2:00 PM, 40 Fowler St (Dorchester B3). City Life/ Vita Urbana will be holding a press conference for families who have won their homes back through a combination of public pressure, legal defense, and alternative financing. Specifically, the group will be advertising their successful effort to assist a woman and her family move back into 40 Fowler St after she had been foreclosed on. As part of the event, City Life will be decorating its annual Justice Tree and states that Occupy Boston members will speak on their plans for the future.^{iv}
- 12:00 PM – 1:00 PM, Dewey Square (A1), Caroling at Dewey Square. The description of this event on the OB calendar states “you can’t evict a song”

Analyst Notes: This has been added to the main OB calendar; however, it has received no attention on Twitter.

- 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM, Maverick Landing Community Center, 31 Liverpool St, East Boston (A7). Ocupemos El Barrio reunion. Organizers of Ocupemos El Barrio will be holding a reunion meeting to regroup and plan for the future of the movement.

Analyst Notes: According to a Boston Phoenix Article from 14 December 2011, Ocupemos El Barrio will be among many occupy groups in the Boston area that will keep their movement going throughout the winter, with the overall goal of planning for the spring. Ocupemos El Barrio has asked for members of OB to attend this meeting^v.

- 5:00 PM – 8:00 PM, Boston Common Bandstand, OB General Assembly.

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 17 December 2011^{vi}

- 12:00 PM, D17 and Tea Party Day of Action
 - 12:00 PM – 2:00 PM: march (unknown location – but likely to start at Boston Common and include Dewey Square)
 - 2:00 PM – 4:00 PM: Picnic at Boston Common Gazebo
 - 4:00 PM – Boston Tea Party Direct Action

Analyst Note: This day of action is intended to celebrate D17, which is the 3 month anniversary of the beginning of Occupy Wall Street as well as the anniversary of the Boston Tea Party. The theme of the 12:00 PM march “is to sarcastically invoke the ideas and thoughts that OB are fighting against.”^{vii} The group mentions on their Facebook page for the event that there will be a “massive direct action at Dewey Square”, however, the BRIC does not have any further details. Further, the BRIC has received uncorroborated information that the Tea Party direct action may include demonstrators throwing items into the harbor, such as little pieces of green paper.

Events Scheduled for Sunday, 18 December 2011^{viii}

- 5:00 PM – 8:00 PM, Boston Common Bandstand, OB General Assembly.

Events Scheduled for Monday, 19 December 2011^{ix}

- 12:00 PM – 4:00 PM, Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Regional Office (10 Causeway St). OB will join City Life/ Vita Urbana for a rally to oppose HUD requirements that commercial banks evict foreclosure victims who have FHA insured mortgages before the property is transferred to HUD.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 79

15 December 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Given the recent events and eviction of Occupy Boston from Dewey Square, any and all events and notes posted below are subject to change.

Events Scheduled for Friday, 16 December 2011ⁱ

- 5:00 PM, Starbucks (1 Financial Center, A1), Rally for Starbucks Union Organizer Liberte Locke (IWW)

Analyst Note: Please note that OB has often placed items on their calendar to advertise for other groups; however, it does not necessarily indicate that they will be participating. This event has received no attention on Twitter as of 15 December 2011.

The IWW sent out an email stating that this picket / rally is no longer scheduled to take place; however some people may still rally for an outreach to baristas who work at Starbucks.

- 6:00 PM – 8:30 PM, The Cathedral Church of St. Paul, 138 Tremont St. Occupy Boston Community Forum: Addressing Space and Housing Issues. This is a meeting for occupiers and working groups to address immediate post-eviction issues such as future GA locations and long-term arrangements for the homeless. This is noted as being a logistical meeting, not a planning meeting. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: This event is listed on OB’s calendar and was also announced at their GA last night.

- 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM, Maverick Landing Community Center, 31 Liverpool St, East Boston (A7). Ocupemos El Barrio reunion. Organizers of Ocupemos El Barrio will be holding a reunion meeting to regroup and plan for the future of the movement.

 - 2:00 PM – 4:00 PM: Picnic at Boston Common Gazebo
 - 4:00 PM – Boston Tea Party Direct Action / March

*Analyst Note: This day of action is intended to celebrate D17, which is the 3 month anniversary of the beginning of Occupy Wall Street as well as the anniversary of the Boston Tea Party. The theme of the 12:00 PM march “is to sarcastically invoke the ideas and thoughts that OB are fighting against.”^{iv} The group mentions on their Facebook page for the event that there will be a “massive direct action at Dewey Square”, however, the BRIC does not have any further details. Further, the BRIC has received uncorroborated information that the Tea Party direct action may include demonstrators throwing items into the harbor, such as little pieces of green paper. This was discussed at last night’s GA, people were instructed to bring pieces of paper and write “money” on them. The Facebook page also states there will be a march for the Tea Party Action.

- 10:00 AM – 5:00 PM, Community Church at 565 Boylston St. Non-Violent Direct Action: History, Street Tactics, Planning, Strategy, Legal, and Affinity Groups.
Analyst Notes: This training is noted as being inspired by the Occupy movement and will be facilitated by members of the New England Trainers Network, the Alliance of Community Trainers and the Health Justice Working Group of OB. This event is on OB’s calendar.
- 5:00 PM – 8:00 PM, Boston Common Bandstand, OB General Assembly.

Events Scheduled for Sunday, 18 December 2011^v

- 11:00 AM – 4:00 PM, Direct Action Strategy and Action Planning – Digging a Little Deeper. This planning will take place at 45 Danforth St. in Jamaica Plain. (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: This planning meeting is noted as being inspired by the Occupy movement and will be facilitated by members of the New England Trainers Network, the Alliance of Community Trainers and the Health Justice Working Group of OB. This event is on OB’s calendar.

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 17 December 2011ⁱⁱⁱ

- 12:00 PM, D17 and Tea Party Day of Action
 - 12:00 PM – 2:00 PM: march (unknown location – but likely to start at Boston Common and include Dewey Square)
 - 2:00 PM – 4:00 PM: Picnic at Boston Common Gazebo
 - 4:00 PM – Boston Tea Party Direct Action / March

*Analyst Note: This day of action is intended to celebrate D17, which is the 3 month anniversary of the beginning of Occupy Wall Street as well as the anniversary of the Boston Tea Party. The theme of the 12:00 PM march “is to sarcastically invoke the ideas and thoughts that OB are fighting against.”^{iv} The group mentions on their Facebook page for the event that there will be a “massive direct action at Dewey Square”, however, the BRIC does not have any further details. Further, the BRIC has received uncorroborated information that the Tea Party direct action may include demonstrators throwing items into the harbor, such as little pieces of green paper. This was discussed at last night’s GA, people were instructed to bring pieces of paper and write “money” on them. The Facebook page also states there will be a march for the Tea Party Action.

- 10:00 AM – 5:00 PM, Community Church at 565 Boylston St. Non-Violent Direct Action: History, Street Tactics, Planning, Strategy, Legal, and Affinity Groups.
Analyst Notes: This training is noted as being inspired by the Occupy movement and will be facilitated by members of the New England Trainers Network, the Alliance of Community Trainers and the Health Justice Working Group of OB. This event is on OB’s calendar.
- 5:00 PM – 8:00 PM, Boston Common Bandstand, OB General Assembly.

Events Scheduled for Sunday, 18 December 2011^v

- 11:00 AM – 4:00 PM, Direct Action Strategy and Action Planning – Digging a Little Deeper. This planning will take place at 45 Danforth St. in Jamaica Plain. (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: This planning meeting is noted as being inspired by the Occupy movement and will be facilitated by members of the New England Trainers Network, the Alliance of Community Trainers and the Health Justice Working Group of OB. This event is on OB’s calendar.
- 5:00 PM – 8:00 PM, Boston Common Bandstand, OB General Assembly.

- 12:00 PM – 4:00 PM, Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Regional Office (10 Causeway St). OB will join City Life/ Vida Urbana for a rally to oppose HUD requirements that commercial banks evict foreclosure victims who have FHA insured mortgages before the property is transferred to HUD.

Regional Occupy Events

Occupy Quincy

- Occupy Quincy is having their third GA on Friday, 16 December 2011 at 6:30 PM in the park near the Quincy Center MBTA Station (the backup location is the Unitarian Church at 1306 Hancock Street). At this time, there are 12 confirmed attendees on the Facebook event page (<https://www.facebook.com/events/230974610307072/>). Numbers for the GA last Friday were very small and Quincy PD reports that there were no issues. The group has a website (<http://occupyquincy.org/>) and a Twitter account (@occupyquincy), neither of which is very active.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 80

16 December 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Given the recent events and eviction of Occupy Boston from Dewey Square, any and all events and notes posted below are subject to change.

Events Scheduled for Friday, 16 December 2011ⁱ

- 5:00 PM, Starbucks (1 Financial Center, A1), Rally for Starbucks Union Organizer Liberte Locke (IWW)

Analyst Note: Please note that OB has often placed items on their calendar to advertise for other groups; however, it does not necessarily indicate that they will be participating. This event has received no attention on Twitter as of 15 December 2011.

The IWW sent out an email stating that this picket / rally is no longer scheduled to take place; however some people may still rally for an outreach to baristas who work at Starbucks.

- 6:00 PM – 8:30 PM, The Cathedral Church of St. Paul, 138 Tremont St. Occupy Boston Community Forum: Addressing Space and Housing Issues. This is a meeting for occupiers and working groups to address immediate post-eviction issues such as future GA locations and long-term arrangements for the homeless. This is noted as being a logistical meeting, not a planning meeting. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: This event is listed on OB’s calendar and was also announced at their GA last night.

- 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM, Maverick Landing Community Center, 31 Liverpool St, East Boston (A7). Ocupemos El Barrio reunion. Organizers of Ocupemos El Barrio will be holding a reunion meeting to regroup and plan for the future of the movement.

*Analyst Notes: According to a Boston Phoenix article from 14 December 2011, Ocupemos El Barrio will be among many occupy groups in the Boston area that will keep their movement going throughout the winter, with the overall goal of planning for the spring. Ocupemos El Barrio has asked for members of OB to attend this meeting.*ⁱⁱ

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 17 December 2011ⁱⁱⁱ

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 81

19 December 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Given the recent events and eviction of Occupy Boston from Dewey Square, any and all events and notes posted below are subject to change.

Events Scheduled for Monday, 19 December 2011ⁱ

- 12:00 PM – 4:00 PM, Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Regional Office (10 Causeway St). OB will join City Life/ Vida Urbana for a rally to oppose HUD requirements that commercial banks evict foreclosure victims who have FHA insured mortgages before the property is transferred to HUD.
- 6:00 PM – 8:30 PM, The Cathedral Church of St. Paul at 138 Tremont St. Occupy Boston Open House (Community Gathering). OB will be hosting an open house for people to come learn about their movement. According to the Facebook page for this event, 67 people have confirmed attendance.ⁱⁱ

Events Scheduled for Tuesday, 20 December 2011ⁱⁱⁱ

- 7:00 PM – 10:00 PM, Arlington St. Church at 351 Boylston St. Occupy Boston General Assembly

Events Scheduled for Wednesday, 21 December 2011^{iv}

- 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM, African Episcopal Church at 25 Cedar St. Roxbury. A community forum on the Proposed Three Strike Bill for MA.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Given the recent events and eviction of Occupy Boston from Dewey Square, any and all events and notes posted below are subject to change.

Events Scheduled for Tuesday, 20 December 2011ⁱ

- 7:00 PM – 10:00 PM, First Church in Jamaica Plain Unitarian Universalist, 6 Eliot St. Candlelight Vigil in Remembrance of Brian Arredondo.
Analyst Notes: This event is in remembrance of Brian Arredondo committed suicide yesterday. The Facebook page event has 41 confirmed attendees.ⁱⁱ This was also tweeted amongst OB people asking for support; OB is known to advertise and ask for support for other events, please note that this does not necessarily indicate their intention to go. It should also be noted that OB is scheduled to have a GA tonight at 7:00 PM.
- 7:00 PM – 10:00 PM, Arlington St. Church at 351 Boylston St. Occupy Boston General Assembly.

Events Scheduled for Wednesday, 21 December 2011ⁱⁱⁱ

- 1:00 PM, “Federal Building”. Rally for Tarek Mehanna. Supporters are asking people to come out in a rally support for Tarek Mehanna who was found guilty today on all charges.
Analyst Notes: This has been widely tweeted and re-tweeted amongst Mehanna supporters and OB participants as well as Occupy Cambridge. At this time, it is unknown if the "Federal Building" location for this event refers to the JFK building or the Moakley Courthouse.

- 7:00 AM – 6:00 PM, The Hilton at 89 Broad St. Picket the Hilton Downtown. Join UNITE HERE to picket the Hilton Downtown demanding a fair process to decide if they want Union Representation.

Analyst Notes: This is not organized by OB, nor is it on their calendar. The BRIC has not seen any OB chatter relative to this event.

- 5:00 PM – 8:00 PM, Encuentro 5, 33 Harrison Ave. The Tiny Tent Task Force. Occupy Boston has created this group to create tiny tents that they plan to hide throughout the city to continue their message. (Occupy Boston)

Analyst Notes: There is no further information on where OB plans to "hide" the tiny tents.

- 6:00 PM, Whole Foods at 415 Centre St. in Jamaica Plain. Community Caroling for an Agreement with Whole Foods. The Whole Foods Coalition will be singing carols with a "twist" to protest the new Whole Foods coming to JP.

Analyst Notes: This is not organized by OB, nor is it on their calendar. The BRIC has not seen any OB chatter relative to this event.

- 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM, African Episcopal Church at 25 Cedar St. Roxbury. A community forum on the Proposed Three Strike Bill for MA.

Analyst Notes: This event does not appear to be organized by OB; however, it is on their calendar. Please note that OB often includes other events on their calendar; however, this does not indicate their plan to participate or attend. This event is also posted on Rule19.org's website and United for Justice with Peace.

- 6:30 PM – 9:30 PM, Location TBA. Occupy Hanukkah and Winter Solstice Celebration. On OB's calendar for this event, it states they hope to hold it at Dewey Square but are unsure at this point.

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 22 December 2011^{iv}

- 12:00 PM – 2:00 PM, Dewey Square; Occupy Nativity Scene (Occupy Boston).

Analyst Notes: This is posted on OB's calendar; there is no further information at this time.

- 7:00 PM – 10:00 PM, Emmanuel Church, 15 Newbury St. General Assembly (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Friday, 23 December 2011^v

- 12:00 PM – 1:00 PM, State House; OccuPoetry at the State House. Occupy Boston Poetry group will be reading on the steps of the State House.

Analyst Notes: This event is hosted by people from SEIU. OB has conducted past events in conjunction with members of SEIU.

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 84

22 December 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Given the recent events and eviction of Occupy Boston from Dewey Square, any and all events and notes posted below are subject to change.

Events Scheduled for Friday, 23 December 2011ⁱ

- 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM, Encuentro 5 – 33 Harrison Ave; InterOccupy working group meeting to expedite connectivity between Occupy Boston and other occupations, in the US and worldwide (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 24 December 2011ⁱⁱ

- 1:00 PM – 2:00 PM, Park Street Station; the Action for Peace Working group of OB will be joining in the weekly recurring community peace vigil. (Occupy Boston).
- 1:00 PM – 3:00 PM, Boston Common Bank Stand; Direct Action (March) – “Anti-Big Banks, Pro Local Credit Union”. According to the OB calendar, this event will consist of a march in support of moving accountholders’ money from large banks to local credit unions. This march is a continuation of activities surrounding “Bank Transfer Day” which occurred on 5 November 2011 (Occupy Boston).

Analyst Notes: While the location of this event is listed as the Boston Common Bandstand on the OB calendar, it should be noted that there was discussion during the 22 December 2011 GA that actions on Saturday 12/24 are planned to occur in Copley Sq. which may be a reference to the Egyptian solidarity action listed below. At this time it is unclear if OB intends to combine these events or if they will proceed separately. Because this event is to take place on Christmas Eve, OB may be planning to combine the events in order to have more significant representation. According to tweets from @DeweyGA sent during the 22 December 2011 general assembly, OB plans to distribute tiny tents as Christmas gifts during future direct actions. In addition, OB is possibly planning to host a flash mob / sing a song during future events.

- 2:00 PM – 6:30 PM, Copley Square; afternoon of action in support of the Egyptian revolution (Occupy Boston).ⁱⁱⁱ

Analyst Note: During the 22 December 2011 general assembly an OB proposal expressing solidarity with Egyptian revolutionaries was passed. It is currently unclear whether OB intends to merge this event with the “Anti-Big Bank” march listed above however the BRIC will continue to monitor open sources and update accordingly. There are currently 37 individuals attending this event according to Facebook^{iv}

- 5:00 PM, Community Church of Boston at 565 Boylston St.; General Assembly (Occupy Boston).

Regional Occupy Events

- 11:30 AM – 12:30 PM, Natick Common; Occupy Natick will be holding signs on Saturday 24 December 2011.

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- On 23 December 2011, OB conducted Occupoetry at the Massachusetts State House. No known issues were reported and approx. 15 individuals were in attendance.
- On 22 December 2011, the OB Nativity Scene / Play was held in the area of Dewey Sq. with approx. 20 individuals in attendance. The event was streamed online via Livestream.com^v No known issues were reported.
- On 21 December 2011, the OB Occupy Hanukkah and Winter Solstice Celebration occurred without incident at Dewey Sq. The Jewish Labor League had acquired a permit for this event for approximately 50 people at Dewey Sq. Approx. 30 individuals were in attendance at the Jewish Labor League event joined by approx. 10 OB members. No known issues were reported.

Situational Awareness
“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 85
23 December 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston's calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB's plans to participate in these marches.

Given the recent events and eviction of Occupy Boston from Dewey Square, any and all events and notes posted below are subject to change.

Events Scheduled for Friday, 23 December 2011ⁱ

- 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM, Encuentro 5 – 33 Harrison Ave; InterOccupy working group meeting to expedite connectivity between Occupy Boston and other occupations, in the US and worldwide (Occupy Boston)

Events Scheduled for Saturday, 24 December 2011ⁱⁱ

- 1:00 PM – 2:00 PM, Park Street Station; the Action for Peace Working group of OB will be joining in the weekly recurring community peace vigil. (Occupy Boston).
- 1:00 PM – 3:00 PM, Boston Common Bank Stand; Direct Action (March) – “Anti-Big Banks, Pro Local Credit Union”. According to the OB calendar, this event will consist of a march in support of moving accountholders’ money from large banks to local credit unions. This march is a continuation of activities surrounding “Bank Transfer Day” which occurred on 5 November 2011 (Occupy Boston).

Analyst Notes: While the location of this event is listed as the Boston Common Bandstand on the OB calendar, it should be noted that there was discussion during the 22 December 2011 GA that actions on Saturday 12/24 are planned to occur in Copley Sq. which may be a reference to the Egyptian solidarity action listed below. At this time it is unclear if OB intends to combine these events or if they will proceed separately. Because this event is to take place on Christmas Eve, OB may be planning to combine the events in order to have more significant representation. According to tweets from @DeweyGA sent during the 22 December 2011 general assembly, OB plans to distribute tiny tents as Christmas gifts during future direct actions. In addition, OB is possibly planning to host a flash mob / sing a song during future events.

- 2:00 PM – 6:30 PM, Copley Square; afternoon of action in support of the Egyptian revolution (Occupy Boston).ⁱⁱⁱ

Analyst Note: During the 22 December 2011 general assembly an OB proposal expressing solidarity with Egyptian revolutionaries was passed. It is currently unclear whether OB intends to merge this event with the “Anti-Big Bank” march listed above however the BRIC will continue to monitor open sources and update accordingly. There are currently 37 individuals attending this event according to Facebook^{iv}

- 5:00 PM, Community Church of Boston at 565 Boylston St.; General Assembly (Occupy Boston).

Regional Occupy Events

- 11:30 AM – 12:30 PM, Natick Common; Occupy Natick will be holding signs on Saturday 24 December 2011.

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- On 23 December 2011, OB conducted Occupoetry at the Massachusetts State House. No known issues were reported and approx. 15 individuals were in attendance.
- On 22 December 2011, the OB Nativity Scene / Play was held in the area of Dewey Sq. with approx. 20 individuals in attendance. The event was streamed online via Livestream.com^v No known issues were reported.
- On 21 December 2011, the OB Occupy Hanukkah and Winter Solstice Celebration occurred without incident at Dewey Sq. The Jewish Labor League had acquired a permit for this event for approximately 50 people at Dewey Sq. Approx. 30 individuals were in attendance at the Jewish Labor League event joined by approx. 10 OB members. No known issues were reported.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 89

30 December 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Given the recent events and eviction of Occupy Boston from Dewey Square, any and all events and notes posted below are subject to change.

Events Scheduled for Friday, 30 December 2011ⁱ

- On 31 December 2011, Occupy Boston protestors conducted a march on Beacon St. and South Charles St. All participants were peaceful and orderly.

General Notes Regarding Occupy Boston

- Occupy the NH Primary plans to conduct actions at this weekend. On Friday, 6 January 2012, the group plans to be in Manchester, NH for music, entertainment and a teach-in called "Bird Dogging Political Candidates". There will be a "funeral procession for the American Dream" scheduled to be at Saint Anselm College during Saturday's debate.

Analyst Notes: OB has previously talked about participating in Occupy the NH Primary; however, at this time, there are no actions on their calendar. This above listed information is posted on OB's website under the daily "media rundown" and is from an online newspaper in NH, the Windham Patch. ⁱ The BRIC will continue to monitor and assess publicly available information relative to OB and any plans they have for Occupy the NH Primary.

Given the recent events and eviction of Occupy Boston from Dewey Square, any and all events and notes posted below are subject to change.

Events Scheduled for Tuesday, 13 December 2011ⁱ

- 4:00 PM, 13 December 2011: Teach Out for Good Jobs at the Verizon Office in Bowdoin Square (Massachusetts Jobs with Justice & Verizon Workers).
Analyst Notes: This event is being organized by Verizon Workers and Massachusetts Jobs with Justice. At this time it does not appear that OB has plans to participate. The event is not listed on their calendar and it has received no attention on Twitter. Please note, however, that OB has conducted joint demonstrations in the past with Verizon workers and their participation in today’s event cannot be ruled out.
- 5:50 PM, 13 December 2011: Labor Solidarity Meeting at Encuentro 5 (Occupy Boston).
Analyst Notes: This was announced at the GA on Saturday night.
- 6:00 PM, 13 December 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: According to their GA on Sunday, they will be holding this and future GA’s inside of St. Paul’s Cathedral at 138 Tremont St.

Events Scheduled for Wednesday, 14 December 2011ⁱⁱ

- 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 14 December 2011: OWS Forum on Jobs for ALL: OWS Proposed Demand (Occupy Boston FSU) at Encuentro 5.

Analyst Notes: This item has been placed on the main OB calendar and appears to be a part of OB's Free School University (FSU). At this time it appears that this will be a lecture / discussion and will not involve any demonstrations and / or marches.

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 15 December 2011ⁱⁱⁱ

- 12:15 PM – 1:30 PM, 15 December 2011: All Out March Against Indefinite Detention.^{iv} Meeting at 12:15 PM at Dewey Square and march to JFK Federal Building at 12:30 PM with a 1:00 PM rally and "Speak out".^v

Analyst Notes: This event is being co-sponsored by several local activist groups such as ACLU of Massachusetts, Amnesty International, National Lawyers Guild, the National Police Accountability Project, United for Justice with Peace and the Occupy Boston Action for Peace Working Group. Further, this event was announced at the OB GA on Sunday night.

This event is geared towards protesting the NDAA, which stands for the National Defense Authorization Act; a 2012 bill, that if passed, has language in it stating that the President and military have full authority to arrest, indefinitely detain and interrogate anyone involved with Al-Qaeda, the Taliban, or anyone associated with a terrorist organized.^{vi}

- 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 15 December 2011: Occupy Allston-Brighton First General Assembly.

Analyst Notes: It appears that this group has changed its Facebook page from Occupy Allston to Occupy Allston-Brighton^{vii}. There is still not a proposed meeting location, however, the BRIC will continue to assess publically available open sources and provide updates as necessary. Please note that the Facebook event page lists 59 individuals attending with 10 listed as maybe. 386 have been invited and not responded yet.

Regional Occupy Events

Occupy Somerville

- 7:00 PM, 14 December 2011: Occupy Somerville GA meeting at Statue Park in Somerville.

Analyst Notes: The organizer of this event is attempting to find an indoors location to hold this meeting due to the weather. Additionally, the organizer expects at least a half of the 75 people that attended last week's GA to be present. The BRIC will provide updates as more information becomes available. Please note that on 10 December 2011, Occupy Somerville held a rally at the BOA branch on Highland Ave. The crowd was accompanied by a marching band and approximately 5 people reportedly closed their BOA accounts, which was the intended purpose of the march. No arrests were reported in the media.

Occupy Harvard

- 6:00 PM – 7:00 PM, 15 December 2011: Occupy Harvard GA meeting.
- 6:00 PM - 8:30 PM, 15 December 2011: Round Table: What is the Occupy Movement? In Room K354 CGIS Knafel Building with 5 speakers listed.

Occupy Quincy

- Occupy Quincy is having their third GA on Friday, 16 December 2011 at 6:30 PM in the park near the Quincy Center MBTA Station (the backup location is the Unitarian Church at 1306 Hancock Street). At this time, there are 8 confirmed attendees on the Facebook event page for this event (<https://www.facebook.com/events/230974610307072/>). Numbers for the GA last Friday were very small and Quincy PD reports that there were no issues. The group has a website (<http://occupyquincy.org/>) and a Twitter account (@occupyquincy), neither of which is very active.

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- On 13 December 2011, approximately 30-40 individuals (defendants and supporters) showed up at BMC for the arraignments of those arrested on 12-10-11. All were peaceful and orderly.
- On 12 December 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM, approximately 50 individuals from OB marched from City Hall Plaza to Dewey Square and eventually the Federal Reserve Bank. While en route to Dewey Square from City Hall Plaza, demonstrators deviated from their scheduled route and marched to the State House. While outside of the Federal Reserve, several demonstrators dressed in “black bloc” attire proceeded to taunt BPD Mobile Operations Unit personnel. No arrests were made and the demonstration concluded without incident.

Analyst Notes: This event is being co-sponsored by several local activist groups such as ACLU of Massachusetts, Amnesty International, National Lawyers Guild, the National Police Accountability Project, United for Justice with Peace and the Occupy Boston Action for Peace Working Group. Further, this event was announced at the OB GA on Sunday night.

This event is geared towards protesting the NDAA, which stands for the National Defense Authorization Act; a 2012 bill, that if passed, has language in it stating that the President and military have full authority to arrest, indefinitely detain and interrogate anyone involved with Al-Qaeda, the Taliban, or anyone associated with a terrorist organized.^{vi}

- 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 15 December 2011: Occupy Allston-Brighton First General Assembly.

Analyst Notes: It appears that this group has changed its Facebook page from Occupy Allston to Occupy Allston-Brighton^{vii}. There is still not a proposed meeting location, however, the BRIC will continue to assess publically available open sources and provide updates as necessary. Please note that the Facebook event page lists 59 individuals attending with 10 listed as maybe. 386 have been invited and not responded yet.

Regional Occupy Events

Occupy Somerville

- 7:00 PM, 14 December 2011: Occupy Somerville GA meeting at Statue Park in Somerville.

Analyst Notes: The organizer of this event is attempting to find an indoors location to hold this meeting due to the weather. Additionally, the organizer expects at least a half of the 75 people that attended last week's GA to be present. The BRIC will provide updates as more information becomes available. Please note that on 10 December 2011, Occupy Somerville held a rally at the BOA branch on Highland Ave. The crowd was accompanied by a marching band and approximately 5 people reportedly closed their BOA accounts, which was the intended purpose of the march. No arrests were reported in the media.

Occupy Harvard

- 6:00 PM – 7:00 PM, 15 December 2011: Occupy Harvard GA meeting.
- 6:00 PM - 8:30 PM, 15 December 2011: Round Table: What is the Occupy Movement? In Room K354 CGIS Knafel Building with 5 speakers listed.

Occupy Quincy

- Occupy Quincy is having their third GA on Friday, 16 December 2011 at 6:30 PM in the park near the Quincy Center MBTA Station (the backup location is the Unitarian Church at 1306 Hancock Street). At this time, there are 8 confirmed attendees on the Facebook event page for this event (<https://www.facebook.com/events/230974610307072/>). Numbers for the GA last Friday were very small and Quincy PD reports that there were no issues. The group has a website (<http://occupyquincy.org/>) and a Twitter account (@occupyquincy), neither of which is very active.

Occupy Boston Recent Actions

- On 13 December 2011, approximately 30-40 individuals (defendants and supporters) showed up at BMC for the arraignments of those arrested on 12-10-11. All were peaceful and orderly.
- On 12 December 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM, approximately 50 individuals from OB marched from City Hall Plaza to Dewey Square and eventually the Federal Reserve Bank. While en route to Dewey Square from City Hall Plaza, demonstrators deviated from their scheduled route and marched to the State House. While outside of the Federal Reserve, several demonstrators dressed in “black bloc” attire proceeded to taunt BPD Mobile Operations Unit personnel. No arrests were made and the demonstration concluded without incident.

Situational Awareness

“Occupy Boston” Action—UPDATE 77

13 December 2011

(U//FOUO) It should be noted that some of this information describes first amendment protected activities. The BRIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The BRIC safeguards these rights and only reports on first amendment protected activities for operational planning in the interest of assuring the safety and security of the demonstrators and the public.

The Occupy Boston (OB) action has been in place since Friday, 30 September 2011 at approximately 6:00 PM. Since that time the BRIC has learned the following from publicly available open sources as well as uniformed Boston Police Personnel in the area:

The following information is being provided for awareness due to the potential for these events to result in increased crowds or traffic conditions.

Please note that due to the volume of significant events occurring in the city and with Occupy Boston, this list of events has been limited to items of significance only. It is not a comprehensive list of Occupy Boston-related events. For a listing of Occupy Boston meetings and events please visit <http://www.occupyboston.org/>.

Please be aware that the BRIC is reporting on events and marches listed on Occupy Boston’s calendar and other publically available sources; however, it does not necessarily indicate OB’s plans to participate in these marches.

Given the recent events and eviction of Occupy Boston from Dewey Square, any and all events and notes posted below are subject to change.

Events Scheduled for Tuesday, 13 December 2011ⁱ

- 4:00 PM, 13 December 2011: Teach Out for Good Jobs at the Verizon Office in Bowdoin Square (Massachusetts Jobs with Justice & Verizon Workers).
Analyst Notes: This event is being organized by Verizon Workers and Massachusetts Jobs with Justice. At this time it does not appear that OB has plans to participate. The event is not listed on their calendar and it has received no attention on Twitter. Please note, however, that OB has conducted joint demonstrations in the past with Verizon workers and their participation in today’s event cannot be ruled out.
- 5:50 PM, 13 December 2011: Labor Solidarity Meeting at Encuentro 5 (Occupy Boston).
Analyst Notes: This was announced at the GA on Saturday night.
- 6:00 PM, 13 December 2011: General Assembly (Occupy Boston)
Analyst Notes: According to their GA on Sunday, they will be holding this and future GA’s inside of St. Paul’s Cathedral at 138 Tremont St.

Events Scheduled for Wednesday, 14 December 2011ⁱⁱ

- 7:00 PM – 9:00 PM, 14 December 2011: OWS Forum on Jobs for ALL: OWS Proposed Demand (Occupy Boston FSU) at Encuentro 5.

Analyst Notes: This item has been placed on the main OB calendar and appears to be a part of OB's Free School University (FSU). At this time it appears that this will be a lecture / discussion and will not involve any demonstrations and / or marches.

Events Scheduled for Thursday, 15 December 2011ⁱⁱⁱ

- 12:15 PM – 1:30 PM, 15 December 2011: All Out March Against Indefinite Detention.^{iv} Meeting at 12:15 PM at Dewey Square and march to JFK Federal Building at 12:30 PM with a 1:00 PM rally and "Speak out".^v

Analyst Notes: This event is being co-sponsored by several local activist groups such as ACLU of Massachusetts, Amnesty International, National Lawyers Guild, the National Police Accountability Project, United for Justice with Peace and the Occupy Boston Action for Peace Working Group. Further, this event was announced at the OB GA on Sunday night.

Subject: DC Shooting Suspect Could Be Threat to Obama, Police Say
Date: Wednesday, November 16, 2011 10:29:00 AM

ABC News has learned authorities are increasingly concerned that a man sought in connection with a bizarre shooting incident on the Washington Mall last week may pose a threat to President Obama.

The Secret Service now suspects that a bullet fired in this incident may have hit the White House after a bullet round was found in a White House window, though the round had not yet been conclusively linked to the incident. The round was stopped by ballistic glass behind the historic exterior glass, while an additional round has been found on the exterior of the White House.

Police believe the suspect, 21-year-old Oscar Ramiro Ortega of Idaho, is mentally ill. Ortega has an extensive record, ranging from domestic violence to drug charges. Sources say a police investigation has uncovered evidence suggesting Ortega has a fixation on the White House.

At 9:30 p.m. Friday, police received reports of shots fired in the bustling area of 16th street and Constitution Ave.

Authorities would later find a car in the area. The suspect had fled, but what police discovered inside the vehicle left them deeply concerned: an assault style rifle and empty shell casings.

Police linked the car to Ortega and have been hunting him ever since.

It's unclear whether Ortega is capable of launching a sophisticated attack, but police are still fearful of what he might do next.

Authorities suspect Ortega has been in the area for weeks, coming back and forth to the Washington Mall. Before the shooting, he was detained by local police at an abandoned house. U.S. Park police say Ortega may have spent time blending in with Occupy D.C. protesters.

President Obama, who is currently on a visit to Australia, was not present at the White House at the time of the incident, and in fact has been out of town for the past week. Secret Service officials are not taking any chances with the security of the President and the White House, though, and want Ortega off the street.

Subject: CDU Activation for November 23, 2011

All,

We just received some very preliminary information-from an MPD source that 30 persons from Occupy will attempt to get arrested in the Hart SOB Building at 0900 tomorrow. (NFI)

We are attempting to contact our MPDC counterparts which has not been successful to validate the information.

We are still running it out. Will advise as soon as we know more.....however

....In an abundance of caution, please bring in your 3-11 people who were originally scheduled for CDU tomorrow at 0730 hours.

Same protocols will be in place.

Subject: CDU Activation for November 23, 2011 CANCELLED

The CDU activation for tomorrow November 23, 2011, is CANCELLED. Please inform your personnel that they should report for duty for their regularly scheduled tour of duty. Also, we are learning that the group originally planning to erect tents during the week of December 5-9, 2011, have applied for a permit with the Park Service for the National Mall, scrubbing the idea of occupying the Upper Senate Park and Capitol Grounds. The group has voiced that they do not want to commit Civil Disobedience or risk being arrested because of the Capitol Grounds law with tent restrictions so they are seeking this alternative. We should continue to prepare our staffing for these dates and as we have more time to evaluate and determine permit issuance by the Park Service, we will keep you informed.

I have included a web page of all 17 people, 18 counting the guy who took the picture, from the NY March. http://dcist.com/2011/11/marchers_arrive_in_dc_after_230-mil.php#photo-1

Thanks everyone and have a great Thanksgiving.

Subject: DC Shooting Suspect Could Be Threat to Obama, Police Say
Importance: High

ABC News has learned authorities are increasingly concerned that a man sought in connection with a bizarre shooting incident on the Washington Mall last week may pose a threat to President Obama.

The Secret Service now suspects that a bullet fired in this incident may have hit the White House after a bullet round was found in a White House window, though the round had not yet been conclusively linked to the incident. The round was stopped by ballistic glass behind the historic exterior glass, while an additional round has been found on the exterior of the White House.

Police believe the suspect, 21-year-old Oscar Ramiro Ortega of Idaho, is mentally ill. Ortega has an extensive record, ranging from domestic violence to drug charges. Sources say a police investigation has uncovered evidence suggesting Ortega has a fixation on the White House.

At 9:30 p.m. Friday, police received reports of shots fired in the bustling area of 16th street and Constitution Ave.

Authorities would later find a car in the area. The suspect had fled, but what police discovered inside the vehicle left them deeply concerned: an assault style rifle and empty shell casings.

Police linked the car to Ortega and have been hunting him ever since.

It's unclear whether Ortega is capable of launching a sophisticated attack, but police are still fearful of what he might do next.

Authorities suspect Ortega has been in the area for weeks, coming back and forth to the Washington Mall. Before the shooting, he was detained by local police at an abandoned house. U.S. Park police say Ortega may have spent time blending in with Occupy D.C. protesters.

President Obama, who is currently on a visit to Australia, was not present at the White House at the time of the incident, and in fact has been out of town for the past week. Secret Service officials are not taking any chances with the security of the President and the White House, though, and want Ortega off the street.

EMERGING ISSUES IN THE OCCUPY MOVEMENT

December 2, 2011

This bulletin is a joint product of the Major Cities Intelligence Commanders Group (MCC ICG Sub-Committee) and the Southern Nevada Counterterrorism Center (SNCTC). Please send information regarding your jurisdiction every Monday to A3179S@lvmpd.com, K4294F@lvmpd.com and M13296G@lvmpd.com. All information contained will be treated as open source information. Please provide citations if applicable.

Tactics and Strategies

Las Vegas – Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department

- 21 arrests involved in one incident. Arrestees were predetermined by the Occupy group. There have been no other arrests or incidents to date.
- The Las Vegas Occupy has been granted a 90-day permit extension at their current site that expires February 20, 2012.
- “Mic checks” over Black Friday weekend, were conducted at three local malls. A “mic check” is when one person shouts out a message that is repeated by a crowd. <http://www.lvrj.com/news/occupy-las-vegas-protesters-direct-message-at-mall-crowds-134509688.html> Video of “mic check” located: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fxxEtc1UWIE>

Denver – Denver Police Department

- For the first time the Denver movement has incorporated children into their marches as a themed event. Past marches have been taken to the street and blocked traffic, but this one stayed on the sidewalks around a park and used crosswalks when crossing streets.
- Black Friday – Woodland Park, CO a bomb threat caused the local Walmart to evacuate customers while store was searched for several hours, effectively shutting down the business. http://www.kdvr.com/news/sns-ap-co-walmartbombthreat.0.765935.story?track=rss&utm_source=twitterfeed&utm_medium=twitter&utm_campaign=Feed%3A+around-colorado+%28KDVR+-+Around+Colorado%29

Minneapolis – Minneapolis Police Department

- Efforts to disrupt shopping may have had limited effect. Overall retail sales were up in 2011 as compared to 2010.
- The cold weather may be driving participants indoors. There is also some effort to move the protest into vacant/foreclosed homes.

Phoenix – Phoenix Police Department

- There have been approximately 91 arrests since the beginning of the movement.
- Phoenix PD has established an excellent rapport with the Occupy movement through a Community Response Squad. There are plain clothes detectives that act as liaisons with various community groups to include the Occupy protesters. They do not take any enforcement action; they merely communicate and inform the protesters of the law and how we can work together.
- There has been reporting that the Occupy Phoenix movement may be moving to nearby Tempe, AZ or to a private residence and that Occupy protesters from colder climates will be relocating to Arizona. As of yet that has not happened.

EMERGING ISSUES IN THE OCCUPY MOVEMENT

December 2, 2011

Nationwide Trends

- The use of “mic checks” has been a new trend as a way to send out a message. However, the messages have been loud and disruptive. Demonstrators have been conducting “mic checks” indoors due to weather conditions and at locations such as malls where many people are shopping for the holiday season. President Obama was “mic checked” during his speech in Manchester, New Hampshire. http://www.cbsnews.com/8301-503544_162-57329652-503544/mic-check-occupy-protesters-interrupt-obama/

Upcoming Events

Nationwide

- January 20th – “Occupy the Courts” a one-day march at Federal courthouses nationwide during normal business hours to protest the expansion of corporate personhood rights. Locations for this protest will include the United States Supreme Court in Washington D.C.

Las Vegas

- Month of December – “Occupy December” on the Las Vegas Strip. Protesters are planning to protest for a fairer gaming tax rate. Every afternoon, there would be a presence by occupiers with a specific message the group is trying to convey. This event is scheduled to occur every afternoon during the month of December. <http://occupylv.org/topics/occupy-strip>
- December 2nd (11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.)– The occupylasvegas.org website is reporting they will conduct a “mic check” at the University of Nevada Las Vegas (UNLV) Board of Regents meeting. <http://occupylasvegas.org/?event=mic-check-college-administrators>

Denver

- December 3rd (11:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.) - A counterdemonstration to Occupy Wall Street is scheduled on the steps of the state Capitol-just east of where Occupy Denver has been hanging out. <http://blogs.denverpost.com/thespot/2011/11/28/liberty-activists-to-hold-ows-counterdemonstration-in-denver/47944/>
- December 6th – Focus is on foreclosed properties, but at this time there are no announced plans on how they will do this.
- December 10th – 17th “Alternative Day of Action on Human Rights” - “We would like to propose the week starting on the 10th of December (10/12 – 17/12) as a time for alternative forms of protest which will be found after a debate between all of us. The idea is to participate in proposing new forms of action with a creative spirit: we can organize public forums and workshops, flash-mobs, we can promote the movement in local schools and neighborhoods or get in contact with humanitarian organizations working with the same goals.

Milwaukee – Milwaukee Police Department

- December 1st (3:00 p.m.) – “Protest Bush Tax Cuts for Ultra Rich 1% R.I.P. Super Committee” located at Federal Courthouse, 517 East Wisconsin Ave.

EMERGING ISSUES IN THE OCCUPY MOVEMENT

December 2, 2011

St. Louis – St. Louis Metropolitan Police Department

- December 1st (12:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.) – Occufest 2011 located at Kiener Plaza. The event will showcase speakers, music acts, and craft making activities and marches.
- December 6th – National Day for Foreclosures. There are currently no concrete plans; however, they plan on targeting Bank of America for a protest.
- Month of December – “Twelve Days of Occupy/Occupy the Holiday.” The events are not twelve days in a row, but they are planning direct action protests on twelve different days during the month. They state their goal is to “increase visibility around relevant targets during the holiday season.” Their targets include Laclede Gas, Peabody Coal, Bank of America, and Mayor’s Office.

Tactics and Strategies

Boston – Boston Regional Intelligence Center

- Occupy Boston demonstrators protested outside of the Federal Reserve with several demonstrators dressed in “black boc” attire and proceeded to taunt Boston Police Department Mobile Operations Unit personnel. No arrests were made and the demonstration concluded without incident.

Denver – Denver Police Department

- The Denver Black Cross Anarchists, Operation Cop Watch and Street Medics have pulled their support for the Occupy Denver movement. They posted, “As of December 4th, our collective has decided to no longer support Occupy Denver. This means we will not be providing our legal line for Occupy actions; fundraising for the movement; encouraging our members, friends and allies to get involved; as well as serve roles such as CopWatch and Medics. This is in solidarity and coordination with other ally formations such as West Denver CopWatch and the Colorado Street Medics.” While tensions between the anarchists and Occupy movement participants have been observed, this is the first official notice of the break between the groups.
<http://denverabc.wordpress.com/2011/12/09/denver-abc-statement-on-occupy-denver/>

Los Angeles – Los Angeles Police Department

- Undercover police officers infiltrated Occupy LA’s tent city last month. Police stated that there were reports of individuals advocating violence against police and in that vein, it was necessary to investigate. LAPD stated it was not aimed at spying or monitoring those engaged with First Amendment activities.
<http://www.guardian.co.uk/world/2011/dec/11/undercover-police-spied-occupy-la>

New Orleans – New Orleans Police Department

- A 7-day temporary restraining order was granted to Occupy New Orleans by a federal judge, allowing it to reoccupy a downtown park for the next week. An attorney working on behalf of the protesters said that no other Occupy group in the nationwide protests has been granted a judicial permission to reoccupy.
<http://www.courthousenews.com/2011/12/08/42060.htm>

New York/Philadelphia – New York Police Department/Philadelphia Police Department

- A retired Philadelphia police captain was arrested in uniform during Occupy Wall Street protests in New York City has received written warnings from police and union officials. http://www.washingtonpost.com/national/ex-philly-police-captain-arrested-at-ny-occupy-rally-is-warned-to-not-wear-uniform-at-protests/2011/12/08/gIQA0xNYqO_story.html

New York – New York Police Department

- More than 100 Occupy Wall Street demonstrators stormed the set for “Law & Order: Special Victims Unit” across from the Manhattan State Supreme Courthouse, shutting down the production of an OWS-themed episode.

EMERGING ISSUES IN THE OCCUPY MOVEMENT

December 15, 2011

San Francisco - San Francisco Police Department

- An article was posted online describing the emergence of “Pop Up Occupations.” Pop Ups are mobile and small in nature that allow demonstrators to be present in high traffic areas where it wouldn’t typically be possible to have a presence aside of a few members. The Pop Ups change spaces every few days to various protest sites and consist of a tiny kitchen, mobile library, information table, first aid kits, blankets, and sleeping bags. It serves as an education site to assist in educating the public at large on the abuses of the various banks and corporations in the community. <http://scottrossi.tumblr.com/post/13586976835/whack-a-mole-revolution-a-guide-to-pop-up-occupations>

Nationwide Trends

- Occupy Wall Street’s latest effort to attract immigrants is a march for immigrant workers this weekend in New York City. The rally is to raise awareness on immigrant issues and to draw immigrants to a social movement that has largely focused on corporate greed. It takes place on International Migrants Day. The march is being carefully planned in an attempt to prevent the mass arrests that have occurred at other large Occupy rallies across the country. <http://latino.foxnews.com/latino/news/2011/12/12/occupy-immigration-ows-rally-hopes-to-recruit-immigrants/>
- Occupy protesters faced a growing criticism over their attempt to shut down the ports of America’s west coast, with unions condemning the action left hundreds of its members unable to work. Although terminals in Longview, Oakland, and Portland were shut down, plans to shut down the entire west coast failed after other protests saw relatively small turnouts. <http://www.guardian.co.uk/world/2011/dec/13/occupy-activists-failed-port-shutdown?newsfeed=true>
- There is a possibility of national migration to other Occupy encampments due to the eviction and/or dismantling of current Occupy sites.
- The use of “mic checks” has been a new trend as a way to send out a message. However, the messages have been loud and disruptive. Demonstrators have been conducting “mic checks” indoors due to weather conditions and at locations such as malls where many people are shopping for the holiday season. Republican presidential candidate Newt Gingrich was interrupted within seconds of taking the stage at the University of Iowa to argue for the centrality of brain research to his domestic policy. <http://www.theatlantic.com/politics/archive/2011/12/occupy-gingrich-newt-gets-heckled-by-protesters-at-brains-talk/250023/>

Officer Safety

The following incidents are a few examples of how some of the Occupy demonstrations have posed a concern for officer safety.

Police arrest an Occupy LA protester during a raid on the encampment.

An Occupy Denver protester shoves an officer's motorcycle.

- November 30, 2011 (Los Angeles, California) – Los Angeles police used nearly a dozen undercover detectives to infiltrate the Occupy LA encampment. The undercover work yielded information that some protesters were preparing bamboo spears and other potentially dangerous weapons in advance of an expected eviction. <http://www.theblaze.com/stories/report-undercover-cops-infiltrated-occupy-la-before-raid/>
- November 17, 2011 (New York, New York) – Two officers were injured after responding to a call for help retrieving metal barricades that protestors had dismantled and taken inside Zuccotti Park. One officer was struck in the left eye with an unknown object. The officer was treated at the scene and taken to a local hospital as a precaution. The second officer was cut on his left thumb when an unknown person hurled a star-shaped glass object at the officer. In a separate incident, a police spokesman said protestors threw a liquid - possibly vinegar - in the faces of four officers during a confrontation. <http://www.nydailynews.com/new-york/mayor-bloomberg-declares-victory-occupy-wall-street-thousands-swarm-manchattan-all-day-rallies-article-1.979111>

- October 29, 2011 (Denver, Colorado) – Two protesters were arrested for felony charges after police said an officer was knocked off his motorcycle and other officers were kicked, as they moved into the park to tear down illegal tents. http://www.denverpost.com/breakingnews/ci_19223274

December 15, 2011

Upcoming Events

Nationwide

- January 20th – “Occupy the Courts” a one-day march at Federal courthouses nationwide during normal business hours to protest the expansion of corporate personhood rights. Locations for this protest will include the United States Supreme Court in Washington D.C.

Boston

- December 15, 2011 (1215-1330hrs) – All Out March Against Indefinite Detention Meeting located at Dewey Square and march to JFK Federal Building. <http://www.facebook.com/events/133196660125860/?ref=nf>

Atlanta

- December 15, 2011 (1615hrs) – Demonstration at Chase Bank to speak out against foreclosure. <http://www.cbsatlanta.com/story/16226183/occupy-atlanta-plans-march-to-protest-chase-bank>

Denver

- December 17, 2011 (1500hrs) - The Earth Liberation Front (ELF) posted a Denver event (“The Elf Revolt”) on their website for Dec 17th. “Elves” is the collective name for autonomous individuals or covert cells whom according to the ELF press office, use “economic sabotage and guerilla warfare to stop the exploitation and destruction of the environment.” It is unknown at this point what the group plans. <http://colorado.indymedia.org/node/8385>

Las Vegas

- December 17, 2011 (2000-2355hrs) “Operation Horizon.” The group Anonymous has invited Occupy protesters to march in a day of solidarity and remembrance at City Hall. The march will end with a vigil for those who have sacrificed. <http://occupylv.org/events/operation-horizon>
- December 19, 2011 (1700hrs) – A candlelight vigil will be held in front of the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Headquarters building to take notice of the police brutality that happens to citizens not only in Las Vegas, but nationwide. <http://occupylasvegas.org/?p=538>
- December 21, 2011 (0900hrs) – A demonstration will be held at the Nevada Public Utilities Commission to protest their continual approval of rate hikes for Nevada Energy. “Nevada’s per-kilowatt-hour cost is the second highest in the nation, lagging only behind California.” <http://occupylv.org/events/public-utilities-commission-nevada-energy-action>

December 15, 2011

This bulletin is a joint product of the Major Cities Intelligence Commanders Group (MCC ICG Sub-Committee) and the Southern Nevada Counterterrorism Center (SNCTC). Please send information regarding your jurisdiction every Monday to A3179S@lvmpd.com, K4294F@lvmpd.com and M13296G@lvmpd.com. All information contained will be treated as open source information. Please provide citations if applicable.

Tactics and Strategies

Boston – Boston Regional Intelligence Center

- Occupy Boston demonstrators protested outside of the Federal Reserve with several demonstrators dressed in “black boc” attire and proceeded to taunt Boston Police Department Mobile Operations Unit personnel. No arrests were made and the demonstration concluded without incident.

Denver – Denver Police Department

- The Denver Black Cross Anarchists, Operation Cop Watch and Street Medics have pulled their support for the Occupy Denver movement. They posted, “As of December 4th, our collective has decided to no longer support Occupy Denver. This means we will not be providing our legal line for Occupy actions; fundraising for the movement; encouraging our members, friends and allies to get involved; as well as serve roles such as CopWatch and Medics. This is in solidarity and coordination with other ally formations such as West Denver CopWatch and the Colorado Street Medics.” While tensions between the anarchists and Occupy movement participants have been observed, this is the first official notice of the break between the groups.
<http://denverabc.wordpress.com/2011/12/09/denver-abc-statement-on-occupy-denver/>

Los Angeles – Los Angeles Police Department

- Undercover police officers infiltrated Occupy LA’s tent city last month. Police stated that there were reports of individuals advocating violence against police and in that vein, it was necessary to investigate. LAPD stated it was not aimed at spying or monitoring those engaged with First Amendment activities.
<http://www.guardian.co.uk/world/2011/dec/11/undercover-police-spied-occupy-la>

New Orleans – New Orleans Police Department

- A 7-day temporary restraining order was granted to Occupy New Orleans by a federal judge, allowing it to reoccupy a downtown park for the next week. An attorney working on behalf of the protesters said that no other Occupy group in the nationwide protests has been granted a judicial permission to reoccupy.
<http://www.courthousenews.com/2011/12/08/42060.htm>

New York/Philadelphia – New York Police Department/Philadelphia Police Department

- A retired Philadelphia police captain was arrested in uniform during Occupy Wall Street protests in New York City has received written warnings from police and union officials. http://www.washingtonpost.com/national/ex-philly-police-captain-arrested-at-ny-occupy-rally-is-warned-to-not-wear-uniform-at-protests/2011/12/08/gIQA0xNYqO_story.html

New York – New York Police Department

- More than 100 Occupy Wall Street demonstrators stormed the set for “Law & Order: Special Victims Unit” across from the Manhattan State Supreme Courthouse, shutting down the production of an OWS-themed episode.

EMERGING ISSUES IN THE OCCUPY MOVEMENT

December 15, 2011

San Francisco - San Francisco Police Department

- An article was posted online describing the emergence of “Pop Up Occupations.” Pop Ups are mobile and small in nature that allow demonstrators to be present in high traffic areas where it wouldn’t typically be possible to have a presence aside of a few members. The Pop Ups change spaces every few days to various protest sites and consist of a tiny kitchen, mobile library, information table, first aid kits, blankets, and sleeping bags. It serves as an education site to assist in educating the public at large on the abuses of the various banks and corporations in the community. <http://scottrossi.tumblr.com/post/13586976835/whack-a-mole-revolution-a-guide-to-pop-up-occupations>

Nationwide Trends

- Occupy Wall Street’s latest effort to attract immigrants is a march for immigrant workers this weekend in New York City. The rally is to raise awareness on immigrant issues and to draw immigrants to a social movement that has largely focused on corporate greed. It takes place on International Migrants Day. The march is being carefully planned in an attempt to prevent the mass arrests that have occurred at other large Occupy rallies across the country. <http://latino.foxnews.com/latino/news/2011/12/12/occupy-immigration-ows-rally-hopes-to-recruit-immigrants/>
- Occupy protesters faced a growing criticism over their attempt to shut down the ports of America’s west coast, with unions condemning the action left hundreds of its members unable to work. Although terminals in Longview, Oakland, and Portland were shut down, plans to shut down the entire west coast failed after other protests saw relatively small turnouts. <http://www.guardian.co.uk/world/2011/dec/13/occupy-activists-failed-port-shutdown?newsfeed=true>
- There is a possibility of national migration to other Occupy encampments due to the eviction and/or dismantling of current Occupy sites.
- The use of “mic checks” has been a new trend as a way to send out a message. However, the messages have been loud and disruptive. Demonstrators have been conducting “mic checks” indoors due to weather conditions and at locations such as malls where many people are shopping for the holiday season. Republican presidential candidate Newt Gingrich was interrupted within seconds of taking the stage at the University of Iowa to argue for the centrality of brain research to his domestic policy. <http://www.theatlantic.com/politics/archive/2011/12/occupy-gingrich-newt-gets-heckled-by-protesters-at-brains-talk/250023/>

December 15, 2011

Officer Safety

The following incidents are a few examples of how some of the Occupy demonstrations have posed a concern for officer safety.

Police arrest an Occupy LA protester during a raid on the encampment.

An Occupy Denver protester shoves an officer's motorcycle.

- November 30, 2011 (Los Angeles, California) – Los Angeles police used nearly a dozen undercover detectives to infiltrate the Occupy LA encampment. The undercover work yielded information that some protesters were preparing bamboo spears and other potentially dangerous weapons in advance of an expected eviction. <http://www.theblaze.com/stories/report-undercover-cops-infiltrated-occupy-la-before-raid/>

- November 17, 2011 (New York, New York) – Two officers were injured after responding to a call for help retrieving metal barricades that protestors had dismantled and taken inside Zuccotti Park. One officer was struck in the left eye with an unknown object. The officer was treated at the scene and taken to a local hospital as a precaution. The second officer was cut on his left thumb when an unknown person hurled a star-shaped glass object at the officer. In a separate incident, a police spokesman said protestors threw a liquid - possibly vinegar - in the faces of four officers during a confrontation. <http://www.nydailynews.com/new-york/mayor-bloomberg-declares-victory-occupy-wall-street-thousands-swarm-manchattan-all-day-rallies-article-1.979111>

- November 13, 2011 (Portland, Oregon) - A traffic stop of a speeding vehicle led to the arrest of three subjects, who claimed to be Occupy Portland demonstrators, and the seizure of homemade incendiary devices, gas masks, and fireworks. http://www.kmtr.com/mostpopular/story/I-5-traffic-stop-yields-incendiary-devices-and/ycnV_cz6m06GhgALQZvew.csp

EMERGING ISSUES IN THE OCCUPY MOVEMENT

December 2, 2011

This bulletin is a joint product of the Major Cities Intelligence Commanders Group (MCC ICG Sub-Committee) and the Southern Nevada Counterterrorism Center (SNCTC). Please send information regarding your jurisdiction every Monday to A3179S@lvmpd.com, K4294F@lvmpd.com and M13296G@lvmpd.com. All information contained will be treated as open source information. Please provide citations if applicable.

Tactics and Strategies

Las Vegas – Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department

- 21 arrests involved in one incident. Arrestees were predetermined by the Occupy group. There have been no other arrests or incidents to date.
- The Las Vegas Occupy has been granted a 90-day permit extension at their current site that expires February 20, 2012.
- “Mic checks” over Black Friday weekend, were conducted at three local malls. A “mic check” is when one person shouts out a message that is repeated by a crowd. <http://www.lvrj.com/news/occupy-las-vegas-protesters-direct-message-at-mall-crowds-134509688.html> Video of “mic check” located: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fxxEtc1UWIE>

Denver – Denver Police Department

- For the first time the Denver movement has incorporated children into their marches as a themed event. Past marches have been taken to the street and blocked traffic, but this one stayed on the sidewalks around a park and used crosswalks when crossing streets.
- Black Friday – Woodland Park, CO a bomb threat caused the local Walmart to evacuate customers while store was searched for several hours, effectively shutting down the business. http://www.kdvr.com/news/sns-ap-co-walmartbombthreat.0.765935.story?track=rss&utm_source=twitterfeed&utm_medium=twitter&utm_campaign=Feed%3A+around-colorado+%28KDVR+-+Around+Colorado%29

Minneapolis – Minneapolis Police Department

- Efforts to disrupt shopping may have had limited effect. Overall retail sales were up in 2011 as compared to 2010.
- The cold weather may be driving participants indoors. There is also some effort to move the protest into vacant/foreclosed homes.

Phoenix – Phoenix Police Department

- There have been approximately 91 arrests since the beginning of the movement.
- Phoenix PD has established an excellent rapport with the Occupy movement through a Community Response Squad. There are plain clothes detectives that act as liaisons with various community groups to include the Occupy protesters. They do not take any enforcement action; they merely communicate and inform the protesters of the law and how we can work together.
- There has been reporting that the Occupy Phoenix movement may be moving to nearby Tempe, AZ or to a private residence and that Occupy protesters from colder climates will be relocating to Arizona. As of yet that has not happened.

EMERGING ISSUES IN THE OCCUPY MOVEMENT

December 2, 2011

Nationwide Trends

- The use of “mic checks” has been a new trend as a way to send out a message. However, the messages have been loud and disruptive. Demonstrators have been conducting “mic checks” indoors due to weather conditions and at locations such as malls where many people are shopping for the holiday season. President Obama was “mic checked” during his speech in Manchester, New Hampshire. http://www.cbsnews.com/8301-503544_162-57329652-503544/mic-check-occupy-protesters-interrupt-obama/

Upcoming Events

Nationwide

- January 20th – “Occupy the Courts” a one-day march at Federal courthouses nationwide during normal business hours to protest the expansion of corporate personhood rights. Locations for this protest will include the United States Supreme Court in Washington D.C.

Las Vegas

- Month of December – “Occupy December” on the Las Vegas Strip. Protesters are planning to protest for a fairer gaming tax rate. Every afternoon, there would be a presence by occupiers with a specific message the group is trying to convey. This event is scheduled to occur every afternoon during the month of December. <http://occupylv.org/topics/occupy-strip>
- December 2nd (11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.)– The occupylasvegas.org website is reporting they will conduct a “mic check” at the University of Nevada Las Vegas (UNLV) Board of Regents meeting. <http://occupylasvegas.org/?event=mic-check-college-administrators>

Denver

- December 3rd (11:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.) - A counterdemonstration to Occupy Wall Street is scheduled on the steps of the state Capitol-just east of where Occupy Denver has been hanging out. <http://blogs.denverpost.com/thespot/2011/11/28/liberty-activists-to-hold-ows-counterdemonstration-in-denver/47944/>
- December 6th – Focus is on foreclosed properties, but at this time there are no announced plans on how they will do this.
- December 10th – 17th “Alternative Day of Action on Human Rights” - “We would like to propose the week starting on the 10th of December (10/12 – 17/12) as a time for alternative forms of protest which will be found after a debate between all of us. The idea is to participate in proposing new forms of action with a creative spirit: we can organize public forums and workshops, flash-mobs, we can promote the movement in local schools and neighborhoods or get in contact with humanitarian organizations working with the same goals.

Milwaukee – Milwaukee Police Department

- December 1st (3:00 p.m.) – “Protest Bush Tax Cuts for Ultra Rich 1% R.I.P. Super Committee” located at Federal Courthouse, 517 East Wisconsin Ave.

EMERGING ISSUES IN THE OCCUPY MOVEMENT

December 2, 2011

St. Louis – St. Louis Metropolitan Police Department

- December 1st (12:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.) – Occufest 2011 located at Kiener Plaza. The event will showcase speakers, music acts, and craft making activities and marches.
- December 6th – National Day for Foreclosures. There are currently no concrete plans; however, they plan on targeting Bank of America for a protest.
- Month of December – “Twelve Days of Occupy/Occupy the Holiday.” The events are not twelve days in a row, but they are planning direct action protests on twelve different days during the month. They state their goal is to “increase visibility around relevant targets during the holiday season.” Their targets include Laclede Gas, Peabody Coal, Bank of America, and Mayor’s Office.

Description: Join in a Labor-Community?-Occupy Day of Action and March on the Key Bridge in Georgetown in protest of the deterioration of our public infrastructure and public services. * Protest will follow a teach-in on the challenges facing public education. A bit from SEIU about why we march: "A report by the non-profit organization, Transportation for America, found that the Key Bridge was one of 215 bridges in the Washington, DC metro area that need substantial repairs or even replacement. But obstructionists in Congress refuse to create jobs by investing in public workers and infrastructure and refuse to make the richest 1% pay a little more in taxes. Enough is enough. Investing in our schools, in public employees, and in repairing bridges that millions of cars drive across each year will not only reduce unemployment, it will make our children, communities, and our country stronger. Please join us on the Key Bridge at 4 pm on Thursday, November 17 to let Congress know that they cannot ignore the 99% who have been hurt the most by this economy any longer." The 99% will be there. Subject: OWS Protesters Calling For 'Day Of Action' Following Loss Of Camp In Zuccotti Park

The loss of their camp at Zuccotti Park doesn't seem to be slowing down the Occupy Wall Street movement as protesters are calling for "a national day of direct action" on Thursday.

According to their website, protesters are planning three major actions Thursday starting with a "shut down" of Wall Street.

It all starts with a rally in Liberty Square starting at 7 a.m. to "put an end to Wall Street's reign of terror."

Occupy Wall Street day of action poster (credit: occupywallst.org)
Then, protesters will fan out to all five boroughs of the city in what's being called Occupy the Subway.

They plan on gathering at 16 subway stations around New York City to take their message to the trains.

Finally, they say tens of thousands of protesters will end the day in Foley Square followed by a march to the Brooklyn Bridge to mark the two month anniversary of the Occupy Wall Street movement.

Their website says similar days of action are also planned at Occupy sites around the country and around the world.

After Tuesday's raid of Zuccotti Park that cleared it of tents, sleeping bags and tarps, protesters marched to Foley and Duarte Square where they distributed a poster about Thursday's day of action.

"The ideas that we have put into public discussion around this country and around the world set into sharp relief who gets what, who has a safety net, who gets thrown under the bus," said spokesman Bill Dobbs.

City leaders who were against the raid at Zuccotti are also set to participate.

While the official movement is planning its day of action, other individuals seem to be making plans of their own.

In a video posted on YouTube after protesters were evicted from Zuccotti Park, a demonstrator in the crowd says "On the 17th, we're going to burn New York City to the ground."

Save the US Postal Service

Fight Back Against Union-Busting,

US Postal Service
demonstration in DC -
Nov. 21, 2011

Gather at Occupy DC (McPherson Square - 15th and K St. NW)
11:45 a.m.: March to National Press Club for a demonstration

(529 14th St. NW - Metro Center)

Join in the call against Donahoe's anti-union agenda and call on Congress to reverse its onerous law that is bleeding postal workers and the public dry in a crusade to stamp out unions and the public postal service.

On November 21, Postmaster General Patrick Donahoe will be speaking at the National Press Club. He won't be talking about how the Postal Service made a net profit of more than $600 million sorting and delivering the mail the past four years. He won't be talking about the fact that the Postal Service isn't even funded by taxpayers and that its revenue is earned from the sale of its products and services. And he won't be talking about the fact that financial problems facing the Postal Service stem from a 2006 congressional mandate that the Postal Service pre-fund future retiree health benefits for the next 75 years and do so within a decade - a burden no other public agency or private firm faces. The Postal Service is actually paying, out of its operating budget, for the future retiree benefits of people who haven't even been born yet.

No, instead Donahoe will be talking about why the Postal Service needs to cut over 100,000 jobs and close down hundreds of post offices nationwide in order to save money. He'll be justifying the union-busting attacks on labor contracts and service cuts that will affect postal workers and literally everyone in the country! While we face a jobs crisis, Donahoe and members of Congress are advancing the agenda of the one percent. They are hell-bent on cutting good jobs at a time of record unemployment in a bid to privatize the Postal Service and put tens of thousands of workers - many of whom are African American - out of work. This cannot happen in the age of Occupy. Donahoe cannot be allowed to attack workers without being confronted and challenged by the 99 percent.

WRTAC/MPD don't have any information on any significant weekend demonstrations this weekend. The only demo being monitored is the October 6, 2011, Freedom Plaza demo. MPD plans on deploying CDU platoons and monitor the situation. I've reached out to Special Activities-MPD for any additional information, so far other than normal protests, they don't anything of significance.

Hackers come out of shadows to attack police, support Occupy protests

October 28, 2011, 1:11 PM — After more than a month of operating only behind the scenes or in the real world, hacktivist group Anonymous has brought its big guns to bear in support of the OccupyWallStreet protests. Members of the group launched a DDOS attack that brought down the main web site of the Oakland Police Department for much of last night, cracked at least part of the security on an Oakland city government server and posted information on the names and data structure of Oakland city servers and the names, addresses and other personal data on Oakland police.

Members of the group have also put out the call for more hacked data and offered a \$1,000 reward for specific data on the officer who fired the riot-control weapon that critically injured Iraq War veteran Scott Olsen.

Olsen, a former Marine who participated in the protest Tuesday night, was apparently struck in the head by either a tear-gas canister or flash-bang grenade fired by Oakland riot police during a violent effort to drive OccupyOakland protesters off the streets.

The 24-year-old "standing perfectly still, provoking no one" according to a witness quoted by the San Francisco Chronicle when he was struck in the face by a projectile that fractured his skull.

He is scheduled for brain surgery today, though doctors have predicted a full recovery for the four-year Marine veteran who did two tours of duty in Iraq before joining Iraq Veterans Against the War after he was discharged in 2010.

Police overreaction sparks more protest

The violence broke out as police tried to clear the protesters' tent city in Oakland's Frank Ogawa plaza. More than 85 protesters were arrested of the thousand or so marching in protest. Most of the demonstration was peaceful, despite what the San Francisco Chronicle called "scuffles" between protesters and police that prompted a dramatic overreaction by Oakland Police who used tear gas, bean-bag guns, batons and stun grenades to stop the violence and disperse the group.

Last night the OccupyOakland General Assembly voted to demand a city wide general strike and mass protest next Wednesday, Nov. 2, to protest the violence and suppression of the protests.

Other hacker groups are also getting in on the fun, though not always aiming specifically at the Oakland police.

A hacker posting for TeaMp0isoN under the name f0rsaken put up a list of police-department web sites that are vulnerable to MSAccess SQL injections along with encouragements to "use your tools, knowledge, whatever it may be" to increase the impact of online protest by cracking the sites and posting data from them.

_forsaken wrote that he/she gained access to the data, but didn't post it in order to let others see how vulnerable the sites are.

Reinvigorated protest means trouble for police

The combination of online and offline protests may turn out to be a far more potent combination than either alone, especially for a movement reinvigorated by police violence, persistently bad economic news and the effort to make a martyr of Scott Olsen – an iconic figure whose status as a recent veteran makes him difficult for Occupy opponents to undermine.

Nov. 2 in Oakland – and the next week or two everywhere else – are going to be interesting ones for protest observers, but probably not pleasant ones for anyone on the opposite side.

"You got the resources," _forsaken wrote. "Do what you need to do, pwn, pwn, pwn."

Description: Join in a Labor-Community?-Occupy Day of Action and March on the Key Bridge in Georgetown in protest of the deterioration of our public infrastructure and public services. * Protest will follow a teach-in on the challenges facing public education. A bit from SEIU about why we march: "A report by the non-profit organization, Transportation for America, found that the Key Bridge was one of 215 bridges in the Washington, DC metro area that need substantial repairs or even replacement. But obstructionists in Congress refuse to create jobs by investing in public workers and infrastructure and refuse to make the richest 1% pay a little more in taxes. Enough is enough. Investing in our schools, in public employees, and in repairing bridges that millions of cars drive across each year will not only reduce unemployment, it will make our children, communities, and our country stronger. Please join us on the Key Bridge at 4 pm on Thursday, November 17 to let Congress know that they cannot ignore the 99% who have been hurt the most by this economy any longer." The 99% will be there. Subject: Occupy Protesters Plan to March From NYC to DC
Date: Wednesday, November 09, 2011 9:32:00 AM

NEW YORK (AP) — Occupy Wall Street is going on the road — a two-week walk to Washington.

A small group of activists plans to leave Manhattan's Zuccotti Park at noon Wednesday and arrive by the Nov. 23 deadline for a congressional committee to decide whether to keep President Barack Obama's extension of Bush-era tax cuts. Protesters say the cuts benefit only rich Americans.

The announcement came the same day that David Crosby and Graham Nash, of Crosby, Stills, Nash & Young, planned an acoustic performance in the park for supporters and passers-by.

Kelley Brannon is organizing the 240-mile march through New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware and Maryland with a core group of a dozen activists, picking up other marchers along the way — even if for a day, or only an hour, they say.

"Occupy the Highway" — as it's been dubbed — will start from the Manhattan park where the first Occupy encampment was set up, with a ferry ride across the Hudson River from West 34th Street to Elizabeth, N.J.

Brannon likened the effort to the long-distance marches led by the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. during the civil rights era.

"I mean, I'm not comparing us to Martin Luther King," said Brannon, of Queens, referring to three marches King led in 1965 from Selma, Ala., to the state Capitol in Montgomery. Those marches ranged in size from 600 to 8,000 people.

"That's the premise Occupy is taking to the road: the historic relevance of such long-distance marches for social causes," Brannon said.

They'll overnight by camping or at volunteered accommodations, she said.

They are to join Occupy D.C. protesters in McPherson Square the evening of Nov. 22, then walk to the Capitol and the White House the next day.

The Joint Select Committee on Deficit Reduction must decide by Nov. 23 to cut $1.2 trillion from the deficit; the tax issue is only one bitter bone of contention among politicians. But it's the top issue for the Occupy activists heading to Washington.

New York's multibillionaire mayor, Michael Bloomberg, whom many protesters consider their adversary as one of America's wealthiest "1 percent," has also called for ending the tax cuts.

"Interesting — but I'm not a Bloomberg supporter," said the 27-year-old Brannon. "I'm not really impressed with what he's doing, though we agree on this one little thing."

The march is being funded with an initial $3,000 approved at Occupy Wall Street's "general assembly" — a daily gathering of protesters to make decisions. The money comes from donations of at least a half-million dollars sent to the New York movement by supporters.

The marchers expect to get more support of both money and supplies along the way — an average of about 20 miles a day from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., walking on highway shoulders, where it's allowed, or on local roads.

They'll hold nightly discussions — along the lines of their general assemblies, at 7 p.m. wherever they are, as they pass through cities with an Occupy presence, such as Philadelphia and Baltimore, as well as towns and rural communities not yet involved.

Subject: OWS Protesters Calling For 'Day Of Action' Following Loss Of Camp In Zuccotti Park
Date: Wednesday, November 16, 2011 11:22:00 AM

The loss of their camp at Zuccotti Park doesn't seem to be slowing down the Occupy Wall Street movement as protesters are calling for "a national day of direct action" on Thursday.

According to their website, protesters are planning three major actions Thursday starting with a "shut down" of Wall Street.

It all starts with a rally in Liberty Square starting at 7 a.m. to "put an end to Wall Street's reign of terror."

Occupy Wall Street day of action poster (credit: occupywallst.org)
Then, protesters will fan out to all five boroughs of the city in what's being called Occupy the Subway.

They plan on gathering at 16 subways stations around New York City to take their message to the trains.

Finally, they say tens of thousands of protesters will end the day in Foley Square followed by a march to the Brooklyn Bridge to mark the two month anniversary of the Occupy Wall Street movement.

Their website says similar days of action are also planned at Occupy sites around the country and around the world.

After Tuesday's raid of Zuccotti Park that cleared it of tents, sleeping bags and tarps, protesters marched to Foley and Duarte Square where they distributed a poster about Thursday's day of action.

"The ideas that we have put into public discussion around this country and around the world set into sharp relief who gets what, who has a safety net, who gets thrown under the bus," said spokesman Bill Dobbs.

City leaders who were against the raid at Zuccotti are also set to participate.

While the official movement is planning its day of action, other individuals seem to be making plans of their own.

In a video posted on YouTube after protesters were evicted from Zuccotti Park, a demonstrator in the crowd says "On the 17th, we're going to burn New York City to the ground.”

The Minneapolis occupation has dwindled down to nothing. This appears to be due to the cold temps more than anything else. As a result, protesters have pretty much abandoned the Government Center Plaza in favor of homes that are in the foreclosure process. To date, they have been in 3 homes. The homeowner asked protesters to leave the 1st one due to several fights, Minneapolis police removed them from the 2nd home because it has been sold out of foreclosure, and they have now moved into the 3rd at the homeowners request. This house is several months from eviction, so they may be there for quite a while. Government Center Security is clearing out the abandoned property from the plaza today.

Activists announce 'Freedom Plaza occupation' schedule in Washington

Sun Oct 2, 2011 6:46PM GMT

Share | Email | Print

Anti-war activists and protesters will be holding a series of events in Washington in the next couple of days which will culminate in anti-war protests in Washington, D.C.'s Freedom Plaza on October 6th.

The following is the schedule of the events as posted by October 2011.org.

Tuesday Oct.4

1 to 5 pm: Nonviolence Training at St. Stephen and the Incarnation Episcopal Church at 1525 Newton Street NW at the corner of 16th St and Newton.

Wednesday Oct. 5

1 to 5 pm: Peacekeeper Training at St. Stephen and the Incarnation Episcopal Church at 1525 Newton Street NW at the corner of 16th St and Newton. Contact takauff@gmail.com to register.

5 to 6 pm: Legal Observer Training at St. Stephen and the Incarnation Episcopal Church at 1525 Newton Street NW at the corner of 16th St and Newton. Green hats provided.

6 to 8 pm: Kickoff Event - Let's Get this Revolution Started at Busboys and Poets 1025 5th Street Northwest (5th and K street).

Join CODEPINK at the kickoff event, Let's Get This Revolution Started!, to mark the eve of the October 2011 events in Freedom Plaza/DC. Listen to awesome peace troubadour David Rovics, meet and greet other activists, get up-to-date info from the organizers, and get inspired for the exciting days ahead. We'll have music, speakers and spoken word, along with a best sign and best chant contest (with "valuable" prizes). Cost: A Hand-made Sign and a Heart-felt Chant.

7 pm: Film Event - Scarred Lands and Wounded Lives, The Environmental Footprint of War at West End Cinema 23rd St, NW (between M and N, Entrance on 23rd).

Thursday Oct. 6

9:00 am - Arrival in Freedom Plaza - registration to receive information and sign up to volunteer, teach classes and join a committee.

10:00 am - Review of DC Laws relating to nonviolent direct action.

12:00 pm - Concert and Rally - featuring The Raging Grannies, Head Roc and Junkyard Empire, and spoken word artists as well as Rabbi Michael Lerner, Ashley Sanders, Cheri Honkala, Glen Ford and Kevin Zeese.

2:30 pm - Activities off Freedom Plaza

6:30 pm - Evening Program - featuring the music of Emily Angell, Emma's Revolution and Watermelon Slim and Elaine Brower, Jacob George of A Ride Til The End, The Afghan Youth Peace Volunteers, Ted Rall and Chris Hedges.

9:00 pm - Candlelight vigil

Schedule beginning Oct. 7

9:00 am to 12:00 pm - Workshops and classes (schedule TBA)

12:00 to 1:00 pm - Lunch

1:00 to 3:00 pm - Activities off Freedom Plaza

3:00 to 5:00 pm - Committee meetings

5:00 to 7:00 pm - Open mic on main stage

7:00 to 10:00 pm - Evening Assembly including music and arts and committee reports. Evening assemblies will be livestreamed (more information to come).

Friday Oct. 7: Other activities

12:00 pm: Rally During the Hearings on the Keystone XL Tar Sands Pipeline at the Ronald Reagan Building in Washington, DC. Meet at the 14th St. entrance between Pennsylvania Ave. and Constitution Ave. The Rally During the Hearings on The Keystone XL Tar Sands Pipeline is now the biggest environmental decision facing the President before the next election. The rally will kick off one month of escalating actions across the country, culminating in a giant action on November 6th back in DC - one year from the next election - that will try to encircle the White House.

6 - 9 pm: War Voices: Building Community After a Decade of Struggle at Home and Abroad at St. Margaret's Episcopal Church 1830 Connecticut Ave NW, near Dupont. Through a unique series of speakers, cultural performances, and art, War Voices will explore the ongoing occupation of Afghanistan. The evening will feature speakers from many perspectives, including Afghan civilians, veterans and military families of the Global War on Terror, as well as a cross-section of social justice advocates, activists, and organizers. Transportation provided from Freedom Plaza.

Saturday Oct.8

12:00 pm: Rally and concert

Occupy Wall Street gains institutional cheerleaders

A live feed from Occupy Wall Street was played at the opening of a major annual gathering of liberal groups in Washington, as progressive organizers try to build on the protests momentum. They set an example of all of us, of discipline, of non-violence in the heart of the belly of the beast, said Robert Borosage, co-director of the Campaign for Americas Future, which organized the conference. We are going to keep building here, over the next three days we were going to build plans for the next 18 months.

(SOURCE: GETT IMAGES) With attendees from Washington's major progressive institutions from MoveOn.org and labor unions to the Center for American Progress and members of the House Progressive Caucus the CAF conference had already been planned a Wednesday march on Capitol Hill to advocate for jobs not cuts. Now the conference's progressive leaders are urging them to support a D.C. offshoot of Occupy Wall Street, which converged Sunday at McPherson Square. On Thursday, they'll protest the role of corporate money in politics. Occupy K Street is starting. It's from Wall Street to K Street, says Liz Butler, campaign director for climate advocacy group 1Sky. To send the same message to corporate lobbyists that's being sent to Congress and Wall Street. It's a beautiful moment of convergence versus Wall Street, versus cuts, for our future.

But exactly how these long-standing progressive groups will relate to Occupy Wall Street is still unclear. Local union affiliates have joined the New York protesters and contributed food to the encamped participants, but the movement has yet to converge upon the kind of agenda that established groups have been pushing for. In fact, the CAF conference will be organizing a lunch Tuesday to discuss the best way to support the expanding protests and, perhaps, to link their own organizing efforts with the burgeoning movement. You can watch a live feed of the three-day conference here.

Good Morning Lindsay!

I don't know if your working this morning or not, however I wanted to forward this to you to give you a heads up!

So far the only thing I can find on this is a call to the DC Fire Department who responded to this fire call (CCN# 11-157-658).

The area this occurred in is a high crime area, where stolen vehicles are frequently abandoned and then burned to destroy any evidence.

The fact that witnesses indicate a male was seen running from the burning vehicle with a gas can supports that the vehicle was burned and did not explode. It was also left on the shoulder of the roadway, most likely for the suspects safety.

If it was an AQ pre-operational plan to take out infrastructure (Bridge) to block regress from the city; AQ would have most likely used high grade explosives and detontaed the vehicle in the middle of the roadway; NOT LIKELY!

I will continue to run to verify my educated guess that this was a stolen vehicle that was set on fire to destroy evidence.

I have also forwarded to ATF TFO Robert Poole, who has forwarded to their Public Affairs Specialist, to control the spin.

A car exploded at The Washington Times shortly after 9 pm last night. Employees of the paper saw a dark-skinned man carrying a gas can running away from the burning vehicle parked squarely under an overpass comprising a section of New York Avenue NE. He jumped into a silver-colored sedan waiting at the exit and fled east towards Maryland.

DC Metropolitan Police on the scene speculated the perpetrators were trying to pull off insurance fraud or dispose of a vehicle that was stolen or used in a robbery. Other possibilities under investigation are whether Occupy Wall Street protesters were opening a new offensive or Al Qaeda was engaging in a practice run to test its ability to take out a bridge on a main artery into and out of the nation's capital.

Representatives for the fire department, FBI and ATF had no response.

Below is list of points within the video where specific topics of interest are discussed. More info at www.99indc.org (also in video).

<http://www.ustream.tv/recorded/18691606>

2:30- speak about dates/times

2:45- discuss being funded by labor unions and confirmed numbers of people traveling to DC

5:07- discuss occupying offices of 100 congress members

5:50- discuss crashing events (doing "mic checks")

11:55- again talk about travel costs being paid by unions

Mark,

Per your request, I have attached the only product the NJ ROIC produced regarding Occupy New Jersey. FYI, on October 6, 2011, Occupy New Jersey held simultaneous rallies in Jersey City and Trenton, New Jersey, to protest corporate policies they claim negatively impact the U.S. economy. Their numbers were minimal at the time (approximately less than 100 total participants), and even fewer remain to date. There have been sporadic rallies in other municipalities - college towns mostly - and no incidents of violence. The NJ ROIC still has no specific information indicating a credible threat associated with this group.

The second attachment is the Arizona Counter-Terrorism Information Center (ACTIC)'s summary of nationwide information regarding "Occupy" demonstrations. It is a bit dated, but ACTIC indicates that the September-October "Occupy" demonstrations generated approximately 27,000 participants, and led to more than 1,000 arrests (mostly in large cities: New York City (830+); Boston, MA (130); Seattle, WA (27). Most of the arrests have been for trespassing, disorderly or interfering with park employees.). The protests have mostly been "leaderless," although various "general assemblies" of organizers or group representatives have gotten together to plan activities. Several cities have noted "anarchists" trying to take control of the events; however, most of these have been rejected by participants. Although the protesters often set up base camps with tents in centralized areas, many of the events involve marches from downtown or state capitol areas to financial areas, Federal reserve/ bank buildings. The vast majority of the participants have been peaceful, cooperative and law abiding.

The third attachment is DHS's background information.

I am sure you are aware of the ongoing "Occupy Highway" march to the White House. The marchers expect to be in Washington, DC by November 23, 2011, for the Congressional Super Committee meeting. I am not sure if they are keeping to their original schedule, but I have posted the remaining dates here:

11/15/11: Occupy Philly to Wilmington, DE
11/16/11: Wilmington, DE to Newark, DE
11/17/11: Newark, DE to Rising Sun, MD
11/18/11: Rising Sun, MD to Bel Air, MD
11/19/11: Bel Air, MD to Occupy Baltimore
11/20/11: DAY OFF AT OCCUPY BALTIMORE
11/21/11: Occupy Baltimore to Laurel, MD

The NJ ROIC recognizes that Americans have constitutionally protected rights to assemble, speak, and petition the government. The NJ ROIC safeguards these rights, noting that violent extremists could disrupt legal activities, interfering with otherwise peaceful events.

Subject: Occupy the Highway - March from Richmond to DC

Greetings,

The social media is reporting that a march is planned by individuals involved in the Occupy Richmond and Occupy DC groups in the next week. The march is being called Occupy the Highway and no specific number of participants has been found but the could be around 40 starting the march with their numbers growing as they get closer to DC with anywhere from 500 to 1000 people at this point. Their current plan is as follows:

- Wednesday November 16, cover 18.5 miles from Richmond to Hanover
- Thursday - November 17 to cover 19.9 miles, Hanover to Bowling Green
- Friday November 18 to cover 20 miles, Bowling Green to Fredericksburg
- Saturday November 19 there will be a rally at 100 hours in Fredericksburg and then 13.2 miles, Fredericksburg to Aquia Pines
- Sunday November 20 to cover 15.7 miles, Aquia Pines to Woodbridge
- Monday November 21 to cover the 16.8 miles, Woodbridge to Alexandria
- Tuesday November 22 there will be a rally in Market Square at 12 noon and then cover the 8.0 miles from Alexandria to Occupy DC

While these individuals have a right to protest under the First Amendment, their presence during the march north could generate safety issues which frequently occur between pedestrian and motor vehicle traffic. Updates to this event will be provided as they are made available.
