Subject: DCCC PAC Event at 1515 15th Street NW.
Date: Wednesday, November 30, 2011 12:55:46 PM

Per our discussion on the phone.

The DCCC will be hosting a PAC reception on Thursday December 1st at the W Hotel located at 1515 15th street NW. We are expecting approximately 300 attendees which will include approximately 80-90 Members of Congress. Among the Members of Congress we are expecting at least two members of Congressional leadership to attend.

Out Intelligence section has provided information that approximately 200 protestors from the Occupy DC group plan to disrupt the reception by interfering with traffic and hotel access. A smaller group is planning to try to gain access to the event and cause disruptions there. Protestors plan to start toward the Hotel around 1715 hours.

We are asking for a MPD presence and point of contact at the F street entrance to respond to protestors. We would also like to restrict parking in the 1400 block of Pennsylvania Ave NW from 1530-2130 hours to stage our police vehicles and limos.

If you could let me know what assets you are to provide I would appreciate it. Any assistance you are to provide would be greatly appreciated. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions or need additional information.

Jackson Browne Sings At Freedom Plaza on Monday Between 1 and 2 PM

Jackson Brown, who donated three bike generators to Freedom Plaza, will be joining us on Monday, probably in the afternoon. We will announce the time as soon as we have the information.

Brown went to Occupy Wall Street last week and sang a couple of songs with Dawes. He sang a new sone he wrote for the Occupy Movement which asks -- which side are you on?

The following incidents occurred within the last 24 hours:

A wooden barn-like structure was erected in the southwest quadrant of McPherson Square in the morning of 12/04/11. Officers responded and instructed the protestors to take down the structure within an hour as it was not permitted. The protestors refused and staged an occupancy on and within the structure. USPP officers established a perimeter as resources were called in. Initially 9 arrests were made within the park for crossing a police line, disorderly conduct or failure to obey lawful order. Once the area was isolated and secured with sufficient resources to include; DOI Solicitor's Office, MPD, Metro Transit, DC FEMS and NPS Maintenance, the DCRA conducted an inspection of the structure and deemed that it was unsafe (12 DCMR 115.1). It was appropriately placarded by the DCRA Inspector. USPP then ordered the protestors to leave the structure and they refused. A police line was established around the structure, warnings were given and arrests were affected to 18 protestors within the structure. 6 remained on the roof and a tactical plan was established to safely extricate them from the structure. Once all protestors were removed from the structure it was disassembled and removed from the park without further incident. The park was reopened to the public at approximately 2330 hours. Total arrests=31

Events Scheduled for today

Effective today at 0600 USPP will provide 24 hour coverage to both McPherson and Freedom.

Jackson Browne will be giving a concert to the Freedom Plaza group today at 1300.

Looks like the Occupy DC movement is planning on trying to disrupt a DCCC fundraising event at the W Hotel tomorrow night. They are planning on causing the disruption at the same time as the tree lighting ceremony is taking place around 1700 hours. Several members of congress are expected to be at the event.

Protestors are allegedly going to try to block intersections and gain entry into the event to disrupt it. The W Hotel is actually at 515 15th Street, near 15th and F Street.

See information from USCP:

Director Bellamy,

Attached is the detour plan, the plan for placement of the VMS signage for the potential disruption of the evening rush hour on the Key Bridge. Media relations are being handled by the Office of Communications. The email traffic on 11/16/11 indicates that MPD will have the point for media

Per your direction 20 TCOs will be available to direct traffic at key intersections in the Georgetown area. These folks will be positioned in the vicinity by 3:00 pm. The placement will be coordinate with MPD and consistent with the detour plans attached. If additional traffic control personnel are needed SCGs will be added upon the completion of their shifts at their assigned intersections.

It is proposed that the DDOT Point of Contact will be the Associate Director Transportation Operations Administration. Please confirm your agreement with this action.

ACTION ALERT

November 15, 2011

MichaelMoore.com supports dropping the charges

Support the Brooklyn Bridge arrestees in court today, request charges be dropped

Dear Constituent,

Defenders of Free Speech rights are rallying all across the country in the face of unrelenting police assaults, mass arrests and evictions aimed to stifle the new protest movement.

By acting together and acting now each of us can make a difference.

People rallied throughout the night to support the rights of the Occupy Wall Street encampment as the NYPD moved to destroy the protest.

Today and throughout the week, the first large groups of Brooklyn Bridge arrestees are having to return to court.

Michael Moore's website MichaelMoore.com has joined the demand that free speech be protected by asking Manhattan District Attorney, Cyrus Vance, Jr. to drop the charges against the more than 700 people who were illegally arrested on the Brooklyn Bridge on October 1.

MichaelMoore.com is featuring a front page call to drop the charges and an article written by Mara Verheyden-Hilliard, Executive Director of the Partnership for Civil Justice Fund (PCJF) that exposes the illegality of the notorious police tactic known as "Trap and Arrest".

Over the last three days there has been a massive outpouring from thousands who have called on the Manhattan D.A. to dismiss all charges.

Subject: NPS release re: those exercising 1st Amendment

Hello,

The following document is from NPS, it has been distributed to those exercising their 1st Amendment Rights.

National Park Service Distributes Educational Flyers to Occupy DC Demonstrators at McPherson Square

The National Park Service (NPS) today distributed educational flyers to the people in McPherson Square who are participating in a First Amendment demonstration. The flyers provide the demonstrators with guidance on how they can comply with park regulations, protect the cultural and natural resources at the Square, as well as protect the health and safety of visitors and NPS staff.

The National Park Service takes very seriously its tradition of providing opportunities for First Amendment activities, said Bob Vogel, superintendent of the National Mall and Memorial Parks. We hope that by providing guidance to the people who are exercising those rights at McPherson Square, we can ensure that everyone has a good experience while they are here.

Help Us Preserve McPherson Square National Mall and Memorial Parks National Park Service

The National Park Service has a long and proud tradition of providing opportunities for the exercise of First Amendment rights. The national parks of Washington, DC are used almost every day as places for First Amendment demonstrations and for citizens engaged in civil debate over serious issues facing our nation.

The National Park Service is also required to protect our important cultural and natural resources. To help you help us with that responsibility and comply with park regulations, we are providing some guidelines for visitors using the parks, regardless of the reason for their visit.

Safety Guidelines:

Generators: For safety reasons and to protect natural resources, any generator must:

Be surrounded by a fence of at least three feet in height;?

Be placed on matting. Matting must be made of three-quarter inch plywood, or other material agreed to by the National Park Service, topped by a plastic tarp impermeable to fuel, with absorbent material on top of tarp;?

Have a drip pan under the fueling nozzle.?

You may refuel generators on parkland only between the hours of 5:00 am and 8:00 am. Storage of generator fuel in the park is not allowed. Fuel is defined as a hazardous material by the Environmental Protection Agency, and fuel spills pose a danger to human health. You must immediately report all fuel spills to the District of Columbia Fire Department by dialing 911 and to the United States Park Police dispatch at (202) 610-7500 so that corrective action can be taken.

Restrooms: There are no restrooms in the park although organizers may provide their own portable temporary toilets in coordination with the park. The National Park Service recommends a minimum of one portable toilet per 300 people, with at least 20 percent of facilities handicapped accessible. Public urination or defecation is prohibited.

Trash: The National Park Service will provide trash receptacles in convenient locations and will empty them at least three times per day. All trash and debris must be cleared from the park and placed in the park trash receptacles at the conclusion of each days events.

Resource Protection Guidelines

Existing natural and cultural resources, and landscape features, must be protected from damage or injury. The following rules apply to McPherson Square:

In order to protect the General McPherson statue, food or drink should not be consumed at the base of the statue. Food and drinks, particularly drinks with a high sugar content and dyes (such as soda and sports drinks), leave permanent stains;

Nothing may be attached or affixed to the statue or passed through landscape features, trees or other vegetation;?

To help allow the turf to get the sunlight and water needed to survive, we recommend that any temporary structures or tents with attached flooring placed on grass should be relocated every four days.?

While temporary structures or tents are allowed in the park under some circumstances, camping is not permitted. Camping is defined at 36 CFR 7.96(i)(1) as the use of park land for living accommodation purposes such as sleeping activities, or making preparations to sleep (including the laying down of bedding for the purpose of sleeping) or storing personal belongings, or making any fire, or using any tents or shelter or other structure or vehicle for sleeping or doing any digging or earth breaking. . . . To allow for visual inspection and monitoring, all temporary structures and tents must have at least one open side.

The basis for these rules and guidelines can be found in Title 36 Code of Federal Regulations sections 2.1, 2.14, 2.31 and 7.96; the National Mall and Memorial Parks Compendium compiled under 36 C.F.R. 1.7; and the National Park Service, National Capital Region - Requirements for Special Events Held on Parkland. These documents can be viewed and downloaded at www.nps.gov/nama/planyourvisit/permits.htm.

National Park Service rangers will be distributing this notice, as well as posting it, at the park. National Park Service rangers and United States Park Police officers will continue to monitor the park to ensure compliance and answer questions. Your cooperation is appreciated.

If you have any questions, or would like a copy of the regulations, please contact Robbin Owen, Chief, Permits Management at 202-245-4715.

Subject: RE: Occupy Wall Street Movement

Good afternoon:

The meeting is officially set for Wednesday, November 16, 2011, starting at 1000 hours in conference room B-1, in the PLC II building on the Pentagon Reservation. Tomorrow I will forward a formal invitation and provide instructions on how, and where you need to go to gain access into the area, as well as providing parking directions.

I ask that you please work with me by providing the information for you, and those who are coming with you, especially non uniformed personnel. I need to develop a list of attendees to provide to the officers at the access portal which will make the entry as easy as possible for you and your guests. As I stated earlier, feel free to extend an invitation to those you feel would benefit from the information being developed as long as you provide their information.

Information requested on attendees

Full Name - Agency being represented - cell phone number - email address

Agenda:

We have booked the conference room for 1000-1200 hours and I look to follow the agenda listed.

0930-1000 Arrival and entry on to the Reservation
1000-1030 Registration and Socialization
1030-1050 PFPA Intelligence briefing on the history of the Movement and information regarding current activities and future events planned in the area.
1050-1130 MPD briefing on experiences with the Movement and the tactics and actions used by the Group.
1130-1200 The "way ahead" discussions as we break off into two (2) groups made of operational law enforcement and intelligence personnel

Once registration is complete, we will provide everyone with a full roster of all personnel in attendance.

Should you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me directly at the numbers provided. Once again thanks for the positive response, and I look forward to meeting with you on Wednesday. In the meantime, please send the information to me directly at this email address.

Thanks,

Jim

Subject: Occupy Wall Street Movement

Good afternoon everyone:

Thank you all for responding to yesterday's message regarding the Occupy Wall Street Movement, and by judging from the positive response, there seems to be a genuine interest to work together on this project. As a result, we have moved forward and scheduled the meeting for Wednesday, November 16, 2011, at 10000 hours, here at the Pentagon. Additional information will be forthcoming regarding room number, entry onto the Reservation and the parking arrangements, but I wanted to get the notification out as soon as I could, so you can mark your calendars.

Please reach out to your intelligence folks to join you at this meeting, as it is our intent to have a two pronged session that includes all participants, and then a breakout of uniformed and Intel personnel. I ask that once you have identified the number of personnel from your agency/department that will be in attendance, please send me a copy of the names, and their email address for our records, so we can include them in future messages. If there are any other agencies that you feel would benefit from this meeting, please feel free to invite them as well, and forward me their contact information.

As I stated earlier, additional information will be forthcoming at the beginning of next week and until then, should you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me at the numbers listed below.

Subject: October 6th Coalition- First Amendment Protest-Multi-Agency Briefing/ Planning Meeting Request

The United States Park Police will host a multi-agency briefing/planning meeting on the permitted first amendment activities in Lafayette Park and Freedom Plaza for the October 6th Coalition scheduled for October 6-9, 2011. In addition to these scheduled events, other protests will be held at the Ronald Reagan building for the Keystone XL Tar Sands Pipeline hearings and the "United for Peace" group will be protesting at the U.S. Capitol. Scheduled Special Events this weekend also include the Army-10 mile run and the Taste of D.C event.

The purpose of the meeting is to share information, discuss potential civil disobedience, potential high volume arrests, traffic closures and sharing of resources. I am hoping that outside agencies can share their operational plans for the protests impacting their primary jurisdictions. It is anticipated that some of the protesters participating in the Occupy Wall Street, NYC demonstrations will be in attendance in the District of Columbia this weekend.

The meeting will take place at the U.S. Park Police Anacostia Operations Facility (AOF) auditorium on Wednesday, October 5, 2011 at 1415 hours. This meeting will be following an internal U.S. Park Police command staff meeting. Outside agencies arriving early will be held in the lobby of AOF until the USPP meeting concludes at 1400 hours.

I look forward to your participation.

Thanks

Subject: October 6th Coalition- First Amendment Protest-Multi-Agency Briefing/
Planning Meeting Request

The United States Park Police will host a multi-agency briefing/planning meeting on the permitted first amendment activities in Lafayette Park and Freedom Plaza for the October 6th Coalition scheduled for October 6-9, 2011. In addition to these scheduled events, other protests will be held at the Ronald Reagan building for the Keystone XL Tar Sands Pipeline hearings and the "United for Peace" group will be protesting at the U.S. Capitol. Scheduled Special Events this weekend also include the Army-10 mile run and the Taste of D.C event.

The purpose of the meeting is to share information, discuss potential civil disobedience, potential high volume arrests, traffic closures and sharing of resources. I am hoping that outside agencies can share their operational plans for the protests impacting their primary jurisdictions. It is anticipated that some of the protesters participating in the Occupy Wall Street, NYC demonstrations will be in attendance in the District of Columbia this weekend.

The meeting will take place at the U.S. Park Police Anacostia Operations Facility (AOF) auditorium on Wednesday, October 5, 2011 at 1415 hours. This meeting will be following an internal U.S. Park Police command staff meeting. Outside agencies arriving early will be held in the lobby of AOF until the USPP meeting concludes at 1400 hours.

I look forward to your participation.

Thanks

Thanks. Definite issue. Will share with EOD. Would also be good to get out as a bulletin to patrol.

With the events from Oakland last night, we can expect more solidarity actions from other occupy movements.

FYSA,

As a component of the "Occupy Wall Street" protests taking place in numerous cities through the U.S., organizers are encouraging individuals to send Business Reply Mail envelopes stuffed with miscellaneous items back to the banks to voice their displeasure with the economy. There are numerous YouTube videos, associated with the protest movement, which advocate sending mailings to the banks.

One of the videos specifically warns against sending unidentified powders; however, we have had at least one incident nationwide where a white powder was included in the mailing.

The protesters advocate sending other items, like wood shims, coins, and even roofing shingles. Please keep this in mind if responding to any report of a suspicious powder/item addressed to a financial institution.

Also commander other factors on filters is that as a members separate from MPD we do not recycle there filter. Not sure how many members have departed since December 2008 when the group of new 4000 filters were bought and issued. Another factor is that back in 2008 we gave civilians gas mask and filters also that would increase the number out of that purchase.

Thank you for your ear this morning, another thing to bring up to the command staff so that we are ready for any protest like Oakland has been having. There needs to be personnel checks of everyone's CDU gear (Helmet, Riot Gloves, gas mask/filters and batons/baton holders. Additionally, to make sure everyone has the white numbers on there helmets. We are out of numbers and maybe that is something Property division can purchase with their budget so we have them on hand here at DSO and in the CDU van. Members should be reminded to wear there bullet proof vest as part of their chest protection during acts of protest.

FYSA,

As a component of the "Occupy Wall Street" protests taking place in numerous cities through the U.S., organizers are encouraging individuals to send Business Reply Mail envelopes stuffed with miscellaneous items back to the banks to voice their displeasure with the economy. There are numerous YouTube videos, associated with the protest movement, which advocate sending mailings to the banks.

One of the videos specifically warns against sending unidentified powders; however, we have had at least one incident nationwide where a white powder was included in the mailing.

The protesters advocate sending other items, like wood shims, coins, and even roofing shingles. Please keep this in mind if responding to any report of a suspicious powder/item addressed to a financial institution.

Thanks,

Josh McCallister

Also commander other factors on filters is that as a members separate from MPD we do not recycle there filter. Not sure how many members have departed since December 2008 when the group of new 4000 filters were bought and issued. Another factor is that back in 2008 we gave civilians gas mask and filters also that would increase the number out of that purchase.

USPP just established the perimeter, which is the southern portion of the park. React Team is assisting with the SE quadrant.

DCRA will determine if the structure is safe/permitted. After this determination is made the remaining protesters in the structure (Approx. 12 persons) will be given warnings to evacuate the structure.

Approx. 12 arrests made thus far (majority of the charges are for crossing a police line).

Subject: #12 McPherson/Freedom Daily

Within the past 24 hours the following incidents were noted

Officers responded to McPherson Sqare overnight for a report of an assault. Officers were directed to a female who had superficial injuries to arm, hand and face. The victim did not want to talk to police. Officers convinced her to come to the D-1 station to be interviewed. Investigation revealed that she was in a verbal argument with her boyfriend which led to a physical altercation resulting in her injuries. The victim was intoxicated at the time of the report and did not want to press charges. USPP Detectives went to the area in an attempt to locate the suspect, but were unsuccessful in doing so. Follow-up to be conducted.

Schedule of events

There are no scheduled events other than on site meetings and lectures at both locations. Freedom Plaza will be collecting material for a recycleable Christmas Tree which is scheduled to be lit on Tuesday. Information will be passed to Park Programs for follow up.

Articles of interest

Washington Post Article which compares Occupy DC to the 1968 Resurrection City. Resurrection City occurred around the Reflecting Pool and was the encampment for approximately 3000 demonstrators.

The victim did not want to talk to police. Officers convinced her to come to the D-1 station to be interviewed. Investigation revealed that she was in a verbal argument with her boyfriend which led to a physical altercation resulting in her injuries. The victim was intoxicated at the time of the report and did not want to press charges. USPP Detectives went to the area in an attempt to locate the suspect, but were unsuccessful in doing so. Follow-up to be conducted.

Schedule of events

There are no scheduled events other than on site meetings and lectures at both locations. Freedom Plaza will be collecting material for a recycleable Christmas Tree which is scheduled to be lit on Tuesday. Information will be passed to Park Programs for follow up.

Subject: #12 McPherson/Freedom Daily

Within the past 24 hours the following incidents were noted

Officers responded to McPherson Sqare overnight for a report of an assault. Officers were directed to a female who had superficial injuries to arm, hand and face. The victim did not want to talk to police. Officers convinced her to come to the D-1 station to be interviewed. Investigation revealed that she was in a verbal argument with her boyfriend which led to a physical altercation resulting in her injuries. The victim was intoxicated at the time of the report and did not want to press charges. USPP Detectives went to the area in an attempt to locate the suspect, but were unsuccessful in doing so. Follow-up to be conducted.

Schedule of events

There are no scheduled events other than on site meetings and lectures at both locations. Freedom Plaza will be collecting material for a recycleable Christmas Tree which is scheduled to be lit on Tuesday. Information will be passed to Park Programs for follow up.

Subject: #12 McPherson/Freedom Daily

Within the past 24 hours the following incidents were noted

Officers responded to McPherson Sqare overnight for a report of an assault. Officers were directed to a female who had superficial injuries to arm, hand and face. The victim did not want to talk to police. Officers convinced her to come to the D-1 station to be interviewed. Investigation revealed that she was in a verbal argument with her boyfriend which led to a physical altercation resulting in her injuries. The victim was intoxicated at the time of the report and did not want to press charges. USPP Detectives went to the area in an attempt to locate the suspect, but were unsuccessful in doing so. Follow-up to be conducted.

Schedule of events

There are no scheduled events other than on site meetings and lectures at both locations. Freedom Plaza will be collecting material for a recycleable Christmas Tree which is scheduled to be lit on Tuesday. Information will be passed to Park Programs for follow up.

Articles of interest

Washington Post Article which compares Occupy DC to the 1968 Resurrection City. Resurrection City occurred around the Reflecting Pool and was the encampment for approximately 3000 demonstrators.

Structure has been totally removed.

The number of protesters has dwindled significantly.

USPP plans to reopen the southern portion of the park in the near future.

NPS will coordinate the removal of the light towers tomorrow morning.

A transition of command has occurred. Previous operational period personnel have been relieved.

Unified Command demob'd.

USPP Command as follows:

IC - Major Pat Smith

OPS - Capt Phil Beck

Mobile Command remains.

Just wanted to thank all involved. By all accounts, the professionalism and dedication of the NPS, USPP, and all external partners, was evident.

Within the past 24 hours the following incidents were noted

Officers responded to McPherson Sqare overnight for a report of an assault. Officers were directed to a female who had superficial injuries to arm, hand and face. The victim did not want to talk to police. Officers convinced her to come to the D-1 station to be interviewed. Investigation revealed that she was in a verbal argument with her boyfriend which led to a physical altercation resulting in her injuries. The victim was intoxicated at the time of the report and did not want to press charges. USPP Detectives went to the area in an attempt to locate the suspect, but were unsuccessful in doing so. Follow-up to be conducted.

Subject: NPS release re: those exercising 1st Amendment
Date: Thursday, October 27, 2011 1:00:39 PM

Hello,

The following document is from NPS, it has been distributed to those exercising their 1st Amendment Rights.

National Park Service Distributes Educational Flyers to Occupy DC Demonstrators at McPherson Square

The National Park Service (NPS) today distributed educational flyers to the people in McPherson Square who are participating in a First Amendment demonstration. The flyers provide the demonstrators with guidance on how they can comply with park regulations, protect the cultural and natural resources at the Square, as well as protect the health and safety of visitors and NPS staff.

The National Park Service takes very seriously its tradition of providing opportunities for First Amendment activities, said Bob Vogel, superintendent of the National Mall and Memorial Parks. We hope that by providing guidance to the people who are exercising those rights at McPherson Square, we can ensure that everyone has a good experience while they are here.

Help Us Preserve McPherson Square

National Mall and Memorial Parks National Park Service

The National Park Service has a long and proud tradition of providing opportunities for the exercise of First Amendment rights. The national parks of Washington, DC are used almost every day as places for First Amendment demonstrations and for citizens engaged in civil debate over serious issues facing our nation.

The National Park Service is also required to protect our important cultural and natural resources. To help you help us with that responsibility and comply with park regulations, we are providing some guidelines for visitors using the parks, regardless of the reason for their visit.

Safety Guidelines:

Generators: For safety reasons and to protect natural resources, any generator must:

- ? Be surrounded by a fence of at least three feet in height;
- ? Be placed on matting. Matting must be made of three-quarter inch plywood, or other material agreed to by the National Park Service, topped by a plastic tarp impermeable to fuel, with absorbent material on top of tarp;
- ? Have a drip pan under the fueling nozzle.

You may refuel generators on parkland only between the hours of 5:00 am and 8:00 am. Storage of generator fuel in the park is not allowed. Fuel is defined as a hazardous material by the Environmental Protection Agency, and fuel spills pose a danger to human health. You must immediately report all fuel spills to the District of Columbia Fire Department by dialing 911 and to the United States Park Police dispatch at (202) 610-7500 so that corrective action can be taken.

Restrooms: There are no restrooms in the park although organizers may provide their own portable temporary toilets in coordination with the park. The National Park Service recommends a minimum of one portable toilet per 300 people, with at least 20 percent of facilities handicapped accessible. Public urination or defecation is prohibited.

Trash: The National Park Service will provide trash receptacles in convenient locations and will empty them at least three times per day. All trash and debris must be cleared from the park and placed in the park trash receptacles at the conclusion of each days events.

Resource Protection Guidelines

Existing natural and cultural resources, and landscape features, must be protected from damage or injury. The following rules apply to McPherson Square:

? In order to protect the General McPherson statue, food or drink should not be consumed at the base of the statue. Food and drinks, particularly drinks with a high sugar content and dyes (such as soda and sports drinks), leave permanent stains;

? Nothing may be attached or affixed to the statue or passed through landscape features, trees or other vegetation;

? To help allow the turf to get the sunlight and water needed to survive, we recommend that any temporary structures or tents with attached flooring placed on grass should be relocated every four days.

While temporary structures or tents are allowed in the park under some circumstances, camping is not permitted. Camping is defined at 36 CFR 7.96(i)(1) as the use of park land for living accommodation purposes such as sleeping activities, or making preparations to sleep (including the laying down of bedding for the purpose of sleeping) or storing personal belongings, or making any fire, or using any tents or shelter or other structure or vehicle for sleeping or doing any digging or earth breaking. . . . To allow for visual inspection and monitoring, all temporary structures and tents must have at least one open side.

The basis for these rules and guidelines can be found in Title 36 Code of Federal Regulations sections 2.1, 2.14, 2.31 and 7.96; the National Mall and Memorial Parks Compendium compiled under 36 C.F.R. 1.7; and the National Park Service, National Capital Region - Requirements for Special Events Held on Parkland. These documents can be viewed and downloaded at www.nps.gov/nama/planyourvisit/permits.htm.

National Park Service rangers will be distributing this notice, as well as posting it, at the park. National Park Service rangers and United States Park Police officers will continue to monitor the park to ensure compliance and answer questions. Your cooperation is appreciated.

If you have any questions, or would like a copy of the regulations, please contact Robbin Owen, Chief, Permits Management at 202-245-4715.

At approximately 1855 hrs. Sergeant Granados called the CCC. He informed the CCC that a group of approximately 60 to 100 protesters with the "Occupy Movement" are marching toward Freedom Plaza. He adds they are being escorted by MPDC SOD units.

Sergeant Granados called the CCC again, prior to this original message was distributed and added the protesters marched past the JWB, continuing east on Pennsylvania Ave., NW toward the US Capitol Bldg.

Any relevant updates will be distributed.

Subject: Occupy Richmond and NYC coming to DC
Date: Tuesday, November 15, 2011 3:57:00 PM

Don't know if you have heard the following, but if it does materialize, what are USPP's plans to deal with the influx?

Occupy Richmond (ORV)

- approximately 15 people departing with final destination of ODC McPherson this week
- will make several stops to increase numbers, one stop is Fredricksburg, Va for rally then another stop in Alexandria, Va
- total estimated numbers will be 100-150 based upon projections
- estimated arrival at ODC McPherson Tuesday Nov 22

Occupy NY

- approximately 150-200 are currently enroute to ODC McPherson
- stop may be made in OMD Baltimore
- estimated arrival at ODC McPherson Tuesday Nov 22

Based on projected numbers, this will increase size of McPherson to a total of 400-500 on Tuesday Nov 22, actions unknown at this time. Initial assessment maybe a convergence of some sort.

Once arriving at the Boundary channel gate, please follow the uniformed officers instructions to get you back to the parking area.

If you noticed an agency or person that may be interested in attending but is not on the dissemination list, please feel free to contact them with an invite. I only ask that you forward me their name and email address.

Agenda:

We have booked the conference room from 1000-1200 hours with the following proposed agenda. Please understand this is an open forum and your input on the subject matter will be welcomed.

0930-1000	Arrival and entry on to the Reservation
1000-1030	Registration and Socialization
1030-1050	PFPA Intelligence briefing on the history of the Movement and information regarding current activities and future events planned in the area.
1050-1130	MPD briefing on experiences with the Movement and the tactics and actions used by the Group.
1130-1200	The "way ahead" discussions as we break off into two (2) groups made of operational law enforcement and intelligence personnel

Once registration is complete, we will provide everyone with a full roster of all personnel and their contact numbers before you leave

Should you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me directly at the numbers provided. Once again thanks for the positive response, and I look forward to meeting with you on Wednesday.

The United States Park Police will host a multi-agency briefing/planning meeting on the permitted first amendment activities in Lafayette Park and Freedom Plaza for the October 6th Coalition scheduled for October 6-9, 2011. In addition to these scheduled events, other protests will be held at the Ronald Reagan building for the Keystone XL Tar Sands Pipeline hearings and the "United for Peace" group will be protesting at the U.S.

Capitol. Scheduled Special Events this weekend also include the Army-10 mile run and the Taste of D.C event.

The purpose of the meeting is to share information, discuss potential civil disobedience, potential high volume arrests, traffic closures and sharing of resources. I am hoping that outside agencies can share their operational plans for the protests impacting their primary jurisdictions. It is anticipated that some of the protesters participating in the Occupy Wall Street, NYC demonstrations will be in attendance in the District of Columbia this weekend.

The meeting will take place at the U.S. Park Police Anacostia Operations Facility (AOF) auditorium on Wednesday, October 5, 2011 at 1415 hours.

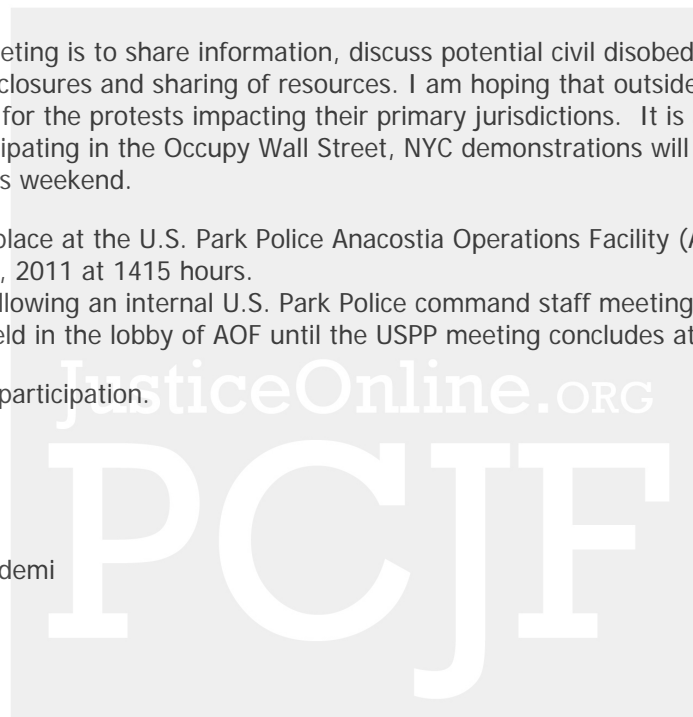

This meeting will be following an internal U.S. Park Police command staff meeting. Outside agencies arriving early will be held in the lobby of AOF until the USPP meeting concludes at 1400 hours.

I look forward to your participation.

Subject: Possible Occupy Wall Street Mailings
Date: Thursday, November 03, 2011 8:59:04 AM

FYSA,

As a component of the "Occupy Wall Street" protests taking place in numerous cities through the U.S., organizers are encouraging individuals to send Business Reply Mail envelopes stuffed with miscellaneous items back to the banks to voice their displeasure with the economy. There are numerous YouTube videos, associated with the protest movement, which advocate sending mailings to the banks.

One of the videos specifically warns against sending unidentified powders; however, we have had at least one incident nationwide where a white powder was included in the mailing.

The protesters advocate sending other items, like wood shims, coins, and even roofing shingles. Please keep this in mind if responding to any report of a suspicious powder/item addressed to a financial institution.

Thanks,

Hey Steve,

Will you have anyone out monitoring the Occupy DC groups?

If so, or if its being handled by MPD intell, can you pass my email off to anyone who could relay me movement info?

We will be out and about tomorrow and I'd just like to keep track of where these folks are going to be.

Thanks,

We will have one person monitoring from Suburban, to provide update from field. Tanya will set up meeting next week with MPD and DC agencies to discuss logistics and operations. We will have the Key Bridge DDOT camera up. Have alerted the emergency managers for Alexandria and Arlington. Will ask Sund if MPD will craft traffic alert for EMNET to send out to TV and radio for public tomorrow. Did I miss anything.?

John,

Is this something DCFD may be able to check out. They have propane tanks set out and cooking on the north sidewalk 1300 E Street NW.

It only happens on days where there is inclement weather. Last week when it rained we reached out to MPD and they would not assist. Today it happened again and by the time I responded down there they were already breaking up. I am afraid that a precedent will be set. Currently there is no show at the theater but in a few weeks they will have a show and I can foresee problems if the protestors are trying to have meetings and the show is trying to get their patrons in at the same time.

I ran into John Ward of your Homeless Outreach team and he stated that he did not believe that they were apart of the protestor either, they are definitely not homeless. I would think Park Police may want to keep an eye on these individuals.

Jackson Browne Sings At Freedom Plaza on Monday Between 1 and 2 PM

Jackson Brown, who donated three bike generators to Freedom Plaza, will be joining us on Monday, probably in the afternoon. We will announce the time as soon as we have the information.

Brown went to Occupy Wall Street last week and sang a couple of songs with Dawes. He sang a new song he wrote for the Occupy Movement which asks -- which side are you on?

Occupy DC Demonstrators at McPherson Square

The National Park Service (NPS) today distributed educational flyers to the people in McPherson Square who are participating in a First Amendment demonstration. The flyers provide the demonstrators with guidance on how they can comply with park regulations, protect the cultural and natural resources at the Square, as well as protect the health and safety of visitors and NPS staff.

The National Park Service takes very seriously its tradition of providing opportunities for First Amendment activities, said Bob Vogel, superintendent of the National Mall and Memorial Parks. We hope that by providing guidance to the people who are exercising those rights at McPherson Square, we can ensure that everyone has a good experience while they are here.

Help Us Preserve McPherson Square National Mall and

Memorial Parks National Park Service

The National Park Service has a long and proud tradition of providing opportunities for the exercise of First Amendment rights. The national parks of Washington, DC are used almost every day as places for First Amendment demonstrations and for citizens engaged in civil debate over serious issues facing our nation.

The National Park Service is also required to protect our important cultural and natural resources. To help you help us with that responsibility and comply with park regulations, we are providing some guidelines for visitors using the parks, regardless of the reason for their visit.

Safety Guidelines:

Generators: For safety reasons and to protect natural resources, any generator must:

? Be surrounded by a fence of at least three feet in height;

Be placed on matting. Matting must be made of three-quarter inch plywood, or other material agreed to by the National Park Service, topped by a ?plastic tarp impermeable to fuel , with absorbent material on top of tarp;

? Have a drip pan under the fueling nozzle.

You may refuel generators on parkland only between the hours of 5:00 am and 8:00 am. Storage of generator fuel in the park is not allowed. Fuel is defined as a hazardous material by the Environmental Protection Agency, and fuel spills pose a danger to human health. You must immediately report all fuel spills to the District of Columbia Fire Department by dialing 911 and to the United States Park Police dispatch at (202) 610-7500 so that corrective action can be taken.

Restrooms: There are no restrooms in the park although organizers may provide their own portable temporary toilets in coordination with the park. The National Park Service recommends a minimum of one portable toilet per 300 people, with at least 20 percent of facilities handicapped accessible. Public urination or defecation is prohibited.

Trash: The National Park Service will provide trash receptacles in convenient locations and will empty them at least three times per day. All trash and debris must be cleared from the park and placed in the park trash receptacles at the conclusion of each days events.

Resource Protection Guidelines

Existing natural and cultural resources, and landscape features, must be protected from damage or injury. The following rules apply to McPherson Square:

In order to protect the General McPherson statue, food or drink should not be consumed at the base of the statue. Food and drinks, particularly drinks a high sugar content and dyes (such as soda and sports drinks), leave?with permanent stains;

Nothing may be attached or affixed to the statue or passed through ?landscape features, trees or other vegetation;

To help allow the turf to get the sunlight and water needed to survive, we recommend that any temporary structures or tents with attached ?flooring placed on grass should be relocated every four days.

While temporary structures or tents are allowed in the park under some circumstances, camping is not permitted. Camping is defined at 36 CFR 7.96(i)(1) as the use of park land for living accommodation purposes such as sleeping activities, or making preparations to sleep (including the laying down of bedding for the purpose of sleeping) or storing personal belongings, or making any fire, or using any tents or shelter or other structure or vehicle for sleeping or doing any digging or earth breaking. . . . To allow for visual inspection and monitoring, all temporary structures and tents must have at least one open side.

The basis for these rules and guidelines can be found in Title 36 Code of Federal Regulations sections 2.1, 2.14, 2.31 and 7.96; the National Mall and Memorial Parks Compendium compiled under 36 C.F.R. 1.7; and the National Park Service, National Capital Region - Requirements for Special Events Held on Parkland. These documents can be viewed and downloaded at www.nps.gov/nama/planyourvisit/permits.htm. National Park Service rangers will be distributing this notice, as well as well as posting it, at the park. National Park Service rangers and United States Park Police officers will continue to monitor the park to ensure compliance and answer questions. Your cooperation is appreciated.

If you have any questions, or would like a copy of the regulations, please contact Robbin Owen, Chief, Permits Management at 202-245-4715.

Steve,

I agree. I am traveling to NY for the rest of the week; however, Captains Harasek and Guddemi are the main points of contact anyway. One of them will reach out to you to discuss.

At approximately 1855 hrs. Sergeant Granados called the CCC. He informed the CCC that a group of approximately 60 to 100 protesters with the "Occupy Movement" are marching toward Freedom Plaza. He adds they are being escorted by MPDC SOD units.

Sergeant Granados called the CCC again, prior to this original message was distributed and added the protesters marched past the JWB, continuing east on Pennsylvania Ave., NW toward the US Capitol Bldg.

Any relevant updates will be distributed.

Chris

FORWARD WIDELY TO YOUR NETWORKS AND FRIENDS

United Against The Drones in Washington, DC FRIDAY, OCTOBER 7, 2011

The DC-Baltimore area United Against The Drone Campaign, in conjunction with the October 2011 Occupation of Washington DC, calls for a demonstration against the use of drones on the people of Afghanistan, Pakistan, Iraq, and elsewhere which will take place on Friday, October 7, 2011 starting at 10am directed against General Atomics the killer drone manufacturer.

The address for the action is 1899 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW near the Foggy Bottom George Washington University Metro Station. We will have a spirited presence outside the government affairs office of this notorious war contractor, General Atomics. General Atomics profits from the death and maiming of innocents in this unjust war, terrorism visited upon people in Afghanistan, Pakistan, Iraq, and elsewhere the violence of empire projects itself.

This action is a part of the United against The Drone campaign which is being waged throughout the country at this week in addition to the October 6 Occupation of DC at Freedom Plaza.

Join us with your own signs, banners, noise-makers, and other expressions of your opposition to war and the use of drones to kill in the name of this insane war for the war profiteers, bankers, and corporate and wealthy oligarchs.

Don't know if you have heard the following, but if it does materialize, what are USPP's plans to deal with the influx?

Occupy Richmond (ORV)

- approximately 15 people departing with final destination of ODC McPherson this week
- will make several stops to increase numbers, one stop is Fredricksburg, Va for rally then another stop in Alexandria, Va
- total estimated numbers will be 100-150 based upon projections
- estimated arrival at ODC McPherson Tuesday Nov 22

Occupy NY

- approximately 150-200 are currently enroute to ODC McPherson
- stop may be made in OMD Baltimore
- estimated arrival at ODC McPherson Tuesday Nov 22

Based on projected numbers, this will increase size of McPherson to a total of 400-500 on Tuesday Nov 22, actions unknown at this time. Initial assessment maybe a convergence of some sort.

Good afternoon everyone:

Thank you all for responding to yesterday's message regarding the Occupy Wall Street Movement, and by judging from the positive response, there seems to be a genuine interest to work together on this project. As a result, we have moved forward and scheduled the meeting for Wednesday, November 16, 2011, at 10000 hours, here at the Pentagon. Additional information will be forthcoming regarding room number, entry onto the Reservation and the parking arrangements, but I wanted to get the notification out as soon as I could, so you can mark your calendars.

Please reach out to your intelligence folks to join you at this meeting, as it is our intent to have a two pronged session that includes all participants, and then a breakout of uniformed and Intel personnel. I ask that once you have identified the number of personnel from your agency/department that will be in attendance, please send me a copy of the names, and their email address for our records, so we can include them in future messages. If there are any other agencies that you feel would benefit from this meeting, please feel free to invite them as well, and forward me their contact information.

As I stated earlier, additional information will be forthcoming at the beginning of next week and until then, should you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me at the numbers listed below.

Good afternoon:

The meeting is officially set for Wednesday, November 16, 2011, starting at 1000 hours in conference room B-1, in the PLC II building on the Pentagon Reservation. Tomorrow I will forward a formal invitation and provide instructions on how, and where you need to go to gain access into the area, as well as providing parking directions.

I ask that you please work with me by providing the information for you, and those who are coming with you, especially non uniformed personnel. I need to develop a list of attendees to provide to the officers at the access portal which will make the entry as easy as possible for you and your guests. As I stated earlier, feel free to extend an invitation to those you feel would benefit from the information being developed as long as you provide their information.

Information requested on attendees

Agenda:

We have booked the conference room for 1000-1200 hours and I look to follow the agenda listed.

0930-1000 Arrival and entry on to the Reservation

1000-1030 Registration and Socialization

1030-1050 PFPA Intelligence briefing on the history of the Movement and information regarding current activities and future events planned in the area.

1050-1130 MPD briefing on experiences with the Movement and the tactics and actions used by the Group.

1130-1200 The "way ahead" discussions as we break off into two (2) groups made of operational law enforcement and intelligence personnel

Once registration is complete, we will provide everyone with a full roster of all personnel in attendance.

Should you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me directly at the numbers provided. Once again thanks for the positive response, and I look forward to meeting with you on Wednesday. In the meantime, please send the information to me directly at this email address.

Thanks,

Subject: Occupy Wall Street Movement

Good afternoon all:

By way of introduction for those that don't know me, my name is Jim Ballard, Deputy Chief of Operations with the Pentagon Police.

The purpose of this message is to ask if there is interest in developing a quasi threat working group to pave the way to share information and resources, as we all face the potential demonstrations by the "Occupy Wall Street Movement." Those listed on the dissemination list are the email addresses that we currently have for the various agencies. If you are no longer involved with this type of operation, I would ask that you forward this message to your agency's representative who would have oversight for this type of operation.

According to current intelligence information, they are expected to start operations in the Northern Virginia area this weekend, and have identified some target sites in Fairfax County.

If there is already a law enforcement committee that get's together to discuss this group, I would appreciate being allowed to join as I have some questions regarding how your department is looking to deal with this movement, and the subsequent consequences. Listed below are some concerns and suggestions that may have already been addressed by your individual agency or department, and if you have, I would be interested in the results.

1. What type of approach is being considered when dealing with this group? If we use a hard approach, will this result in a rally call for support from the other groups around the country to join them here since this is such a high profile area?

2. Are there plans to negotiate with this group to determine their long and short term intentions as we do with other demonstrations?

3. If their intentions are to demonstrate for the day and leave, we can plan accordingly and establish a designated area for protest.

4. If they plan to try to stay and occupy an area in close proximity to the Pentagon for an extended period of time, this causes some immediate concerns that will have an impact on our operations for the duration of the occupation, as well as all agencies in the area.

Being near the Reservation will allow them the opportunity to close roads and metro stations, with little advanced notice or warning, and disrupt the daily flow of pedestrians in the area when they see a decreased police presence.

The issue of sanitation and rest rooms comes into play since there is nothing in the area to accommodate such crowds

5. Are those starting operations this weekend, a branch of those currently occupying the DC area, or are they part of a splinter group from cities that have been experiencing the violence associated with the extremist groups that have infiltrated this movement.

If I may, I would like to propose the following suggestions and ask that you reply if there is an interest on your part.

1. Develop a Threat working group/committee that includes police and intelligence units from PPD, as well as MPD, VSP, JTTF, ACPD, WMATA, Fairfax, Alexandria and the FBI/WFO and any other department that would be interested. This would allow us to coordinate a flow of communication for events and allow us real time information sharing to keep us apprised of all current activities.
2. Establish an realistic list of resources for mutual aid requests that would be available from each agency for events as they are scheduled
3. Ensure surveillance personnel or agents are present as spectators to watch the group's activities, learn their tactics, and get an idea of the actions they will use. This would be instrumental in preparing for any future action in the area.

Should there be an interest in this proposal, we will gladly host the first meeting as soon as we can, and establish basic lines of communication and plans of action for future events.

I am the Field Lieutenant for Virginia State Police in Northern Virginia and would definitely be interested in any pre-planning meetings on this topic. I believe we have met at several Pentagon incidents and exercises. I have taken the liberty of forwarding your email to other stakeholders in the Department of State Police, including the Virginia Fusion Center, our Bureau Director in Richmond and Captain Michael Spivey, Division Seven Commander. I am not currently involved in any working threat groups, but am willing to participate as this group has the potential to cause significant disruptions in the National Capital Region.

Subject: October 6th Coalition- First Amendment Protest-Multi-Agency Briefing/ Planning Meeting Request

The United States Park Police will host a multi-agency briefing/planning meeting on the permitted first amendment activities in Lafayette Park and Freedom Plaza for the October 6th Coalition scheduled for October 6-9, 2011. In addition to these scheduled events, other protests will be held at the Ronald Reagan building for the Keystone XL Tar Sands Pipeline hearings and the "United for Peace" group will be protesting at the U.S. Capitol. Scheduled Special Events this weekend also include the Army-10 mile run and the Taste of D.C event.

The purpose of the meeting is to share information, discuss potential civil disobedience, potential high volume arrests, traffic closures and sharing of resources. I am hoping that outside agencies can share their operational plans for the protests impacting their primary jurisdictions. It is anticipated that some of the protesters participating in the Occupy Wall Street, NYC demonstrations will be in attendance in the District of Columbia this weekend.

The meeting will take place at the U.S. Park Police Anacostia Operations Facility (AOF) auditorium on Wednesday, October 5, 2011 at 1415 hours. This meeting will be following an internal U.S. Park Police command staff meeting. Outside agencies arriving early will be held in the lobby of AOF until the USPP meeting concludes at 1400 hours.

I look forward to your participation.

Thanks

Subject: October 6th Coalition- First Amendment Protest-Multi-Agency Briefing/ Planning Meeting Request

The United States Park Police will host a multi-agency briefing/planning meeting on the permitted first amendment activities in Lafayette Park and Freedom Plaza for the October 6th Coalition scheduled for October 6-9,

2011. In addition to these scheduled events, other protests will be held at the Ronald Reagan building for the Keystone XL Tar Sands Pipeline hearings and the "United for Peace" group will be protesting at the U.S. Capitol. Scheduled Special Events this weekend also include the Army-10 mile run and the Taste of D.C event.

The purpose of the meeting is to share information, discuss potential civil disobedience, potential high volume arrests, traffic closures and sharing of resources. I am hoping that outside agencies can share their operational plans for the protests impacting their primary jurisdictions. It is anticipated that some of the protesters participating in the Occupy Wall Street, NYC demonstrations will be in attendance in the District of Columbia this weekend.

The meeting will take place at the U.S. Park Police Anacostia Operations Facility (AOF) auditorium on Wednesday, October 5, 2011 at 1415 hours. This meeting will be following an internal U.S. Park Police command staff meeting. Outside agencies arriving early will be held in the lobby of AOF until the USPP meeting concludes at 1400 hours.

I look forward to your participation.

Thanks

Planning Meeting Request

The United States Park Police will host a multi-agency briefing/planning meeting on the permitted first amendment activities in Lafayette Park and Freedom Plaza for the October 6th Coalition scheduled for October 6-9, 2011. In addition to these scheduled events, other protests will be held at the Ronald Reagan building for the Keystone XL Tar Sands Pipeline hearings and the "United for Peace" group will be protesting at the U.S. Capitol. Scheduled Special Events this weekend also include the Army-10 mile run and the Taste of D.C event.

The purpose of the meeting is to share information, discuss potential civil disobedience, potential high volume arrests, traffic closures and sharing of resources. I am hoping that outside agencies can share their operational plans for the protests impacting their primary jurisdictions. It is anticipated that some of the protesters participating in the Occupy Wall Street, NYC demonstrations will be in attendance in the District of Columbia this weekend.

The meeting will take place at the U.S. Park Police Anacostia Operations Facility (AOF) auditorium on Wednesday, October 5, 2011 at 1415 hours. This meeting will be following an internal U.S. Park Police command staff meeting. Outside agencies arriving early will be held in the lobby of AOF until the USPP meeting concludes at 1400 hours.

I look forward to your participation.

Thanks

Charlie

FYSA,

As a component of the "Occupy Wall Street" protests taking place in numerous cities through the U.S., organizers are encouraging individuals to send Business Reply Mail envelopes stuffed with miscellaneous items back to the banks to voice their displeasure with the economy. There are numerous YouTube videos, associated with the protest movement, which advocate sending mailings to the banks.

One of the videos specifically warns against sending unidentified powders; however, we have had at least one incident nationwide where a white powder was included in the mailing.

The protesters advocate sending other items, like wood shims, coins, and even roofing shingles. Please keep this in mind if responding to any report of a suspicious powder/item addressed to a financial institution.

Thanks,

Josh McCallister

Thanks. Definite issue. Will share with EOD. Would also be good to get out as a bulletin to patrol.

With the events from Oakland last night, we can expect more solidarity actions from other occupy movements.

Thanks. Definite issue. Will share with EOD. Would also be good to get out as a bulletin to patrol.

With the events from Oakland last night, we can expect more solidarity actions from other occupy movements.

FYSA,

As a component of the "Occupy Wall Street" protests taking place in numerous cities through the U.S., organizers are encouraging individuals to send Business Reply Mail envelopes stuffed with miscellaneous items back to the banks to voice their displeasure with the economy. There are numerous YouTube videos, associated with the protest movement, which advocate sending mailings to the banks.

One of the videos specifically warns against sending unidentified powders; however, we have had at least one incident nationwide where a white powder was included in the mailing.

The protesters advocate sending other items, like wood shims, coins, and even roofing shingles. Please keep this in mind if responding to any report of a suspicious powder/item addressed to a financial institution.

Also commander other factors on filters is that as a members separate from MPD we do not recycle there filter. Not sure how many members have departed since December 2008 when the group of new 4000 filters were bought and issued. Another factor is that back in 2008 we gave civilians gas mask and filters also that would increase the number out of that purchase.

Thank you for your ear this morning, another thing to bring up to the command staff so that we are ready for any protest like Oakland has been having. There needs to be personnel checks of everyone's CDU gear (Helmet, Riot Gloves, gas mask/filters and batons/baton holders. Additionally, to make sure everyone has the white numbers on there helmets. We are out of numbers and maybe that is something Property division can purchase with their budget so we have them on hand here at DSO and in the CDU van. Members should be reminded to wear there bullet proof vest as part of their chest protection during acts of protest.

Structure has been totally removed.

The number of protesters has dwindled significantly.

USPP plans to reopen the southern portion of the park in the near future.

NPS will coordinate the removal of the light towers tomorrow morning.

A transition of command has occurred. Previous operational period personnel have been relieved.

Unified Command demob'd.

USPP Command as follows:

IC - Major Pat Smith

OPS - Capt Phil Beck

Mobile Command remains.

Just wanted to thank all involved. By all accounts, the professionalism and dedication of the NPS, USPP, and all external partners, was evident.

MPD SOD will insert the inflatable device within the structure as a precaution. Then the NPS/USPP will attempt to remove the remaining 6 with a lift device.

Subject: #12 McPherson/Freedom Daily

Within the past 24 hours the following incidents were noted

Officers responded to McPherson Square overnight for a report of an assault. Officers were directed to a female who had superficial injuries to arm, hand and face. The victim did not want to talk to police. Officers convinced her to come to the D-1 station to be interviewed. Investigation revealed that she was in a verbal argument with her boyfriend which led to a physical altercation resulting in her injuries. The victim was intoxicated at the time of the report and did not want to press charges. USPP Detectives went to the area in an attempt to locate the suspect, but were unsuccessful in doing so. Follow-up to be conducted.

Schedule of events

There are no scheduled events other than on site meetings and lectures at both locations. Freedom Plaza will be collecting material for a recycleable Christmas Tree which is scheduled to be lit on Tuesday. Information will be passed to Park Programs for follow up.

Structure has been totally removed.

The number of protesters has dwindled significantly.

USPP plans to reopen the southern portion of the park in the near future.

NPS will coordinate the removal of the light towers tomorrow morning.

A transition of command has occurred. Previous operational period personnel have been relieved.

Unified Command demob'd.

USPP Command as follows:
IC - Major Pat Smith
OPS - Capt Phil Beck

Mobile Command remains.

Just wanted to thank all involved. By all accounts, the professionalism and dedication of the NPS, USPP, and all external partners, was evident.

Subject: #12 McPherson/Freedom Daily

Within the past 24 hours the following incidents were noted

Schedule of events

There are no scheduled events other than on site meetings and lectures at both locations. Freedom Plaza will be collecting material for a recycleable Christmas Tree which is scheduled to be lit on Tuesday. Information will be passed to Park Programs for follow up.

Structure has been totally removed.

The number of protesters has dwindled significantly.

USPP plans to reopen the southern portion of the park in the near future.

NPS will coordinate the removal of the light towers tomorrow morning.

A transition of command has occurred. Previous operational period personnel have been relieved.

Unified Command demob'd.

USPP Command as follows:

IC - Major Pat Smith

OPS - Capt Phil Beck

Mobile Command remains.

Just wanted to thank all involved. By all accounts, the professionalism

Subject: #12 McPherson/Freedom Daily

Within the past 24 hours the following incidents were noted

Officers responded to McPherson Sqare overnight for a report of an assault. Officers were directed to a female who had superficial injuries to arm, hand and face. The victim did not want to talk to police. Officers convinced her to come to the D-1 station to be interviewed. Investigation revealed that she was in a verbal argument with her boyfriend which led to a physical altercation resulting in her injuries. The victim was intoxicated at the time of the report and did not want to press charges. USPP Detectives went to the area in an attempt to locate the suspect, but were unsuccessful in doing so.

Follow-up to be conducted.

Schedule of events

There are no scheduled events other than on site meetings and lectures at both locations. Freedom Plaza will be collecting material for a recycleable Christmas Tree which is scheduled to be lit on Tuesday. Information will be passed to Park Programs for follow up.

Articles of interest

Washington Post Article which compares Occupy DC to the 1968 Resurrection City. Resurrection City occurred around the Reflecting Pool and was the encampment for approximately 3000 demonstrators.

That may be cut to 14 after assessment around 0100 depending on any known intel or activity.

I will be mobile around the immediate area or near the mobile command.

Structure has been totally removed.

The number of protesters has dwindled significantly.

USPP plans to reopen the southern portion of the park in the near future.

NPS will coordinate the removal of the light towers tomorrow morning.

A transition of command has occurred. Previous operational period personnel have been relieved.

Unified Command demob'd.

USPP Command as follows:

IC - Major Pat Smith

OPS - Capt Phil Beck

Mobile Command remains.

Just wanted to thank all involved. By all accounts, the professionalism and dedication of the NPS, USPP, and all external partners, was evident.

Perimeter has been established on 3 sides. The south side will be available for any protesters that wish to leave upon the issuance of the warnings.

Light towers on scene.

First warning issued (1741 hours). 22 remain in or on the structure.

Unified Command in place: USPP, MPD, NAMA, DOI SOL.

USPP just established the perimeter, which is the southern portion of the park. React Team is assisting with the SE quadrant.

DCRA will determine if the structure is safe/permitted. After this determination is made the remaining protesters in the structure (Approx. 12 persons) will be given warnings to evacuate the structure.

Approx. 12 arrests made thus far (majority of the charges are for crossing a police line).

ICS in place:

D/C MacLean - IC

Sgt. Schlosser - PIO

DC FEMS - Safety

Capt. Harasek - OPS

Capt. Guddemi - Plans and Logistics

Lt. Lachance - Tactical Branch

Lt. Felt - Transportation

Sgt. Steinheimer - Investigations/Arrest

CP - Mobile Command on Madison Pl. South of H (within the White House Zone).

Subject: #12 McPherson/Freedom Daily

Within the past 24 hours the following incidents were noted

Schedule of events

There are no scheduled events other than on site meetings and lectures at both locations. Freedom Plaza will be collecting material for a recycleable Christmas Tree which is scheduled to be lit on Tuesday. Information will be passed to Park Programs for follow up.

Articles of interest

Washington Post Article which compares Occupy DC to the 1968 Resurrection City. Resurrection City occurred around the Reflecting Pool and was the encampment for approximately 3000 demonstrators.

Structure has been totally removed.

The number of protesters has dwindled significantly.

USPP plans to reopen the southern portion of the park in the near future.

NPS will coordinate the removal of the light towers tomorrow morning.

A transition of command has occurred. Previous operational period personnel have been relieved.

Unified Command demob'd.

USPP Command as follows:

IC - Major Pat Smith

OPS - Capt Phil Beck

Mobile Command remains.

Just wanted to thank all involved. By all accounts, the professionalism

Subject: #12 McPherson/Freedom Daily

Within the past 24 hours the following incidents were noted

Officers responded to McPherson Sqare overnight for a report of an assault. Officers were directed to a female who had superficial injuries to arm, hand and face. The victim did not want to talk to police. Officers convinced her to come to the D-1 station to be interviewed. Investigation revealed that she was in a verbal argument with her boyfriend which led to a physical altercation resulting in her injuries. The victim was intoxicated at the time of the report and did not want to press charges. USPP Detectives went to the area in an attempt to locate the suspect, but were unsuccessful in doing so.

Follow-up to be conducted.

Schedule of events

There are no scheduled events other than on site meetings and lectures at both locations. Freedom Plaza will be collecting material for a recycleable Christmas Tree which is scheduled to be lit on Tuesday. Information will be passed to Park Programs for follow up.

Within the past 24 hours the following incidents were noted

Officers responded to McPherson Sqare overnight for a report of an assault. Officers were directed to a female who had superficial injuries to arm, hand and face. The victim did not want to talk to police. Officers convinced her to come to the D-1 station to be interviewed. Investigation revealed that she was in a verbal argument with her boyfriend which led to a physical altercation resulting in her injuries. The victim was intoxicated at the time of the report and did not want to press charges. USPP Detectives went to the area in an attempt to locate the suspect, but were unsuccessful in doing so. Follow-up to be conducted.

Subject: #12 McPherson/Freedom Daily

Within the past 24 hours the following incidents were noted

Schedule of events

There are no scheduled events other than on site meetings and lectures at both locations. Freedom Plaza will be collecting material for a recycleable Christmas Tree which is scheduled to be lit on Tuesday. Information will be passed to Park Programs for follow up.

Within the past 24 hours the following incidents were noted

Schedule of events

There are no scheduled events other than on site meetings and lectures at both locations. Freedom Plaza will be collecting material for a recycleable Christmas Tree which is scheduled to be lit on Tuesday. Information will be passed to Park Programs for follow up.

Unified Command in place: USPP, MPD, NAMA, DOI SOL.

USPP just established the perimeter, which is the southern portion of the park. React Team is assisting with the SE quadrant.

DCRA will determine if the structure is safe/permitted. After this determination is made the remaining protesters in the structure (Approx. 12 persons) will be given warnings to evacuate the structure.

Approx. 12 arrests made thus far (majority of the charges are for crossing a police line).

ICS in place:

D/C MacLean - IC

Sgt. Schlosser - PIO

DC FEMS - Safety

Capt. Harasek - OPS

Capt. Guddemi - Plans and Logistics

Lt. Lachance - Tactical Branch

Lt. Felt - Transportation

Sgt. Steinheimer - Investigations/Arrest

CP - Mobile Command on Madison Pl. South of H (within the White House Zone).

Subject: #12 McPherson/Freedom Daily

Within the past 24 hours the following incidents were noted

Schedule of events

There are no scheduled events other than on site meetings and lectures at both locations. Freedom Plaza will be collecting material for a recycleable Christmas Tree which is scheduled to be lit on Tuesday. Information will be passed to Park Programs for follow up.

MPD SOD will insert the inflatable device within the structure as a precaution. Then the NPS/USPP will attempt to remove the remaining 6 with a lift device.

Unified Command in place: USPP, MPD, NAMA, DOI SOL.

USPP just established the perimeter, which is the southern portion of the park. React Team is assisting with the SE quadrant.

DCRA will determine if the structure is safe/permitted. After this determination is made the remaining protesters in the structure (Approx. 12 persons) will be given warnings to evacuate the structure.

Approx. 12 arrests made thus far (majority of the charges are for crossing a police line).

ICS in place:

D/C MacLean - IC

Sgt. Schlosser - PIO

DC FEMS - Safety

Capt. Harasek - OPS

Capt. Guddemi - Plans and Logistics

Lt. Lachance - Tactical Branch

Lt. Felt - Transportation

Sgt. Steinheimer - Investigations/Arrest

CP - Mobile Command on Madison Pl. South of H (within the White House Zone).

Subject: #12 McPherson/Freedom Daily

Within the past 24 hours the following incidents were noted

Officers responded to McPherson Square overnight for a report of an assault. Officers were directed to a female who had superficial injuries to arm, hand and face. The victim did not want to talk to police. Officers convinced her to come to the D-1 station to be interviewed. Investigation revealed that she was in a verbal argument with her boyfriend which led to a physical altercation resulting in her injuries. The victim was intoxicated at the time of the report and did not want to press charges. USPP Detectives went to the area in an attempt to locate the suspect, but were unsuccessful in doing so. Follow-up to be conducted.

Schedule of events

There are no scheduled events other than on site meetings and lectures at both locations. Freedom Plaza will be collecting material for a recycleable Christmas Tree which is scheduled to be lit on Tuesday. Information will be passed to Park Programs for follow up.

Subject: #12 McPherson/Freedom Daily

Within the past 24 hours the following incidents were noted

Schedule of events

There are no scheduled events other than on site meetings and lectures at both locations. Freedom Plaza will be collecting material for a recycleable Christmas Tree which is scheduled to be lit on Tuesday. Information will be passed to Park Programs for follow up.

Articles of interest

Washington Post Article which compares Occupy DC to the 1968 Resurrection City. Resurrection City occurred around the Reflecting Pool and was the encampment for approximately 3000 demonstrators.

16 arrested thus far from the interior of the structure. 6 still perched on the roof.

MPD SOD will insert the inflatable device within the structure as a precaution. Then the NPS/USPP will attempt to remove the remaining 6 with a lift device.

Subject: #12 McPherson/Freedom Daily

Within the past 24 hours the following incidents were noted

Officers responded to McPherson Sqare overnight for a report of an assault. Officers were directed to a female who had superficial injuries to arm, hand and face. The victim did not want to talk to police. Officers convinced her to come to the D-1 station to be interviewed. Investigation revealed that she was in a verbal argument with her boyfriend which led to a physical altercation resulting in her injuries. The victim was intoxicated at the time of the report and did not want to press charges. USPP Detectives went to the area in an attempt to locate the suspect, but were unsuccessful in doing so. Follow-up to be conducted.

Schedule of events

There are no scheduled events other than on site meetings and lectures at both locations. Freedom Plaza will be collecting material for a recycleable Christmas Tree which is scheduled to be lit on Tuesday. Information will be passed to Park Programs for follow up.

16 arrested thus far from the interior of the structure. 6 still perched on the roof.

MPD SOD will insert the inflatable device within the structure as a precaution. Then the NPS/USPP will attempt to remove the remaining 6 with a lift device.

Unified Command in place: USPP, MPD, NAMA, DOI SOL.

USPP just established the perimeter, which is the southern portion of the park. React Team is assisting with the SE quadrant.

DCRA will determine if the structure is safe/permitted. After this determination is made the remaining protesters in the structure (Approx. 12 persons) will be given warnings to evacuate the structure.

Approx. 12 arrests made thus far (majority of the charges are for crossing a police line).

ICS in place:

D/C MacLean - IC
Sgt. Schlosser - PIO
DC FEMS - Safety
Capt. Harasek - OPS
Capt. Guddemi - Plans and Logistics
Lt. Lachance - Tactical Branch
Lt. Felt - Transportation
Sgt. Steinheimer - Investigations/Arrest

CP - Mobile Command on Madison Pl. South of H (within the White House Zone).

Unified Command in place: USPP, MPD, NAMA, DOI SOL.

USPP just established the perimeter, which is the southern portion of the park. React Team is assisting with the SE quadrant.

DCRA will determine if the structure is safe/permitted. After this determination is made the remaining protesters in the structure (Approx. 12 persons) will be given warnings to evacuate the structure.

Approx. 12 arrests made thus far (majority of the charges are for crossing a police line).

ICS in place:

D/C MacLean - IC

Sgt. Schlosser - PIO

DC FEMS - Safety

Capt. Harasek - OPS

Capt. Guddemi - Plans and Logistics

Lt. Lachance - Tactical Branch

Lt. Felt - Transportation

Sgt. Steinheimer - Investigations/Arrest

CP - Mobile Command on Madison Pl. South of H (within the White House Zone).

Subject: #12 McPherson/Freedom Daily

Within the past 24 hours the following incidents were noted

Schedule of events

There are no scheduled events other than on site meetings and lectures at both locations. Freedom Plaza will be collecting material for a recycleable Christmas Tree which is scheduled to be lit on Tuesday. Information will be passed to Park Programs for follow up.

Structure has been totally removed.

The number of protesters has dwindled significantly.

USPP plans to reopen the southern portion of the park in the near future.

NPS will coordinate the removal of the light towers tomorrow morning.

A transition of command has occurred. Previous operational period personnel have been relieved.

Unified Command demob'd.

USPP Command as follows:

IC - Major Pat Smith

OPS - Capt Phil Beck

Mobile Command remains.

Just wanted to thank all involved. By all accounts, the professionalism and dedication of the NPS, USPP, and all external partners, was evident.

Unified Command in place: USPP, MPD, NAMA, DOI SOL.

USPP just established the perimeter, which is the southern portion of the park. React Team is assisting with the SE quadrant.

DCRA will determine if the structure is safe/permitted. After this determination is made the remaining protesters in the structure (Approx. 12 persons) will be given warnings to evacuate the structure.

Approx. 12 arrests made thus far (majority of the charges are for crossing a police line).

ICS in place:
D/C MacLean - IC
Sgt. Schlosser - PIO
DC FEMS - Safety
Capt. Harasek - OPS
Capt. Guddemi - Plans and Logistics
Lt. Lachance - Tactical Branch

Lt. Felt - Transportation
Sgt. Steinheimer - Investigations/Arrest

CP - Mobile Command on Madison Pl. South of H (within the White House Zone).

Subject: #12 McPherson/Freedom Daily

Within the past 24 hours the following incidents were noted

Officers responded to McPherson Sqare overnight for a report of an assault. Officers were directed to a female who had superficial injuries to arm, hand and face. The victim did not want to talk to police. Officers convinced her to come to the D-1 station to be interviewed. Investigation revealed that she was in a verbal argument with her boyfriend which led to a physical altercation resulting in her injuries. The victim was intoxicated at the time of the report and did not want to press charges. USPP Detectives went to the area in an attempt to locate the suspect, but were unsuccessful in doing so. Follow-up to be conducted.

Schedule of events

There are no scheduled events other than on site meetings and lectures at both locations. Freedom Plaza will be collecting material for a recycleable Christmas Tree which is scheduled to be lit on Tuesday. Information will be passed to Park Programs for follow up.

Structure has been totally removed.

The number of protesters has dwindled significantly.

USPP plans to reopen the southern portion of the park in the near future.

NPS will coordinate the removal of the light towers tomorrow morning.

A transition of command has occurred. Previous operational period personnel have been relieved.

Unified Command demob'd.

USPP Command as follows:

IC - Major Pat Smith

OPS - Capt Phil Beck

Mobile Command remains.

Just wanted to thank all involved. By all accounts, the professionalism and dedication of the NPS, USPP, and all external partners, was evident.

Subject: #12 McPherson/Freedom Daily

Within the past 24 hours the following incidents were noted

Schedule of events

There are no scheduled events other than on site meetings and lectures at both locations. Freedom Plaza will be collecting material for a recycleable Christmas Tree which is scheduled to be lit on Tuesday. Information will be passed to Park Programs for follow up.

Articles of interest

Washington Post Article which compares Occupy DC to the 1968 Resurrection City. Resurrection City occurred around the Reflecting Pool and was the encampment for approximately 3000 demonstrators.

The number of protesters has dwindled significantly.

USPP plans to reopen the southern portion of the park in the near future.

NPS will coordinate the removal of the light towers tomorrow morning.

A transition of command has occurred. Previous operational period personnel have been relieved.

Unified Command demob'd.

USPP Command as follows:

IC - Major Pat Smith

OPS - Capt Phil Beck

Mobile Command remains.

Just wanted to thank all involved. By all accounts, the professionalism and dedication of the NPS, USPP, and all external partners, was evident.

Unified Command in place: USPP, MPD, NAMA, DOI SOL.

USPP just established the perimeter, which is the southern portion of the park. React Team is assisting with the SE quadrant.

DCRA will determine if the structure is safe/permitted. After this determination is made the remaining protesters in the structure (Approx. 12 persons) will be given warnings to evacuate the structure.

Approx. 12 arrests made thus far (majority of the charges are for crossing a police line).

ICS in place:

D/C MacLean - IC

Sgt. Schlosser - PIO

DC FEMS - Safety

Capt. Harasek - OPS

Capt. Guddemi - Plans and Logistics

Lt. Lachance - Tactical Branch

Lt. Felt - Transportation

Sgt. Steinheimer - Investigations/Arrest

CP - Mobile Command on Madison Pl. South of H (within the White House Zone).

Subject: #12 McPherson/Freedom Daily

Within the past 24 hours the following incidents were noted

Officers responded to McPherson Square overnight for a report of an assault. Officers were directed to a female who had superficial injuries to arm, hand and face. The victim did not want to talk to police. Officers convinced her to come to the D-1 station to be interviewed. Investigation revealed that she was in a verbal argument with her boyfriend which led to a physical altercation resulting in her injuries. The victim was intoxicated at the time of the report and did not want to press charges. USPP Detectives went to the area in an attempt to locate the suspect, but were unsuccessful in doing so. Follow-up to be conducted.

Schedule of events

There are no scheduled events other than on site meetings and lectures at both locations. Freedom Plaza will be collecting material for a recycleable Christmas Tree which is scheduled to be lit on Tuesday. Information will be passed to Park Programs for follow up.

Articles of interest

Washington Post Article which compares Occupy DC to the 1968 Resurrection City. Resurrection City occurred around the Reflecting Pool and was the encampment for approximately 3000 demonstrators.

Subject: Re: SitRep #9

Structure has been totally removed.

The number of protesters has dwindled significantly.

USPP plans to reopen the southern portion of the park in the near future.

NPS will coordinate the removal of the light towers tomorrow morning.

A transition of command has occurred. Previous operational period personnel have been relieved.

Unified Command demob'd.

USPP Command as follows:

IC - Major Pat Smith

OPS - Capt Phil Beck

Mobile Command remains.

Just wanted to thank all involved. By all accounts, the professionalism and dedication of the NPS, USPP, and all external partners, was evident.

USPP just established the perimeter, which is the southern portion of the park. React Team is assisting with the SE quadrant.

DCRA will determine if the structure is safe/permitted. After this determination is made the remaining protesters in the structure (Approx. 12 persons) will be given warnings to evacuate the structure.

Approx. 12 arrests made thus far (majority of the charges are for crossing a police line).

Within the past 24 hours the following incidents were noted

Officers responded to McPherson Sqare overnight for a report of an assault. Officers were directed to a female who had superficial injuries to arm, hand and face. The victim did not want to talk to police. Officers convinced her to come to the D-1 station to be interviewed. Investigation revealed that she was in a verbal argument with her boyfriend which led to a physical altercation resulting in her injuries. The victim was intoxicated at the time of the report and did not want to press charges. USPP Detectives went to the area in an attempt to locate the suspect, but were unsuccessful in doing so.

Follow-up to be conducted.

Schedule of events

There are no scheduled events other than on site meetings and lectures at both locations. Freedom Plaza will be collecting material for a recycleable Christmas Tree which is scheduled to be lit on Tuesday. Information will be passed to Park Programs for follow up.

1. To date, how much has your city government spent responding to Occupy-related events?

Due to the jurisdictional boundaries of the Occupy DC movement, the two parks that are being utilized by the protestors are the responsibility of the National Park Service. However, the area surrounding the parks are the responsibility of the District of Columbia. Both the District of Columbia and the surrounding business association has had to increase trash collection in the area.

The police overtime has been estimated at $55,000.

b. What is the estimated dollar amount of Occupy-related costs absorbed by your city's regular activities (police straight time, permitting, etc.)?

The approximate cost of on-duty police coverage provided to the Occupy DC movement since October 6, 2011 is $1.05M.

2. Please identify any major issues relating to Occupy-related events in your city. (This might include impact on public safety, local businesses, traffic, public transportation, permitting, availability of public spaces, public health, etc.)

During the demonstrations we have experienced the common tactics utilized by these types of demonstrations:

Spontaneous marches

Chanting in front of government/private buildings that specialize in commerce, banking and general government services

Periodic marching in the streets causing minor delays in traffic

Surrounding buildings, attempting to block entrances and exits.

Aggressively challenging citizens attending political events.

Challenging police directives and taunting officers

Blocking traffic

Other Issues Developing in the Parks:

Illness among protestors. Seeing this among other occupy movements.

Sanitary conditions in the park

A large portion of the demonstrators are now mental health consumers and homeless from the local and surrounding areas. Most original occupiers have left. Largely homeless population remaining.

Most all overnights are homeless from around DC and regional area

A number of businesses in the areas of the parks and business organizations have complained about Occupy members utilizing their restrooms as bathing facilities.

3. Has the composition of the people involved in the Occupy-related events in your city changed?

Yes

If yes, please describe how they have changed in terms of who they are and what their intentions for the demonstrations are.

D.C. Occupation movement began on Thursday, October 6, 2011, when the coalition of anti-war and anti-corporation groups began holding anti-war and economic rallies opposing the United States military's involvement within Afghanistan and the current financial situation. There were two different locations where the rallies took place; Freedom Plaza and McPherson Square.

Since this date, a lot of the original organizers have left and an ad-hoc organization, especially in McPherson square. Issues being protested vary regularly from the economy, to the environment.

4. Please describe any strategies or tactics your city is employing in responding to Occupy-related events, including an assessment of their effectiveness if possible.

The Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) has been deploying personnel to manage marches and to provide protection to the targeted venues. When it was apparent that some marches were becoming non-compliant, crowd management formations were utilized and a meeting was established with both parks' occupants to discuss acceptable behavior and to provide a handout on having a peaceful demonstration in DC.

Major Cities Chiefs Association Strategic Framework

The Major Cities Chiefs Association (MCCA) is a professional association representing the largest population centers in the United States and Canada. MCCA members are chiefs and sheriffs of the 70 largest law enforcement agencies in the United States and Canada. Together they serve more than 76.5 million people (68MUS, 8.5M Canada) with a combined sworn workforce of 177,150 (159,300 US, 17,850 Canada) officers. MCCA was formed in the late 1960s to provide a forum for executives to share ideas, experiences and strategies for addressing the challenges of policing large cities and counties. Just as policing has evolved since that time so has the MCCA. The MCCA Executive Board developed this three to five year strategic plan to ensure the continuous improvement of the MCCA, to increase its influence, and to enhance its member services.

MCCA Mission

The mission of MCCA is to provide a forum for police executives from large population centers to address the challenges and issues of policing, to influence national and international policy that affects police services, to enhance the development of current and future police leaders, and to encourage and sponsor research that advances this mission.

MCCA Vision

The Major Cities Chiefs Association is the place where police executives and others come to learn and collaborate. MCCA is a primary place where policy makers, researchers, government leaders, and the media turn when wanting to know the best international policing practices; to test innovations in police operations and technology; and to seek advice and assistance on specific policing issues. It is where its members learn how to improve themselves, their executive command staff, and their departments. The MCCA and its member departments represent excellence in policing.

Guiding Principles

The mission and vision of MCCA will be achieved by all members working together and being guided by the following principles.

Leading – We are the association of police leaders who are shaping policing by examining the difficult issues, influencing national and international discussions and policies on policing issues, and demanding excellence in police services not only among our membership but throughout the profession. Our work leads to increasing public trust in policing and enhancing the legitimacy of our profession.

Collaboration – Our work must be done in partnership and collaboration with our communities and other policing organizations, universities, policy and research organizations, government executives and legislators, and federal, state and local law enforcement. We recognize that globalization means we share issues, problems, goals and solutions with other countries.

Knowledge-Based Practice – We value life-long learning and understand that policing is ever changing. We also know that the work of a police executive of a major city agency is demanding and complex. Education, support, mentoring, and assistance will be provided to our members and others. We will work with others to improve the science and art of executive police leadership.

Innovation – As the leaders of the major police agencies we have a responsibility to help advance the profession of policing. This will be done by encouraging our members to open their departments as learning laboratories, by advocating for funding to develop and test new technology, practices, and approaches.

Strategic Goals

Guide national and international policy that affects public safety and major cities.

- Establish a legislative and policy agenda.
- Discuss and develop position papers on important policing and policy issues.
- Publically advocate for policies and programs that affect our membership.
- Develop materials and enhance the MCCA website so it becomes an important source of public policy information on policing.
- Be recognized as a leading international organization.

Develop current and future police executive leaders.

- Develop and participate in programs designed to improve the leadership ability of current and future police executives.
- Provide educational and experiential opportunities to senior executives.

Promote innovation and evidenced-based practices in policing.

- Establish a research agenda and advocate for a federal research and program agenda that addresses the issues of major cities.
- Encourage member agencies to become operational and technology test sites and to work with researchers to test program effectiveness.
- Be a resource to members as they address issues within their department and jurisdiction.
- Provide assistance to non-member departments around specific issues.
- Promote the sharing of innovation between countries.

Major Cities Chiefs Association
Immigration Position
October, 2011

The Major Cities Chiefs Association adopted a nine point position statement in July, 2006. Although similar to the original, the statement has been updated to reflect changes that have taken place over the past five years. The updated statement was discussed by members at the meeting in Sun Valley (June, 2011) and by the Board (August, 2011). The statement will be considered by the Membership at the Annual Meeting in October, 2011. The MCCA Board of Directors recommends approval.

The foundation of the Major Cities Chiefs Association's nine point position statement is based upon five key concerns with local police enforcing federal immigration law. These concerns are:

1. It undermines the trust and cooperation with immigrant communities which are essential elements of community oriented policing.
2. Local agencies do not possess adequate resources to enforce these laws in addition to the added responsibility of homeland security.
3. Immigration laws are very complex and the training required to understand them significantly detracts from the core mission of local police to create safe communities.
4. Local police do not possess clear authority to enforce the civil aspects of these laws. If given the authority, the federal government does not have the capacity to handle the volume of immigration violations that currently exist.
5. The lack of clear authority increases the risk of civil liability for local police and government.

Given these concerns, the Major Cities Chiefs are recommending that Congress and the President adopt the following nine points:

1) A FEDERAL RESPONSIBILITY

Immigration is a federal policy issue between the United States government and other countries, not local or state entities and other countries. The enforcement confusion created by inconsistent laws or ordinances undermines the professionalism of law enforcement across the nation. Any immigration enforcement laws or practices should be nationally based, consistent, and federally funded.

2) SECURE THE BORDERS

Immigration is a national issue and the federal government should first act to secure the national borders preventing illegal entry into the United States. We support further and adequate funding of federal agencies responsible for border security and immigration enforcement so they can accomplish this goal. We also support consideration of all possible solutions including construction of border fences where appropriate, use of surveillance technologies and increases in the number of border patrol agents.

3) ENFORCE LAWS PROHIBITING THE HIRING OF UNDOCUMENTED IMMIGRANTS

The federal government and its agencies should vigorously enforce existing immigration laws prohibiting employers from hiring illegal immigrants. Enforcement and prosecution of employers who illegally seek out and hire undocumented immigrants or turn a blind eye to the undocumented status of their employees will help to eliminate one of the major incentives for illegal immigration. Additionally, this will serve to reduce the exploitation of individual workers.

4) CONSULT AND INVOLVE LOCAL POLICE AGENCIES IN DECISION MAKING

Major Cities Chiefs and other representatives of the local law enforcement community should be consulted and involved in any process to develop a national initiative or practice involving local police agencies in the enforcement of federal immigration laws. The inclusion of local law enforcement at every level of development will take advantage of their perspective and experience in local policing.

5) COMPLETELY VOLUNTARY

Any initiative to involve local police agencies in the enforcement of immigration laws should be completely voluntary. The decisions related to how local law enforcement agencies allocate their resources, direct their workforce and define the duties of their employees to best serve and protect their communities must be left in the control of local governments. The decision to enter this area of enforcement should be left to the local government and not mandated or forced upon them by the federal government through the threat of sanctions or the withholding of existing police assistance funding.

6) NO REDUCTION OR SHIFTING OF CURRENT ASSISTANCE FUNDING

The funding of any initiative concerning the enforcement of immigration laws should not be at the detriment or reduction directly or indirectly of any current federal funding or programs focused on assisting local police agencies with local policing or homeland security activities. Merely shifting or diverting federal funding currently available for local policing and homeland security activities to any new immigration enforcement initiative would only result in a detrimental net loss of total resources available to local police agencies to protect their neighborhoods and strengthen homeland security.

7) CLARIFICATION OF AUTHORITY AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

The authority of local police agencies and their officers to become involved in the enforcement of immigration laws should be clearly stated and defined. The statement of authority should also establish liability protection and an immunity shield for police officers and police agencies that take part in immigration enforcement as authorized by clear federal legislation.

8) CLARIFICATION OF SECURE COMMUNITIES PROGRAM AND THE PURPOSE OF THE N.C.I.C. SYSTEM

The confusion surrounding the Secure Communities database and program has significantly undermined and eroded public confidence in law enforcement. Additionally, it has damaged cooperation and relationships between local police agencies and Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE). Clarification of the program's goals and oversight of its mission and implementation is strongly encouraged. Further, the integrity of the N.C.I.C. system as a notice system for criminal warrants and/or criminal matters must be maintained. The inclusion of civil detainers on the system continues to create confusion for local police agencies subjecting them to possible liability for exceeding their authority by arresting a person upon the basis of a mere civil detainer. Federal agencies should seek federal criminal warrants for any person they have charged criminally with violations of immigration laws and submit those criminal warrants on the N.C.I.C. system so the warrants can be acted upon by local police officers within their established criminal enforcement authority and training.

M.C.C. member agencies are united in their commitment to continue arresting anyone who violates the criminal laws of their jurisdictions regardless of the immigration status of the perpetrator. Those individuals, regardless of their citizenship status, who commit criminal acts will find no safe harbor or sanctuary from their criminal violations of the law within any major city but will instead face the full force of criminal prosecution.

Major Cities Chiefs Association
Gun Policy Positions
October, 2011

The Major Cities Chiefs Association (MCCA) has been a strong advocate for sensible gun policy for many years and has taken positions on a wide range of issues. The positions that MCCA have adopted in the past and several additional areas were discussed by the membership at the Sun Valley meeting (June, 2011) and by the Board of Directors at their meeting in August, 2011. Based on these discussions the Board recommends that MCCA reaffirm current positions and four additional points.

Current MCCA gun policy positions:

- Ban high capacity magazines (10+ rounds)
- Require unlicensed private background dealers to do background checks at gun shows
- Reinstate the assault weapons ban
- Support legislation to restore ATF authority to do their job including trace data sharing
- Oppose legislation that further erodes ATF authority
- Oppose legislation that would require states to recognize other concealed carry permits

Recommended additional gun policy positions:

- Encourage aggressive federal prosecution of violent offenders using guns
Conviction in Federal Court generally results in stronger sanctions, removes the offenders from the streets and serves as a deterrent.
- Harsher penalties and prosecution of straw purchasers
Straw purchasers are responsible for putting a substantial number of guns on the streets of America that are used in criminal acts. More aggressive prosecution with strong penalties would hold them accountable and act as a deterrent.
- Strengthen the national criminal instant background check system
The background check system does not have complete data at the current time. Mental health information, for example, is incomplete. The system needs to be improved.
- Mandatory registration/permits for firearms with revocation should the person become ineligible for criminal or mental stability reasons
There is little ability to track individuals with carry permits that have become ineligible – a registration/permit system would provide the information needed to ensure persons no longer eligible are removed from the program.

For Consideration by the

Fight Crime by Investing in Kids

WHEREAS, law enforcement leaders are dedicated to public safety; and

WHEREAS, the members of the Major Cities Chiefs Association work continuously to fight crime and remove dangerous criminals from our communities; and

WHEREAS, rigorous scientific research and our years of experience on the front lines of fighting crime show that we can greatly reduce crime by: (1) providing all families with access to high-quality early care and education for kids from birth to age five; (2) offering voluntary parent coaching to at-risk parents of young children through home visiting or other options proven to prevent child abuse and neglect; (3) ensuring all school-age children and youth have access to effective programs during school hours and after school to keep them on track; and (4) identifying troubled and delinquent kids and providing them and their parents effective interventions so the child will avoid a life of crime;

WHEREAS, investments like these more than pay for themselves in reduced crime and associated costs, reduced welfare and remedial education costs, and the increased revenue generated by the increased productivity of future workers; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Major Cities Chiefs Association calls on all public officials to fully fund the crime prevention programs cited in the FIGHT CRIME: INVEST IN KIDS Plan to Prevent Crime and Violence, including quality early education and child care, effective programs during school hours and after school, programs that help get troubled kids back on track, and programs proven to improve deficient parenting and prevent child abuse and neglect.

Overview of the Major Cities Intelligence Commanders Group

Purpose: The Major Cities Chiefs Association's (MCCA) Major Cities Intelligence Commanders Group (MCICG) assists the MCCA in strengthening and coordinating the intelligence capabilities and operations of law enforcement agencies in the major metropolitan areas of the United States and Canada to prevent and disrupt criminal activities and terrorism while protecting privacy, civil rights, and civil liberties. The MCICG also collaborates with federal agencies and state and major urban area fusion centers to increase and enhance information and intelligence sharing efforts nationwide.

Partnerships: In 2010, federal partners, including the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and the U.S. Department of Justice's (DOJ) Bureau of Justice Assistance, collaborated with the MCICG to support the group in accomplishing its purpose. Because of this partnership, regular MCICG meetings began in 2010 and will continue throughout 2012.

The agenda topics for these meetings have included understanding the current threat environment and local implications; discussing lessons learned from recent terrorist attacks; discussing emerging issues affecting local law enforcement; identifying methods to better communicate among major cities police departments; identifying processes to institutionalize the role of the MCICG, such as convening regular conference calls, developing a Web site, and creating a special-interest group on DHS's Homeland Security Information Network (HSIN); and establishing subcommittees and task teams charged with implementing, via guidance papers and recommendations, the issues and concerns identified by MCICG members during these meetings.

Historical Activities: The MCICG has been involved in a number of national activities and initiatives over the last two years. These activities include:

- In 2010, the MCICG began to have regular threat updates from both DHS and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. These updates include overviews of the international and domestic threat environment, cyber-security threats, and an update on the events surrounding the Southwest Border.
- In April 2010, the MCICG recommended working with the Homeland Security Advisory Committee to create a Countering Violent Extremism Working Group.
  - The working group was established in the spring of 2010.
- In July 2010, the MCICG provided recommendations and feedback to DHS regarding the development and dissemination of intelligence products and services.
- In October 2010, MCICG recommended the development of a portal on the HSIN to improve communication and collaboration among MCICG members. This portal was completed and released in 2011. The MCICG also developed a formal recommendation to work with the National Fusion Center Association to develop surveys regarding current information sharing capabilities between fusion centers and major cities intelligence units.

- In April 2011, the MCICG discussed the need to create a national criminal intelligence enterprise, create a formalized request for information (RFI) form, develop educational materials for new MCICG members, and complete a current national domestic threat assessment (as a part of the national criminal intelligence enterprise).

Current Efforts and Initiatives: The MCICG, in partnership with DHS and DOJ, convenes meetings approximately three times a year to discuss information sharing initiatives and the current threat environment and develop guidance on how to improve information and intelligence sharing at all levels of law enforcement. Additionally, the MCICG, in collaboration with DHS, holds regular conference calls to update the membership on current national initiatives and receive status updates on MCICG products and initiatives.

The current initiatives the MCICG is focused on include:

- Creating a National Criminal Intelligence Enterprise (NCIE) incorporating major cities intelligence divisions, fusion centers, and federal partners. The NCIE will be created collaboratively with federal partners and the Criminal Intelligence Coordinating Council.
- Developing a standardized RFI form and process that can be utilized by intelligence units and fusion centers to increase information sharing and collaboration.
- Identifying and implementing recommendations resulting from fusion center and MCICG surveys that focused on increasing collaboration among fusion center and major cities intelligence units.
- Continued communication among MCICG members via the HSIN Web portal, conference calls, and distribution lists.
- Continued training for intelligence commanders, investigators, and analysts.

Major City Chiefs National Criminal Intelligence Enterprise

It is moved that Major Cities Chiefs (MCC) establish the National Criminal Intelligence Enterprise (NCIE). This motion establishes a national network of criminal intelligence and counter-terrorism practitioners and adopts an operational organization integrated with respective fusion centers.

Each Chief shall direct staff to develop:

- a. Mission Statement for their Criminal Intelligence-Counter Terrorism Unit that encompasses terrorism and organized criminal activity;
- b. Determine the regional threat domain and prepare a Threat Domain Assessment Report, Standing Information Needs (SINs), and a formal threat based collection plan driven by Prioritized Information Needs (PIN's);
- c. Create policy that protects civil rights and liberties through the adoption of intelligence guidelines and oversight by the Major City Chiefs Intelligence Commanders Group; and
- d. Select or establish a communications network for regular sharing of operational information and intelligence.

The objective is to develop a better understanding of regional threat domains, complement the capabilities of the FBI and DHS, and fulfill the objective of state and local law enforcement to prevent crime.

Major Cities Chiefs Association Strategic Framework

The Major Cities Chiefs Association (MCCA) is a professional association representing the largest population centers in the United States and Canada. MCCA members are chiefs and sheriffs of the 70 largest law enforcement agencies in the United States and Canada. Together they serve more than 76.5 million people (68MUS, 8.5M Canada) with a combined sworn workforce of 177,150 (159,300 US, 17,850 Canada) officers. MCCA was formed in the late 1960s to provide a forum for executives to share ideas, experiences and strategies for addressing the challenges of policing large cities and counties. Just as policing has evolved since that time so has the MCCA. The MCCA Executive Board developed this three to five year strategic plan to ensure the continuous improvement of the MCCA, to increase its influence, and to enhance its member services.

MCCA Mission

The mission of MCCA is to provide a forum for police executives from large population centers to address the challenges and issues of policing, to influence national and international policy that affects police services, to enhance the development of current and future police leaders, and to encourage and sponsor research that advances this mission.

MCCA Vision

The Major Cities Chiefs Association is the place where police executives and others come to learn and collaborate. MCCA is a primary place where policy makers, researchers, government leaders, and the media turn when wanting to know the best international policing practices; to test innovations in police operations and technology; and to seek advice and assistance on specific policing issues. It is where its members learn how to improve themselves, their executive command staff, and their departments. The MCCA and its member departments represent excellence in policing.

Guiding Principles

The mission and vision of MCCA will be achieved by all members working together and being guided by the following principles.

Leading – We are the association of police leaders who are shaping policing by examining the difficult issues, influencing national and international discussions and policies on policing issues, and demanding excellence in police services not only

among our membership but throughout the profession. Our work leads to increasing public trust in policing and enhancing the legitimacy of our profession.

Collaboration – Our work must be done in partnership and collaboration with our communities and other policing organizations, universities, policy and research organizations, government executives and legislators, and federal, state and local law enforcement. We recognize that globalization means we share issues, problems, goals and solutions with other countries.

Knowledge-Based Practice – We value life-long learning and understand that policing is ever changing. We also know that the work of a police executive of a major city agency is demanding and complex. Education, support, mentoring, and assistance will be provided to our members and others. We will work with others to improve the science and art of executive police leadership.

Innovation – As the leaders of the major police agencies we have a responsibility to help advance the profession of policing. This will be done by encouraging our members to open their departments as learning laboratories, by advocating for funding to develop and test new technology, practices, and approaches.

Strategic Goals

Guide national and international policy that affects public safety and major cities.

- Establish a legislative and policy agenda.
- Discuss and develop position papers on important policing and policy issues.
- Publically advocate for policies and programs that affect our membership.
- Develop materials and enhance the MCCA website so it becomes an important source of public policy information on policing.
- Be recognized as a leading international organization.

Develop current and future police executive leaders.

- Develop and participate in programs designed to improve the leadership ability of current and future police executives.
- Provide educational and experiential opportunities to senior executives.

Promote innovation and evidenced-based practices in policing.

- Establish a research agenda and advocate for a federal research and program agenda that addresses the issues of major cities.
- Encourage member agencies to become operational and technology test sites and to work with researchers to test program effectiveness.
- Be a resource to members as they address issues within their department and jurisdiction.
- Provide assistance to non-member departments around specific issues.
- Promote the sharing of innovation between countries.

Major Cities Chiefs Association
Immigration Position
October, 2011

The Major Cities Chiefs Association adopted a nine point position statement in July, 2006. Although similar to the original, the statement has been updated to reflect changes that have taken place over the past five years. The updated statement was discussed by members at the meeting in Sun Valley (June, 2011) and by the Board (August, 2011). The statement will be considered by the Membership at the Annual Meeting in October, 2011. The MCCA Board of Directors recommends approval.

The foundation of the Major Cities Chiefs Association's nine point position statement is based upon five key concerns with local police enforcing federal immigration law. These concerns are:

1. It undermines the trust and cooperation with immigrant communities which are essential elements of community oriented policing.
2. Local agencies do not possess adequate resources to enforce these laws in addition to the added responsibility of homeland security.
3. Immigration laws are very complex and the training required to understand them significantly detracts from the core mission of local police to create safe communities.
4. Local police do not possess clear authority to enforce the civil aspects of these laws. If given the authority, the federal government does not have the capacity to handle the volume of immigration violations that currently exist.
5. The lack of clear authority increases the risk of civil liability for local police and government.

1) A FEDERAL RESPONSIBILITY

Immigration is a federal policy issue between the United States government and other countries, not local or state entities and other countries. The enforcement confusion created by inconsistent laws or ordinances undermines the professionalism of law enforcement across the nation. Any immigration enforcement laws or practices should be nationally based, consistent, and federally funded.

2) SECURE THE BORDERS

Immigration is a national issue and the federal government should first act to secure the national borders preventing illegal entry into the United States. We support further and adequate funding of federal agencies responsible for border security and immigration enforcement so they can accomplish this goal. We also support consideration of all possible solutions including construction of border fences where appropriate, use of surveillance technologies and increases in the number of border patrol agents.

3) ENFORCE LAWS PROHIBITING THE HIRING OF UNDOCUMENTED IMMIGRANTS

The federal government and its agencies should vigorously enforce existing immigration laws prohibiting employers from hiring illegal immigrants. Enforcement and prosecution of employers who illegally seek out and hire undocumented immigrants or turn a blind eye to the undocumented status of their employees will help to eliminate one of the major incentives for illegal immigration. Additionally, this will serve to reduce the exploitation of individual workers.

4) CONSULT AND INVOLVE LOCAL POLICE AGENCIES IN DECISION MAKING

Major Cities Chiefs and other representatives of the local law enforcement community should be consulted and involved in any process to develop a national initiative or practice involving local police agencies in the enforcement of federal immigration laws. The inclusion of local law enforcement at every level of development will take advantage of their perspective and experience in local policing.

5) COMPLETELY VOLUNTARY

Any initiative to involve local police agencies in the enforcement of immigration laws should be completely voluntary. The decisions related to how local law enforcement agencies allocate their resources, direct their workforce and define the duties of their employees to best serve and protect their communities must be left in the control of local governments. The decision to enter this area of enforcement should be left to the local government and not mandated or forced upon them by the federal government through the threat of sanctions or the withholding of existing police assistance funding.

6) NO REDUCTION OR SHIFTING OF CURRENT ASSISTANCE FUNDING

The funding of any initiative concerning the enforcement of immigration laws should not be at the detriment or reduction directly or indirectly of any current federal funding or programs focused on assisting local police agencies with local policing or homeland security activities. Merely shifting or diverting federal funding currently available for local policing and homeland security activities to any new immigration enforcement initiative would only result in a detrimental net loss of total resources available to local police agencies to protect their neighborhoods and strengthen homeland security.

7) CLARIFICATION OF AUTHORITY AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

The authority of local police agencies and their officers to become involved in the enforcement of immigration laws should be clearly stated and defined. The statement of authority should also establish liability protection and an immunity shield for police officers and police agencies that take part in immigration enforcement as authorized by clear federal legislation.

8) CLARIFICATION OF SECURE COMMUNITIES PROGRAM AND THE PURPOSE OF THE N.C.I.C. SYSTEM

The confusion surrounding the Secure Communities database and program has significantly undermined and eroded public confidence in law enforcement. Additionally, it has damaged cooperation and relationships between local police agencies and Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE). Clarification of the program's goals and oversight of its mission and implementation is strongly encouraged. Further, the integrity of the N.C.I.C. system as a notice system for criminal warrants and/or criminal matters must be maintained. The inclusion of civil detainers on the system continues to create confusion for local police agencies subjecting them to possible liability for exceeding their authority by arresting a person upon the basis of a mere civil detainer. Federal agencies should seek federal criminal warrants for any person they have charged criminally with violations of immigration laws and submit those criminal warrants on the N.C.I.C. system so the warrants can be acted upon by local police officers within their established criminal enforcement authority and training.

M.C.C. member agencies are united in their commitment to continue arresting anyone who violates the criminal laws of their jurisdictions regardless of the immigration status of the perpetrator. Those individuals, regardless of their citizenship status, who commit criminal acts will find no safe harbor or sanctuary from their criminal violations of the law within any major city but will instead face the full force of criminal prosecution.

Major Cities Chiefs Association Gun Policy Positions October, 2011

The Major Cities Chiefs Association (MCCA) has been a strong advocate for sensible gun policy for many years and has taken positions on a wide range of issues. The positions that MCCA have adopted in the past and several additional areas were discussed by the membership at the Sun Valley meeting (June, 2011) and by the Board of Directors at their meeting in August, 2011. Based on these discussions the Board recommends that MCCA reaffirm current positions and four additional points.

Current MCCA gun policy positions:

- Ban high capacity magazines (10+ rounds)
- Require unlicensed private background dealers to do background checks at gun shows
- Reinstate the assault weapons ban
- Support legislation to restore ATF authority to do their job including trace data sharing
- Oppose legislation that further erodes ATF authority
- Oppose legislation that would require states to recognize other concealed carry permits

Recommended additional gun policy positions:

- Encourage aggressive federal prosecution of violent offenders using guns
Conviction in Federal Court generally results in stronger sanctions, removes the offenders from the streets and serves as a deterrent.
- Harsher penalties and prosecution of straw purchasers
Straw purchasers are responsible for putting a substantial number of guns on the streets of America that are used in criminal acts. More aggressive prosecution with strong penalties would hold them accountable and act as a deterrent.
- Strengthen the national criminal instant background check system
The background check system does not have complete data at the current time. Mental health information, for example, is incomplete. The system needs to be improved.
- Mandatory registration/permits for firearms with revocation should the person become ineligible for criminal or mental stability reasons
There is little ability to track individuals with carry permits that have become ineligible – a registration/permit system would provide the information needed to ensure persons no longer eligible are removed from the program.

For Consideration by the

Fight Crime by Investing in Kids

WHEREAS, law enforcement leaders are dedicated to public safety; and

WHEREAS, the members of the Major Cities Chiefs Association work continuously to fight crime and remove dangerous criminals from our communities; and

WHEREAS, rigorous scientific research and our years of experience on the front lines of fighting crime show that we can greatly reduce crime by: (1) providing all families with access to high-quality early care and education for kids from birth to age five; (2) offering voluntary parent coaching to at-risk parents of young children through home visiting or other options proven to prevent child abuse and neglect; (3) ensuring all school-age children and youth have access to effective programs during school hours and after school to keep them on track; and (4) identifying troubled and delinquent kids and providing them and their parents effective interventions so the child will avoid a life of crime;

WHEREAS, investments like these more than pay for themselves in reduced crime and associated costs, reduced welfare and remedial education costs, and the increased revenue generated by the increased productivity of future workers; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Major Cities Chiefs Association calls on all public officials to fully fund the crime prevention programs cited in the FIGHT CRIME: INVEST IN KIDS Plan to Prevent Crime and Violence, including quality early education and child care, effective programs during school hours and after school, programs that help get troubled kids back on track, and programs proven to improve deficient parenting and prevent child abuse and neglect.

Overview of the Major Cities Intelligence Commanders Group

Purpose: The Major Cities Chiefs Association's (MCCA) Major Cities Intelligence Commanders Group (MCICG) assists the MCCA in strengthening and coordinating the intelligence capabilities and operations of law enforcement agencies in the major metropolitan areas of the United States and Canada to prevent and disrupt criminal activities and terrorism while protecting privacy, civil rights, and civil liberties. The MCICG also collaborates with federal agencies and state and major urban area fusion centers to increase and enhance information and intelligence sharing efforts nationwide.

Partnerships: In 2010, federal partners, including the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and the U.S. Department of Justice's (DOJ) Bureau of Justice Assistance, collaborated with the MCICG to support the group in accomplishing its purpose. Because of this partnership, regular MCICG meetings began in 2010 and will continue throughout 2012.

The agenda topics for these meetings have included understanding the current threat environment and local implications; discussing lessons learned from recent terrorist attacks; discussing emerging issues affecting local law enforcement; identifying methods to better communicate among major cities police departments; identifying processes to institutionalize the role of the MCICG, such as convening regular conference calls, developing a Web site, and creating a special-interest group on DHS's Homeland Security Information Network (HSIN); and establishing subcommittees and task teams charged with implementing, via guidance papers and recommendations, the issues and concerns identified by MCICG members during these meetings.

Historical Activities: The MCICG has been involved in a number of national activities and initiatives over the last two years. These activities include:

- In 2010, the MCICG began to have regular threat updates from both DHS and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. These updates include overviews of the international and domestic threat environment, cyber-security threats, and an update on the events surrounding the Southwest Border.
- In April 2010, the MCICG recommended working with the Homeland Security Advisory Committee to create a Countering Violent Extremism Working Group.
  - The working group was established in the spring of 2010.
- In July 2010, the MCICG provided recommendations and feedback to DHS regarding the development and dissemination of intelligence products and services.
- In October 2010, MCICG recommended the development of a portal on the HSIN to improve communication and collaboration among MCICG members. This portal was completed and released in 2011. The MCICG also developed a formal recommendation to work with the National Fusion Center Association to develop surveys regarding current information sharing capabilities between fusion centers and major cities intelligence units.

- In April 2011, the MCICG discussed the need to create a national criminal intelligence enterprise, create a formalized request for information (RFI) form, develop educational materials for new MCICG members, and complete a current national domestic threat assessment (as a part of the national criminal intelligence enterprise).

Current Efforts and Initiatives: The MCICG, in partnership with DHS and DOJ, convenes meetings approximately three times a year to discuss information sharing initiatives and the current threat environment and develop guidance on how to improve information and intelligence sharing at all levels of law enforcement. Additionally, the MCICG, in collaboration with DHS, holds regular conference calls to update the membership on current national initiatives and receive status updates on MCICG products and initiatives.

The current initiatives the MCICG is focused on include:

- Creating a National Criminal Intelligence Enterprise (NCIE) incorporating major cities intelligence divisions, fusion centers, and federal partners. The NCIE will be created collaboratively with federal partners and the Criminal Intelligence Coordinating Council.
- Developing a standardized RFI form and process that can be utilized by intelligence units and fusion centers to increase information sharing and collaboration.
- Identifying and implementing recommendations resulting from fusion center and MCICG surveys that focused on increasing collaboration among fusion center and major cities intelligence units.
- Continued communication among MCICG members via the HSIN Web portal, conference calls, and distribution lists.
- Continued training for intelligence commanders, investigators, and analysts.

Major City Chiefs National Criminal Intelligence Enterprise

It is moved that Major Cities Chiefs (MCC) establish the National Criminal Intelligence Enterprise (NCIE). This motion establishes a national network of criminal intelligence and counter-terrorism practitioners and adopts an operational organization integrated with respective fusion centers.

Each Chief shall direct staff to develop:

- a. Mission Statement for their Criminal Intelligence-Counter Terrorism Unit that encompasses terrorism and organized criminal activity;
- b. Determine the regional threat domain and prepare a Threat Domain Assessment Report, Standing Information Needs (SINs), and a formal threat based collection plan driven by Prioritized Information Needs (PIN's);
- c. Create policy that protects civil rights and liberties through the adoption of intelligence guidelines and oversight by the Major City Chiefs Intelligence Commanders Group; and
- d. Select or establish a communications network for regular sharing of operational information and intelligence.

The objective is to develop a better understanding of regional threat domains, complement the capabilities of the FBI and DHS, and fulfill the objective of state and local law enforcement to prevent crime.

Major Cities Chiefs Association Strategic Framework

The Major Cities Chiefs Association (MCCA) is a professional association representing the largest population centers in the United States and Canada. MCCA members are chiefs and sheriffs of the 70 largest law enforcement agencies in the United States and Canada. Together they serve more than 76.5 million people (68MUS, 8.5M Canada) with a combined sworn workforce of 177,150 (159,300 US, 17,850 Canada) officers. MCCA was formed in the late 1960s to provide a forum for executives to share ideas, experiences and strategies for addressing the challenges of policing large cities and counties. Just as policing has evolved since that time so has the MCCA. The MCCA Executive Board developed this three to five year strategic plan to ensure the continuous improvement of the MCCA, to increase its influence, and to enhance its member services.

MCCA Mission

The mission of MCCA is to provide a forum for police executives from large population centers to address the challenges and issues of policing, to influence national and international policy that affects police services, to enhance the development of current and future police leaders, and to encourage and sponsor research that advances this mission.

MCCA Vision

The Major Cities Chiefs Association is the place where police executives and others come to learn and collaborate. MCCA is a primary place where policy makers, researchers, government leaders, and the media turn when wanting to know the best international policing practices; to test innovations in police operations and technology; and to seek advice and assistance on specific policing issues. It is where its members learn how to improve themselves, their executive command staff, and their departments. The MCCA and its member departments represent excellence in policing.

Guiding Principles

The mission and vision of MCCA will be achieved by all members working together and being guided by the following principles.

Leading – We are the association of police leaders who are shaping policing by examining the difficult issues, influencing national and international discussions and policies on policing issues, and demanding excellence in police services not only

among our membership but throughout the profession. Our work leads to increasing public trust in policing and enhancing the legitimacy of our profession.

Collaboration – Our work must be done in partnership and collaboration with our communities and other policing organizations, universities, policy and research organizations, government executives and legislators, and federal, state and local law enforcement. We recognize that globalization means we share issues, problems, goals and solutions with other countries.

Knowledge-Based Practice – We value life-long learning and understand that policing is ever changing. We also know that the work of a police executive of a major city agency is demanding and complex. Education, support, mentoring, and assistance will be provided to our members and others. We will work with others to improve the science and art of executive police leadership.

Innovation – As the leaders of the major police agencies we have a responsibility to help advance the profession of policing. This will be done by encouraging our members to open their departments as learning laboratories, by advocating for funding to develop and test new technology, practices, and approaches.

Strategic Goals

Guide national and international policy that affects public safety and major cities.

- Establish a legislative and policy agenda.
- Discuss and develop position papers on important policing and policy issues.
- Publically advocate for policies and programs that affect our membership.
- Develop materials and enhance the MCCA website so it becomes an important source of public policy information on policing.
- Be recognized as a leading international organization.

Develop current and future police executive leaders.

- Develop and participate in programs designed to improve the leadership ability of current and future police executives.
- Provide educational and experiential opportunities to senior executives.

Promote innovation and evidenced-based practices in policing.

- Establish a research agenda and advocate for a federal research and program agenda that addresses the issues of major cities.
- Encourage member agencies to become operational and technology test sites and to work with researchers to test program effectiveness.
- Be a resource to members as they address issues within their department and jurisdiction.
- Provide assistance to non-member departments around specific issues.
- Promote the sharing of innovation between countries.

The authority of local police agencies and their officers to become involved in the enforcement of immigration laws should be clearly stated and defined. The statement of authority should also establish liability protection and an immunity shield for police officers and police agencies that take part in immigration enforcement as authorized by clear federal legislation.

8) CLARIFICATION OF SECURE COMMUNITIES PROGRAM AND THE PURPOSE OF THE N.C.I.C. SYSTEM

The confusion surrounding the Secure Communities database and program has significantly undermined and eroded public confidence in law enforcement. Additionally, it has damaged cooperation and relationships between local police agencies and Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE). Clarification of the program's goals and oversight of its mission and implementation is strongly encouraged. Further, the integrity of the N.C.I.C. system as a notice system for criminal warrants and/or criminal matters must be maintained. The inclusion of civil detainers on the system continues to create confusion for local police agencies subjecting them to possible liability for exceeding their authority by arresting a person upon the basis of a mere civil detainer. Federal agencies should seek federal criminal warrants for any person they have charged criminally with violations of immigration laws and submit those criminal warrants on the N.C.I.C. system so the warrants can be acted upon by local police officers within their established criminal enforcement authority and training.

M.C.C. member agencies are united in their commitment to continue arresting anyone who violates the criminal laws of their jurisdictions regardless of the immigration status of the perpetrator. Those individuals, regardless of their citizenship status, who commit criminal acts will find no safe harbor or sanctuary from their criminal violations of the law within any major city but will instead face the full force of criminal prosecution.

Major Cities Chiefs Association
Gun Policy Positions
October, 2011

The Major Cities Chiefs Association (MCCA) has been a strong advocate for sensible gun policy for many years and has taken positions on a wide range of issues. The positions that MCCA have adopted in the past and several additional areas were discussed by the membership at the Sun Valley meeting (June, 2011) and by the Board of Directors at their meeting in August, 2011. Based on these discussions the Board recommends that MCCA reaffirm current positions and four additional points.

Current MCCA gun policy positions:

- Ban high capacity magazines (10+ rounds)
- Require unlicensed private background dealers to do background checks at gun shows
- Reinstate the assault weapons ban
- Support legislation to restore ATF authority to do their job including trace data sharing
- Oppose legislation that further erodes ATF authority
- Oppose legislation that would require states to recognize other concealed carry permits

Recommended additional gun policy positions:

- Encourage aggressive federal prosecution of violent offenders using guns
Conviction in Federal Court generally results in stronger sanctions, removes the offenders from the streets and serves as a deterrent.
- Harsher penalties and prosecution of straw purchasers
Straw purchasers are responsible for putting a substantial number of guns on the streets of America that are used in criminal acts. More aggressive prosecution with strong penalties would hold them accountable and act as a deterrent.
- Strengthen the national criminal instant background check system
The background check system does not have complete data at the current time. Mental health information, for example, is incomplete. The system needs to be improved.
- Mandatory registration/permits for firearms with revocation should the person become ineligible for criminal or mental stability reasons
There is little ability to track individuals with carry permits that have become ineligible – a registration/permit system would provide the information needed to ensure persons no longer eligible are removed from the program.

Fight Crime by Investing in Kids

WHEREAS, law enforcement leaders are dedicated to public safety; and

WHEREAS, the members of the Major Cities Chiefs Association work continuously to fight crime and remove dangerous criminals from our communities; and

WHEREAS, rigorous scientific research and our years of experience on the front lines of fighting crime show that we can greatly reduce crime by: (1) providing all families with access to high-quality early care and education for kids from birth to age five; (2) offering voluntary parent coaching to at-risk parents of young children through home visiting or other options proven to prevent child abuse and neglect; (3) ensuring all school-age children and youth have access to effective programs during school hours and after school to keep them on track; and (4) identifying troubled and delinquent kids and providing them and their parents effective interventions so the child will avoid a life of crime;

WHEREAS, investments like these more than pay for themselves in reduced crime and associated costs, reduced welfare and remedial education costs, and the increased revenue generated by the increased productivity of future workers; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Major Cities Chiefs Association calls on all public officials to fully fund the crime prevention programs cited in the FIGHT CRIME: INVEST IN KIDS Plan to Prevent Crime and Violence, including quality early education and child care, effective programs during school hours and after school, programs that help get troubled kids back on track, and programs proven to improve deficient parenting and prevent child abuse and neglect.

Overview of the Major Cities Intelligence Commanders Group

Purpose: The Major Cities Chiefs Association's (MCCA) Major Cities Intelligence Commanders Group (MCICG) assists the MCCA in strengthening and coordinating the intelligence capabilities and operations of law enforcement agencies in the major metropolitan areas of the United States and Canada to prevent and disrupt criminal activities and terrorism while protecting privacy, civil rights, and civil liberties. The MCICG also collaborates with federal agencies and state and major urban area fusion centers to increase and enhance information and intelligence sharing efforts nationwide.

Partnerships: In 2010, federal partners, including the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and the U.S. Department of Justice's (DOJ) Bureau of Justice Assistance, collaborated with the MCICG to support the group in accomplishing its purpose. Because of this partnership, regular MCICG meetings began in 2010 and will continue throughout 2012.

The agenda topics for these meetings have included understanding the current threat environment and local implications; discussing lessons learned from recent terrorist attacks; discussing emerging issues affecting local law enforcement; identifying methods to better communicate among major cities police departments; identifying processes to institutionalize the role of the MCICG, such as convening regular conference calls, developing a Web site, and creating a special-interest group on DHS's Homeland Security Information Network (HSIN); and establishing subcommittees and task teams charged with implementing, via guidance papers and recommendations, the issues and concerns identified by MCICG members during these meetings.

Historical Activities: The MCICG has been involved in a number of national activities and initiatives over the last two years. These activities include:

- In 2010, the MCICG began to have regular threat updates from both DHS and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. These updates include overviews of the international and domestic threat environment, cyber-security threats, and an update on the events surrounding the Southwest Border.
- In April 2010, the MCICG recommended working with the Homeland Security Advisory Committee to create a Countering Violent Extremism Working Group.
  - The working group was established in the spring of 2010.
- In July 2010, the MCICG provided recommendations and feedback to DHS regarding the development and dissemination of intelligence products and services.
- In October 2010, MCICG recommended the development of a portal on the HSIN to improve communication and collaboration among MCICG members. This portal was completed and released in 2011. The MCICG also developed a formal recommendation to work with the National Fusion Center Association to develop surveys regarding current information sharing capabilities between fusion centers and major cities intelligence units.

- In April 2011, the MCICG discussed the need to create a national criminal intelligence enterprise, create a formalized request for information (RFI) form, develop educational materials for new MCICG members, and complete a current national domestic threat assessment (as a part of the national criminal intelligence enterprise).

Current Efforts and Initiatives: The MCICG, in partnership with DHS and DOJ, convenes meetings approximately three times a year to discuss information sharing initiatives and the current threat environment and develop guidance on how to improve information and intelligence sharing at all levels of law enforcement. Additionally, the MCICG, in collaboration with DHS, holds regular conference calls to update the membership on current national initiatives and receive status updates on MCICG products and initiatives.

The current initiatives the MCICG is focused on include:

- Creating a National Criminal Intelligence Enterprise (NCIE) incorporating major cities intelligence divisions, fusion centers, and federal partners. The NCIE will be created collaboratively with federal partners and the Criminal Intelligence Coordinating Council.
- Developing a standardized RFI form and process that can be utilized by intelligence units and fusion centers to increase information sharing and collaboration.
- Identifying and implementing recommendations resulting from fusion center and MCICG surveys that focused on increasing collaboration among fusion center and major cities intelligence units.
- Continued communication among MCICG members via the HSIN Web portal, conference calls, and distribution lists.
- Continued training for intelligence commanders, investigators, and analysts.

Major City Chiefs National Criminal Intelligence Enterprise

It is moved that Major Cities Chiefs (MCC) establish the National Criminal Intelligence Enterprise (NCIE). This motion establishes a national network of criminal intelligence and counter-terrorism practitioners and adopts an operational organization integrated with respective fusion centers.

Each Chief shall direct staff to develop:

- a. Mission Statement for their Criminal Intelligence-Counter Terrorism Unit that encompasses terrorism and organized criminal activity;
- b. Determine the regional threat domain and prepare a Threat Domain Assessment Report, Standing Information Needs (SINs), and a formal threat based collection plan driven by Prioritized Information Needs (PIN's);
- c. Create policy that protects civil rights and liberties through the adoption of intelligence guidelines and oversight by the Major City Chiefs Intelligence Commanders Group; and
- d. Select or establish a communications network for regular sharing of operational information and intelligence.

The objective is to develop a better understanding of regional threat domains, complement the capabilities of the FBI and DHS, and fulfill the objective of state and local law enforcement to prevent crime.

Major Cities Chiefs Association Strategic Framework

The Major Cities Chiefs Association (MCCA) is a professional association representing the largest population centers in the United States and Canada. MCCA members are chiefs and sheriffs of the 70 largest law enforcement agencies in the United States and Canada. Together they serve more than 76.5 million people (68MUS, 8.5M Canada) with a combined sworn workforce of 177,150 (159,300 US, 17,850 Canada) officers. MCCA was formed in the late 1960s to provide a forum for executives to share ideas, experiences and strategies for addressing the challenges of policing large cities and counties. Just as policing has evolved since that time so has the MCCA. The MCCA Executive Board developed this three to five year strategic plan to ensure the continuous improvement of the MCCA, to increase its influence, and to enhance its member services.

MCCA Mission

The mission of MCCA is to provide a forum for police executives from large population centers to address the challenges and issues of policing, to influence national and international policy that affects police services, to enhance the development of current and future police leaders, and to encourage and sponsor research that advances this mission.

MCCA Vision

The Major Cities Chiefs Association is the place where police executives and others come to learn and collaborate. MCCA is a primary place where policy makers, researchers, government leaders, and the media turn when wanting to know the best international policing practices; to test innovations in police operations and technology; and to seek advice and assistance on specific policing issues. It is where its members learn how to improve themselves, their executive command staff, and their departments. The MCCA and its member departments represent excellence in policing.

Guiding Principles

The mission and vision of MCCA will be achieved by all members working together and being guided by the following principles.

Leading – We are the association of police leaders who are shaping policing by examining the difficult issues, influencing national and international discussions and policies on policing issues, and demanding excellence in police services not only

among our membership but throughout the profession. Our work leads to increasing public trust in policing and enhancing the legitimacy of our profession.

Collaboration – Our work must be done in partnership and collaboration with our communities and other policing organizations, universities, policy and research organizations, government executives and legislators, and federal, state and local law enforcement. We recognize that globalization means we share issues, problems, goals and solutions with other countries.

Knowledge-Based Practice – We value life-long learning and understand that policing is ever changing. We also know that the work of a police executive of a major city agency is demanding and complex. Education, support, mentoring, and assistance will be provided to our members and others. We will work with others to improve the science and art of executive police leadership.

Innovation – As the leaders of the major police agencies we have a responsibility to help advance the profession of policing. This will be done by encouraging our members to open their departments as learning laboratories, by advocating for funding to develop and test new technology, practices, and approaches.

Strategic Goals

Guide national and international policy that affects public safety and major cities.

- Establish a legislative and policy agenda.
- Discuss and develop position papers on important policing and policy issues.
- Publically advocate for policies and programs that affect our membership.
- Develop materials and enhance the MCCA website so it becomes an important source of public policy information on policing.
- Be recognized as a leading international organization.

Develop current and future police executive leaders.

- Develop and participate in programs designed to improve the leadership ability of current and future police executives.
- Provide educational and experiential opportunities to senior executives.

Promote innovation and evidenced-based practices in policing.

- Establish a research agenda and advocate for a federal research and program agenda that addresses the issues of major cities.
- Encourage member agencies to become operational and technology test sites and to work with researchers to test program effectiveness.
- Be a resource to members as they address issues within their department and jurisdiction.
- Provide assistance to non-member departments around specific issues.
- Promote the sharing of innovation between countries.

Major Cities Chiefs Association
Immigration Position
October, 2011

The Major Cities Chiefs Association adopted a nine point position statement in July, 2006. Although similar to the original, the statement has been updated to reflect changes that have taken place over the past five years. The updated statement was discussed by members at the meeting in Sun Valley (June, 2011) and by the Board (August, 2011). The statement will be considered by the Membership at the Annual Meeting in October, 2011. The MCCA Board of Directors recommends approval.

The foundation of the Major Cities Chiefs Association's nine point position statement is based upon five key concerns with local police enforcing federal immigration law. These concerns are:

1. It undermines the trust and cooperation with immigrant communities which are essential elements of community oriented policing.
2. Local agencies do not possess adequate resources to enforce these laws in addition to the added responsibility of homeland security.
3. Immigration laws are very complex and the training required to understand them significantly detracts from the core mission of local police to create safe communities.
4. Local police do not possess clear authority to enforce the civil aspects of these laws. If given the authority, the federal government does not have the capacity to handle the volume of immigration violations that currently exist.
5. The lack of clear authority increases the risk of civil liability for local police and government.

1) A FEDERAL RESPONSIBILITY

Immigration is a federal policy issue between the United States government and other countries, not local or state entities and other countries. The enforcement confusion created by inconsistent laws or ordinances undermines the professionalism of law enforcement across the nation. Any immigration enforcement laws or practices should be nationally based, consistent, and federally funded.

2) SECURE THE BORDERS

Immigration is a national issue and the federal government should first act to secure the national borders preventing illegal entry into the United States. We support further and adequate funding of federal agencies responsible for border security and immigration enforcement so they can accomplish this goal. We also support consideration of all possible solutions including construction of border fences where appropriate, use of surveillance technologies and increases in the number of border patrol agents.

3) ENFORCE LAWS PROHIBITING THE HIRING OF UNDOCUMENTED IMMIGRANTS

The federal government and its agencies should vigorously enforce existing immigration laws prohibiting employers from hiring illegal immigrants. Enforcement and prosecution of employers who illegally seek out and hire undocumented immigrants or turn a blind eye to the undocumented status of their employees will help to eliminate one of the major incentives for illegal immigration. Additionally, this will serve to reduce the exploitation of individual workers.

4) CONSULT AND INVOLVE LOCAL POLICE AGENCIES IN DECISION MAKING

Major Cities Chiefs and other representatives of the local law enforcement community should be consulted and involved in any process to develop a national initiative or practice involving local police agencies in the enforcement of federal immigration laws. The inclusion of local law enforcement at every level of development will take advantage of their perspective and experience in local policing.

5) COMPLETELY VOLUNTARY

Any initiative to involve local police agencies in the enforcement of immigration laws should be completely voluntary. The decisions related to how local law enforcement agencies allocate their resources, direct their workforce and define the duties of their employees to best serve and protect their communities must be left in the control of local governments. The decision to enter this area of enforcement should be left to the local government and not mandated or forced upon them by the federal government through the threat of sanctions or the withholding of existing police assistance funding.

6) NO REDUCTION OR SHIFTING OF CURRENT ASSISTANCE FUNDING

The funding of any initiative concerning the enforcement of immigration laws should not be at the detriment or reduction directly or indirectly of any current federal funding or programs focused on assisting local police agencies with local policing or homeland security activities. Merely shifting or diverting federal funding currently available for local policing and homeland security activities to any new immigration enforcement initiative would only result in a detrimental net loss of total resources available to local police agencies to protect their neighborhoods and strengthen homeland security.

7) CLARIFICATION OF AUTHORITY AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

The authority of local police agencies and their officers to become involved in the enforcement of immigration laws should be clearly stated and defined. The statement of authority should also establish liability protection and an immunity shield for police officers and police agencies that take part in immigration enforcement as authorized by clear federal legislation.

8) CLARIFICATION OF SECURE COMMUNITIES PROGRAM AND THE PURPOSE OF THE N.C.I.C. SYSTEM

The confusion surrounding the Secure Communities database and program has significantly undermined and eroded public confidence in law enforcement. Additionally, it has damaged cooperation and relationships between local police agencies and Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE). Clarification of the program's goals and oversight of its mission and implementation is strongly encouraged. Further, the integrity of the N.C.I.C. system as a notice system for criminal warrants and/or criminal matters must be maintained. The inclusion of civil detainers on the system continues to create confusion for local police agencies subjecting them to possible liability for exceeding their authority by arresting a person upon the basis of a mere civil detainer. Federal agencies should seek federal criminal warrants for any person they have charged criminally with violations of immigration laws and submit those criminal warrants on the N.C.I.C. system so the warrants can be acted upon by local police officers within their established criminal enforcement authority and training.

M.C.C. member agencies are united in their commitment to continue arresting anyone who violates the criminal laws of their jurisdictions regardless of the immigration status of the perpetrator. Those individuals, regardless of their citizenship status, who commit criminal acts will find no safe harbor or sanctuary from their criminal violations of the law within any major city but will instead face the full force of criminal prosecution.

Major Cities Chiefs Association Gun Policy Positions October, 2011

The Major Cities Chiefs Association (MCCA) has been a strong advocate for sensible gun policy for many years and has taken positions on a wide range of issues. The positions that MCCA have adopted in the past and several additional areas were discussed by the membership at the Sun Valley meeting (June, 2011) and by the Board of Directors at their meeting in August, 2011. Based on these discussions the Board recommends that MCCA reaffirm current positions and four additional points.

Current MCCA gun policy positions:

- Ban high capacity magazines (10+ rounds)
- Require unlicensed private background dealers to do background checks at gun shows
- Reinstate the assault weapons ban
- Support legislation to restore ATF authority to do their job including trace data sharing
- Oppose legislation that further erodes ATF authority
- Oppose legislation that would require states to recognize other concealed carry permits

Recommended additional gun policy positions:

- Encourage aggressive federal prosecution of violent offenders using guns
Conviction in Federal Court generally results in stronger sanctions, removes the offenders from the streets and serves as a deterrent.
- Harsher penalties and prosecution of straw purchasers
Straw purchasers are responsible for putting a substantial number of guns on the streets of America that are used in criminal acts. More aggressive prosecution with strong penalties would hold them accountable and act as a deterrent.
- Strengthen the national criminal instant background check system
The background check system does not have complete data at the current time. Mental health information, for example, is incomplete. The system needs to be improved.
- Mandatory registration/permits for firearms with revocation should the person become ineligible for criminal or mental stability reasons
There is little ability to track individuals with carry permits that have become ineligible – a registration/permit system would provide the information needed to ensure persons no longer eligible are removed from the program.

For Consideration by the

Fight Crime by Investing in Kids

WHEREAS, law enforcement leaders are dedicated to public safety; and

WHEREAS, the members of the Major Cities Chiefs Association work continuously to fight crime and remove dangerous criminals from our communities; and

WHEREAS, rigorous scientific research and our years of experience on the front lines of fighting crime show that we can greatly reduce crime by: (1) providing all families with access to high-quality early care and education for kids from birth to age five; (2) offering voluntary parent coaching to at-risk parents of young children through home visiting or other options proven to prevent child abuse and neglect; (3) ensuring all school-age children and youth have access to effective programs during school hours and after school to keep them on track; and (4) identifying troubled and delinquent kids and providing them and their parents effective interventions so the child will avoid a life of crime;

WHEREAS, investments like these more than pay for themselves in reduced crime and associated costs, reduced welfare and remedial education costs, and the increased revenue generated by the increased productivity of future workers; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Major Cities Chiefs Association calls on all public officials to fully fund the crime prevention programs cited in the FIGHT CRIME: INVEST IN KIDS Plan to Prevent Crime and Violence, including quality early education and child care, effective programs during school hours and after school, programs that help get troubled kids back on track, and programs proven to improve deficient parenting and prevent child abuse and neglect.

Overview of the Major Cities Intelligence Commanders Group

Purpose: The Major Cities Chiefs Association's (MCCA) Major Cities Intelligence Commanders Group (MCICG) assists the MCCA in strengthening and coordinating the intelligence capabilities and operations of law enforcement agencies in the major metropolitan areas of the United States and Canada to prevent and disrupt criminal activities and terrorism while protecting privacy, civil rights, and civil liberties. The MCICG also collaborates with federal agencies and state and major urban area fusion centers to increase and enhance information and intelligence sharing efforts nationwide.

Partnerships: In 2010, federal partners, including the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and the U.S. Department of Justice's (DOJ) Bureau of Justice Assistance, collaborated with the MCICG to support the group in accomplishing its purpose. Because of this partnership, regular MCICG meetings began in 2010 and will continue throughout 2012.

The agenda topics for these meetings have included understanding the current threat environment and local implications; discussing lessons learned from recent terrorist attacks; discussing emerging issues affecting local law enforcement; identifying methods to better communicate among major cities police departments; identifying processes to institutionalize the role of the MCICG, such as convening regular conference calls, developing a Web site, and creating a special-interest group on DHS's Homeland Security Information Network (HSIN); and establishing subcommittees and task teams charged with implementing, via guidance papers and recommendations, the issues and concerns identified by MCICG members during these meetings.

Historical Activities: The MCICG has been involved in a number of national activities and initiatives over the last two years. These activities include:

- In 2010, the MCICG began to have regular threat updates from both DHS and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. These updates include overviews of the international and domestic threat environment, cyber-security threats, and an update on the events surrounding the Southwest Border.
- In April 2010, the MCICG recommended working with the Homeland Security Advisory Committee to create a Countering Violent Extremism Working Group.
  - The working group was established in the spring of 2010.
- In July 2010, the MCICG provided recommendations and feedback to DHS regarding the development and dissemination of intelligence products and services.
- In October 2010, MCICG recommended the development of a portal on the HSIN to improve communication and collaboration among MCICG members. This portal was completed and released in 2011. The MCICG also developed a formal recommendation to work with the National Fusion Center Association to develop surveys regarding current information sharing capabilities between fusion centers and major cities intelligence units.

- In April 2011, the MCICG discussed the need to create a national criminal intelligence enterprise, create a formalized request for information (RFI) form, develop educational materials for new MCICG members, and complete a current national domestic threat assessment (as a part of the national criminal intelligence enterprise).

Current Efforts and Initiatives: The MCICG, in partnership with DHS and DOJ, convenes meetings approximately three times a year to discuss information sharing initiatives and the current threat environment and develop guidance on how to improve information and intelligence sharing at all levels of law enforcement. Additionally, the MCICG, in collaboration with DHS, holds regular conference calls to update the membership on current national initiatives and receive status updates on MCICG products and initiatives.

The current initiatives the MCICG is focused on include:

- Creating a National Criminal Intelligence Enterprise (NCIE) incorporating major cities intelligence divisions, fusion centers, and federal partners. The NCIE will be created collaboratively with federal partners and the Criminal Intelligence Coordinating Council.
- Developing a standardized RFI form and process that can be utilized by intelligence units and fusion centers to increase information sharing and collaboration.
- Identifying and implementing recommendations resulting from fusion center and MCICG surveys that focused on increasing collaboration among fusion center and major cities intelligence units.
- Continued communication among MCICG members via the HSIN Web portal, conference calls, and distribution lists.
- Continued training for intelligence commanders, investigators, and analysts.

Major City Chiefs National Criminal Intelligence Enterprise

It is moved that Major Cities Chiefs (MCC) establish the National Criminal Intelligence Enterprise (NCIE). This motion establishes a national network of criminal intelligence and counter-terrorism practitioners and adopts an operational organization integrated with respective fusion centers.

Each Chief shall direct staff to develop:

- a. Mission Statement for their Criminal Intelligence-Counter Terrorism Unit that encompasses terrorism and organized criminal activity;
- b. Determine the regional threat domain and prepare a Threat Domain Assessment Report, Standing Information Needs (SINs), and a formal threat based collection plan driven by Prioritized Information Needs (PIN's);
- c. Create policy that protects civil rights and liberties through the adoption of intelligence guidelines and oversight by the Major City Chiefs Intelligence Commanders Group; and
- d. Select or establish a communications network for regular sharing of operational information and intelligence.

The objective is to develop a better understanding of regional threat domains, complement the capabilities of the FBI and DHS, and fulfill the objective of state and local law enforcement to prevent crime.

All – The mayor spoke with Secretary Salazar a few minutes ago and he is sending over, we believe, reps from NPS and Park Police to participate in our meeting/call today at 6pm.

Irv, this is on Occupy DC. Can you stick around after the senior staff meeting to participate as well?

Thanks,

Major Cities Chiefs Association Strategic Framework

The Major Cities Chiefs Association (MCCA) is a professional association representing the largest population centers in the United States and Canada. MCCA members are chiefs and sheriffs of the 70 largest law enforcement agencies in the United States and Canada. Together they serve more than 76.5 million people (68MUS, 8.5M Canada) with a combined sworn workforce of 177,150 (159,300 US, 17,850 Canada) officers. MCCA was formed in the late 1960s to provide a forum for executives to share ideas, experiences and strategies for addressing the challenges of policing large cities and counties. Just as policing has evolved since that time so has the MCCA. The MCCA Executive Board developed this three to five year strategic plan to ensure the continuous improvement of the MCCA, to increase its influence, and to enhance its member services.

MCCA Mission

The mission of MCCA is to provide a forum for police executives from large population centers to address the challenges and issues of policing, to influence national and international policy that affects police services, to enhance the development of current and future police leaders, and to encourage and sponsor research that advances this mission.

MCCA Vision

The Major Cities Chiefs Association is the place where police executives and others come to learn and collaborate. MCCA is a primary place where policy makers, researchers, government leaders, and the media turn when wanting to know the best international policing practices; to test innovations in police operations and technology; and to seek advice and assistance on specific policing issues. It is where its members learn how to improve themselves, their executive command staff, and their departments. The MCCA and its member departments represent excellence in policing.

Guiding Principles

The mission and vision of MCCA will be achieved by all members working together and being guided by the following principles.

Leading – We are the association of police leaders who are shaping policing by examining the difficult issues, influencing national and international discussions and policies on policing issues, and demanding excellence in police services not only

among our membership but throughout the profession. Our work leads to increasing public trust in policing and enhancing the legitimacy of our profession.

Collaboration – Our work must be done in partnership and collaboration with our communities and other policing organizations, universities, policy and research organizations, government executives and legislators, and federal, state and local law enforcement. We recognize that globalization means we share issues, problems, goals and solutions with other countries.

Knowledge-Based Practice – We value life-long learning and understand that policing is ever changing. We also know that the work of a police executive of a major city agency is demanding and complex. Education, support, mentoring, and assistance will be provided to our members and others. We will work with others to improve the science and art of executive police leadership.

Innovation – As the leaders of the major police agencies we have a responsibility to help advance the profession of policing. This will be done by encouraging our members to open their departments as learning laboratories, by advocating for funding to develop and test new technology, practices, and approaches.

Strategic Goals

Guide national and international policy that affects public safety and major cities.

- Establish a legislative and policy agenda.
- Discuss and develop position papers on important policing and policy issues.
- Publically advocate for policies and programs that affect our membership.
- Develop materials and enhance the MCCA website so it becomes an important source of public policy information on policing.
- Be recognized as a leading international organization.

Develop current and future police executive leaders.

- Develop and participate in programs designed to improve the leadership ability of current and future police executives.
- Provide educational and experiential opportunities to senior executives.

Promote innovation and evidenced-based practices in policing.

- Establish a research agenda and advocate for a federal research and program agenda that addresses the issues of major cities.
- Encourage member agencies to become operational and technology test sites and to work with researchers to test program effectiveness.
- Be a resource to members as they address issues within their department and jurisdiction.
- Provide assistance to non-member departments around specific issues.
- Promote the sharing of innovation between countries.

Major Cities Chiefs Association
Immigration Position
October, 2011

The Major Cities Chiefs Association adopted a nine point position statement in July, 2006. Although similar to the original, the statement has been updated to reflect changes that have taken place over the past five years. The updated statement was discussed by members at the meeting in Sun Valley (June, 2011) and by the Board (August, 2011). The statement will be considered by the Membership at the Annual Meeting in October, 2011. The MCCA Board of Directors recommends approval.

The foundation of the Major Cities Chiefs Association's nine point position statement is based upon five key concerns with local police enforcing federal immigration law. These concerns are:

1. It undermines the trust and cooperation with immigrant communities which are essential elements of community oriented policing.
2. Local agencies do not possess adequate resources to enforce these laws in addition to the added responsibility of homeland security.
3. Immigration laws are very complex and the training required to understand them significantly detracts from the core mission of local police to create safe communities.
4. Local police do not possess clear authority to enforce the civil aspects of these laws. If given the authority, the federal government does not have the capacity to handle the volume of immigration violations that currently exist.
5. The lack of clear authority increases the risk of civil liability for local police and government.

1) A FEDERAL RESPONSIBILITY

Immigration is a federal policy issue between the United States government and other countries, not local or state entities and other countries. The enforcement confusion created by inconsistent laws or ordinances undermines the professionalism of law enforcement across the nation. Any immigration enforcement laws or practices should be nationally based, consistent, and federally funded.

2) SECURE THE BORDERS

Immigration is a national issue and the federal government should first act to secure the national borders preventing illegal entry into the United States. We support further and adequate funding of federal agencies responsible for border security and immigration enforcement so they can accomplish this goal. We also support consideration of all possible solutions including construction of border fences where appropriate, use of surveillance technologies and increases in the number of border patrol agents.

3) ENFORCE LAWS PROHIBITING THE HIRING OF UNDOCUMENTED IMMIGRANTS

The federal government and its agencies should vigorously enforce existing immigration laws prohibiting employers from hiring illegal immigrants. Enforcement and prosecution of employers who illegally seek out and hire undocumented immigrants or turn a blind eye to the undocumented status of their employees will help to eliminate one of the major incentives for illegal immigration. Additionally, this will serve to reduce the exploitation of individual workers.

4) CONSULT AND INVOLVE LOCAL POLICE AGENCIES IN DECISION MAKING

Major Cities Chiefs and other representatives of the local law enforcement community should be consulted and involved in any process to develop a national initiative or practice involving local police agencies in the enforcement of federal immigration laws. The inclusion of local law enforcement at every level of development will take advantage of their perspective and experience in local policing.

5) COMPLETELY VOLUNTARY

Any initiative to involve local police agencies in the enforcement of immigration laws should be completely voluntary. The decisions related to how local law enforcement agencies allocate their resources, direct their workforce and define the duties of their employees to best serve and protect their communities must be left in the control of local governments. The decision to enter this area of enforcement should be left to the local government and not mandated or forced upon them by the federal government through the threat of sanctions or the withholding of existing police assistance funding.

6) NO REDUCTION OR SHIFTING OF CURRENT ASSISTANCE FUNDING

The funding of any initiative concerning the enforcement of immigration laws should not be at the detriment or reduction directly or indirectly of any current federal funding or programs focused on assisting local police agencies with local policing or homeland security activities. Merely shifting or diverting federal funding currently available for local policing and homeland security activities to any new immigration enforcement initiative would only result in a detrimental net loss of total resources available to local police agencies to protect their neighborhoods and strengthen homeland security.

7) CLARIFICATION OF AUTHORITY AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

The authority of local police agencies and their officers to become involved in the enforcement of immigration laws should be clearly stated and defined. The statement of authority should also establish liability protection and an immunity shield for police officers and police agencies that take part in immigration enforcement as authorized by clear federal legislation.

8) CLARIFICATION OF SECURE COMMUNITIES PROGRAM AND THE PURPOSE OF THE N.C.I.C. SYSTEM

The confusion surrounding the Secure Communities database and program has significantly undermined and eroded public confidence in law enforcement. Additionally, it has damaged cooperation and relationships between local police agencies and Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE). Clarification of the program's goals and oversight of its mission and implementation is strongly encouraged. Further, the integrity of the N.C.I.C. system as a notice system for criminal warrants and/or criminal matters must be maintained. The inclusion of civil detainers on the system continues to create confusion for local police agencies subjecting them to possible liability for exceeding their authority by arresting a person upon the basis of a mere civil detainer. Federal agencies should seek federal criminal warrants for any person they have charged criminally with violations of immigration laws and submit those criminal warrants on the N.C.I.C. system so the warrants can be acted upon by local police officers within their established criminal enforcement authority and training.

M.C.C. member agencies are united in their commitment to continue arresting anyone who violates the criminal laws of their jurisdictions regardless of the immigration status of the perpetrator. Those individuals, regardless of their citizenship status, who commit criminal acts will find no safe harbor or sanctuary from their criminal violations of the law within any major city but will instead face the full force of criminal prosecution.

Major Cities Chiefs Association Gun Policy Positions October, 2011

The Major Cities Chiefs Association (MCCA) has been a strong advocate for sensible gun policy for many years and has taken positions on a wide range of issues. The positions that MCCA have adopted in the past and several additional areas were discussed by the membership at the Sun Valley meeting (June, 2011) and by the Board of Directors at their meeting in August, 2011. Based on these discussions the Board recommends that MCCA reaffirm current positions and four additional points.

Current MCCA gun policy positions:

- Ban high capacity magazines (10+ rounds)
- Require unlicensed private background dealers to do background checks at gun shows
- Reinstate the assault weapons ban
- Support legislation to restore ATF authority to do their job including trace data sharing
- Oppose legislation that further erodes ATF authority
- Oppose legislation that would require states to recognize other concealed carry permits

Recommended additional gun policy positions:

- Encourage aggressive federal prosecution of violent offenders using guns
Conviction in Federal Court generally results in stronger sanctions, removes the offenders from the streets and serves as a deterrent.
- Harsher penalties and prosecution of straw purchasers
Straw purchasers are responsible for putting a substantial number of guns on the streets of America that are used in criminal acts. More aggressive prosecution with strong penalties would hold them accountable and act as a deterrent.
- Strengthen the national criminal instant background check system
The background check system does not have complete data at the current time. Mental health information, for example, is incomplete. The system needs to be improved.
- Mandatory registration/permits for firearms with revocation should the person become ineligible for criminal or mental stability reasons
There is little ability to track individuals with carry permits that have become ineligible – a registration/permit system would provide the information needed to ensure persons no longer eligible are removed from the program.

For Consideration by the

Fight Crime by Investing in Kids

WHEREAS, law enforcement leaders are dedicated to public safety; and

WHEREAS, the members of the Major Cities Chiefs Association work continuously to fight crime and remove dangerous criminals from our communities; and

WHEREAS, rigorous scientific research and our years of experience on the front lines of fighting crime show that we can greatly reduce crime by: (1) providing all families with access to high-quality early care and education for kids from birth to age five; (2) offering voluntary parent coaching to at-risk parents of young children through home visiting or other options proven to prevent child abuse and neglect; (3) ensuring all school-age children and youth have access to effective programs during school hours and after school to keep them on track; and (4) identifying troubled and delinquent kids and providing them and their parents effective interventions so the child will avoid a life of crime;

WHEREAS, investments like these more than pay for themselves in reduced crime and associated costs, reduced welfare and remedial education costs, and the increased revenue generated by the increased productivity of future workers; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Major Cities Chiefs Association calls on all public officials to fully fund the crime prevention programs cited in the FIGHT CRIME: INVEST IN KIDS Plan to Prevent Crime and Violence, including quality early education and child care, effective programs during school hours and after school, programs that help get troubled kids back on track, and programs proven to improve deficient parenting and prevent child abuse and neglect.

Overview of the Major Cities Intelligence Commanders Group

Purpose: The Major Cities Chiefs Association's (MCCA) Major Cities Intelligence Commanders Group (MCICG) assists the MCCA in strengthening and coordinating the intelligence capabilities and operations of law enforcement agencies in the major metropolitan areas of the United States and Canada to prevent and disrupt criminal activities and terrorism while protecting privacy, civil rights, and civil liberties. The MCICG also collaborates with federal agencies and state and major urban area fusion centers to increase and enhance information and intelligence sharing efforts nationwide.

Partnerships: In 2010, federal partners, including the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and the U.S. Department of Justice's (DOJ) Bureau of Justice Assistance, collaborated with the MCICG to support the group in accomplishing its purpose. Because of this partnership, regular MCICG meetings began in 2010 and will continue throughout 2012.

The agenda topics for these meetings have included understanding the current threat environment and local implications; discussing lessons learned from recent terrorist attacks; discussing emerging issues affecting local law enforcement; identifying methods to better communicate among major cities police departments; identifying processes to institutionalize the role of the MCICG, such as convening regular conference calls, developing a Web site, and creating a special-interest group on DHS's Homeland Security Information Network (HSIN); and establishing subcommittees and task teams charged with implementing, via guidance papers and recommendations, the issues and concerns identified by MCICG members during these meetings.

Historical Activities: The MCICG has been involved in a number of national activities and initiatives over the last two years. These activities include:

- In 2010, the MCICG began to have regular threat updates from both DHS and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. These updates include overviews of the international and domestic threat environment, cyber-security threats, and an update on the events surrounding the Southwest Border.
- In April 2010, the MCICG recommended working with the Homeland Security Advisory Committee to create a Countering Violent Extremism Working Group.
  - The working group was established in the spring of 2010.
- In July 2010, the MCICG provided recommendations and feedback to DHS regarding the development and dissemination of intelligence products and services.
- In October 2010, MCICG recommended the development of a portal on the HSIN to improve communication and collaboration among MCICG members. This portal was completed and released in 2011. The MCICG also developed a formal recommendation to work with the National Fusion Center Association to develop surveys regarding current information sharing capabilities between fusion centers and major cities intelligence units.

- In April 2011, the MCICG discussed the need to create a national criminal intelligence enterprise, create a formalized request for information (RFI) form, develop educational materials for new MCICG members, and complete a current national domestic threat assessment (as a part of the national criminal intelligence enterprise).

Current Efforts and Initiatives: The MCICG, in partnership with DHS and DOJ, convenes meetings approximately three times a year to discuss information sharing initiatives and the current threat environment and develop guidance on how to improve information and intelligence sharing at all levels of law enforcement. Additionally, the MCICG, in collaboration with DHS, holds regular conference calls to update the membership on current national initiatives and receive status updates on MCICG products and initiatives.

The current initiatives the MCICG is focused on include:

- Creating a National Criminal Intelligence Enterprise (NCIE) incorporating major cities intelligence divisions, fusion centers, and federal partners. The NCIE will be created collaboratively with federal partners and the Criminal Intelligence Coordinating Council.
- Developing a standardized RFI form and process that can be utilized by intelligence units and fusion centers to increase information sharing and collaboration.
- Identifying and implementing recommendations resulting from fusion center and MCICG surveys that focused on increasing collaboration among fusion center and major cities intelligence units.
- Continued communication among MCICG members via the HSIN Web portal, conference calls, and distribution lists.
- Continued training for intelligence commanders, investigators, and analysts.

Major City Chiefs National Criminal Intelligence Enterprise

It is moved that Major Cities Chiefs (MCC) establish the National Criminal Intelligence Enterprise (NCIE). This motion establishes a national network of criminal intelligence and counter-terrorism practitioners and adopts an operational organization integrated with respective fusion centers.

Each Chief shall direct staff to develop:

- a. Mission Statement for their Criminal Intelligence-Counter Terrorism Unit that encompasses terrorism and organized criminal activity;
- b. Determine the regional threat domain and prepare a Threat Domain Assessment Report, Standing Information Needs (SINs), and a formal threat based collection plan driven by Prioritized Information Needs (PIN's);
- c. Create policy that protects civil rights and liberties through the adoption of intelligence guidelines and oversight by the Major City Chiefs Intelligence Commanders Group; and
- d. Select or establish a communications network for regular sharing of operational information and intelligence.

The objective is to develop a better understanding of regional threat domains, complement the capabilities of the FBI and DHS, and fulfill the objective of state and local law enforcement to prevent crime.

Major Cities Chiefs Association Strategic Framework

The Major Cities Chiefs Association (MCCA) is a professional association representing the largest population centers in the United States and Canada. MCCA members are chiefs and sheriffs of the 70 largest law enforcement agencies in the United States and Canada. Together they serve more than 76.5 million people (68MUS, 8.5M Canada) with a combined sworn workforce of 177,150 (159,300 US, 17,850 Canada) officers. MCCA was formed in the late 1960s to provide a forum for executives to share ideas, experiences and strategies for addressing the challenges of policing large cities and counties. Just as policing has evolved since that time so has the MCCA. The MCCA Executive Board developed this three to five year strategic plan to ensure the continuous improvement of the MCCA, to increase its influence, and to enhance its member services.

MCCA Mission

The mission of MCCA is to provide a forum for police executives from large population centers to address the challenges and issues of policing, to influence national and international policy that affects police services, to enhance the development of current and future police leaders, and to encourage and sponsor research that advances this mission.

MCCA Vision

The Major Cities Chiefs Association is the place where police executives and others come to learn and collaborate. MCCA is a primary place where policy makers, researchers, government leaders, and the media turn when wanting to know the best international policing practices; to test innovations in police operations and technology; and to seek advice and assistance on specific policing issues. It is where its members learn how to improve themselves, their executive command staff, and their departments. The MCCA and its member departments represent excellence in policing.

Guiding Principles

The mission and vision of MCCA will be achieved by all members working together and being guided by the following principles.

Leading – We are the association of police leaders who are shaping policing by examining the difficult issues, influencing national and international discussions and policies on policing issues, and demanding excellence in police services not only

among our membership but throughout the profession. Our work leads to increasing public trust in policing and enhancing the legitimacy of our profession.

Collaboration – Our work must be done in partnership and collaboration with our communities and other policing organizations, universities, policy and research organizations, government executives and legislators, and federal, state and local law enforcement. We recognize that globalization means we share issues, problems, goals and solutions with other countries.

Knowledge-Based Practice – We value life-long learning and understand that policing is ever changing. We also know that the work of a police executive of a major city agency is demanding and complex. Education, support, mentoring, and assistance will be provided to our members and others. We will work with others to improve the science and art of executive police leadership.

Innovation – As the leaders of the major police agencies we have a responsibility to help advance the profession of policing. This will be done by encouraging our members to open their departments as learning laboratories, by advocating for funding to develop and test new technology, practices, and approaches.

Strategic Goals

Guide national and international policy that affects public safety and major cities.

- Establish a legislative and policy agenda.
- Discuss and develop position papers on important policing and policy issues.
- Publically advocate for policies and programs that affect our membership.
- Develop materials and enhance the MCCA website so it becomes an important source of public policy information on policing.
- Be recognized as a leading international organization.

Develop current and future police executive leaders.

- Develop and participate in programs designed to improve the leadership ability of current and future police executives.
- Provide educational and experiential opportunities to senior executives.

Promote innovation and evidenced-based practices in policing.

- Establish a research agenda and advocate for a federal research and program agenda that addresses the issues of major cities.
- Encourage member agencies to become operational and technology test sites and to work with researchers to test program effectiveness.
- Be a resource to members as they address issues within their department and jurisdiction.
- Provide assistance to non-member departments around specific issues.
- Promote the sharing of innovation between countries.

Major Cities Chiefs Association
Immigration Position
October, 2011

The Major Cities Chiefs Association adopted a nine point position statement in July, 2006. Although similar to the original, the statement has been updated to reflect changes that have taken place over the past five years. The updated statement was discussed by members at the meeting in Sun Valley (June, 2011) and by the Board (August, 2011). The statement will be considered by the Membership at the Annual Meeting in October, 2011. The MCCA Board of Directors recommends approval.

The foundation of the Major Cities Chiefs Association's nine point position statement is based upon five key concerns with local police enforcing federal immigration law. These concerns are:

1. It undermines the trust and cooperation with immigrant communities which are essential elements of community oriented policing.
2. Local agencies do not possess adequate resources to enforce these laws in addition to the added responsibility of homeland security.
3. Immigration laws are very complex and the training required to understand them significantly detracts from the core mission of local police to create safe communities.
4. Local police do not possess clear authority to enforce the civil aspects of these laws. If given the authority, the federal government does not have the capacity to handle the volume of immigration violations that currently exist.
5. The lack of clear authority increases the risk of civil liability for local police and government.

1) A FEDERAL RESPONSIBILITY

Immigration is a federal policy issue between the United States government and other countries, not local or state entities and other countries. The enforcement confusion created by inconsistent laws or ordinances undermines the professionalism of law enforcement across the nation. Any immigration enforcement laws or practices should be nationally based, consistent, and federally funded.

2) SECURE THE BORDERS

Immigration is a national issue and the federal government should first act to secure the national borders preventing illegal entry into the United States. We support further and adequate funding of federal agencies responsible for border security and immigration enforcement so they can accomplish this goal. We also support consideration of all possible solutions including construction of border fences where appropriate, use of surveillance technologies and increases in the number of border patrol agents.

3) ENFORCE LAWS PROHIBITING THE HIRING OF UNDOCUMENTED IMMIGRANTS

The federal government and its agencies should vigorously enforce existing immigration laws prohibiting employers from hiring illegal immigrants. Enforcement and prosecution of employers who illegally seek out and hire undocumented immigrants or turn a blind eye to the undocumented status of their employees will help to eliminate one of the major incentives for illegal immigration. Additionally, this will serve to reduce the exploitation of individual workers.

4) CONSULT AND INVOLVE LOCAL POLICE AGENCIES IN DECISION MAKING

Major Cities Chiefs and other representatives of the local law enforcement community should be consulted and involved in any process to develop a national initiative or practice involving local police agencies in the enforcement of federal immigration laws. The inclusion of local law enforcement at every level of development will take advantage of their perspective and experience in local policing.

5) COMPLETELY VOLUNTARY

Any initiative to involve local police agencies in the enforcement of immigration laws should be completely voluntary. The decisions related to how local law enforcement agencies allocate their resources, direct their workforce and define the duties of their employees to best serve and protect their communities must be left in the control of local governments. The decision to enter this area of enforcement should be left to the local government and not mandated or forced upon them by the federal government through the threat of sanctions or the withholding of existing police assistance funding.

6) NO REDUCTION OR SHIFTING OF CURRENT ASSISTANCE FUNDING

The funding of any initiative concerning the enforcement of immigration laws should not be at the detriment or reduction directly or indirectly of any current federal funding or programs focused on assisting local police agencies with local policing or homeland security activities. Merely shifting or diverting federal funding currently available for local policing and homeland security activities to any new immigration enforcement initiative would only result in a detrimental net loss of total resources available to local police agencies to protect their neighborhoods and strengthen homeland security.

7) CLARIFICATION OF AUTHORITY AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

The authority of local police agencies and their officers to become involved in the enforcement of immigration laws should be clearly stated and defined. The statement of authority should also establish liability protection and an immunity shield for police officers and police agencies that take part in immigration enforcement as authorized by clear federal legislation.

8) CLARIFICATION OF SECURE COMMUNITIES PROGRAM AND THE PURPOSE OF THE N.C.I.C. SYSTEM

The confusion surrounding the Secure Communities database and program has significantly undermined and eroded public confidence in law enforcement. Additionally, it has damaged cooperation and relationships between local police agencies and Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE). Clarification of the program's goals and oversight of its mission and implementation is strongly encouraged. Further, the integrity of the N.C.I.C. system as a notice system for criminal warrants and/or criminal matters must be maintained. The inclusion of civil detainees on the system continues to create confusion for local police agencies subjecting them to possible liability for exceeding their authority by arresting a person upon the basis of a mere civil detainee. Federal agencies should seek federal criminal warrants for any person they have charged criminally with violations of immigration laws and submit those criminal warrants on the N.C.I.C. system so the warrants can be acted upon by local police officers within their established criminal enforcement authority and training.

M.C.C. member agencies are united in their commitment to continue arresting anyone who violates the criminal laws of their jurisdictions regardless of the immigration status of the perpetrator. Those individuals, regardless of their citizenship status, who commit criminal acts will find no safe harbor or sanctuary from their criminal violations of the law within any major city but will instead face the full force of criminal prosecution.

Major Cities Chiefs Association Gun Policy Positions October, 2011

The Major Cities Chiefs Association (MCCA) has been a strong advocate for sensible gun policy for many years and has taken positions on a wide range of issues. The positions that MCCA have adopted in the past and several additional areas were discussed by the membership at the Sun Valley meeting (June, 2011) and by the Board of Directors at their meeting in August, 2011. Based on these discussions the Board recommends that MCCA reaffirm current positions and four additional points.

Current MCCA gun policy positions:

- Ban high capacity magazines (10+ rounds)
- Require unlicensed private background dealers to do background checks at gun shows
- Reinstate the assault weapons ban
- Support legislation to restore ATF authority to do their job including trace data sharing
- Oppose legislation that further erodes ATF authority
- Oppose legislation that would require states to recognize other concealed carry permits

Recommended additional gun policy positions:

- Encourage aggressive federal prosecution of violent offenders using guns
Conviction in Federal Court generally results in stronger sanctions, removes the offenders from the streets and serves as a deterrent.
- Harsher penalties and prosecution of straw purchasers
Straw purchasers are responsible for putting a substantial number of guns on the streets of America that are used in criminal acts. More aggressive prosecution with strong penalties would hold them accountable and act as a deterrent.
- Strengthen the national criminal instant background check system
The background check system does not have complete data at the current time. Mental health information, for example, is incomplete. The system needs to be improved.
- Mandatory registration/permits for firearms with revocation should the person become ineligible for criminal or mental stability reasons
There is little ability to track individuals with carry permits that have become ineligible – a registration/permit system would provide the information needed to ensure persons no longer eligible are removed from the program.

For Consideration by the

Fight Crime by Investing in Kids

WHEREAS, law enforcement leaders are dedicated to public safety; and

WHEREAS, the members of the Major Cities Chiefs Association work continuously to fight crime and remove dangerous criminals from our communities; and

WHEREAS, rigorous scientific research and our years of experience on the front lines of fighting crime show that we can greatly reduce crime by: (1) providing all families with access to high-quality early care and education for kids from birth to age five; (2) offering voluntary parent coaching to at-risk parents of young children through home visiting or other options proven to prevent child abuse and neglect; (3) ensuring all school-age children and youth have access to effective programs during school hours and after school to keep them on track; and (4) identifying troubled and delinquent kids and providing them and their parents effective interventions so the child will avoid a life of crime;

WHEREAS, investments like these more than pay for themselves in reduced crime and associated costs, reduced welfare and remedial education costs, and the increased revenue generated by the increased productivity of future workers; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Major Cities Chiefs Association calls on all public officials to fully fund the crime prevention programs cited in the FIGHT CRIME: INVEST IN KIDS Plan to Prevent Crime and Violence, including quality early education and child care, effective programs during school hours and after school, programs that help get troubled kids back on track, and programs proven to improve deficient parenting and prevent child abuse and neglect.

Overview of the Major Cities Intelligence Commanders Group

Purpose: The Major Cities Chiefs Association's (MCCA) Major Cities Intelligence Commanders Group (MCICG) assists the MCCA in strengthening and coordinating the intelligence capabilities and operations of law enforcement agencies in the major metropolitan areas of the United States and Canada to prevent and disrupt criminal activities and terrorism while protecting privacy, civil rights, and civil liberties. The MCICG also collaborates with federal agencies and state and major urban area fusion centers to increase and enhance information and intelligence sharing efforts nationwide.

Partnerships: In 2010, federal partners, including the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and the U.S. Department of Justice's (DOJ) Bureau of Justice Assistance, collaborated with the MCICG to support the group in accomplishing its purpose. Because of this partnership, regular MCICG meetings began in 2010 and will continue throughout 2012.

The agenda topics for these meetings have included understanding the current threat environment and local implications; discussing lessons learned from recent terrorist attacks; discussing emerging issues affecting local law enforcement; identifying methods to better communicate among major cities police departments; identifying processes to institutionalize the role of the MCICG, such as convening regular conference calls, developing a Web site, and creating a special-interest group on DHS's Homeland Security Information Network (HSIN); and establishing subcommittees and task teams charged with implementing, via guidance papers and recommendations, the issues and concerns identified by MCICG members during these meetings.

Historical Activities: The MCICG has been involved in a number of national activities and initiatives over the last two years. These activities include:

- In 2010, the MCICG began to have regular threat updates from both DHS and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. These updates include overviews of the international and domestic threat environment, cyber-security threats, and an update on the events surrounding the Southwest Border.
- In April 2010, the MCICG recommended working with the Homeland Security Advisory Committee to create a Countering Violent Extremism Working Group.
  - The working group was established in the spring of 2010.
- In July 2010, the MCICG provided recommendations and feedback to DHS regarding the development and dissemination of intelligence products and services.
- In October 2010, MCICG recommended the development of a portal on the HSIN to improve communication and collaboration among MCICG members. This portal was completed and released in 2011. The MCICG also developed a formal recommendation to work with the National Fusion Center Association to develop surveys regarding current information sharing capabilities between fusion centers and major cities intelligence units.

- In April 2011, the MCICG discussed the need to create a national criminal intelligence enterprise, create a formalized request for information (RFI) form, develop educational materials for new MCICG members, and complete a current national domestic threat assessment (as a part of the national criminal intelligence enterprise).

Current Efforts and Initiatives: The MCICG, in partnership with DHS and DOJ, convenes meetings approximately three times a year to discuss information sharing initiatives and the current threat environment and develop guidance on how to improve information and intelligence sharing at all levels of law enforcement. Additionally, the MCICG, in collaboration with DHS, holds regular conference calls to update the membership on current national initiatives and receive status updates on MCICG products and initiatives.

The current initiatives the MCICG is focused on include:

- Creating a National Criminal Intelligence Enterprise (NCIE) incorporating major cities intelligence divisions, fusion centers, and federal partners. The NCIE will be created collaboratively with federal partners and the Criminal Intelligence Coordinating Council.
- Developing a standardized RFI form and process that can be utilized by intelligence units and fusion centers to increase information sharing and collaboration.
- Identifying and implementing recommendations resulting from fusion center and MCICG surveys that focused on increasing collaboration among fusion center and major cities intelligence units.
- Continued communication among MCICG members via the HSIN Web portal, conference calls, and distribution lists.
- Continued training for intelligence commanders, investigators, and analysts.

Major City Chiefs National Criminal Intelligence Enterprise

It is moved that Major Cities Chiefs (MCC) establish the National Criminal Intelligence Enterprise (NCIE). This motion establishes a national network of criminal intelligence and counter-terrorism practitioners and adopts an operational organization integrated with respective fusion centers.

Each Chief shall direct staff to develop:

- a. Mission Statement for their Criminal Intelligence-Counter Terrorism Unit that encompasses terrorism and organized criminal activity;
- b. Determine the regional threat domain and prepare a Threat Domain Assessment Report, Standing Information Needs (SINs), and a formal threat based collection plan driven by Prioritized Information Needs (PIN's);
- c. Create policy that protects civil rights and liberties through the adoption of intelligence guidelines and oversight by the Major City Chiefs Intelligence Commanders Group; and
- d. Select or establish a communications network for regular sharing of operational information and intelligence.

The objective is to develop a better understanding of regional threat domains, complement the capabilities of the FBI and DHS, and fulfill the objective of state and local law enforcement to prevent crime.

Major Cities Chiefs Association Strategic Framework

The Major Cities Chiefs Association (MCCA) is a professional association representing the largest population centers in the United States and Canada. MCCA members are chiefs and sheriffs of the 70 largest law enforcement agencies in the United States and Canada. Together they serve more than 76.5 million people (68MUS, 8.5M Canada) with a combined sworn workforce of 177,150 (159,300 US, 17,850 Canada) officers. MCCA was formed in the late 1960s to provide a forum for executives to share ideas, experiences and strategies for addressing the challenges of policing large cities and counties. Just as policing has evolved since that time so has the MCCA. The MCCA Executive Board developed this three to five year strategic plan to ensure the continuous improvement of the MCCA, to increase its influence, and to enhance its member services.

MCCA Mission

The mission of MCCA is to provide a forum for police executives from large population centers to address the challenges and issues of policing, to influence national and international policy that affects police services, to enhance the development of current and future police leaders, and to encourage and sponsor research that advances this mission.

MCCA Vision

The Major Cities Chiefs Association is the place where police executives and others come to learn and collaborate. MCCA is a primary place where policy makers, researchers, government leaders, and the media turn when wanting to know the best international policing practices; to test innovations in police operations and technology; and to seek advice and assistance on specific policing issues. It is where its members learn how to improve themselves, their executive command staff, and their departments. The MCCA and its member departments represent excellence in policing.

Guiding Principles

The mission and vision of MCCA will be achieved by all members working together and being guided by the following principles.

Leading – We are the association of police leaders who are shaping policing by examining the difficult issues, influencing national and international discussions and policies on policing issues, and demanding excellence in police services not only

among our membership but throughout the profession. Our work leads to increasing public trust in policing and enhancing the legitimacy of our profession.

Collaboration – Our work must be done in partnership and collaboration with our communities and other policing organizations, universities, policy and research organizations, government executives and legislators, and federal, state and local law enforcement. We recognize that globalization means we share issues, problems, goals and solutions with other countries.

Knowledge-Based Practice – We value life-long learning and understand that policing is ever changing. We also know that the work of a police executive of a major city agency is demanding and complex. Education, support, mentoring, and assistance will be provided to our members and others. We will work with others to improve the science and art of executive police leadership.

Innovation – As the leaders of the major police agencies we have a responsibility to help advance the profession of policing. This will be done by encouraging our members to open their departments as learning laboratories, by advocating for funding to develop and test new technology, practices, and approaches.

Strategic Goals

Guide national and international policy that affects public safety and major cities.

- Establish a legislative and policy agenda.
- Discuss and develop position papers on important policing and policy issues.
- Publically advocate for policies and programs that affect our membership.
- Develop materials and enhance the MCCA website so it becomes an important source of public policy information on policing.
- Be recognized as a leading international organization.

Develop current and future police executive leaders.

- Develop and participate in programs designed to improve the leadership ability of current and future police executives.
- Provide educational and experiential opportunities to senior executives.

Promote innovation and evidenced-based practices in policing.

- Establish a research agenda and advocate for a federal research and program agenda that addresses the issues of major cities.
- Encourage member agencies to become operational and technology test sites and to work with researchers to test program effectiveness.
- Be a resource to members as they address issues within their department and jurisdiction.
- Provide assistance to non-member departments around specific issues.
- Promote the sharing of innovation between countries.

Major Cities Chiefs Association
Immigration Position
October, 2011

The Major Cities Chiefs Association adopted a nine point position statement in July, 2006. Although similar to the original, the statement has been updated to reflect changes that have taken place over the past five years. The updated statement was discussed by members at the meeting in Sun Valley (June, 2011) and by the Board (August, 2011). The statement will be considered by the Membership at the Annual Meeting in October, 2011. The MCCA Board of Directors recommends approval.

The foundation of the Major Cities Chiefs Association's nine point position statement is based upon five key concerns with local police enforcing federal immigration law. These concerns are:

1. It undermines the trust and cooperation with immigrant communities which are essential elements of community oriented policing.
2. Local agencies do not possess adequate resources to enforce these laws in addition to the added responsibility of homeland security.
3. Immigration laws are very complex and the training required to understand them significantly detracts from the core mission of local police to create safe communities.
4. Local police do not possess clear authority to enforce the civil aspects of these laws. If given the authority, the federal government does not have the capacity to handle the volume of immigration violations that currently exist.
5. The lack of clear authority increases the risk of civil liability for local police and government.

1) A FEDERAL RESPONSIBILITY

Immigration is a federal policy issue between the United States government and other countries, not local or state entities and other countries. The enforcement confusion created by inconsistent laws or ordinances undermines the professionalism of law enforcement across the nation. Any immigration enforcement laws or practices should be nationally based, consistent, and federally funded.

2) SECURE THE BORDERS

Immigration is a national issue and the federal government should first act to secure the national borders preventing illegal entry into the United States. We support further and adequate funding of federal agencies responsible for border security and immigration enforcement so they can accomplish this goal. We also support consideration of all possible solutions including construction of border fences where appropriate, use of surveillance technologies and increases in the number of border patrol agents.

3) ENFORCE LAWS PROHIBITING THE HIRING OF UNDOCUMENTED IMMIGRANTS

The federal government and its agencies should vigorously enforce existing immigration laws prohibiting employers from hiring illegal immigrants. Enforcement and prosecution of employers who illegally seek out and hire undocumented immigrants or turn a blind eye to the undocumented status of their employees will help to eliminate one of the major incentives for illegal immigration. Additionally, this will serve to reduce the exploitation of individual workers.

4) CONSULT AND INVOLVE LOCAL POLICE AGENCIES IN DECISION MAKING

Major Cities Chiefs and other representatives of the local law enforcement community should be consulted and involved in any process to develop a national initiative or practice involving local police agencies in the enforcement of federal immigration laws. The inclusion of local law enforcement at every level of development will take advantage of their perspective and experience in local policing.

5) COMPLETELY VOLUNTARY

Any initiative to involve local police agencies in the enforcement of immigration laws should be completely voluntary. The decisions related to how local law enforcement agencies allocate their resources, direct their workforce and define the duties of their employees to best serve and protect their communities must be left in the control of local governments. The decision to enter this area of enforcement should be left to the local government and not mandated or forced upon them by the federal government through the threat of sanctions or the withholding of existing police assistance funding.

6) NO REDUCTION OR SHIFTING OF CURRENT ASSISTANCE FUNDING

The funding of any initiative concerning the enforcement of immigration laws should not be at the detriment or reduction directly or indirectly of any current federal funding or programs focused on assisting local police agencies with local policing or homeland security activities. Merely shifting or diverting federal funding currently available for local policing and homeland security activities to any new immigration enforcement initiative would only result in a detrimental net loss of total resources available to local police agencies to protect their neighborhoods and strengthen homeland security.

7) CLARIFICATION OF AUTHORITY AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

The authority of local police agencies and their officers to become involved in the enforcement of immigration laws should be clearly stated and defined. The statement of authority should also establish liability protection and an immunity shield for police officers and police agencies that take part in immigration enforcement as authorized by clear federal legislation.

8) CLARIFICATION OF SECURE COMMUNITIES PROGRAM AND THE PURPOSE OF THE N.C.I.C. SYSTEM

The confusion surrounding the Secure Communities database and program has significantly undermined and eroded public confidence in law enforcement. Additionally, it has damaged cooperation and relationships between local police agencies and Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE). Clarification of the program's goals and oversight of its mission and implementation is strongly encouraged. Further, the integrity of the N.C.I.C. system as a notice system for criminal warrants and/or criminal matters must be maintained. The inclusion of civil detainers on the system continues to create confusion for local police agencies subjecting them to possible liability for exceeding their authority by arresting a person upon the basis of a mere civil detainer. Federal agencies should seek federal criminal warrants for any person they have charged criminally with violations of immigration laws and submit those criminal warrants on the N.C.I.C. system so the warrants can be acted upon by local police officers within their established criminal enforcement authority and training.

M.C.C. member agencies are united in their commitment to continue arresting anyone who violates the criminal laws of their jurisdictions regardless of the immigration status of the perpetrator. Those individuals, regardless of their citizenship status, who commit criminal acts will find no safe harbor or sanctuary from their criminal violations of the law within any major city but will instead face the full force of criminal prosecution.

Major Cities Chiefs Association
Gun Policy Positions
October, 2011

The Major Cities Chiefs Association (MCCA) has been a strong advocate for sensible gun policy for many years and has taken positions on a wide range of issues. The positions that MCCA have adopted in the past and several additional areas were discussed by the membership at the Sun Valley meeting (June, 2011) and by the Board of Directors at their meeting in August, 2011. Based on these discussions the Board recommends that MCCA reaffirm current positions and four additional points.

Current MCCA gun policy positions:

- Ban high capacity magazines (10+ rounds)
- Require unlicensed private background dealers to do background checks at gun shows
- Reinstate the assault weapons ban
- Support legislation to restore ATF authority to do their job including trace data sharing
- Oppose legislation that further erodes ATF authority
- Oppose legislation that would require states to recognize other concealed carry permits

Recommended additional gun policy positions:

- Encourage aggressive federal prosecution of violent offenders using guns
Conviction in Federal Court generally results in stronger sanctions, removes the offenders from the streets and serves as a deterrent.
- Harsher penalties and prosecution of straw purchasers
Straw purchasers are responsible for putting a substantial number of guns on the streets of America that are used in criminal acts. More aggressive prosecution with strong penalties would hold them accountable and act as a deterrent.
- Strengthen the national criminal instant background check system
The background check system does not have complete data at the current time. Mental health information, for example, is incomplete. The system needs to be improved.
- Mandatory registration/permits for firearms with revocation should the person become ineligible for criminal or mental stability reasons
There is little ability to track individuals with carry permits that have become ineligible – a registration/permit system would provide the information needed to ensure persons no longer eligible are removed from the program.

For Consideration by the

Fight Crime by Investing in Kids

WHEREAS, law enforcement leaders are dedicated to public safety; and

WHEREAS, the members of the Major Cities Chiefs Association work continuously to fight crime and remove dangerous criminals from our communities; and

WHEREAS, rigorous scientific research and our years of experience on the front lines of fighting crime show that we can greatly reduce crime by: (1) providing all families with access to high-quality early care and education for kids from birth to age five; (2) offering voluntary parent coaching to at-risk parents of young children through home visiting or other options proven to prevent child abuse and neglect; (3) ensuring all school-age children and youth have access to effective programs during school hours and after school to keep them on track; and (4) identifying troubled and delinquent kids and providing them and their parents effective interventions so the child will avoid a life of crime;

WHEREAS, investments like these more than pay for themselves in reduced crime and associated costs, reduced welfare and remedial education costs, and the increased revenue generated by the increased productivity of future workers; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Major Cities Chiefs Association calls on all public officials to fully fund the crime prevention programs cited in the FIGHT CRIME: INVEST IN KIDS Plan to Prevent Crime and Violence, including quality early education and child care, effective programs during school hours and after school, programs that help get troubled kids back on track, and programs proven to improve deficient parenting and prevent child abuse and neglect.

Overview of the Major Cities Intelligence Commanders Group

Purpose: The Major Cities Chiefs Association's (MCCA) Major Cities Intelligence Commanders Group (MCICG) assists the MCCA in strengthening and coordinating the intelligence capabilities and operations of law enforcement agencies in the major metropolitan areas of the United States and Canada to prevent and disrupt criminal activities and terrorism while protecting privacy, civil rights, and civil liberties. The MCICG also collaborates with federal agencies and state and major urban area fusion centers to increase and enhance information and intelligence sharing efforts nationwide.

Partnerships: In 2010, federal partners, including the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and the U.S. Department of Justice's (DOJ) Bureau of Justice Assistance, collaborated with the MCICG to support the group in accomplishing its purpose. Because of this partnership, regular MCICG meetings began in 2010 and will continue throughout 2012.

The agenda topics for these meetings have included understanding the current threat environment and local implications; discussing lessons learned from recent terrorist attacks; discussing emerging issues affecting local law enforcement; identifying methods to better communicate among major cities police departments; identifying processes to institutionalize the role of the MCICG, such as convening regular conference calls, developing a Web site, and creating a special-interest group on DHS's Homeland Security Information Network (HSIN); and establishing subcommittees and task teams charged with implementing, via guidance papers and recommendations, the issues and concerns identified by MCICG members during these meetings.

Historical Activities: The MCICG has been involved in a number of national activities and initiatives over the last two years. These activities include:

- In 2010, the MCICG began to have regular threat updates from both DHS and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. These updates include overviews of the international and domestic threat environment, cyber-security threats, and an update on the events surrounding the Southwest Border.
- In April 2010, the MCICG recommended working with the Homeland Security Advisory Committee to create a Countering Violent Extremism Working Group.
  - The working group was established in the spring of 2010.
- In July 2010, the MCICG provided recommendations and feedback to DHS regarding the development and dissemination of intelligence products and services.
- In October 2010, MCICG recommended the development of a portal on the HSIN to improve communication and collaboration among MCICG members. This portal was completed and released in 2011. The MCICG also developed a formal recommendation to work with the National Fusion Center Association to develop surveys regarding current information sharing capabilities between fusion centers and major cities intelligence units.

- In April 2011, the MCICG discussed the need to create a national criminal intelligence enterprise, create a formalized request for information (RFI) form, develop educational materials for new MCICG members, and complete a current national domestic threat assessment (as a part of the national criminal intelligence enterprise).

Current Efforts and Initiatives: The MCICG, in partnership with DHS and DOJ, convenes meetings approximately three times a year to discuss information sharing initiatives and the current threat environment and develop guidance on how to improve information and intelligence sharing at all levels of law enforcement. Additionally, the MCICG, in collaboration with DHS, holds regular conference calls to update the membership on current national initiatives and receive status updates on MCICG products and initiatives.

The current initiatives the MCICG is focused on include:

- Creating a National Criminal Intelligence Enterprise (NCIE) incorporating major cities intelligence divisions, fusion centers, and federal partners. The NCIE will be created collaboratively with federal partners and the Criminal Intelligence Coordinating Council.
- Developing a standardized RFI form and process that can be utilized by intelligence units and fusion centers to increase information sharing and collaboration.
- Identifying and implementing recommendations resulting from fusion center and MCICG surveys that focused on increasing collaboration among fusion center and major cities intelligence units.
- Continued communication among MCICG members via the HSIN Web portal, conference calls, and distribution lists.
- Continued training for intelligence commanders, investigators, and analysts.

Major City Chiefs National Criminal Intelligence Enterprise

It is moved that Major Cities Chiefs (MCC) establish the National Criminal Intelligence Enterprise (NCIE). This motion establishes a national network of criminal intelligence and counter-terrorism practitioners and adopts an operational organization integrated with respective fusion centers.

Each Chief shall direct staff to develop:

- a. Mission Statement for their Criminal Intelligence-Counter Terrorism Unit that encompasses terrorism and organized criminal activity;
- b. Determine the regional threat domain and prepare a Threat Domain Assessment Report, Standing Information Needs (SINs), and a formal threat based collection plan driven by Prioritized Information Needs (PIN's);
- c. Create policy that protects civil rights and liberties through the adoption of intelligence guidelines and oversight by the Major City Chiefs Intelligence Commanders Group; and
- d. Select or establish a communications network for regular sharing of operational information and intelligence.

The objective is to develop a better understanding of regional threat domains, complement the capabilities of the FBI and DHS, and fulfill the objective of state and local law enforcement to prevent crime.

Major Cities Chiefs Association Strategic Framework

The Major Cities Chiefs Association (MCCA) is a professional association representing the largest population centers in the United States and Canada. MCCA members are chiefs and sheriffs of the 70 largest law enforcement agencies in the United States and Canada. Together they serve more than 76.5 million people (68MUS, 8.5M Canada) with a combined sworn workforce of 177,150 (159,300 US, 17,850 Canada) officers. MCCA was formed in the late 1960s to provide a forum for executives to share ideas, experiences and strategies for addressing the challenges of policing large cities and counties. Just as policing has evolved since that time so has the MCCA. The MCCA Executive Board developed this three to five year strategic plan to ensure the continuous improvement of the MCCA, to increase its influence, and to enhance its member services.

MCCA Mission

The mission of MCCA is to provide a forum for police executives from large population centers to address the challenges and issues of policing, to influence national and international policy that affects police services, to enhance the development of current and future police leaders, and to encourage and sponsor research that advances this mission.

MCCA Vision

The Major Cities Chiefs Association is the place where police executives and others come to learn and collaborate. MCCA is a primary place where policy makers, researchers, government leaders, and the media turn when wanting to know the best international policing practices; to test innovations in police operations and technology; and to seek advice and assistance on specific policing issues. It is where its members learn how to improve themselves, their executive command staff, and their departments. The MCCA and its member departments represent excellence in policing.

Guiding Principles

The mission and vision of MCCA will be achieved by all members working together and being guided by the following principles.

Leading – We are the association of police leaders who are shaping policing by examining the difficult issues, influencing national and international discussions and policies on policing issues, and demanding excellence in police services not only

among our membership but throughout the profession. Our work leads to increasing public trust in policing and enhancing the legitimacy of our profession.

Collaboration – Our work must be done in partnership and collaboration with our communities and other policing organizations, universities, policy and research organizations, government executives and legislators, and federal, state and local law enforcement. We recognize that globalization means we share issues, problems, goals and solutions with other countries.

Knowledge-Based Practice – We value life-long learning and understand that policing is ever changing. We also know that the work of a police executive of a major city agency is demanding and complex. Education, support, mentoring, and assistance will be provided to our members and others. We will work with others to improve the science and art of executive police leadership.

Innovation – As the leaders of the major police agencies we have a responsibility to help advance the profession of policing. This will be done by encouraging our members to open their departments as learning laboratories, by advocating for funding to develop and test new technology, practices, and approaches.

Strategic Goals

Guide national and international policy that affects public safety and major cities.

- Establish a legislative and policy agenda.
- Discuss and develop position papers on important policing and policy issues.
- Publically advocate for policies and programs that affect our membership.
- Develop materials and enhance the MCCA website so it becomes an important source of public policy information on policing.
- Be recognized as a leading international organization.

Develop current and future police executive leaders.

- Develop and participate in programs designed to improve the leadership ability of current and future police executives.
- Provide educational and experiential opportunities to senior executives.

Promote innovation and evidenced-based practices in policing.

- Establish a research agenda and advocate for a federal research and program agenda that addresses the issues of major cities.
- Encourage member agencies to become operational and technology test sites and to work with researchers to test program effectiveness.
- Be a resource to members as they address issues within their department and jurisdiction.
- Provide assistance to non-member departments around specific issues.
- Promote the sharing of innovation between countries.

Major Cities Chiefs Association
Immigration Position
October, 2011

The Major Cities Chiefs Association adopted a nine point position statement in July, 2006. Although similar to the original, the statement has been updated to reflect changes that have taken place over the past five years. The updated statement was discussed by members at the meeting in Sun Valley (June, 2011) and by the Board (August, 2011). The statement will be considered by the Membership at the Annual Meeting in October, 2011. The MCCA Board of Directors recommends approval.

The foundation of the Major Cities Chiefs Association's nine point position statement is based upon five key concerns with local police enforcing federal immigration law. These concerns are:

1. It undermines the trust and cooperation with immigrant communities which are essential elements of community oriented policing.
2. Local agencies do not possess adequate resources to enforce these laws in addition to the added responsibility of homeland security.
3. Immigration laws are very complex and the training required to understand them significantly detracts from the core mission of local police to create safe communities.
4. Local police do not possess clear authority to enforce the civil aspects of these laws. If given the authority, the federal government does not have the capacity to handle the volume of immigration violations that currently exist.
5. The lack of clear authority increases the risk of civil liability for local police and government.

1) A FEDERAL RESPONSIBILITY

Immigration is a federal policy issue between the United States government and other countries, not local or state entities and other countries. The enforcement confusion created by inconsistent laws or ordinances undermines the professionalism of law enforcement across the nation. Any immigration enforcement laws or practices should be nationally based, consistent, and federally funded.

2) SECURE THE BORDERS

Immigration is a national issue and the federal government should first act to secure the national borders preventing illegal entry into the United States. We support further and adequate funding of federal agencies responsible for border security and immigration enforcement so they can accomplish this goal. We also support consideration of all possible solutions including construction of border fences where appropriate, use of surveillance technologies and increases in the number of border patrol agents.

3) ENFORCE LAWS PROHIBITING THE HIRING OF UNDOCUMENTED IMMIGRANTS

The federal government and its agencies should vigorously enforce existing immigration laws prohibiting employers from hiring illegal immigrants. Enforcement and prosecution of employers who illegally seek out and hire undocumented immigrants or turn a blind eye to the undocumented status of their employees will help to eliminate one of the major incentives for illegal immigration. Additionally, this will serve to reduce the exploitation of individual workers.

4) CONSULT AND INVOLVE LOCAL POLICE AGENCIES IN DECISION MAKING

Major Cities Chiefs and other representatives of the local law enforcement community should be consulted and involved in any process to develop a national initiative or practice involving local police agencies in the enforcement of federal immigration laws. The inclusion of local law enforcement at every level of development will take advantage of their perspective and experience in local policing.

5) COMPLETELY VOLUNTARY

Any initiative to involve local police agencies in the enforcement of immigration laws should be completely voluntary. The decisions related to how local law enforcement agencies allocate their resources, direct their workforce and define the duties of their employees to best serve and protect their communities must be left in the control of local governments. The decision to enter this area of enforcement should be left to the local government and not mandated or forced upon them by the federal government through the threat of sanctions or the withholding of existing police assistance funding.

6) NO REDUCTION OR SHIFTING OF CURRENT ASSISTANCE FUNDING

The funding of any initiative concerning the enforcement of immigration laws should not be at the detriment or reduction directly or indirectly of any current federal funding or programs focused on assisting local police agencies with local policing or homeland security activities. Merely shifting or diverting federal funding currently available for local policing and homeland security activities to any new immigration enforcement initiative would only result in a detrimental net loss of total resources available to local police agencies to protect their neighborhoods and strengthen homeland security.

7) CLARIFICATION OF AUTHORITY AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

The authority of local police agencies and their officers to become involved in the enforcement of immigration laws should be clearly stated and defined. The statement of authority should also establish liability protection and an immunity shield for police officers and police agencies that take part in immigration enforcement as authorized by clear federal legislation.

8) CLARIFICATION OF SECURE COMMUNITIES PROGRAM AND THE PURPOSE OF THE N.C.I.C. SYSTEM

The confusion surrounding the Secure Communities database and program has significantly undermined and eroded public confidence in law enforcement. Additionally, it has damaged cooperation and relationships between local police agencies and Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE). Clarification of the program's goals and oversight of its mission and implementation is strongly encouraged. Further, the integrity of the N.C.I.C. system as a notice system for criminal warrants and/or criminal matters must be maintained. The inclusion of civil detainers on the system continues to create confusion for local police agencies subjecting them to possible liability for exceeding their authority by arresting a person upon the basis of a mere civil detainer. Federal agencies should seek federal criminal warrants for any person they have charged criminally with violations of immigration laws and submit those criminal warrants on the N.C.I.C. system so the warrants can be acted upon by local police officers within their established criminal enforcement authority and training.

M.C.C. member agencies are united in their commitment to continue arresting anyone who violates the criminal laws of their jurisdictions regardless of the immigration status of the perpetrator. Those individuals, regardless of their citizenship status, who commit criminal acts will find no safe harbor or sanctuary from their criminal violations of the law within any major city but will instead face the full force of criminal prosecution.

Major Cities Chiefs Association
Gun Policy Positions
October, 2011

The Major Cities Chiefs Association (MCCA) has been a strong advocate for sensible gun policy for many years and has taken positions on a wide range of issues. The positions that MCCA have adopted in the past and several additional areas were discussed by the membership at the Sun Valley meeting (June, 2011) and by the Board of Directors at their meeting in August, 2011. Based on these discussions the Board recommends that MCCA reaffirm current positions and four additional points.

Current MCCA gun policy positions:

- Ban high capacity magazines (10+ rounds)
- Require unlicensed private background dealers to do background checks at gun shows
- Reinstate the assault weapons ban
- Support legislation to restore ATF authority to do their job including trace data sharing
- Oppose legislation that further erodes ATF authority
- Oppose legislation that would require states to recognize other concealed carry permits

Recommended additional gun policy positions:

- Encourage aggressive federal prosecution of violent offenders using guns
Conviction in Federal Court generally results in stronger sanctions, removes the offenders from the streets and serves as a deterrent.
- Harsher penalties and prosecution of straw purchasers
Straw purchasers are responsible for putting a substantial number of guns on the streets of America that are used in criminal acts. More aggressive prosecution with strong penalties would hold them accountable and act as a deterrent.
- Strengthen the national criminal instant background check system
The background check system does not have complete data at the current time. Mental health information, for example, is incomplete. The system needs to be improved.
- Mandatory registration/permits for firearms with revocation should the person become ineligible for criminal or mental stability reasons
There is little ability to track individuals with carry permits that have become ineligible – a registration/permit system would provide the information needed to ensure persons no longer eligible are removed from the program.

For Consideration by the

Fight Crime by Investing in Kids

WHEREAS, law enforcement leaders are dedicated to public safety; and

WHEREAS, the members of the Major Cities Chiefs Association work continuously to fight crime and remove dangerous criminals from our communities; and

WHEREAS, rigorous scientific research and our years of experience on the front lines of fighting crime show that we can greatly reduce crime by: (1) providing all families with access to high-quality early care and education for kids from birth to age five; (2) offering voluntary parent coaching to at-risk parents of young children through home visiting or other options proven to prevent child abuse and neglect; (3) ensuring all school-age children and youth have access to effective programs during school hours and after school to keep them on track; and (4) identifying troubled and delinquent kids and providing them and their parents effective interventions so the child will avoid a life of crime;

WHEREAS, investments like these more than pay for themselves in reduced crime and associated costs, reduced welfare and remedial education costs, and the increased revenue generated by the increased productivity of future workers; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that the Major Cities Chiefs Association calls on all public officials to fully fund the crime prevention programs cited in the FIGHT CRIME: INVEST IN KIDS Plan to Prevent Crime and Violence, including quality early education and child care, effective programs during school hours and after school, programs that help get troubled kids back on track, and programs proven to improve deficient parenting and prevent child abuse and neglect.

Overview of the Major Cities Intelligence Commanders Group

Purpose: The Major Cities Chiefs Association's (MCCA) Major Cities Intelligence Commanders Group (MCICG) assists the MCCA in strengthening and coordinating the intelligence capabilities and operations of law enforcement agencies in the major metropolitan areas of the United States and Canada to prevent and disrupt criminal activities and terrorism while protecting privacy, civil rights, and civil liberties. The MCICG also collaborates with federal agencies and state and major urban area fusion centers to increase and enhance information and intelligence sharing efforts nationwide.

Partnerships: In 2010, federal partners, including the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS) and the U.S. Department of Justice's (DOJ) Bureau of Justice Assistance, collaborated with the MCICG to support the group in accomplishing its purpose. Because of this partnership, regular MCICG meetings began in 2010 and will continue throughout 2012.

The agenda topics for these meetings have included understanding the current threat environment and local implications; discussing lessons learned from recent terrorist attacks; discussing emerging issues affecting local law enforcement; identifying methods to better communicate among major cities police departments; identifying processes to institutionalize the role of the MCICG, such as convening regular conference calls, developing a Web site, and creating a special-interest group on DHS's Homeland Security Information Network (HSIN); and establishing subcommittees and task teams charged with implementing, via guidance papers and recommendations, the issues and concerns identified by MCICG members during these meetings.

Historical Activities: The MCICG has been involved in a number of national activities and initiatives over the last two years. These activities include:

- In 2010, the MCICG began to have regular threat updates from both DHS and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. These updates include overviews of the international and domestic threat environment, cyber-security threats, and an update on the events surrounding the Southwest Border.
- In April 2010, the MCICG recommended working with the Homeland Security Advisory Committee to create a Countering Violent Extremism Working Group.
  - The working group was established in the spring of 2010.
- In July 2010, the MCICG provided recommendations and feedback to DHS regarding the development and dissemination of intelligence products and services.
- In October 2010, MCICG recommended the development of a portal on the HSIN to improve communication and collaboration among MCICG members. This portal was completed and released in 2011. The MCICG also developed a formal recommendation to work with the National Fusion Center Association to develop surveys regarding current information sharing capabilities between fusion centers and major cities intelligence units.

- In April 2011, the MCICG discussed the need to create a national criminal intelligence enterprise, create a formalized request for information (RFI) form, develop educational materials for new MCICG members, and complete a current national domestic threat assessment (as a part of the national criminal intelligence enterprise).

Current Efforts and Initiatives: The MCICG, in partnership with DHS and DOJ, convenes meetings approximately three times a year to discuss information sharing initiatives and the current threat environment and develop guidance on how to improve information and intelligence sharing at all levels of law enforcement. Additionally, the MCICG, in collaboration with DHS, holds regular conference calls to update the membership on current national initiatives and receive status updates on MCICG products and initiatives.

The current initiatives the MCICG is focused on include:

- Creating a National Criminal Intelligence Enterprise (NCIE) incorporating major cities intelligence divisions, fusion centers, and federal partners. The NCIE will be created collaboratively with federal partners and the Criminal Intelligence Coordinating Council.
- Developing a standardized RFI form and process that can be utilized by intelligence units and fusion centers to increase information sharing and collaboration.
- Identifying and implementing recommendations resulting from fusion center and MCICG surveys that focused on increasing collaboration among fusion center and major cities intelligence units.
- Continued communication among MCICG members via the HSIN Web portal, conference calls, and distribution lists.
- Continued training for intelligence commanders, investigators, and analysts.

Major City Chiefs

National Criminal Intelligence Enterprise

It is moved that Major Cities Chiefs (MCC) establish the National Criminal Intelligence Enterprise (NCIE). This motion establishes a national network of criminal intelligence and counter-terrorism practitioners and adopts an operational organization integrated with respective fusion centers.

Each Chief shall direct staff to develop:

- a. *Mission Statement for their Criminal Intelligence-Counter Terrorism Unit that encompasses terrorism and organized criminal activity;
- b. *Determine the regional threat domain and prepare a Threat Domain Assessment Report, Standing Information Needs (SINs), and a formal threat based collection plan driven by Prioritized Information Needs (PIN's);
- c. *Create policy that protects civil rights and liberties through the adoption of intelligence guidelines and oversight by the Major City Chiefs Intelligence Commanders Group; and
- d. *Select or establish a communications network for regular sharing of operational information and intelligence.

The objective is to develop a better understanding of regional threat domains, complement the capabilities of the FBI and DHS, and fulfill the objective of state and local law enforcement to prevent crime.

More detailed information regarding the incident in Houston.

S/TX, Houston, Harris County, Texas: On November 21, 2011, at approximately 1710 hours DUSM's were leaving work (Houston Federal Courthouse) when they heard gunshots fire coming across the street at Tranquility Park where Occupy Houston Protesters were gathered. DUSM's along with the Houston Police Department made the scene of where the gunshots came from and encountered a white male subject later identified as [REDACTED], DOB: [REDACTED]. Subject had a .40 caliber long rifle pointed at himself and immediately pointed it over at the HPD Officers. HPD Officers discharged their weapons in an attempt to stop the threat striking the subject multiple times. Subject was subdued by HPD Officers and DUSM's and transported by EMS to the nearest hospital. The Houston Police Department is conducting the shooting investigation. The USMS and Federal Protective Service will assess the situation and currently there is no link between the incident and the federal building.

From: Tom Cochran, CEO and Executive Director

Yesterday Conference leaders held a conference call to share information on the impact the Occupy Movement is having on cities and on how cities are responding to it. The mayors felt that it would be helpful to gather information from a broader group of cities on the city government costs associated with Occupy-related events, issues which are arising, and strategies which are being employed.

We ask that you provide responses to our three brief questions as quickly as possible. Please have the appropriate person on your staff go to <http://www.usmayors.org/occupymovement> and answer these questions. We ask that cities respond as soon as possible and by close of business Tuesday, October 18. At that time we will do our first compilation of the data received.

You will be able to submit additional data after Tuesday, however, and we encourage you to do so that we can maintain and provide timely information on the impact of the Occupy Movement on cities.

As always, thanks for your help. If you have any questions, please contact the Conference's Director of Public Safety, Laura DeKoven Waxman, at lwaxman@usmayors.org or (202) 861-6754.

- MPD is currently taking a very cooperative approach to dealing with this group. The worldwide "Occupy" movement is looking for a city to bring attention to its cause and become the focal point of the movement. This would be accomplished, as we have seen in New York, through clashes with local law enforcement and would most likely result with far greater numbers coming to occupy that jurisdiction.

On Wednesday Conference leaders, police executives, and city attorneys held a third conference call to share information on the impact the Occupy Movement is having on cities and on how cities are responding to it. Our conference calls on the Occupy Movement are similar to other calls the Conference has held, and will continue to hold, on issues important to cities.

During Wednesday's call we discussed the need to continue to gather information from all cities which have had Occupy Movement demonstrations on city government costs associated with Occupy-related events, issues which are arising, the people who are demonstrating, and strategies which cities are employing to accommodate the demonstrators and respect their right to free speech and at same time assure that basic public health and safety needs are met.

We ask that you provide responses to our four brief questions as quickly as possible. Please have the appropriate person on your staff go to <http://www.usmayors.org/occupymovement> and answer these questions. This will be an on-going process, and we ask that your staff return to the survey and provide updated information as it becomes available. Any information which your city provided previously to our survey will remain in the system and be part of any report we produce. Be assured that that report will not attribute information to any individual city.

As always, thanks for your help. If you have any questions, please contact the Conference's Director of Public Safety, Laura DeKoven Waxman, at lwaxman@usmayors.org or (202) 861-6754.

Good Afternoon, Deputy Mayor and Chief Lanier,

Mayor Gray is unable to attend this important meeting of the United States Conference of Mayors on November 16, 2011.

The Mayor and Chris would like both of you to represent him at this meeting.

Please confirm at your earliest convenience that you are able to attend.

I will be advancing this meeting and will have additional details soon.

Thank you and please let me know if you need any additional information or assistance.

Sincerely,

TO: The Mayor

FROM: Tom Cochran, CEO and Executive Director

On behalf of Philadelphia Mayor Michael A. Nutter, Conference Vice President and Chair of our Mayors and Police Chiefs Task Force, I invite you and your police chief to participate in a meeting on the impact of the Occupy Movement in cities and strategies to respond to it. The Major Cities Chiefs organization is co-sponsoring this meeting with The U.S. Conference of Mayors.

WHAT: Mayors and Police Chiefs Meeting on Occupy Movement

WHERE: Washington, DC (meeting location TBA)

DATE: Wednesday, November 16

TIME: 12:00 noon to 4:00pm, with lunch provided at 11:30am

Please register yourself and your police chief by going to: <http://usmayors.org/MayorsandPoliceChiefs>

The November 16 meeting will provide an opportunity for a face-to-face discussion among mayors and police chiefs about what has been happening in cities, issues that have arisen, and strategies you are employing to respond. The meeting will also provide you an opportunity to discuss what cities can expect in the future, and the best ways to minimize any problems.

If you have any questions, please contact my Director of Public Safety Laura DeKoven Waxman at lwaxman@usmayors.org or (202) 861-6754.

To: The Mayor

From: Tom Cochran, CEO and Executive Director

Late Thursday afternoon we held a very informative conference call of mayors and police executives on the Occupy Movement led by Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter, Chair of our Task Force of Mayors and Police Chiefs. It was decided during the call that our meeting planned for November 16 in Washington will be a conference call instead. This will enable more mayors and police chiefs from across the country to participate in the discussion, sharing information about the situation in their cities, their concerns, and the strategies that are working.

We also agreed that the Conference of Mayors will host regular conference calls of mayors and police chiefs on the impact of the Occupy Movement in cities for as long as we need to.

The call will take place at 2:00pm Eastern. The call-in number is (800) 569-1949; the access code is 535498#.
Please email Conference Director of Public Safety Laura DeKoven Waxman at lwaxman@usmayors.org if you plan to be on the call. Also please feel free direct any questions about this to Laura.

Plans For All-Day “Mass Non-Violent Direct Action” On November 17th

In light of demonstrations planned for Thursday, November 17, 2011, security personnel should be alert to the possibility of acts of trespass, property damage, and vandalism occurring on or in the vicinity of their property. In particular, security personnel should pay special attention to public spaces on their property, adhere to proper protocols for processing employees and visitors, and promptly report to the Police Department actions that involve unlawful conduct or implicate public safety.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

- Demonstrations are scheduled to take place in multiple locations throughout the five boroughs of New York City on Thursday, November 17th.
- Stated locations for mass demonstrations include the New York Stock Exchange and Foley Square.
- Goals of the demonstrations include occupying subway trains, bridges in New York City, and Foley Square.
- Advertisements for the demonstrations are being disseminated on various websites, online forums, social media groups, and blogs associated with the hacking group Anonymous, and the event has already received coverage in mainstream media sources.

BACKGROUND

Recently, posts appeared on websites associated with groups engaged in protests in New York City and other cities announcing all-day citywide public demonstrations on Thursday, November 17th. The demonstrations, labeled the day of Mass Non-Violent Direct Action!, are being heavily publicized and have three goals: 1) Shut Down Wall Street; 2) Occupy The Subways; and 3) Take The Square (referring to Foley Square). Organizers of the planned demonstration hope that many thousands of people will participate. Although the planned demonstrations call for non-violent direct action, in recent weeks protests in other cities in the United States and Europe have led to riots, clashes with law enforcement, physical assaults, and property damage.

NYPD SHIELD Assessment

I know the Freedom Plaza folks worked with Park Service officials to get approval for some enhancements as the cold weather comes upon them. I'm copying D/C MacLean in case this is new information.

Subject: Occupy Just Demonstrated in front of US Conference of Mayors Offices- Philadelphia Mayor to be Here Tomorrow

Lieutenant Morgan:

A little while ago a fairly large contingent (probably more than 100) demonstrators marched down Eye Street (with police escort), stopped in front of 1620 Eye Street where our offices are located for about 5-10 minutes facing our way, and then moved on. We couldn't hear what they were chanting, but I thought I heard the word mayor. Today a blog misrepresented some remarks made by Oakland Mayor Jean Quan in an interview with the BBC and said mayors were having conference calls to coordinate crackdown on Occupy movement. We've had numerous press calls and gotten lots of tweets as a result. We have responded to the press inquiries explaining what the calls are about. We're not surprised, however, to have become a target.

I'm writing you about this because tomorrow Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter will be in our offices from around 1:30 PM until about 2:45 PM to conduct the conference call of mayors and police chiefs. We have alerted his office and also the building management. The demonstrators appeared peaceful tonight. We have no way of knowing if they will return tomorrow, and if they do no reason to expect they will be anything but peaceful, but we are a bit concerned since the Mayor will be in the building. He often travels with a police officer, but we don't know for sure that he will tomorrow. Any intelligence the MPD has on their planned movements tomorrow or help you can provide should we need it would be appreciated.

Thanks,
Laura

The Occupy Movement is active in a number of cities across the US – most are major cities. We are trying to compile a list of the cities that currently have a group engaged in protests, an estimate of the numbers, how long they have been protesting and if there have been any problems, arrests, violence etc. We have placed this on our Round Table Discussion in Chicago on the afternoon of October 22, 2011.

Please respond as soon as you can. If a group starts up in your city we would like to know that as well.

Look forward to seeing you in Chicago.

To: The Mayor

From: Tom Cochran, CEO and Executive Director

Our next conference call of mayors and police chiefs to share information on the Occupy Movement will be Tuesday, November 29 at 4:00 PM EST. Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter, Chair of our Task Force of Mayors and Police Chiefs, will lead the call which will provide an opportunity to share information on what is currently happening in cities and how city officials are accommodating the demonstrators and at the same time maintaining public health and safety.

The call-in number is 1-866-642-1665; the access code is 1236987#.

Please email Conference Director of Public Safety Laura DeKoven Waxman at lwaxman@usmayors.org if you plan to be on the call. Also please feel free direct any questions about this to Laura.

SURVEY REMINDER

All cities have been asked to participate in a survey the Conference is conducting on the impact of the Occupy Movement on cities. If you have not done so already, we ask that you provide responses to our four brief questions as quickly as possible. Please have the appropriate person on your staff go to <http://www.usmayors.org/occupymovement> and answer these questions. This will be an on-going process, and we ask that your staff return to the survey and provide updated information as it becomes available. Any information which your city provided previously to our survey will remain in the system and be part of any report we produce. Be assured that that report will not attribute information to any individual city.

1. To date, how much has your city government spent responding to Occupy-related events? *This question is required

a. What is the estimated dollar amount of extra costs (police overtime, extra trash pick-ups, etc.) associated with the Occupy-related events?

Due to the jurisdictional boundaries of the Occupy DC movement, the two parks that are being utilized by the protestors are the responsibility of the National Park Service. However, the area surrounding the parks are the responsibility of the District of Columbia. Both the District of Columbia and the surrounding business association has had to increase trash collection in the area.

The police overtime has been estimated at $55,000.

b. What is the estimated dollar amount of Occupy-related costs absorbed by your city's regular activities (police straight time, permitting, etc.)? *This question is required

The approximate cost of on-duty police coverage provided to the Occupy DC movement since October 6, 2011 is $1.05M.

2. Please identify any major issues relating to Occupy-related events in your city. (This might include impact on public safety, local businesses, traffic, public transportation, permitting, availability of public spaces, public health, etc.) *This question is required

During the demonstrations we have experienced the common tactics utilized by these types of demonstrations:

Spontaneous marches

Chanting in front of government/private buildings that specialize in commerce, banking and general government services

Periodic marching in the streets causing minor delays in traffic

Surrounding buildings, attempting to block entrances and exits.

Aggressively challenging citizens attending political events.

Challenging police directives and taunting officers
Blocking traffic

Other Issues Developing in the Parks:

Illness among protestors. Seeing this among other occupy movements.

Sanitary conditions in the park

A large portion of the demonstrators are now mental health consumers and homeless from the local and surrounding areas. Most original occupiers have left. Largely homeless population remaining.

Most all overnighers are homeless from around DC and regional area

A number of businesses in the areas of the parks and business organizations have complained about Occupy members utilizing their restrooms as bathing facilities.

3. Has the composition of the people involved in the Occupy-related events in your city changed?

Yes

If yes, please describe how they have changed in terms of who they are and what their intentions for the demonstrations are.

D.C. Occupation movement began on Thursday, October 6, 2011, when the coalition of anti-war and anti-corporation groups began holding anti-war and economic rallies opposing the United States military's involvement within Afghanistan and the current financial situation. There were two different locations where the rallies took place; Freedom Plaza and McPherson Square. Since this date, a lot of the original organizers have left and an ad-hoc organization, especially in McPherson square.

4. Please describe any strategies or tactics your city is employing in responding to Occupy-related events, including an assessment of their effectiveness if possible.

The Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) has been deploying personnel to manage marches and to provide protection to the targeted venues. When it was apparent that some marches were becoming non-compliant, crowd management formations were utilized and a meeting was established with both parks' occupants to discuss acceptable behavior and to provide a handout on having a peaceful demonstration in DC.

To: The Mayor

From: Tom Cochran, CEO and Executive Director

Our next conference call of mayors and police chiefs to share information on the Occupy Movement will be Tuesday, November 29 at 4:00 PM EST. Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter, Chair of our Task Force of Mayors and Police Chiefs, will lead the call which will provide an opportunity to share information on what is currently happening in cities and how city officials are accommodating the demonstrators and at the same time maintaining public health and safety.

The call-in number is 1-866-642-1665; the access code is 1236987#.

Please email Conference Director of Public Safety Laura DeKoven Waxman at lwaxman@usmayors.org if you plan to be on the call. Also please feel free direct any questions about this to Laura.

SURVEY REMINDER

All cities have been asked to participate in a survey the Conference is conducting on the impact of the Occupy Movement on cities. If you have not done so already, we ask that you provide responses to our four brief questions as quickly as possible. Please have the appropriate person on your staff go to <http://www.usmayors.org/occupymovement> and answer these questions. This will be an on-going process, and we ask that your staff return to the survey and provide updated information as it becomes available. Any information which your city provided previously to our survey will remain in the system and be part of any report we produce. Be assured that that report will not attribute information to any individual city.

1. To date, how much has your city government spent responding to Occupy-related events? *This question is required

a. What is the estimated dollar amount of extra costs (police overtime, extra trash pick-ups, etc.) associated with the Occupy-related events?

Due to the jurisdictional boundaries of the Occupy DC movement, the two parks that are being utilized by the protestors are the responsibility of the National Park Service. However, the area surrounding the parks are the responsibility of the District of Columbia. Both the District of Columbia and the surrounding business association has had to increase trash collection in the area.

The police overtime has been estimated at $55,000.

b. What is the estimated dollar amount of Occupy-related costs absorbed by your city's regular activities (police straight time, permitting, etc.)? *This question is required

The approximate cost of on-duty police coverage provided to the Occupy DC movement since October 6, 2011 is $1.05M.

2. Please identify any major issues relating to Occupy-related events in your city. (This might include impact on public safety, local businesses, traffic, public transportation, permitting, availability of public spaces, public health, etc.) *This question is required

During the demonstrations we have experienced the common tactics utilized by these types of demonstrations:

Spontaneous marches

Chanting in front of government/private buildings that specialize in commerce, banking and general government services

Periodic marching in the streets causing minor delays in traffic

Surrounding buildings, attempting to block entrances and exits.

Aggressively challenging citizens attending political events.

Challenging police directives and taunting officers
Blocking traffic

Other Issues Developing in the Parks:

Illness among protestors. Seeing this among other occupy movements.

Sanitary conditions in the park

A large portion of the demonstrators are now mental health consumers and homeless from the local and surrounding areas. Most original occupiers have left. Largely homeless population remaining.

Most all overnighers are homeless from around DC and regional area

A number of businesses in the areas of the parks and business organizations have complained about Occupy members utilizing their restrooms as bathing facilities.

3. Has the composition of the people involved in the Occupy-related events in your city changed?

Yes

If yes, please describe how they have changed in terms of who they are and what their intentions for the demonstrations are.

D.C. Occupation movement began on Thursday, October 6, 2011, when the coalition of anti-war and anti-corporation groups began holding anti-war and economic rallies opposing the United States military's involvement within Afghanistan and the current financial situation. There were two different locations where the rallies took place; Freedom Plaza and McPherson Square. Since this date, a lot of the original organizers have left and an ad-hoc organization, especially in McPherson square.

4. Please describe any strategies or tactics your city is employing in responding to Occupy-related events, including an assessment of their effectiveness if possible.

The Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) has been deploying personnel to manage marches and to provide protection to the targeted venues. When it was apparent that some marches were becoming non-compliant, crowd management formations were utilized and a meeting was established with both parks' occupants to discuss acceptable behavior and to provide a handout on having a peaceful demonstration in DC.

Responding for Nashville, TN.

The group(s) have been primarily active in a large open area immediately outside the state legislative plaza area in downtown Nashville. Being state property, this is policed by the Tennessee Highway Patrol. At this moment, there are less than 15-20. The group has ranged in size up to 200+.

Smaller groups have walked to or met at other locations close to downtown or in a large park a few miles from downtown. These groups have been monitored by the precinct commanders and other support elements.

No significant issues have occurred and no arrests directly related to the protests have been made.

The event continues to focus at the legislative plaza area and the MNPDP is supporting the Highway Patrol as necessary while also closely monitoring other areas and available information.

Subject: Occupy Movement

The Occupy Movement is active in a number of cities across the US most are major cities. We are trying to compile a list of the cities that currently have a group engaged in protests, an estimate of the numbers, how long they have been protesting and if there have been any problems, arrests, violence etc. We have placed this on our Round Table Discussion in Chicago on the afternoon of October 22, 2011.

Please respond as soon as you can. If a group starts up in your city we would like to know that as well.

Look forward to seeing you in Chicago.

Occupy Movement Update – November 20, 2011

The updates are mostly from news accounts and are shown in italics. Non-italicized print indicates the update was from the department. There have been a number of cities over the past week that have evicted the “occupiers” from public spaces and arrests have been made in an increasing number of cities. There are a growing number of court challenges in the US and Canada – those have been highlighted so they are easily identified.

City Officials Consider First Amendment Rights, Public Safety Needs For Occupy Protests.

USA Today (11/15, Diblasio) reports, “The debate between public safety and First Amendment rights could be reaching a breaking point in the Occupy Wall Street protests, as police and government officials respond to reports of violence, vandalism, death and illness and seek to shut down some camps.” Occupy protesters believe that “individual incidents will be used as leverage to deny their freedom of speech and displace them with curfew ordinances,” but city officials argue that “public safety needs to be balanced with those rights.” First Amendment attorney Lawrence Walters says that “more evidence that we see of problems in the way of safety and health concerns, the more ammunition the government has to support enforcement of the curfew ordinances.” USA Today notes several incidents in Oakland, Philadelphia, and Oregon where police have either evicted or challenged protesters due to safety concerns.

Canada

Calgary Herald 11/19/2011. On the same day an Ontario judge tore into the arguments of a group of Occupy protesters who say their Toronto tent city is a legitimate exercise of its constitutionally guaranteed freedom of expression, B.C. courts ordered the demise of protest camps in Vancouver and Victoria. However, B.C. Supreme Court Justice Terence Schultes declined to order an enforcement clause, requested by the City of Victoria, which would give police the authority to arrest or detain those who refuse to comply. In Vancouver, B.C. Supreme Court Associate Chief Justice Anne MacKenzie granted the city's application for an interim injunction to shut down Occupy Vancouver's tent city, saying she found the city trespass bylaw had been breached. (See Toronto below)

Boston

November 16, 2011 New York Times — A judge granted a temporary order on Wednesday requiring the city to refrain from any police action to evict the Occupy Boston demonstrators from Dewey Square, where a small city of about 150 tents has functioned for a month and a half. Judge Frances A. McIntyre, citing the protesters’ right to free speech in her decision, said the city would need a court order in order to evict protesters, unless there are emergent circumstances like a fire, medical emergency or outbreak of violence. “What the plaintiffs can point to is that abridgment of First Amendment rights is irreparable harm,” Judge McIntyre said.

While police officers have raided protest sites in cities like New York, Oakland, Calif., and Portland, Ore., law enforcement in Boston has been relatively tolerant of the original encampment, although an attempt last month to expand the camp there was met with more than 140 arrests. City officials say that, although they are monitoring the demonstration daily, they have no plans to move in on the camp in Dewey Square, which is a public park.

Chicago

Occupy Chicago Protesters Gain Clout Without Permanent Encampment. The Huffington Post (11/16, Cassello) reports that as Occupy Chicago enters its second month, "its visible presence on the streets may have diminished, but its influence and reach has grown." Chicago police "evicted and arrested supporters of Occupy Chicago in Grant Park for the second time" three months ago, but while other cities' demonstrations have "been suppressed violently with batons, tear gas, rubber bullets, and concussion grenades, Occupy Chicago's encampment was dismantled without a single instance of violence." Occupy protesters held a "round of failed talks" with the Mayor's office, deciding to not establish a permanent encampment downtown. They instead chose to "maintain a 24-hour presence at the intersection of Jackson and LaSalle and worked to strengthen their outreach into the community," hosting teach-ins and protesting "union-busting Wisconsin Governor Scott Walker at an upscale breakfast in the Union League Club of Chicago."

Dallas

(AP) (11/17/2011)— Police evicted dozens of Occupy Dallas protesters from their campsite near City Hall early Thursday citing public safety and hygiene issues, and arrested 18 who refused to leave. Frank Libro, a spokesman for the city, said police made several announcements advising the demonstrators to pick up their belongings and clear the site, and that those who refused were taken into custody. The police did not report any charges against those arrested. No one resisted arrest and no injuries were reported, Libro said. After the eviction, scattered personal objects and tents remained at the site where some 40 people had been camped. Libro said authorities were helping homeless Occupy Dallas protesters to find shelter. U.S. District Judge Jane Boyle on Tuesday declined an Occupy Dallas request to issue a temporary restraining order to block any removal of demonstrators.

Detroit

Occupy Detroit Protesters Ask For Two-Week Permit Extension To Move Encampment. The Detroit Free Press (11/15, Satyanarayana) reports Occupy Detroit representatives have asked Detroit city officials for a two-week permit extension "to break down their camp at Grand Circus Park and move it to a building in Southwest Detroit" as their 30-day permit is prepared to expire at 10 pm. The protesters "took over Grand Circus Park in mid-October, setting up a tent city and protesting in a mostly peaceful way against what participants believe is income inequality between America's mostly wealthy 1% and everyone else." The Free Press notes that "the request was rolled onto the agenda for the Committee of the Whole meeting before paperwork was filed."

Hennepin County, Minnesota

Enact Sleeping Ban For Occupy Minnesota Protesters. The Minnesota Public Radio (11/15, Shenoy) reports, "New rules involving anti-Wall Street protests at the Hennepin County Government Plaza go into effect Monday to ban sleeping in the plaza, taping signs to county property and leaving personal items unattended." Hennepin County Board Chair Mike Opat said, "What we're trying to get at is people coming down to live on the campus. That's not protesting. That's something else." The protesters claim that "new rules improperly restrict First Amendment rights. But Opat says the Constitution doesn't prohibit rules to preserve public safety."

Las Vegas

Occupy Federal Building. Attendees: Approximately 65. Arrests: 20. This protest was the first event where Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department arrested Occupy protestors. Protesters started arriving at the location at approximately 0700 hours, holding signs and demonstrating in front of the building. At approximately 1000 hours, almost the entire group stood in the street (Las Vegas Blvd) chanting. Once LVMPD issued a verbal warning, all but approximately 20 stayed and sat down in the roadway. After repeated warnings, the 20 protesters were taken into custody, loaded on a jail bus, and transported to Cashman Center.

Long Beach

Occupy Long Beach has consistently involved approximately 5 core individuals supplemented by 25-35 homeless that have been recruited. During the day the group mans a small canopy distributing flyers to those passing by. Occasionally they will put up a tent or two in Lincoln Park during the day. Due to a City ordinance closing the park at 10 PM, protesters vacate the park each night and they generally do so without argument. Transients and the occupiers then sleep on the sidewalk adjacent to the park until morning; after 6 AM, they move back into the park.

Occupy Long Beach has been attempting to have the City ordinance amended to allow them a Free Speech zone in the park 24/7. City Council addressed the issue during the November 15, 2011, Council Meeting. Council deferred a vote on the issue until they receive additional information on the impact of changing the ordinance. This impact information was requested from the Police Department, the Health Department, and the Department of Parks, Recreation & Marine. The Council requested that the report be completed for the Council Meeting scheduled for December 6, 2011.

New Orleans

(ICMA Briefing) The New Orleans Times-Picayune (11/18) reports that about a dozen Occupy NOLA "entered New Orleans City Hall late Thursday morning to find themselves far outnumbered by uniformed and plainclothes police officers on hand to keep an eye on them." The protesters proclaimed "they would hold a sit-in," but were surprised the building was "nearly filled with uniformed military personnel on hand for the council's annual salute to the armed forces and the economic importance of local military bases." They were quiet for most of the "Military Day" program, but one protester, "noting the presence on the consent agenda of an item dealing with "cultural residency accommodations," took the opportunity to request to address the council on housing issues." The Times-Picayune noted that "Mayor Mitch Landrieu hinted this week that Occupy NOLA's days in Duncan Plaza, which is across the street from City Hall, may be limited."

New York

Police Clear Zuccotti Park of Protesters, November 15, 2011. (New York Times) Hundreds of police officers early Tuesday cleared the park in Lower Manhattan that had been the nexus of the Occupy Wall Street movement, arresting dozens of people there after warning that the nearly two-month-old camp would be "cleared and restored" but that demonstrators who did not leave would face arrest.

Mayor Michael R. Bloomberg, who scheduled a news conference for Tuesday morning, had issued a statement explaining the reasoning behind the sweep. "The law that created Zuccotti Park required that it be open for the public to enjoy for passive recreation 24 hours a day," the mayor said in the statement. "Every since the occupation began, that law has not been complied with" because the protesters had taken over the park, "making it unavailable to anyone else."

The operation to clear the park had begun near the Brooklyn Bridge, where the police gathered before moving on to surround the park. The protesters rallied around an area known as the kitchen, near the middle of the park, and began putting up makeshift barricades with tables and pieces of scrap wood.

By 3 a.m., dozens of officers in helmets, watched over by Police Commissioner Raymond W. Kelly, closed in on those who remained. The police pulled them out one by one and handcuffed them. Most were led out without incident. The Police Department's chief spokesman, Paul J. Browne, told The Associated Press that 70 people had been arrested in the park, including some who had chained themselves together.

The police move came as organizers put out word on their Web site that they planned to "shut down Wall Street" with a demonstration on Thursday to commemorate the completion of two months of the beginning of the encampment, which has spurred similar demonstrations across the country.

USA Today (11/17/2011)A crowd of several hundred protesters marched from Zuccotti Park in Lower Manhattan to the New York Stock Exchange a few blocks away on Thursday as Occupy Wall Street demonstrators across the country promised mass gatherings to mark the movement's two-month anniversary. Lines of helmeted police, some on horseback, blocked every approach to the financial district in New York. Several streets in the area were closed. The demonstrators chanted "Shut down wall street!" and carried signs, such as "Tax Wall Street" and "Why Wait for Permission to Claim Freedom? Occupy Your Mind."

Police said about 75 were arrested, including a woman in a wheelchair who was trying to block traffic. There was some minor scuffling as those arrested refused to walk and were carried away. Protesters had to break into two groups as they encountered police at each intersection leading to the exchange. Broadway was closed because of snarling traffic.

OAKLAND

Police Clear Occupy Oakland Encampment, but Protesters Return. November 14, 2011

— Protesters returned to a downtown plaza Monday evening, after hundreds of police officers raided the Occupy Oakland encampment there early Monday, arresting 33 people and flattening tents.

The police action came after city officials had issued several warnings for protesters to abandon the camp in the wake of a fatal shooting near it last week. The raid was the second on the encampment, at Frank H. Ogawa Plaza, one of hundreds of tent cities around the country inspired by Occupy Wall Street.

Despite increasing tensions between Oakland officials and the campers, there were no injuries Monday morning. City employees worked to clear the plaza of tents, tarps and other belongings. At a news conference, Mayor Jean Quan said dismantling the encampment was necessary to protect protesters, citizens and nearby businesses. "We had to bring the camp to an end before more people were hurt," she said.

City officials reopened the plaza Monday night and hundreds of protesters regrouped in their former campsite. The police said camping or sleeping there would be strictly prohibited. "There will be a strong police presence at the plaza 24-7," said Chief Howard Jordan of the Oakland Police Department. A satellite camp in nearby Snow Park has swelled in recent days to about 30 tents, which the police say they will clear out.

Judge won't issue restraining order against Oakland Police Mercury News.com November 17, temporary restraining order to keep Oakland police from using excessive force in violation of their own crowd-control policies.

The American Civil Liberties Union of Northern California and the National Lawyers Guild had sued the Oakland Police Department on Monday on behalf of Timothy Scott Campbell, a videographer who was shot with a beanbag projectile while filming police presence during Occupy Oakland on the morning of Nov. 3, and other demonstrators who say they were subjected to excessive force during recent protests.

U.S. District Judge Richard Seeborg directed the parties to file briefs before appearing at a Nov. 30 hearing on whether a preliminary injunction should be issued. But in his ruling Wednesday, Seeborg said issuing a temporary restraining order now would require him to supervise and oversee the Oakland police's compliance pending further hearings, and even if everything the plaintiffs claim in their lawsuit is true, they haven't satisfied the legal standards "for such an expansive and unfettered order."

Philadelphia

Occupy Philadelphia Protesters Meet With City Officials. The Philadelphia Inquirer (11/16, Gambacorta) reports, "Members of the Occupy Philly movement lashed out at the city on Monday, saying Mayor Nutter and other officials have been exaggerating the conditions at Dilworth Plaza in an attempt to paint the occupiers in a bad light." Yet before there were increased hostilities, "word leaked that members of Occupy Philly's 'Reasonable Solutions People' met with city officials at a neutral site to discuss some non-confrontational ways to move forward - just as rumors spread that the city was inching closer to sweeping the occupiers out of the plaza" Mayoral spokesman Mark McDonald said that "eviction rumors were just that – rumors," and the city had no plans or a deadline for the protesters to clear out of the Plaza.

Officers arrested 24 protesters (11/17/2011) 17 men 7 women at Market Street bridge blocking traffic. Very peaceful no problems (they told us in advance they wanted to be arrested). City has given notice that they must vacate the encampment at City Hall to allow planned construction work to begin. No date for the move has been set.

Portland

Police Clash With Occupy Portland, Oregon, Protesters. The AP (11/14) reports several hundred Occupy Portland protesters, "some wearing goggles and gas masks, marched past authorities in a downtown street Sunday, hours after riot police drove Occupy Portland demonstrators out of a pair of weeks-old encampments in nearby parks." The protesters were defying Mayor Sam Adams' order that their encampment be shut down Saturday at midnight, "citing unhealthy conditions and the encampment's attraction of drug users and thieves." Hours after the eviction deadline, "the anti-Wall Street protesters and their supporters had flooded the park area even as authorities in other cities across the nation stepped up pressure against demonstrators, arresting dozens of people." An officer informed protesters on Sunday that those who resisted arrest "may also be subject to chemical agents and impact weapons."

San Francisco

November 16, 2011 New York Times. ...police in San Francisco arrested seven people and dismantled part of the demonstrators' downtown encampment Wednesday morning. The officers, dressed in riot gear, let stand most of the tents belonging to Occupy protesters, but cleared a section of tents that had been built on a sidewalk, according to The Associated Press. Across the bay at the University of California at Berkeley, protesters pitched tents on campus, despite a warning from university officials.

SALT LAKE CITY

Police arrested 19 people while clearing the Occupy Salt Lake tent city from Pioneer Park Saturday night, but the eviction was conducted largely without incident.

Participants were asked by police at sundown to take down their tents, pack their belongings and relocate. Most complied. Their belongings were taken to a private warehouse for temporary storage, as arranged by homeless advocate John Netto. He also organized transportation in
